A Relic of Pioneer Days
Do you remember the big leather shoe that hung in front of the A. J. Howk shoe store for 30 years? Mrs. W. F. Howk took out of it recently a bundle of old papers that had been stuffed into the old shoe to keep it in shape. Some of them date back to April and June 1868. The old shoe, big enough for fabled giants, was built on honor of real leather by A. J. Howk and his partner, Isaac White, father of the late Frank N. White, and was intended solely for the purpose which it served, a shoe maker's sign.
Though beaten by the storms of half a century, the old shoe is still a sturdy specimen of an old but preserved handicraft and is worthy of preservation among old-time relics.

PRaised AT $53,265.
The estate of Thomas E. Wykes, former fuel and grain dealer here, is appraised at $53,265.69 in an inventory filed in probate court yesterday by Charles H. Warden and J. C. Bradbury. An appraisal in the estate of Albert Holmus, who formerly resided at 1026 Loan st., S. E., places a value of $14,469.25 on the property.—Grand Rapids Herald.

Sheriff, U. S. Agents Raid Lowell Hotel

What bore the earmarks of a "wild party," according to deputy sheriffs, was broken up last night at the Hotel Lowell in Lowell when a force of deputies under the direction of Sheriff Byron J. Patterson and federal prohibition agents under Acting Administrator Arthur O. Scully swooped down on the village and raided the place. The hotel was formerly known as the Waverly.
Harry Holland, 46, proprietor, was arrested on a charge of sale and possession of liquor. The officers charge that liquor was bought there on three separate occasions and that a gallon of whiskey was confiscated in the raid last night.
Nine deputies and three federal agents surrounded the hotel and burst in simultaneously. On the second floor a party of several men and women, ranging in age from youths and girls to middle aged people, was surprised by the deputies. The merry-makers were released with a warning.—Grand Rapids Herald.

LIQUOR DEALER FINED $500 IN U. S. COURT.
Anselm Simon, Grand Rapids, pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor and was fined $500 by Federal Judge Fred M. Raymond in district court yesterday. Simon was arrested by federal prohibition agents Dec. 29.

Harry Holland, proprietor of the Hotel Lowell, arrested Monday night when federal prohibition officers raided the hotel at Lowell, was arraigned yesterday before U. S. Com. Oscar E. Waer on charges of selling a common mixer and maintaining a common mixer. Bail was fixed at $1,000, and hearing set for the March term of the grand jury, which convenes in district court, March 8.—Grand Rapids Herald, Feb. 8.

C. O. LAWRENCE RETIRES.
Charles O. Lawrence, after twenty-four years as traveling salesman for H. Leonard & Sons, of Grand Rapids, severed his connection with that firm by resignation Saturday and will retire from business and enjoy his home and its associations for a long vacation.
His employers refused to say "Good bye," hoping no doubt to recall Mr. Lawrence, after he has had a good long rest; but Charlie thinks the time has come to enjoy his home and friends.

"MITY-NICE" BAKERY SOLD.
The "Mity-Nice" bakery has been sold by A. J. B'lock to Frank Dettling, formerly of Fremont, who took possession Monday. The B'lock family left for Fremont Wednesday morning.
Ralph Stewart, former proprietor of the above bakery, who recently operated at Mair, has opened a bakery at Portland, Mich.

WIDOW OF REV. D. B. DAVIDSON AT REST.
Mrs. D. B. Davidson passed away Sunday evening at Doyle Sanitarium, Grand Rapids, after a long illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Weekes. Her son, Will Davidson, of Milwaukee, was here and attended the services. Obituary and portrait next week.

H. L. SHUTER SUCCEEDED BY H. J. COONS AS B. & L. SECURE-TARY.
H. L. Shuter, for several years efficient secretary of the Lowell Building & Loan association has resigned his position to accept one with the Modern Roman Life Insurance company, which will require all his time.
The Board of Directors elected Harvey J. Coons as his successor and the affairs of the association are now in his care.
Mr. Shuter's many friends will wish him a prosperous experience in his new association and will be glad that he is to have so competent a successor as Mr. Coons in the Lowell B. & L., an institution which has meant much for our thriving community.

Fallasburg Challenges Michigan

Hurrah for Fallasburg. Beat this if you can. Quite a commotion was caused here in Fallasburg last Wednesday morning when Frank Jones sponsored and brought home Northern pickled 45-inch long, weighing 30 pounds, measuring 9 inches across the back and 12 inches through. A surprise here for it is the first of that weight and kind ever caught in these waters. Reporters for Detroit and Grand Rapids papers came right away to take pictures and got description to give in a write up. During Wednesday morning and Thursday there were ninety persons came from Grand Rapids, Lowell and surrounding vicinity to view the big catch for "this one did not get away." Several years ago Frank speared a pike weighing seventeen pounds. Certainly he understands throwing the spear for with this one as the rest he gets was struck in the head. He dressed up his big fish and kindly donated a part of it to his neighbors and friends for a choice eat. It was fine and many thanks to Frank. There are several fish houses on the pond here and all are enjoying good catches.

Village Caucus Monday, Feb. 20

The time for Village election has rolled around once more and the Citizens' caucus has been called for the nomination of a president, clerk, treasurer, assessor and three trustees. These officers are now held by the following:
President—O. J. Yeiter.
Clerk—O. J. Brezina.
Treasurer—Floyd Steed.
Assessor—Chris. Bergin.
Trustees—E. A. Thomas, O. I. Beche, J. A. Brezina, and L. C. L. Under the prevailing one-ticket custom a nomination is equivalent to an election, it behooves Lowell taxpayers to give the matter due consideration and turn out to the caucus with their choice of candidates clearly in mind.
These officers and the trustees who "hold over" have the handling of thousands of dollars of public money.
A citizen taxpayer can scarcely have more important business on the evening of Monday, Feb. 20, than to attend this caucus. The hour is 7:30 p. m. Be there!

WILLIAM WRIGHT BURIED HERE
The body of William Wright, son of the late John Wright, was shipped here from Detroit and given a Masonic burial at Oakwood cemetery by Lowell lodge No. 30, F. & A. M., Wednesday at 11 a. m. Deceased was about sixty years old and formerly lived near the Grand Trunk depot at Lowell.

LOWELL BANKS CLOSED.
The Lowell banks will not open for business Monday, February 13, 1928, on account of Lincoln's birthday, a legal holiday.
Lowell State Bank, Lowell State Bank, City State Bank.

AUCTION SALES.
Feb. 16, N. Koning, Ada, will have a general sale with exceptionally good Holstein cows, pair dapple grays, seven years, weight 3,200, V. Overloop, auctioneer.
Jacob Laver will have a farm stock sale, Feb. 21 on the farm 1/2 mile south and 1 1/2 miles east of Alto. See large advertisement in this paper's issue of Feb. 16 for complete details. N. C. Thomas, auctioneer; Earl Golby, clerk.

BASKET BALL GAMES.
This week Lowell fans will be given the opportunity to witness two excellent games at basket ball. The City teams meet the fast going Sparta aggregation in the High school gym on Wednesday night. The City team is still in the running for County league honors and the boys are out to stave for a defeat received at Sparta some time ago. The game will be worth watching.

GRANDVILLE HERE FRIDAY.
The High school will be host Friday to the Grandville High school team. Lowell succeeded in winning by a close margin at Grandville, but at that time Coach Raimier, of Grandville, stated that the result would be different when the return game was played at Lowell. It cannot be denied that Grandville has a good team. Coach Finch believes, however, that it is about time for his boys to hit their stride and he is hoping for a victory.

HEIRLOOM PARTY.
The heirloom party at the Congregational Parish house was an entire success with an attendance of sixty-five, who greatly enjoyed the program consisting of music by the High school quartette under the direction of Miss Viola Holler, who also favored with vocal solos. Mable Stone gave a violin solo and games were played. The committee served old-fashioned marble cake and tea. One of the most interesting articles shown was a quilt, owned by Mrs. Eloise Kellogg which "came over" in the Mayflower. Many other articles of great interest were exhibited and all thoroughly enjoyed the evening which was too brief to examine each article. Several outside guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gaunt and Mrs. W. A. Collins and children were in Grandville Saturday afternoon attending the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Mary Gaunt, of Coopersville, spent from Sunday until Thursday with her son, Joe Gaunt and family. She was called to Grandville Thursday by the death of a little grandson, Howard Gaunt, whose funeral was held Saturday. She will return later to spend some time with her son here.

The P. T. A. of North Bell school district, under the leadership of Mrs. Morris Cahoon ably seconded by the teacher, Miss Anspaugh, is proving very successful as a community assembly. At the meeting Friday evening the school house was filled. A fine program was arranged by Roy Kysar followed by a pot luck supper, after which lively games were played by young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Holmes entertained a company of twenty-four guests Friday night. A surprise for the pleasure of Irving Hummel and bride, who had married January 30 at Byron, Ohio. Guests were present from Ionia, Smyrna, Ada, and Lowell. A luncheon was served by the hostess and cards were played. The bride was presented with a beautiful silk bed spread and other gifts.

As Mr. and Mrs. Myron Kysar, of South Boston, were driving on to U. S. 16 from a cross road their team became frightened as two auto body trucks passed them and became unmanageable, running nearly a mile through the mud and straw up on which Mrs. Kysar and Mrs. Kysar were riding on the pavement. He was but slightly injured. But she landing as she did, flat on her feet on the stone pavement broke several blood vessels which will need to be healed and knit before she is able to stand. She is with her mother, Mrs. John Callier on Monroe ave.

Woman Hurt When Horse Runs Wild

Two fractures of the left arm and a left knee fracture were suffered by Mrs. Maude Forbes, 51, of 321 Division-av., S., when a buggy in which she was riding plunged through a wire fence when the horse became frightened four miles northeast of Lowell Saturday morning.
The horse was driven by George Wilson, farmer, at whose home Mrs. Forbes had applied for a position as housekeeper. Wilson had employed another and was taking Mrs. Forbes to the bus station when the horse ran away.
Wilson jumped from the jouncing buggy and escaped with slight bruises, but Mrs. Forbes was in the seat when the light carriage crashed into the fence. The vehicle was demolished.
Mrs. Forbes was taken in Yeiter's ambulance to Butterworth hospital.—Grand Rapids Free Press.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Mary Staal and Mrs. Mary Dennis were given a joint surprise party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Staal on High street by several of the Maccabee sisters. Both were presented a gift and progressive luncheon was served. Mrs. H. Stormstrand and Mrs. Mary Dennis won the honors. Those present were Mesdames Edith Speaker, Leah Staal, Ann Stormstrand, Irene Blakeslee, Anna Washburn, Agnes Alexander, Laura Dawson, Olive Collins, Mary Dennis, May Staal and Ruth Gaunt. Dick Staal kindly helped fill out a table for luncheon and entertained with music. A fine luncheon was served.

STORY FROM THE START

By LEONARD NASON
Illustrated by IRVIN NEAL, D. C.
Copyright by George H. Davis Company.

Edie and Eddie had been married for a year, and they were both very happy. They had a little girl named Betty, and they were all getting on very well. One day, Edie was out for a walk in the park, and she saw a man who looked very suspicious. He was wearing a dark coat and a hat, and he was looking at her in a strange way. She followed him for a while, and she saw that he was carrying a bag of money. She decided to follow him to the bank, and she saw that he was putting the money in a safe. She was very surprised, and she decided to tell the police.

CHAPTER IV—Continued

There was a waiting of while that would have done credit to a flock of geese. The sound was soft and low, and it came from the north. Edie looked at the man, and she saw that he was looking at her in a strange way. She followed him for a while, and she saw that he was carrying a bag of money. She decided to follow him to the bank, and she saw that he was putting the money in a safe. She was very surprised, and she decided to tell the police.

The Island

By ETHEL HUESTON

It was a beautiful day, and the sun was shining brightly. The water was clear and blue, and the sky was a deep blue. The island was very beautiful, and it was a very nice place to live. Edie and Eddie were both very happy, and they were all getting on very well.

Edie and Eddie were both very happy. They had a little girl named Betty, and they were all getting on very well. One day, Edie was out for a walk in the park, and she saw a man who looked very suspicious. He was wearing a dark coat and a hat, and he was looking at her in a strange way. She followed him for a while, and she saw that he was carrying a bag of money. She decided to follow him to the bank, and she saw that he was putting the money in a safe. She was very surprised, and she decided to tell the police.

A Relic of Pioneer Days

Do you remember the big leather shoe that hung in front of the A. J. Howk shoe store for 50 years? Mrs. W. F. Howk took out of it recently a bundle of old papers that had been stuffed into the old shoe to keep it in shape. Some of them date back to April and June 1868. The old shoe, big enough for fabled giants was built on honor of real leather by A. J. Howk and his partner, Isaac White, father of the late Frank S. White, and was intended solely for the purpose which it served, a shoe maker's sign.

Though beaten by the storms of half a century, the old shoe is still a sturdy specimen of an old but cherished handicraft and is worthy of preservation among old-time relics.

Sheriff, U. S. Agents Raid Lowell Hotel

What bore the earmarks of a "wild party," according to deputy sheriff, was broken up last night at the Hotel Lowell in Lowell when a force of deputies under the direction of Sheriff Byron J. Patterson and federal prohibition agents under Acting Administrator Arthur O. Scully swooped down on the village and raided the place. The hotel was formerly known as the Waverly.

Harry Holland, 46, proprietor, was arrested on a charge of sale and possession of liquor. The officers charge that liquor was bought there on three separate occasions when a gallon of whiskey was confiscated in the raid last night.

Nine deputies and three federal agents surrounded the hotel and burst in simultaneously. On the second floor a party of several men and women, ranging in age from youths and girls to middle aged people, was surprised by the deputies. The merry-makers were released with a warning.—Grand Rapids Herald.

LIQUOR DEALER FINED $500 IN U. S. COURT

Anselm Simon, Grand Rapids, pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor and was fined $500 by Federal Judge Fred M. Raymond in district court yesterday. Simon was arrested by federal prohibition agents Dec. 29.

Harry Holland, proprietor of the hotel Lowell, arrested Monday night when federal prohibition officers raided the hotel at Lowell, was arraigned yesterday before U. S. Court Oscar E. Waer on charges of selling and possessing liquor and maintaining a common nuisance. Bail was fixed at $1,000, and hearing set for the March term of the grand jury, which convenes in the district court, March 6.—Grand Rapids Herald, Feb. 8.

C. O. LAWRENCE RETIRES.
Charles O. Lawrence, after twenty-four years as traveling salesman for H. Leonard & Sons, of Grand Rapids, severed his connection with that firm by resignation Saturday and will retire from business and enjoy his home and its associations for a long vacation.

His employers refused to say "Good bye," hoping no doubt to recall Mr. Lawrence, after he has had a good long rest; but Charlie thinks the time has come to enjoy his home and friends.

Fallsburg Challenges Michigan

Hurrah for Fallsburg. Beat this if you can. Quite a commotion was caused here in Fallsburg late Wednesday morning when Frank Jones speared and brought home a Northern pickerel 45-inches long, weighing 30 pounds, measuring 19 inches across the back and 12 inches through a surprise here for it is the first of that weight and kind ever caught in these waters. Reporters for Detroit and Grand Rapids papers came right away to take pictures and get description to give us a write up. During Wednesday morning and Thursday there were ninety persons came from Grand Rapids, Lowell and surrounding vicinity to view the big catch for "this one did not get away." Several years ago Frank speared a pike weighing seventeen pounds. Certainly he understands throwing the spear for with this one as the rest he acts was struck in the head. He dressed up his big fish and kindly donated a part of it to his neighbors and friends for a choice eat. It was fine and many thanks to Frank. There are several fish houses on the pond here and all are enjoying good catches.

Fallsburg Scribe.

Village Caucus Monday, Feb. 20

The time for Village election has rolled around once more and a Citizens' caucus has been called, for the nomination of a president, clerk, treasurer, assessor and three trustees for two years.

These officers are now held by the following:

President—O. J. Yeiter.
Clerk—O. J. Brozina.
Treasurer—Floyd Steed.
Assessor—Chris. Bergin.
Trustees—E. A. Thomas, O. L. Beebe, J. A. Archart.

As under the prevailing one-ticket custom a nomination is equivalent to an election, it behooves Lowell taxpayers to give the matter due consideration and turn out to the caucus with their choice of candidates clearly in mind.

These officers and the trustees who "hold over" have the handling of the thousands of dollars of public money.

A citizen taxpayer can scarcely have more important business on the evening of Monday, Feb. 20, than to attend this caucus. The hour is 7:30 p. m. Be there!

H. L. SHUTER SUCCEEDED BY H. J. COONS AS B. & L. SECRETARY.

H. L. Shuter, for several years efficient secretary of the Lowell Building & Loan association has resigned that position to accept one with the Modern Roman Life Insurance company, which will require all his time.

The Board of Directors elected H. J. Coons as his successor and the affairs of the association are now in his care.

Mr. Shuter's many friends will wish him a prosperous experience in his new association and will be glad that he is to have so competent a successor as Mr. Coons in the Lowell B. & L., an institution which has meant much for our thriving community.

WOMAN HURT When Horse Runs Wild

Two fractures of the left arm and a leg fracture were suffered by Mrs. Maude Forbes, 51, of 3211 Division-av. S., when a buggy in which she was riding plunged through a wire fence when the horse became frightened four miles northwest of Lowell Saturday morning.

The horse was driven by George Wilson, farmer, at whose home Mrs. Forbes had applied for a position as housekeeper. Wilson had employed another and was taking Mrs. Forbes to the bus station when the horse ran away.

Wilson jumped from the jouncing buggy and escaped with slight bruises. Mrs. Forbes was in the seat when the light colored animal crashed into the fence. The vehicle was demolished.

Mrs. Forbes was taken in Yeiter's ambulance to Butterworth hospital. Grand Rapids Free Press.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Mrs. Mary Staal and Mrs. Mary Dennie were given a joint surprise party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Staal on High street by several of the Maccabee sisters. Both were presented a gift and progressive luncheon was served. Mrs. A. H. Stormzand and Mrs. Mary Dennie won the honors. Those present were Mesdames Edith Speaker, Leah Staal, Ann Stormzand, Irene Blakeslee, Arlene Washburn, Agnes Alexander, Laura Dawson, Olive Collins, Mary Denne, May Staal and Ruth Gaunt. Dick Staal kindly helped fill out a table for luncheon and entertained with music. A fine luncheon was served.

LOWELL BANKS CLOSED.
The Lowell banks will not open for business Monday, February 13, 1928, on account of Lincoln's birthday, a legal holiday.

Lowell State Bank, City State Bank.

WILLIAM WRIGHT BURIED HERE
The body of William Wright, son of the late John Wright, was shipped here from Detroit and given a Masonic burial at Oakwood cemetery by Lowell lodge No. 90, F. & A. M., Wednesday at 11 a. m. Deceased was about sixty years old and formerly lived near the Grand Trunk depot at Lowell.

AUCTION SALES.
Feb. 16, N. Koning, Ala. will have a general sale with exceptionally good Holstein cows, pair, dapple fawns, seven years, weight 3,200, 1, V. Overloop, auctioneer. p. 37

Jacob Laver will have a farm stock sale on the farm 1 1/2 miles south and 1 1/2 miles east of Alto. See large advertisement in this paper's issue of Feb. 16 for complete details. N. C. Thomas, auctioneer; Earl Golly, clerk.

BASKET BALL GAMES.
This week Lowell fans will be given the opportunity to witness two excellent games at basket ball. The teams meet the fast going Sparta aggregation in the High school gym on Wednesday night. The City team is still in the running for County league honors and the boys are out to atone for a defeat received last week.

GRANDVILLE HERE FRIDAY.
The High school will be host Friday to the Grandville High school team. Lowell succeeded in winning by a close margin at Grandville, but at that time Coach Rainer, of Grandville, stated that the result would be different when the return game was played at Lowell. It cannot be denied that Grandville has a good team. Coach Finch believes, however, that it is about time for his boys to hit their stride and he is hoping for a victory.

BEDROOM PARTY.
The bedroom party at the Congregational Parish house was an entire success with an attendance of sixty-five, who greatly enjoyed the program consisting of music by the High school male quartet under the direction of Miss Viola Raller, who also favored with vocal solos. Mable Stone gave a violin solo and games were played. The committee served old-fashioned marble cake and tea. One of the most interesting articles shown was a quilt, owned by Mrs. Eloise Kellogg which "came over" in the Mayflower. Many other articles of great interest were exhibited and all thoroughly enjoyed the evening which was too brief to examine each article. Several outside guests were present.

REMEMBER THE DOG TAX.
To avoid paying a penalty get your dog licenses before March 1.
Maude MacTavish,
Lowell Township Treas.
(p. 36-37)

Mr. and Mrs. James Gaunt and Mrs. W. A. Collins and children were in Grandville Saturday afternoon attending the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Mary Gaunt, of Coopersville, spent from Sunday until Thursday with her son, Joe Gaunt and family. She was called to Grandville Thursday by the death of a little grandson, Howard Gaunt, whose funeral was held Saturday. She will return later to spend some time with her son here.

The P. T. A. of North Bell school district, under the leadership of Mrs. Morris Cahoon ably seconded by the teacher, Miss Anspaugh, is proving very successful as a community assembly. At the meeting Friday evening the school house was filled. A fine program was arranged by Roy Kyser followed by a pot luck supper, after which lively games were played by young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Holmes entertained a company of twenty-four guests Friday night. A surprise for the pleasure of Irving Hummel and bride, who were married January 30 at Byron, Ohio. Guests were present from Ionia, Smyrna, Ada, and Lowell. A luncheon was served by the hostess and cards were played. The bride was presented with a beautiful silk bed spread and other gifts.

As Mrs. Myron Kyser, of South Bell, were driving on to U. S. 16 from a cross road their team became frightened as two auto body trucks passed them and became unmanageable, running nearly a mile throwing the team and passengers on which Mr. and Mrs. Kyser were riding off on the pavement. He was but slightly injured. But she landing as she did, flat on her feet on the stone pavement broke several plates besides which will need to be heated and knif for she is able to stand. She is with her mother, Mrs. John Callier on Monroe ave.
