Hudson Co. Ships Sprayers to All Nations

Efforts of officials of the Hudson Manufacturing Co., to make their products universally popular have finally been crowned with success.

The term "universally popular" can now be used literally by the Hudson company for the month of February, 1929, was the first month in the history of the organization in which sprayer shipments were dispatched to all parts of the world.

February consignments from the Hudson factory included shipments of sprayers to virtually every country on the globe as well as to forty-four states in this country and all of the Canadian provinces.

Among the foreign consignments were sprayer orders for Cuba, Argentina, South Africa, Mexico, Greece, Norway, Holland, India, Palestine, Ireland, England, Australia, Honduras, Cape Colony and many other far distant points.

Another record was broken at the local plant during February when three carloads of sprayers were shipped in one consignment to a single destination, Kansas City Mo.

Business at the factory is showing a gratifying increase in all departments, the officials report, and prospects for an exceptionally good year are considered very favorable. Several large contracts for the year have been received from the Fly Tox Co., and other large distributors.

The factory now employs about two hundred workers, which is a very good payroll for this season of the year.—(Hastings, Minn., Gazette.)

The Hudson company which recently bought the Lowell Specialty company's factory and business and is now operating same.

Holland Choir Gave Lowell a Musical Treat

The Vested choir of forty voices from Holland under the direction of Miss Martha Barkema, a former Lowell High school Social Science teacher, highly entertained a crowded house at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening. Several groups of songs, sacred and secular were given by the chorus interspersed with vocal solos and a violin number by Kenneth Mook, of Northwestern University Men's Glee club, who also gave two groups of tenor solos, and Paul Nettinga, tenor, bass, baritone, also of Hope college choir and Miss Martha Barkema, who as usual charmed her audience with a solo "Just as I Am" accompanied by the piano and violin by Mr. Mook. Miss Barkema has recently been suffering with laryngitis, which, however, has not marred the bird-like sweetness of her voice.

Miss Barkema and Mr. Mook gave a duet selection. Some pronounced this the finest entertainment of its kind ever presented in Lowell.

WINTER PICNIC AT METHODIST CHURCH

About 150 people attended the Winter picnic at the Methodist church Tuesday evening. The tables formed a hollow square and were laden with all manner of good things to eat, which, after the invocation by Rev. Cartland, soon disappeared to satisfy the appetites of those present. After the banquet all joined in community singing led by Mrs. C. H. Reynolds, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Weekes. Mrs. E. S. White was committee on games and put on a prize fight, the participants being Rev. Cartland, E. A. Thomas, H. L. Weekes, E. S. White, Howard Kyser and Niel Blakeslee, with F. F. Coons as referee. The weapons being folded newspapers, no one was seriously injured.

Little Miss Inez Cole entertained with a reading "A Trying Ordeal" responding to an enchanor with "Lost."

A lighting candle game to show the athletic qualities of six men created much laughter. After this the men played volley ball in the gymnasium, while the ladies washed dishes in the kitchen. Every one seemed to enjoy the picnic hugely.

Hope Students Come Here for the Week End

This coming week-end, Lowell is to have a rare treat. The Y. M. C. A. of Hope college is sending to our town a group of six young men who are "live wires" and have a message for the old folks as well as the young. Come and hear them.

Saturday forenoon they are planning a hike for boys of all ages. Bring your woensies and buns and be on hand, fellows, at eleven o'clock at the High school for a real good time. In the evening Coach Finch has promised to let his first team play against these "Y" men in a free exhibition basket ball game.

Several of the "Y" men are regulars on the college team and will be a good match for Lowell's team. Following the game they are planning a short entertainment and social hour. It is rumored that there will be "ests!"

The Hope men will also provide special music for the Lowell churches and assist in the Sunday school hour. Come and meet them. At five o'clock the Young People's societies of our churches are to have a union service at the Methodist church under the leadership of the "Y" men. All young folks interested in meeting these college students are invited to attend and stay for the usual social hour which follows. The union evening services also will be in entire charge of the students. The meeting will be held in the Congregational church at 7:30. They have a message for you so come early and give them your support.

LOWELL GRADUATES SUCCESSFUL

Almost half of the graduates of 1928 are attending an institution of higher learning. Members of this class are attending eleven different colleges. This fact in itself is a record to be proud of. But it is just as gratifying to learn that these young people are doing good work in these colleges. An effort has been made to secure the first semester marks of each graduate. Most colleges make this report without being asked. To date we have received complete reports concerning fifteen members of the class of 1928. We find that the Lowell boys and girls are doing very satisfactory work. The distribution of marks is as follows: A—3, B—19, C—38, D—11, E—2. This distribution is better than the normal curve.

OPERETTA TO BE PRESENTED

The students of the Lowell High school are presenting the operetta, "Bulbul" on March 21 and 22. It is being produced under the direction of Miss Moody, Mrs. Ronald Finch and Miss Marsmann. Evelyn Yeiter will play the part of Princess Bulbul. The role of Prince Caspian will be taken by Albert Butterfield. Operetta to be given March 22 at Strand theatre

Legion Band Will Play for Memorial Day

The local post under the direction of Post Historian, W. W. Gumsier, is completing a history of this post and all ex-service men from Lowell and vicinity.

The Legion is sponsoring the awarding of an Honor cup to the outstanding pupil in the Lowell High school. Award will be based on scholarship, athletics and leadership. Since the local post sponsored this award, the Alumni association of the University of Michigan has gone on record as endorsing similar movements throughout the country.

The Lowell Post has organized a band and it is now under way with rehearsals. This band is going to be something the people of Lowell want and through co-operation from the Lowell village council in a financial and moral support this band was made possible. More information concerning the band will be issued later. The band will be ready to appear in public Memorial day.

Monday, March 18, the Legion will enjoy a dancing party at the Lowell City hall.

The Lowell Post has been cited this year by State and National headquarters for the splendid membership and Legion spirit it has shown. Lowell Post received the award in the Fifth District for the outstanding post.

The Lowell post will paint a sign on the roof of some suitable building with the name of Lowell for aviation co-operation.

The Lowell Post has endorsed Dr. H. P. Gofredsen as a candidate for State Vice Commander of the American Legion at the State convention to be held at Battle Creek this year. This action is bound to meet with favorable comment throughout State Legion circles.

Lowell Post has gone on record as favoring M-21 as the International highway and to assist in properly supporting future activities in connection with this highway.

W. J. Kropf, Adjutant.

ONLY THIRTY-FIVE VOTE IN VILLAGE ELECTION

With thirty-five patriots voting at Monday's village election, the ticket nominated at the Citizens' caucus was elected without opposition, as follows.

President, O. J. Yeiter; clerk, O. J. Brezina; treasurer, Wesley Roth; assessor, Christopher Bergin; trustees, Harry Day, Charles Doyle, R. D. Hahn, E. R. Kniffin. The above, with Trustees E. A. Thomas and O. L. Beebe, whose terms of office had not expired, constitute the elective officary for the ensuing year.

Appointive officers are yet to be named.

SCHOOL VACATION APRIL

The Board of Education announces that Lowell schools will be closed the first week in April for the Spring vacation.

Lowell Board Now Ready for 1929 Activities

Friday, March 8, at 9:00 o'clock a. m. the newly elected officers of the Lowell Board of Trade held a business session in the directors' room of the City State bank, attended by C. H. Runciman, president; F. F. Coons, vice president; V. E. Ashley, treasurer; E. R. Kniffin, secretary; H. L. Weekes and O. J. Yeiter, directors. Director J. A. Archhart, due to illness, was absent.

Motion to retain the same secretary and treasurer for the ensuing year was carried. President Runciman announced as chairman of the several standing committees for the year 1929: Playground and special days, T. A. Gazella.

Budget, V. E. Ashley. Credit Exchange, H. L. Weekes. Industries, R. Van Dyke. Roads, D. G. Look. Better Business, W. J. Kropf. Same being confirmed by the directors.

Each chairman was requested to select their own committeemen, and to expect the support of the entire board.

Ways and means of meeting the several problems, confronting the board, and solving them for the benefit of all concerned, were thoroughly discussed, and the good ship "Board of Trade" was again launched upon a calm and peaceful sea.

The first dinner meeting of the board will be held at the Lowell High school Monday evening, March 25, at 6:30, followed by a general business session.

At the request of the Senior class of the Lowell High school, they will prepare and serve the dinner, assisted by the class of Domestic Science, and the dining room of the building will be the scene of action.

This promises to be an innovation, entirely out of the ordinary, and is worthy of encouragement. Every member of the board, all of whom should be interested, is urged to attend this important meeting.

Whatever activities are to be engaged in during the year 1929, should be put under way at this time, and above all the business interests of our members must come first. Every particle of energy should be put into the betterment of business conditions.

All roads leading into Lowell are in an improved condition, our business houses are well stocked and well managed, our markets are second to none, we are entitled to our share of prosperity, and it is up to the Lowell Board of Trade to "go get it." If the "self satisfied bug" is working in your system, you need a Spring tonic, taken in large doses, regularly.

Just a little timely encouragement may ease a brother through a bad business situation, put him on the road to recovery, ultimately bringing success to every person engaged in business in Lowell today.

Being sorry for someone or something, doesn't mean a thing in business; loyalty to those whom loyalty is expected from, is the milk in the business cocoon, and a cocoon cannot be opened with a "sob." The Secretary will "pass among you" offering tickets for the "big feed," have seventy-five cents ready, and smile when you pass it over.
E. R. K.

LOWELL WILL BOOST INTERNATIONAL HIGHWAY.

President C. H. Runciman, of the Lowell Board of Trade assures us that this town will cooperate in the Great Lakes International Highway movement to make M. 21 a part of a new northerly trans-continental highway system across Ontario, Michigan, and on into the Western states.

A meeting in furtherance of the project will be held soon and Lowell will be represented there, probably by our live-wire townsman, E. R. Kniffin, secretary of the Lowell Board of Trade.

FARMERS FREE SHOW AND LUNCH.

Farmers, read J. J. Brezina's announcement in this paper: Free demonstration farm machinery and poultry raising, moving pictures and free lunch at his store and adjoining building, Saturday, March 16, beginning at 10:30, a. m.

The Treasure of the BUCOLEON

BY ARTHUR D. SMITH
HOWARD HENNING

CHAPTER I—In London, Hugh Knave, British lawyer, was in conversation with a man who called himself "The Greek" and who was dressed in the style of a wealthy man. "What do you know about the treasure of the Bucoleon?" asked the Greek.

"I know nothing about it," replied the lawyer. "I have never heard of it." "You are a lawyer," said the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

"I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?" "I am a lawyer," replied the Greek, "and you know nothing about it?"

CHAPTER II—The Greek lawyer, who had been waiting for the man who called himself "The Greek" to appear, was sitting in a room which was filled with books.

From First Feeding until Ready to Lay

Amco Starting and Growing Mash

300 lbs. St. Wheat Bran
300 lbs. Flour Middlings
840 lbs. Corn Meal
100 lbs. Heavy, Fine Gr. Low-fiber Oats
200 lbs. Meat Scrap 55%
200 lbs. Dried Buttermilk
40 lbs. Steam Bone Meal
30 lbs. Salt

The Open Formula shows you that the feed contains exactly what your chicks need from the first feeding until ready to lay

Complete feeding directions are given with all Amco Feeds, on the tag carrying the Open Formula.

Special chick starters are more expensive than growing mashes, not because they contain superior ingredients, but for two very different reasons. 1— Their marketing season is so short that mixers and distributors have to make prices cover the chance they take in handling them, and 2—using a special starter has become a habit with so many poultrymen that almost any prices may be charged. But this expense is going out of date among sound poultrymen. Special starting mashes have been proved unnecessary.

Lower the cost to raise your chicks
