Trade Board Votes Support Home Trade

By E. R. Kniffin, Secretary Lowell Board of Trade.

Sixty-five faithful supporters of the newly elected officers of the Lowell Board of Trade met in the gymnasium of the High school building Monday evening. This, the first of a series of dinner meetings to be held during the year, was a most successful affair and created an unusual amount of interest in the workings of the board.

The room was beautifully decorated, the tables well arranged, the dinner prepared and served by the members of the Senior class of 1929, assisted by the class in Domestic Science. The young people did everything possible to give satisfaction, and that purpose was well accomplished. They, as well as their instructors deserve complimenting upon the quality of food prepared and the service rendered. It is often said that the young people of this day and age are not instructed in the art of answering their elders with yes-sir, or no-sir. Let us correct that statement in as much as the Lowell High school is concerned.

Music, violin and piano, added much to the festive occasion.

The invocation was spoken by Rev. A. B. Lemke.

During the process of clearing the tables Prof. W. W. Gumsler led in community singing, lustily all joined in.

"Sweet Adeline" rendered by the Surprise Quartette, behind the curtain, was encored for fully five minutes, they refused to respond.

Personnel of the quartette: W. J. Kropf, soprano; Orrin Sterkins, tenor; R. M. Shivel, alto; W. W. Gumsler, bass; R. D. Stocking, pianist. Booking of engagements now open.

President Runciman opened the business session by referring to the good judgment displayed by Past President Day when he refused to serve a third term. "Business Betterment" was the topic of Mr. Runciman's address, and he laid particular stress upon that idea, which should at all times be the first consideration of the board. Taking for example the condition into which the baking business has drifted due to the general use of foreign made bread. Mr. Runciman asked the members present to encourage the use of Lowell made bread in their homes, called for a rising vote of those willing to accede, the vote was practically unanimous. Rev. A. T. Cartland offered the above suggestion as a motion and the same was carried.

Mr. Runciman referred to other instances wherein a little of co-operation on the part of the board members might encourage the business of the village in general.

The first consideration of the Lowell Board of Trade is to build up the business interests of Lowell, so says President Runciman, and he is not talking at random.

V. E. Ashley, the Budget Committee asked those present to mail in their subscriptions, that the work of raising the budget might be expedited. T. A. Gazella, chairman of the Sports committee, spoke of Summer activities now being shaped into form.

The committees on Credit Exchange and Industries offered no report at this time.

W. J. Kropf, chairman of the Better Business committee, spoke of plans now underway and urged the members to work with the committee when approached with a definite program of procedure. Pat Bowes was asked to speak a few words relative to his sojourn in California during the past Winter; allowed that while a Winter in the sunshine was worth all it cost, Michigan and Lowell looked pretty good to him.

R. M. Shivel spoke of a vacation spent in the Bahama Islands during the Winter of 1928-9; tales of the island were interesting, the climate, the inhabitants and the conditions under which they live were explained in detail, and that Mr. Shivel is a man of keen vision when traveling in foreign lands must be conceded by all.

Mr. Snell, of the Lowell Sprayer company, spoke briefly; practically a stranger to most of the members, his remarks were well received. The lateness of the hour called for adjournment, the motion was entertained.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA.
Mrs. Art Hill was taken ill Saturday with—as first believed—pleurisy. Wednesday her physician decided she had pneumonia and ordered her to a hospital; and she was taken to St. Mary's in Grand Rapids. Mrs. C. Bergin, her mother, is caring for the children.

Better Not Sell Booze To Minors

Officers Leo Rowland and Pat Bowes, Dept., Sheriff Chas. Lawyer, and Fred Graner, raided Joe Popilinski's house on Hudson ave., Saturday and found a gallon of moonshine and several bottles of beer.

Suspicion has attached to Popilinski for some time; but action resulted from discovery of a lad on Main street with liquor, who revealed the place of its purchase and was sent back for more and got it.

The raid and arrest swiftly followed.

Popilinski was taken before Judge Crissel of Grand Rapids, and bound over for hearing April 3, and was released on bail.

MRS. V. P. PIERCE ONE OF FOUR ALL "A" STUDENTS AT YPSL

Four students from Detroit, pictured in the Detroit Free Press of March 17, who were enrolled in Michigan State Normal college, Ypsilanti, received all "A" grades for the work in the fall term.

The one among these known to Yale people is Mrs. Norma Pierce, teacher for four years in our public schools, at the time her husband was superintendent.

Mrs. Pierce instructed in biology, general science and physics and was conceded high honors in all her work.

In church and society circles she was also sought after as a great help and addition and was considered priceless as a reader. Her talent in this way was freely given during her residence in Yale.

Our people are earnest in their congratulations for Mrs. Pierce's success and predict that she climb higher on the ladder of fame.—(Yale Expositor.)

Mrs. Pierce is a daughter of Mrs. F. J. Morse and a graduate of the Lowell schools.

Ruth Mattern Conklin Dies of Pneumonia

Ruth Mattern Conklin, wife of Dexter, and daughter of our townsman, J. A. Mattern, died at her home in Flint Sunday at 1:50 o'clock, p. m., of pneumonia. Funeral services were to be held at the home Wednesday at 9 a. m., and burial services were to be held at Oakwood cemetery on arrival here. Mr. Mattern was called to the bedside of his daughter but did not arrive soon enough to see her alive.

Mrs. Conklin's death leaves Mr. Mattern nearly alone in the world, so far as near relatives are concerned, and the blow will be a heavy one for him to bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Conklin are well-known Lowell young people, in their early thirties and he is left with three young children to care for.

The sorrowing ones surely have the sympathy of their many Lowell friends in their sudden affliction.

OBITUARY—MRS. W. E. HAYS-MER.

Mrs. Anna Haysmer was born in the state of Ohio in 1855. At an early age came with her parents to Michigan, where they settled in Saranac.

At the age of 18 she was married to Wm. E. Haysmer.

They went to the old farm home in Ronald township.

Seven children were born to them, two having passed on.

After many years of wedded life they were separated, William, the father, having passed away about eight months ago and she Monday evening, March 18.

The funeral service was held in the Yetter chapel Thursday afternoon, March 21. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery.

South Boston Grange Host to Pomona

The Ionia County Pomona Grange No. 16, will meet with South Boston Grange on Saturday, March 30, with a pot luck dinner at noon. After dinner a business session will be called in the fifth degree. Following this meeting a literary program will be rendered, consisting of readings, recitations and vocal and instrumental music will be given by the various granges of the county.

Wm. Geagley, State Analyst of the State Department of Agriculture will speak on "What the Department Does for the Public in the Way of Food Control and Chemical Analysis Work."

Mrs. Jennie L. Martin, Lecturer of Ionia County Pomona Grange, No. 4.

Lowell Roof Sign Greets the Air Men

The American Legion has completed the painting of the sign "Lowell" on the roof of the Grand stand at Recreation park, to aid the aviation program in picking out the towns and cities. George Hatch and Forrest Smith donated their time painting this sign.

The Post voted to donate to the Playground at Lowell Recreation the sum of $150.00 to be used to buy a slide for the children or some suitable equipment for their use. The Legion is appreciative of support given it in its various activities by the local townspeople and others, and is desirous of doing what it can for the community in co-operating with municipal programs.

The Lowell American Legion band is now a reality. Two rehearsals have been held and the entire personnel are unusually good musicians. Charles H. White has been appointed band director and states that he is very much pleased with the progress and co-operation he is receiving in his work. It is planned to have the first appearance of the band Memorial day.

R. B. Starkey and Will Delaney joined during the past week which now brings our membership to 102.

W. J. Kropf, Adjutant.

Thursday, 7:30, p. m., mid-week meeting.

The pastor is preaching on the subject, "The Workable Christ," by request from one who was present at the morning worship last Sunday. Acknowledging that the world view of Christ is undergoing a change, is that change destroying the "workable" Christ? The sermon will be an attempt to answer this question, and to show in what manner Christ is "workable" to-day.

The Cheerful Doers will meet April first at the Parish house. Mrs. A. Bennett is chairman of the social committee.

Friday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock the Ladies' Aid society will meet at the Parish house.

There will be an hour of worship Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the church auditorium. There will be special music, and a sermon by the pastor, "Consecrated Living."
Andrew B. Lemke, pastor.

GEMBOX $65. AND IN THIS GEMCHEST

Without tubes. We're ready to give you a demonstration of the new Crosley Gemchest radio set. It's called the GEMCHEST and represents the biggest radio value on the market today. The chest, of lacquered metal, is fashioned in a novel design inspired by Chinese Chippendale to house and combine a Gembox, A. C. electric receiver and a Dynamic Power Speaker in one instrument. The GEMCHEST is offered in three attractive colors: Mandarin Red, Maroon Black and Navy Blue. The metalwork is in a handsome design. The chest is compact, beautiful, moderate in price, 3 ultra-desirable features in having a radio set. Modern radio refinements are emphasized in the Crosley GEMCHEST. It is operated from the light socket, with that quiet which is only possible with genuine Neutrodyne circuit. It is shielded, selective, sensitive. The Dynamic Power Speaker used in the GEMCHEST is the outstanding electro-magnetic speaker of the season and has given sensational results. When you come in for a GEMCHEST demonstration, see and hear the new Crosley Gembox, the Showbox and the Dynamic Power Speaker. Today's the time!

The Open Formula shows you that the feed contains exactly what your chicks need from the first feeding until ready to lay

Complete feeding directions are given with all Amco Feeds, on the tag carrying the Open Formula. Special chick starters are more expensive than growing mash, not because they contain superior ingredients, but for two very different reasons. 1.—Their marketing season is so short that mixers and distributors have to make prices cover the chance they take in handling them, and 2—using a special starter has become a habit with so many poultrymen that almost any prices may be charged. But this expense is going out of date among sound poultrymen. Special starting mashers have been proved unnecessary.
