Change in Personnel of Granite Co.

Last week another business deal in Lowell was effected when Harold J. Englehardt purchased from R. E. Springett his entire stock of the Lowell Granite Co. At a stockholders' and directors' meeting the following officers were elected: H. J. Englehardt, president; C. H. Runciman, vice president; Lee Walker, secretary-treasurer.

With this change a new working policy has been adopted. Mr. Englehardt will devote more time in the active management of the corporation, by so doing the company will extend their field of operation which will be an added industry to Lowell.

This industry started more than fifty years ago, when J. C. Hare began the business in a frame building on the present site. He was followed by Charles Kisor, who later took in a partner in the person of A. P. Ayres. They later sold to J. H. Hamilton, who conducted the business until his death in 1911. From this time until 1918 the business was known as the J. H. Hamilton estate and was managed by Lee Walker. It was then organized by Lee Walker as a stock company under the present title.

A few months ago Mr. Springett and Mr. Englehardt became interested in the affairs of the company, from which Mr. Springett has now retired. By this change Mr. Runciman becomes a director and officer of the company.

The enviable reputation of the Lowell Granite company as makers of high grade monuments and markers will be maintained by the present company and with added equipment will be in a position to meet the requirements of any who demand service in their line.

As the industrial plants of Lowell mean much to the general welfare of the community, the Ledger wishes this company success in all of their undertakings.

OBITUARY—MARY J. LESLIE.

Mary Jane Wilkes was born July 10, 1838 in New York State and came to Michigan with her parents when a child.

She was married to James B. Leslie in 1864, during the Civil war. When the war was over they moved to the township of Spencer, where they lived until about 1895, when they moved to Lowell in the home on Vergennes road, until his death about four years ago, and where she has since lived until her death, December 26, 1928, except two years spent in the Soldiers' Home Annex in Grand Rapids.

She leaves two nieces, Mrs. Viola Larsen, of Gowen, Mich., and Mrs. Caroline Cooper, of Lowell, their children, friends and neighbors, to mourn her passing.

She was an ardent worker in the Women's Relief Corps, a good neighbor and always to be found where sickness or trouble was until compelled to give up by ill health.

Even the birds will miss her, for it was a pleasure to her to place feed for them in winter and watch them enjoy it.

A good woman's work on earth is done and she has gone to her reward.

OBITUARY—MRS. D. SINCLAIR.

Lucy Maria Foster, daughter of Gilbert and Clarissa Jaquith Foster, was born in St. Lawrence county, New York, January 13, 1846, and departed this life December 22, 1928, aged 82 years, 11 months and 9 days.

At the age of 13 years, she came with her parents to Michigan, first settling on a farm in Caledonia township, then later moving to Bowne, where she spent the remainder of her life.

She united with the Presbyterian church and later united with the Bowne Center M. E. church.

She was united in marriage with Daniel A. Sinclair March 16, 1870. To this union were born six children. Her companion, one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Porritt and an infant son, John Gilbert, preceded her to the Better Land.

She leaves to mourn her departure, four children, Mrs. Peter Thomas and Mrs. Clara Porritt, of Bowne; Mert Sinclair, of Lowell; and Bert Sinclair, of Woodland; two brothers, B. G. Foster, of Los Angeles, California; Abel Foster, of Bowne, twenty-one grand children, nine great grand children and many other relatives and friends.

Night Search Clause Frees Mrs. DeVries

The recent decision of the supreme court upholding legislation restraining search of premises at night unless there is positive proof that the object sought is on the premises, resulted in dismissal of another case here yesterday involving alleged violation of the liquor laws.

Mrs. Jennie DeVries, 63-year-old resident of Vergennes township, was beneficiary of the technicality, when Justice Harry L. Creswell sustained the motion of Atty. R. M. Shivel for Mrs. DeVries in justice court for dismissal.

Her home was raided by sheriff's officers on the night of Nov. 15, the officers being armed with a search warrant issued by Justice Robert E. Springett, of Lowell. It was alleged that a quantity of liquor was found by the officers.

Joseph McGrain, of Wyoming township, arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Charles Lawyer on a liquor violation charge, waived examination when arraigned before Justice Creswell and was held to Circuit court under $500 bond, which he furnished.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)

DECREE QUIETS TITLE TO PROPERTY IN LOWELL.

A decree quieting title to property in the village of Lowell was signed by Circuit Judge M. L. Dunham yesterday in the case of Edgar O. Wadsworth, administrator of the estate of Clarinda Winegar, deceased, against Sylvester L. Davis and Mary E. Davis, and their heirs, in which Clarinda Winegar was decreed owner of the lands. Whether the defendants are dead or alive is not known, the opinion read. An error in recording the deed was the cause of the cloud on the title.

A bill to quiet title to lands was filed by Gordon and Jennie Youngs against Charles R. Ball. Judgment for the plaintiff was awarded in a decision by Judge Dunham in the action of the action of the Grand Rapids Mutual Building & Loan association against John Knottanus and Leo and Albert Feldpausch in which the plaintiffs alleged $4,380.72 due on a mortgage.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)

OBITUARY—LUCINDA GOODSELL.

Mr. Goodsell passed away twenty-three years ago, and since that time her son Charles, has made his home with her. Mrs. Goodsell spent most of her life in Michigan, and the past three years in Lowell. $21,624,271 Was Spent for Roads in '28

Lansing, Dec. 29.—The state expended $21,624,271 in the record-breaking year of 1928 for highway construction, according to a report completed today by Commissioner Frank A. Rogers and Frank Fitzgerald, business manager of the highway department, for submission to the legislature.

The expenditure compares with $14,141,227 for construction in 1927.
Completed mileage jumped from 313 in 1927 to 417 in 1928, smashing all records. Of this year's construction 377 miles was pavement, the rest gravel or other surface. In 1927 the pavement mileage was 237.

Maintenance in 1928 cost $5,474,128 as compared with $4,225,994 in the preceding year.

The report states counties will get $9,500,000 for 1928 as their share of the gasoline and weight tax receipts. This is $3,500,000 more than they received prior to amendments adopted by the 1927 legislature.

Old Obligations Paid
"Old obligations to counties and townships, accrued as far back as 1923, have been paid in full," the report continued. "To pay these debts it was necessary to curtail building operations in 1927. There remains unpaid only the balance of the old state reward debt, which will be paid in full in 1930."
"The cities will get approximately $500,000 annually to care for trunk lines within their limits. The extra cent of gasoline tax added by the last legislature produces about $6,500,000 a year, but most of it is appropriated for the benefit of the various units of government, leaving approximately one-third of the additional revenue for use by the state."

"Splendid co-operation has been given the department by Gov. Green and the state administrative board and it has resulted in better work and a program heretofore unparalleled."
"Our plans for the future call for careful and systematic protection of grade crossings where elimination is impossible and separations were possible and practicable. No new crossing is to be established without separation or full crossing protection."
"During 1928, 78.5 miles of 20-foot concrete was built with prison labor. Between 500 and 600 inmates were employed."
"The state has under maintenance 7,406 miles of trunk line road, of which 4,005 miles are gravel. The gravel road is without doubt the greatest maintenance problem."
"Last winter the state maintained for wheel traffic in connection with its snow removal program 6,682 miles of trunk line, at an average cost of $83.02 per mile. It is proposed to increase the snow removal program during this winter by 359 miles, making a total of 7,041 miles."—(Grand Rapids Herald.)

THE LOWELL LEDGER AND ALTO SOLO

Published every Thursday morning at 210 East Main Street, Lowell, Michigan. F. M. JOHNSON, Editor and Publisher. Thirty-five years on the job...

Uncle Marcus' COZY CORNER. In the absence of "Uncle Marcus," confined to his home by illness, the Ledger's faithful friend, E. R. Kniffin, has kindly furnished the following:

On New Year's day Governor Fred Green was inaugurated for the second term as State Executive.

The confidence of the people in the ability of Governor Green was manifested in the November election of 1928.

God, when the skies are overcast, many a winter day, has caused those who advocated a change in the office Governor Green was elected by an enormous majority.

Problems of vital interest to the commonwealth are being confronted the Governor at this time. With the united support of the 50th legislature we may be assured that every obstacle will be met and dealt with according to "what is best for all of the people."

He has succeeded in making any political enemy who need not fear his friends which he has gained during the past administration.

We hope that every thinking person will refer to the Governor's message to the 1929 legislature printed on another page, and it will be read again.

The annual report of our public utilities, the not, as yet, been made public, but it is safe to say that they are in better condition than ever before.

The paving program of the past year has continued to be sold by the State, and needs no further commendation.

The building program of the year, 1928, has been a record, and has brought us closer to the things most give ground to his more efficient competitor.

1928 according to statistics and prognostications is to be a year of prosperity. He's hoping for a little more of the old home town; by his efforts and enthusiastic endeavor to influence the now of prosperity through the channels of his office until it reaches high tide.

The blanket of "beautiful snow" which came with the advent of the winter has given cheer to the holiday and fuel to the hand who have retarded the day of replenishment.

Underwriters of fire insurance would do well to take an inventory of Ford cars owned in this vicinity.

Readers of the Uncle Marcus column are to be disappointed at not being able to find in this "highway" the new editorial, many interesting editorials concerning the topics of the day.

Representative D. G. Look left for Lansing Monday of this week, and for the next three months, all of their many friends are hoping that he will be back in the city to call on practically every day.

"Deek" is a familiar figure at all of the social functions, has a cheery smile and is always ready to shake hands, never neglects to call on the sick, acts as advisor to those who are in need of advice, ice cream and white wine are wont to find him to be the star of a brief party.

"We tuned in on the rat-tat-tat last night. It goes fine with a jazz orchestra or a prize fight, and a hearty band in the city orchestra XYZ resembled a dead callosities, short of play, flanking the Smith sonata in a Wild West mood. Switched over to "OHEL" and went to bed."

The year 1928 has brought to the attention of business circles, particularly in the industries, with the advent of the year 1929 all eyes are centered upon the future development and effect which change will have upon the business of the town.

OBITUARY—MRS. L. WEEKS Helen Beckey was born at Lowell, Mich., Jan. 10, 1891. Her childhood and youth was passed in Lowell where she received her education in the village schools. She was united in marriage to Leon Weeks Jan. 10, 1909, and from that time her home has been near Moseley. Her death at the age of 37 years, occurring December 29, followed a brief sickness with influenza, and is greatly lamented by her many friends. Mrs. Weeks was the mother of six children, one son and five daughters, who, with their father, are sorely bereaved in the untimely death of their mother. She is also survived by her mother and four sisters. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon, Dec. 31, at the Alton church, and were attended by a large number of neighbors and friends, whose affection and sympathy were expressed by the beautiful floral designs which covered the casket. Rev. A. T. Cartland officiated. Music was furnished by Mrs. C. H. Reynolds and Mrs. Cartland. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery.

QUINCY FISHER DEAD. Quincy Fisher, employe of the Warner industries for many years died at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night, December 22, 1928, at the home in Ottawa, Kansas. He had been ill only five days, death resulting from pneumonia. The deceased was 68 years old. Mr. Fisher was a native of Canada, where he was born at Goderich, Ontario, Nov. 27, 1860. He was married November 27, 1889 to Mabel Aldrich at Lowell, Mich. The widow, two daughters, Mrs. Lilla Porter, of Ottawa, and Mrs. Glen Le Master, of Deer River, Minn., and a granddaughter, Altis Marie Porter, of Ottawa, survive. The Fisher family have lived in Ottawa three years. Mr. Fisher was employed eleven years by the Santa Fe, and last twenty-two years he had worked for Warners. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, the Maccabees lodge of Detroit, Mich., and the Order of American Yeoman. Mr. Fisher's death is particularly sad since it follows so closely that of his father-in-law, Lyman W. Aldrich, who died December 14. Funeral services of Mr. Fisher were held on Wednesday from the Trinity church, of which he was a member, with Rev. Melvin Booth officiating, interment in Highland cemetery.

SPURNS PROBATION, SARANAC YOUTH IS SENT TO PRISON CELL Ionia, Dec. 29.—The rigidity of probationary terms hold no appeal for Ora Basing, 18-year-old Saranac youth, who told Circuit Judge Royal A. Hawley today he preferred doing time. As a result he was sentenced from 1 to 15 years at Jackson prison, the court recommending a 18-months minimum. Basing pleaded guilty to a breaking and entering charge, involving the theft of an overcoat from a Saranac business place. He was arrested a week ago by Deputy Sheriff E. C. Good. When Judge Hawley asked Basing to read the requirements of probation which he was considering in his case, Basing replied they would be unable to observe them.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)
