'Nother Big Day Saturday, May 25. "All Set"

Lowell's business men are all set for another big Better Business Bargains day, Saturday, May 25. Their special trade offerings are on the Board of Trade Committee's two page spread announcement elsewhere in this paper. The readers will save time and money by going over it in the privacy and leisure of their own homes and noting well the different offerings, rather than to depend on memory after getting to town where many things may happen to divert one's attention.

Come to Lowell and spend the day and bring the whole family. Those who came on the first Better Business Bargains day will need no urging to come this time. Those who come this time will not have to be dragged here on the last big Better Business Bargains day on June 27, the great automobile day.

Come on, everybody. Let's make it unanimous. All roads lead to Lowell, Saturday, May 25.

G. A. R. - W. R. C. are Preparing for Memorial Day

Another year has passed, and again we are nearing Memorial day with its hallowed memories and associations. A grateful people will garland with the flowers of Spring the resting places of our sacred dead and place above them the flag for whose cause they offered their lives. The Woman's Relief corps will join with the remaining few of the Grand Army of the Republic in the sacred observance of the day. The bouquets will be made by loving hands and laid tenderly upon every soldier's grave. They will also remember those who sleep beneath the ocean waves, and the nameless ones resting in unknown graves.

Year by year, and day by day the mighty roll is lengthening, recording the muster out of the untold thousands who have served on land and sea to preserve the Union.

And while we are paying our tribute of respect, do not let us forget the soldier dead of the Spanish-American war and the heroes of the World War and cover their graves with flowers. Let us not forget the shut-ins, those who are not able to go with their comrades in the work they love so well. Remember them with a plant of flowers and cheer them with a remark of good will.

During the past year death has laid a heavy hand upon the veterans of the Civil War. Taps has been sounded. They rest at last in their "low green tents." Softly the door was opened, softly the Master called, bidding our dear ones welcome to the home that awaits us all. Memories sweet as the roses, memories precious and dear, memories that speak of the loved ones will make them forever near. Somewhere in the clouds are brighter, somewhere the sorrow is gone, somewhere the joys eternal are waiting a glorious morn. A Word About the Poppy. This year 10,000,000 poppies are being made. The work started early in the winter, was divided among thirty government hospitals and convalescent workshops in twenty-five states. A penny is paid for each poppy made by the veterans, and if a man is not too badly disabled he can make 300 a day. Every one of these little red flowers worn on the lapel or elsewhere signifies loving thought for the boys who sleep beneath the blood red poppies "over there"—as well as aid for the relief and rehabilitation of the men who are still fighting the long battle against the war's wounds and illness. May the poppy bloom in greater profusion than ever this year. Press Cor.

Memorial Day To Be Observed Schools Close

Commander N. E. Borgerson, of the Charles W. Clark Post 152 of the American Legion announces that Memorial day will again be appropriately observed. Several years ago the noble veterans of the G. A. R. found it impossible to continue the custom of assuming the responsibility of providing a program for "Decoration Day." They were too few in number, and too weak physically to "carry on." The heritage that was theirs, they bestowed upon the Legion. The traditions of the boys in blue were handed down to the boys in Khaki. The spirit of the boys of '95 was left to the boys of '38 and '18. And so the Legion attempts to go forward in the footsteps of those who have gone before. Tradition decrees that the day shall be distinctly Memorial in character. The day is not one for rejoicing and celebrating. Rather it is a day for reverence for those who have served their country in time of war. It is a time when we should think of the prices paid for democracy. It is an occasion when we should renew our covenants of patriotism and loyalty.

And so in Lowell there will be no celebration. Respects will be paid to the soldier dead. Homage will be done to the living veterans of all wars. And it is hoped it will be time for serious meditation.

The Auxiliary will again decorate the graves. Those who have flowers to donate should get in touch with Mrs. William Schneider, or they should leave them at the City hall on Wednesday. Those who have cars to offer for the day should get in touch with Floyd Doolaway. Flags will be placed upon all the graves of all veterans of all wars by the Post. The Camp Fire girls will again strew flowers upon the waters in memory of those who sleep beneath the waves. Mr. Glen E. Carpenter, of Bad Axe, State Chaplain, of the Legion will give the address. George Hatch will be in charge of the Color Guard. T. A. Gazella will direct the firing squad. Howard White will present the Legion Band, and the folks are promised some real music. The parade will form as usual at the cemetery. It will be in charge of America, invocation by Rev. A. B. Lemke, solo by Mr. O. Sterkins, address, by Mr. Glenn Carpenter, one verse of the National Anthem, and the Salute by the firing squad.

CALCIUM CHLORIDE The Village will arrange to cover streets with calcium chloride in previous seasons. Price per season, $3.00 on lot with four rod front. Price per season, $5.00 on lot with 8 rod front. Notify Village Clerk at once. Phone 17. By order of the Common Council. O. J. Brezina, Clerk.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Services are held every Sunday at 11 o'clock over the Lowell State bank. Subject for the lesson sermon for May 26, is "Soul and Body." Every one is cordially invited.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS ADVERTISERS, CONTRIBUTORS AND PASTORS. The Ledger will be printed Wednesday, next week, on account of Memorial day falling on Saturday, May 25. Get all copy in on day earlier than usual to insure publication that week and oblige. THE LEDGER FORCE.

COMING SOON—"ALIBI"

"Patsy" to be Presented by the Seniors

"The Patsy," a comedy in three acts by Barry Connors, enjoyed an extremely popular run on Broadway a few years ago. The play is full of humorous situations, and abounds with snappy dialogue. In fact, it's just one laugh after another.

Patricia Harrington, the charming heroine, has been forced to play "second fiddle" to her older sister Grace, who is her mother's favorite. Mrs. Harrington has managed to keep her husband "under her thumb" for twenty-five years. But as the saying goes, "the worm finally turns," and "Pop" declares his independence as well as "Pat's" and helps her to win the man she loves.

The following cast will present "The Patsy," at the Strand theatre on May 28:

Bill Harrington—Anthony Kropf.
Mrs. Harrington—Ella Frost.
Grace Harrington—Alice McCarty.
Patricia Harrington—Evelyn Yeiter.
Billy Caldwell—Lee Keech.
Tony Anderson—Gordon Ross.
Sadie Buchanan—Thelma Hall.
Francis Patrick O'Flaherty—Andrew Hoover.
"Trip" Busty—Andrew Hoover.
You can't afford to miss "The Patsy," which is being presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, of New York.

POPPIES

"In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row."
Buy Me—I stand for service. I enabled one cent to be earned by a disheartened service man in the hospital. All you pay for me goes for service for those for whom the war is not yet over. Buy Me, Wear Me. I represent the sacrificial blood of the men who fell on Flanders Fields. I am a memorial to all who died in service. In reverence and understanding, Wear Me. The public will have an opportunity to help the great work of the American Legion and of paying a tribute to all who died in service by buying a poppy for Memorial day. Sale begins on Saturday, May 25 and continues until Memorial day.

DERBY WINNER Named for Trainer Born at Lowell

The victory achieved by Clyde VanDusen in the Kentucky Derby Saturday recalls very vividly the days of a generation or more ago when Lowell was one of the horse racing centers of the middle west. Clyde Van Dusen, the horse of the Herbert P. Gardner string, was named after its trainer and trainer Clyde VanDusen is a Lowell man.

Many years ago, more than 20 in fact, Van Dusen, born and raised in Lowell, was working about horses and riding them in events on the half-mile track there. When the sport began to wane in this section Van Dusen accepted a position as a trainer in the east and became associated with the Gardner stables in Amsterdam, N. Y. He was successful and now besides being the chief trainer he also is the manager of the Gardner horse affairs.—Grand Rapids Press.

CLYDE VANDUSEN TO ENTER TWO BIG RACES. Chicago, May 21.—Clyde Van Dusen, 1929 Kentucky Derby winner, will seek more fame and gold in two of Chicago's richest stakes, the American Derby and the American Classic, this Summer.

The American Derby will be held at Washington park June 15, with $50,000 added money, while the American Classic at Arlington park July 13 will be for $60,000.

VERGENNES AND LOWELL GET NEW GRAVEL ROADS. The Kent County Road Commissioner is advertising in the Grand Rapids Herald for bids on the construction of two Vergennes township gravel roads, proposals to be in by May 28 at 12:30 p. m., central standard time. One of these roads is for 1.1174 miles of 16-foot gravel road to be known as the Fallsburg Bridge road and the other is for 0.966 miles of 16-foot one course gravel road, 6-inch compacted, designated as the Vergennes-Murray Lake road.

A third one, project designated as the South-Lowell River Road, is for 2.075 miles of 16-foot gravel road, 16-inch compacted in Lowell township, and bids were to be in by May 21, at 12:30 p. m. Mr. Commissioner: Don't you think this advertising belonged in Lowell?

ARREST IONIA MAN ON 3RD CHARGE OF FALSE PRETENSES.

Ionia, May 17.—Jay Hodges, 50, was arrested tonight on the farm of David McRoberts, a brother-in-law, of Kent county, near Lowell, on a third charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The last offense is said to have been committed last Nov. 8, when Hodges represented to W. C. McCarty, of Lake Odessa State bank that he owned property in Grant township, Mecosta county, and obtained $550. He had previously given a deed to the property.

His first offense was in January, 1919, when he was sentenced to Ionia reformatory for one to five years and his second, Aug. 17 last, when he was put on probation for three years.

TO MOVE SCHOOL HOUSE. The Barnett school house, a mile south and two miles west of Lowell, is to be moved by the Kent county road commission to permit development of a gravel pit on the site. The new location of the school house will be 1,000 feet from the old. The new schoolyard will contain two acres.

Fineis Team Wins Over Greenville

Last Sunday the Fineis Oil Co.'s crack nine took the measure of the much heralded Greenville Independents to the tune of 6 to 4. In defeating the fast Greenville team the Lowell boys demonstrated beyond a doubt that they are out to win ball games. Williams' four hits, one of them a home run coupled with Jones' two triples proved the undoing of Greenville.

Next Sunday the Leonard Refrigerators came back for the second game here this season. The Leonard won the opening game from our boys on a fast game, 4 to 1. Our boys all said after the game that they can't do it again, and they mean to prove it. Come out and see them get revenge. We have the best independent team in the state and playing nothing but fast company and assuring every lover of baseball value received.

Build While You Live

The purchase of a family memorial is too important to delegate to your survivors. Like the purchase of life insurance, the making of a will or creating a trust fund—the erection of a family memorial requires careful thought and investigation. It requires the same good judgment that you use in your business. We urge you not to leave this task to some one else. Take up the memorial problem with us and we are certain you will be satisfied in every respect.

Chief
Faster than ever. In 1928 won 10 out of 12 official American Class B Records. Every detail of construction assures speed and reliability in operation. In addition, the 1929 "Chief" embodies a remarkable new engineering feature—

"Water-Sealed" Exhaust
This new feature does away with annoying exhaust noise, and the astonishing thing about it is that not one whit of power is lost—there is no loss of speed.

All Equipped with the Lockwood "Pilot"
All Lockwood Motors are equipped with the Lockwood "Pilot"—the "sumo" that takes hold of the Motor when you let go of motion reverse or tipping caused by motor getting out of control.
