Armistice Day Celebration a Success

The American Legion and the schools were much pleased at the spirit which was shown in Lowell last Friday. Members of both organizations had expressed a hope that the towns-people would enter into the celebration and the response was indeed gratifying. The Legion under the capable leadership of T. A. Gazella, appointed a committee consisting of N. Borgerson, O. Brezina and W. W. Gumsier. These men with the assistance of the commander and Dr. H. P. Gofredsen, adjutant, arranged with the Junior class of the High school under the direction of Miss Tyse, to fittingly observe the occasion. Letters were sent to parents telling them about the program. The business men graciously consented to close their places of business, the Board of Education co-operated by dismissing the schools shortly after the noon recess. All agencies co-operated to the full extent and the hall was crowded to capacity when the program was started at 1:30. Commander T. A. Gazella acted as chairman. Miss Rolter's High school orchestra played two numbers which were greatly appreciated. Rev. A. T. Cartland gave the invocation. Fred Hoyt gave a splendid interpretation to the poem "November 11." Walter Kropp told in a striking manner of the first Armistice day in Paris. He told of the spontaneous celebration in the great European City. For the first time in years, said the speaker, "Paris was lit up." We do not know just what he meant by this remark but we do remember that he said something about Paris being in total darkness to conceal the city from the enemy planes. It was a good speech. In giving a tribute to the Legion Helen Wittenbach expressed appreciation for what the boys in Khaki did in 1917-18, and she extolled the high purposes of the American Legion during the times of peace. Legionaire W. J. Smith responded in a fitting manner by reciting the gauntlet thrown down by the young citizenry. The members of the Junior class beautifully dramatized the theme of world peace. The old efforts establishing world peace were portrayed. An interesting proposed method was told in graphic form. Evelyn Yeiter and Albert Butterfield showed the difficulties that a dough boy experienced in France when he desired something to eat. Mr. Gumsier sang a solo and led the community singing. Mr. L. J. Lubbers, of Holland, gave the address. He stated that war is a relic of the barbaric ages and that there is no place for it in an enlightened civilization. Common people should do away with war by always thinking in terms of peace. Mr. Lubbers did not advocate the doing away of adequate protective agencies such as the army and navy and an adequate air force. The speech was well received. The program at the City hall was followed by a football game between Lowell and Grandville. In the evening there was a free dance in the City hall. There was an excellent crowd in attendance.

Fresh Air Campaign is Now On
"Fresh Air—Our Cheapest and Greatest Necessity" will be driven home with a bang by the Grand Rapids Anti-Tuberculosis League between November 14th and Thanksgiving Day. This educational movement has the hearty endorsement of the City and County Federation of Women's clubs and Parent-Teacher associations. Booklets explaining how to keep comfortable when sitting and sleeping in the open, and also some on better ventilation and less heat in our buildings have been distributed to all schools and various club groups, where addresses have been made on this subject. Leslie A. Butler, superintendent of schools, explained the campaign to a group of grade principals this week and urged their co-operation by stressing in their hygiene classes that open window sleeping is the most healthful. Village and rural teachers of grades 7 and 8 are showing such interest in the essay contest being sponsored by Kent County Council Parent-Teacher associations and Allen M. Freeland, school commissioner. The P. A. Council is planning to raise the prize money of $10.00, $5.00 and $3.00 by holding a rummage sale at 69 Division avenue, south, on November 12th and 14th, and a benefit card party on Thursday evening, Nov. 17th at Walker school, District No. 7, on West Bridge Road. "Does anybody in this day and age sleep with windows closed?" is the question asked me many times during this campaign. "Sure," people are highly intelligent and understanding. If they would peek around at bedroom windows in their respective neighborhoods, they would find many of them tightly closed during real cold weather. I always invite these questioners along on a health social service trip, so as to show them how other folk live. Closed, overheated houses and buildings are chiefly responsible for the frequent colds and other infections which attack us humans in the winter. Hot, stuffy rooms may be responsible for the way some of our girls have shed all their underclothing in late years, until we begin to wonder how little they will wear next year. Cooler, better, ventilated homes, offices, stores, schools and all buildings may go a long way toward solving this scummy dress problem and save cant bills hereafter. Blanche H. Rose.

Fifth District Legionnaires Held Good Meeting

In spite of the bad weather about one hundred Legionnaires from the Fifth district which is composed of the towns of Lowell and Kent counties. Delegates were present from Cedar Springs, Caledonia, Sparta, Saranac, Grand Rapids, and Zeeland. The Women's Auxiliary of the Lowell Post served a banquet at seven o'clock which was followed by a program and business meeting. Capt. Emil Gansser, of Grand Rapids, spoke on the Legion's duty in urging preparedness and in fighting the evil propaganda of the pacifist. Mr. Shivel, the welfare officer of this district, gave a very interesting talk on welfare work of the Legion and of the Legion's work in the community. Fr. Dow, in a very pleasing manner spoke of Legion service, taking the first words of the Preamble: "For God and Country" as his subject. Mr. Haus and Miss Rolter sang a duet and Mr. Gumsier, a solo, and Miss Olive and Miss Potter entertained with their "Gold Dust Twins Dance."

At the business meeting a committee was appointed to investigate the advisability of chartering a boat to carry the Fifth District delegates to the State convention at Poeskey next year. The next meeting will be held at Sports on Dec. 12, at which time the Auxiliary will also be invited. These meetings are always enthusiastic and it is hoped that a large delegation will go from here at that time.

LOWELL BOARD OF TRADE DINNER MEETING CITY HALL, MONDAY, NOV. 21.
At the request of several members who are unable to attend a noon-day meeting, the hour has been changed to 6:30 p. m. Dinner will be served by the ladies of the Triple C. circle of the Methodist church. Tickets will be offered for sale not later than Saturday, November 19. An interesting address by Vern E. Ashley will be the feature. Topic: "Spotted." As the end of the year is close at hand this meeting should be well attended. The Lowell Board of Trade labors for the welfare of this community, at all times. "Indifference, selfishness and lack of interest causes the downfall of nations and men." E. R. K.

A 300 POUND DRUNK.
John R. Boxwors, of Grand Rapids, was arrested Sunday night about a mile east of the Kent-Ionia county line. He was drunk and had two quarts of "moon" which he tried to sell to Saranac boys. The latter reported him to Ionia officers, who took him there. Deputy Sheriff Bowles lent his services in handling the booze victim who is said to weigh about 300 and so big that they nearly pulled his clothes off getting him out of his car. Pat says it was "some job."

JOHN HOWARD DREW $75 AND COSTS.
Village officers Gramer and Carr arrested John Howard and Henry Covert Nov. 10 for being drunk. The Justice court fined the former $75 and costs and placed him under bonds to keep the peace for one year. The latter got off for $10 and costs which a friend put up for him.

Revival Grows in Interest at Local Church

The revival meetings at The Church of the Nazarene, corner Avery and Washington started off Sunday morning with great interest and splendid attendance. Evangelist A. J. Bush, of Jackson, is preaching the old-time salvation gospel without fear or favor. In the quiet hours of life man becomes serious and thinks on the future. "Where Shall I Spend Eternity?" Then there are many who have met with sorrow and disappointments in life, who in their inner being long for peace and happiness. To all such and all others we are delighted to recommend the old-time religion of full salvation which will bridge every chasm, dry every tear, heal the broken heart, bring deliverance to the captives, sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, and the grace of God to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness. Miss Willis sings like a nightingale. She sings sunshine and cheer into every dark and gloomy soul and causes hope and inspiration to bud and blossom for the better life. If you want thrills and hear his sing: "God is Still on the Throne." Services every night at 7:30. No Saturday night preaching service but prayer meeting will be held at 7:30. Sunday morning service at 11:30. All are welcome to all services. Admission free. T. H. F.

Former Lowell Girl Writes of Vermont Flood

Mrs. G. W. Rouse has received the following letter from her daughter, Mrs. Taplin, at Montpelier, Vt., regarding the disastrous flood in New England. See photos top insert page:

Dear Mother:
Well, we are all alive after the terrible flood here. Charlie was coming home and fell through the bridge and broke his shoulder blade. He is in the hospital, but he will be all right and is coming home. I have to walk there from home to see him, we have no way, only by horse and foot. It was terrible. You know Nell have lost almost everything they had. His plant went out—so many dead. Alfred saved a woman and two children—was in to his arm pits. Tabors were almost gone, but all saved. You know all the stores down town are gone right through. Everything in Montpelier is lost. The bridges are all gone. Charlie will not work for two months anyway. You know where Tompkins lived, so high, was up there. Homes are all gone and no fire. We were lucky to live here by the car barn. It was up hill. The barn is all gone, no more cars. I have not seen Mrs. Tabors for the bridge is gone, no railroad can get here. Well, it is 6:30 and Alfred has just gone to the hospital. Food is coming in now so Alfred says I have a lot to be thankful for. The boys are all saved. Don't worry, for we are all right, but it is a long look-out. No show no more. Well, good by. Libbie. We are thankful we are alive.

Thanksgiving!

The observance of Thanksgiving Day should bring happiness and enjoyment to every heart in the land. It is peculiarly a family day and the name itself brings back memories of the old home and the table laden with good things. It is a day linked with pleasant memories, with traditions purely American. The day also is and should be looked upon with thoughtful reverence. Our forefathers celebrated the first Thanksgiving not only with a feast—there were prayers and sermons and songs of praise. These sturdy pioneers laid the foundation of our greatness as a nation and our happiness as individuals by reason of the strength of their religious convictions. We, too, will grow in greatness and happiness in proportion to the extent to which we remain faithful to their ideals. It is fitting that we should, in humble recognition of the goodness of Almighty God, who has led us so abundantly with us, celebrate this day reverently and joyfully.

In compliance, therefore, with the custom of our forefathers in conformity with the proclamation of the President, I hereby designate Thursday, November 24, 1927, as a public day of thanksgiving.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and the Commonwealth of the first. FRED W. GREEN, Governor.

By the Governor: JOHN S. HAGGERTY, Secretary of State.

Superior Furniture Factory is Busy on Orders

Manager E. B. Higgins, of the Superior Furniture company, whose serious illness was mentioned here several weeks ago, has so far recovered as to be looking after the factory interests in Lowell again. He reports the employment of about forty men, almost all local workmen, some of whom are working over time and that orders sufficient to keep the force busy for the rest of the year are already in hand, and is quite optimistic as to future prospects. A considerable work is being done in reproductions of foreign odities and antiques in the furniture line. Mr. Higgins has not relinquished his purpose to move to Lowell and establish his home here as soon as he can dispose of his home in Grand Rapids.

POMONA AND KEENE GRANGES
Pomona and Keene Granges will meet Friday, November 18, for an all-day joint session at the Keene Grange, all opening the meeting at 10 a. m. Principal among the items of business will be annual election of officers for the Pomona Grange with installation during the afternoon. Election and installation occur on the same day as a result of delay in selecting the new officers. This came about through lateness of the hour at the October meeting of Pomona Grange when it was decided to let the election await a future meeting. At noon, prior to the installation meeting, a potluck dinner will be served. If time permits a short literary program also will be given.

NOTICE TO USERS OF ELECTRICITY ON EAST SIDE.
On account of changing lines there will be more or less interruption in the day service for the next two or three weeks. F. J. McMahon, Superintendent.

GRANDVILLE HOLDS LOWELL

The splendid crowd of fans who gathered to witness the football game at Recreation park last Friday witnessed a real football game. For the first time in Lowellville and Lowell battled for supremacy and at the end of the match Lowell is shown to be the victor. The score of 77 does not indicate the real playing quality for Lowell. Lowell's offense was constant. The locals made nine first downs to Lowell's six. The locals thrived to score on several occasions while Lowell never threatened to score the time when they crossed the goal line. Nevertheless the records will show that Grandville and Lowell battled that Grandville exhibited a far better team than the one they showed last year. On offense Lowell's defense Coach Hamner's one indicated that they knew what it was all about.

Grandville's record was so far forced to punt against the Lowell and Lowell recovered on the 50 yard line. Haymer tried to circle the ends without success but Lowell's Alexander struck through Lowell for 20 yards. Off tackle smashes carried the ball to the 15 yard line. Waters took the ball from this point and plunged across the goal line for a 6 yard gain. The play was called at the 11 yard line and the score was not allowed.

The second quarter opened with Lowell in possession on Grandville's 13 yard line. In five successive tries Alexander plunged across. He made the extra play by driving through the line. The rest of the quarter was all Lowell's and the half ended with Lowell in possession of the ball on Grandville's 25 yard line. During the second quarter or repeatedly for long gains.

Lowell received the ball but lost possession of it on downs on the 40 yard line. Watson for the visitors made a beautiful run and carried the ball to Lowell's five yard line. On the next play he drove off-tackle for the touch down. This same play scored the extra point by kicking the end. The end of the period found Lowell in possession of the ball in mid field.

Lowell desperately tried to score during this period. Lowell was lumbered and Frasier, who had been limbo and forced to the sidelines were sorely missed. Lowell's passing to the air and showed the signs of a fine exhibition forward. Five passes, Haymer to Alexander were complete. Lowell's success and the ball rested on the 20 yard line. The end of the game was fast approaching. Lowell made a pass to cross the remaining distance to the goal. The last attempt, a pass was intercepted by Grandville and time was called. Frasier played well during the quarter.

Summary. B. Alexander, M. Alexander, Laver, Marsh Parsons, Richmond, Sterkings played well, while Watson and Billy did the best for the visitors.

During the season Lowell won four games, tied 3 and lost 2. The locals scored 153 points and were opponents. It is safe to state that Lowell's opponents were of the best and better conversant in the art of playing the game and the record is therefore indeed gratifying. Eight boys will be lost to the squad for next year including Raymond, M. O. Alexander, Holland, R. Alexander, Marsh, Haymer and Sterkings. These boys will be sorely missed. Coach Finch believes that their success will be enabled by the boys who have been on the reserved list. As a matter of fact, Lowell's team Coach Finch will have several new players: Gullotta, Parsons, Frasier, Waters, Laver, Fowler, Finney, Walden, Spencer, Bowler, Finney and Sterkings. These boys were the season just closed will show that Richmond and Marsh played in 36 quarters. Parsons and Sterkings played in 35 quarters. These four boys will be sorely missed. Time was never taken out for any one of sophomore years. One of the local guards seen on the local field this year. And this boy will be heard from during the next two seasons. This list repeatedly threw his opponents for losses and on two occasions his alertness in scouting up Lowell. The following boys played in several games and will receive new emblems: Gullotta, Dawson, Strete, Mallon, Kiffin, and Alexander. These boys did not miss a single practice during the entire season. Richmond, Parsons, Gullotta, Frasier and Holland. This summary could not be complete. Lowell mentioned the fact that Captain B. Alexander is a real leader. He developed into an excellent punter and was always a tower of strength on defense. Lowell also mention that injuries prevented some of the boys from playing up to their possibilities. Lowell punting and passing will be missed next year. Backers will all play next year.

Year's Summary. Lowell won four games, tied 3 and lost 2. The locals scored 153 points and were opponents. It is safe to state that Lowell's opponents were of the best and better conversant in the art of playing the game and the record is therefore indeed gratifying. Eight boys will be lost to the squad for next year including Raymond, M. O. Alexander, Holland, R. Alexander, Marsh, Haymer and Sterkings. These boys will be sorely missed. Coach Finch believes that their success will be enabled by the boys who have been on the reserved list. As a matter of fact, Lowell's team Coach Finch will have several new players: Gullotta, Parsons, Frasier, Waters, Laver, Fowler, Finney, Walden, Spencer, Bowler, Finney and Sterkings. These boys were the season just closed will show that Richmond and Marsh played in 36 quarters. Parsons and Sterkings played in 35 quarters. These four boys will be sorely missed. Time was never taken out for any one of sophomore years. One of the local guards seen on the local field this year. And this boy will be heard from during the next two seasons. This list repeatedly threw his opponents for losses and on two occasions his alertness in scouting up Lowell. The following boys played in several games and will receive new emblems: Gullotta, Dawson, Strete, Mallon, Kiffin, and Alexander. These boys did not miss a single practice during the entire season. Richmond, Parsons, Gullotta, Frasier and Holland. This summary could not be complete. Lowell mentioned the fact that Captain B. Alexander is a real leader. He developed into an excellent punter and was always a tower of strength on defense. Lowell also mention that injuries prevented some of the boys from playing up to their possibilities. Lowell punting and passing will be missed next year. Backers will all play next year.

TOWN LINE ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dicker and son Howard spent last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Foltz at Grand Rapids. Funeral services for little Raymond Howards were held last Monday afternoon at the Whiteville city church. Rev. Beck of Alto officiating. Burial in Whiteville city cemetery. Fred Groto and family, Mrs. E. outland and out-son for the past week. They took her to Hopkins where they will visit for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wells and family, of Saranac, and Raymond Linton, of McGraws, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Groto. Rutha Irling spent Friday night with Verle Sherman and attended the Anniversary program at Galeonia. Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman, they were at Blodgett hospital Sunday to see their two children. The older one cat, but the younger one is very, very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sherman spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman. They were out callers at the Free Groto home in the evening. Mrs. Joe Bates has been on the sick list for a few days. The Grand Rapids Obitis club met at the home of Mr. J. W. Linton, Ed. Bialer Sunday, November 13, with a good attendance. About 100 for the last quarter and the play was not allowed.

Second quarter. Lowell in possession on Grandville's 13 yard line. In five successive tries Alexander plunged across. He made the extra play by driving through the line. The rest of the quarter was all Lowell's and the half ended with Lowell in possession of the ball on Grandville's 25 yard line. During the second quarter or repeatedly for long gains.

Lowell received the ball but lost possession of it on downs on the 40 yard line. Watson for the visitors made a beautiful run and carried the ball to Lowell's five yard line. On the next play he drove off-tackle for the touch down. This same play scored the extra point by kicking the end. The end of the period found Lowell in possession of the ball in mid field.

Lowell desperately tried to score during this period. Lowell was lumbered and Frasier, who had been limbo and forced to the sidelines were sorely missed. Lowell's passing to the air and showed the signs of a fine exhibition forward. Five passes, Haymer to Alexander were complete. Lowell's success and the ball rested on the 20 yard line. The end of the game was fast approaching. Lowell made a pass to cross the remaining distance to the goal. The last attempt, a pass was intercepted by Grandville and time was called. Frasier played well during the quarter.

Summary. B. Alexander, M. Alexander, Laver, Marsh Parsons, Richmond, Sterkings played well, while Watson and Billy did the best for the visitors.

During the season Lowell won four games, tied 3 and lost 2. The locals scored 153 points and were opponents. It is safe to state that Lowell's opponents were of the best and better conversant in the art of playing the game and the record is therefore indeed gratifying. Amco 24% Dairy

To Supplement Low Quality Roughage

AMCO 24% DAIRY is made to feed with low-grade roughage. It contains several ingredients, is very palatable, carries the needed mineral content and is digestible enough to feed a cow completely and well when the roughage she gets is low in protein, high in fiber, and of low digestibility.

AMCO 24% UNIVERSAL (formula at right) will get the last ounce of production possible even with poor roughage. At the same time it will improve and maintain the cow's physical condition.
