Everyone KNOWS

That A Bank Account Is Absolutely Essential to the proper transaction of business. Besides offering a maximum of conveniences and assuring dispatch in the transfer of moneys, accounts paid by check insure the payer against all possible loss or wrong payment, and the check when cancelled, makes the best receipt to be had.

But in addition to the NECESSITY of a bank account, there are many ways in which association with this bank can materially benefit you.

Winegar & Hartman

This for M-66 Lowell 56 Belding 0

Last Friday the local gridders ran rough-shod over their rivals from the Silk city. Our boys out-classed the visitors in all departments of the game and they took another step toward sectional honors in class C. Belding was never in Lowell territory. They made three first downs but all of these were made in their own section of the field. We are not going to dwell on the details of the game except to say that every one of the boys played superb football in scoring two touchdowns each period. Coach Finch used at least twenty-five players during the game.

THE BIG GAME FRIDAY.

To date Lowell has not been defeated or tied by a C team, and has won all of the games by a large margin. East Grand Rapids has not been defeated by a class C team but has been tied twice during the season. As far as county competition is concerned neither East or Lowell has been stopped. East has won two more county games than Lowell. On Friday these two teams will meet at East Grand Rapids for championship. This will be Lowell's last game but East must yet encounter Rockford. In order to lay undisputed claim to the county honors Lowell must defeat East. A tie game, which is the day the last two games ended between these rivals, would mean that East would claim the championship providing they defeat Rockford next week. A great many Lowell fans seem to think that the game Friday is already in the bag. We would remind these enthusiasts that East Grand Rapids has a very good team. We predict that the score will be close and that if Lowell is to register a victory the boys will have to go at top speed. The game will start at 2:15 p. m. and will be played on the grid-iron next to East High school. Lowell fans will undoubtedly be wrought up over this tussle, but we are asking that they will be good sports along the side lines. The finest sort of spirit exists between players and coaches of the two schools and we would dislike to have the spectators do anything that would mar the friendly relationship. The names of the officials have been submitted to coach Finch and no matter who has charge of the game we want to remind the fans that coach Finch has agreed to the officials. The game will be broadcast over station W. A. S. H. beginning at 2:15. W. W. G.

LITERARY-ATHLETIC CLUB

Tuesday night the Lowell Literary Athletic club held its first regular meeting of the year. This organization consists of all the boys of the Senior High school who wish to receive social and literary training. Their meetings are held every other Tuesday night at the High school. After a short business meeting a varied literary program is presented by the group itself or by some outside speaker. Following this there is a general "get together" of the faculty men and fellows to become better acquainted. It is rumored that "eats" often find a place in this part of the meetings. The following officers have been elected: President, Everett Gulembo; vice president, Robert Townsend; secretary, Clarence Klahn; treasurer, Harry Broadbent; sponsors, Mr. Zwemer, Mr. Miller. Many interesting programs have been arranged and the business men of the town are invited to visit the club any time they find it convenient.

LOWELL BOY SCORES $100 TOUCHDOWN.

Lowell, Nov. 1.—Jack Peckham, 110-pound reserve quarterback for Lowell High school, made a touch-down against Belding today, and as a result the athletic association received a gift of $100 tonight. The diminutive quarter back is a fine field general and he has participated in most of the games this year. This is Jack's last year in school and he has never crossed an opponent's goal line. His mother was heard to state at a recent game that she would give $100 to see her son score a touch-down. Coach Finch permitted all of the seniors on his squad to score touchdowns today, and when Jack scored his mother made the gift to the association. Lowell will have fine new basketball suits this year.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

The Board of Education Monday decided to give the children a half holiday Friday. The Board wanted to show that it appreciated the fact that athletics have interfered very little with school work this year. The occasion is the big game of the season at East Grand Rapids and every one will be given an opportunity to attend. Schools will be open at eight o'clock on Friday and run until 11:45. The game will start at 2 p. m.

LOWELL COUPLE WED QUIETLY HERE, OCT. 26.

Miss Juanita M. Cogswell, of Lowell, and Miles Hooper, of Saranac, were quietly married Saturday evening, Oct. 25, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mabel Hall, Melbourne, N. E. Rev. Wilson J. Brown read the service. After an informal wedding supper the couple left for their honeymoon trip, and will make their home in Lowell after Nov. 15.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)

AUCTION SALE.

Mrs. Leece and James Sweet will have an auction sale of farm personal on the Leece farm one mile north of Keene church on Friday, November 5. See adv. in this paper for full particulars.

Musical Treat With Silver Collection

The people of Lowell are promised a great musical treat next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by the Kyros Concert company.

Bassilios Andrea Kyros, bass-baritone, a master singer and composer, will render two groups of songs, and this will be an exceptional musical treat for Lowell people as Mr. Kyros voice is one of rare richness and power.

After the first group of songs, the panoramic painting of Jerusalem, a canvas 9 by 5 feet by Gifford, will be illuminated, and Cassandra will deliver a short lecture on the Holy City. She will be in oriental costume. The painting will be illuminated after Mr. Kyros sings the last of his first group, which will be "The Holy City."

There will be no admission charged, the Kyros company depending entirely upon the generosity of the public in contributing. A silver offering will be taken.

This concert was given last Sunday evening to a crowded congregation at the First Methodist church in Ionia, and received great praise for their work. Press comments are highly favorable.

The people of Lowell and surrounding country are invited to enjoy this concert at the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

GERMAN M. E. CHURCH.

German preaching Sunday at 10 o'clock. Subject: "In the World but not of the World." Bible school at 11 o'clock. You are cordially invited to these meetings.

FOR THE FELLOW WHO WANTS TO PAY FOR HIS LEDGER BUT NEVER IN WHEN HE IS.

Armistice Day Treat. Legion Fair

The Charles W. Clark Post No. 152, American Legion, Lowell, has arranged with Harvey Callier to lease his Strand theater Monday, November 11. There will be three complete shows, one at 3:00, 7:00 and 9:30 p. m. The admission is free to every one.

At the conclusion of the 7 o'clock show which will be about 9:00, p. m., the Lowell American Legion band will play a few selections on the Strand theater stage. There will be singing and a few short remarks by Lowell Legionnaires.

Remember everything is absolutely free of charge and you are urged to attend this show at your convenience. In the evening at 7:00, p. m., a banquet will be served at Lowell City hall to all ex-service men of this community. This banquet is sponsored by the local Legion Post, and every man who saw service during the World war is invited to be present. This is to be a real banquet with no charges attached. The band will play for us and there will be short talks and entertainment in store for you. Remember 11 years ago what the Armistice meant to you. Come on you doughboys, Gobs, etc. let's reunite Nov. 11 and talk over old times.

AMERICAN LEGION FAIR.

Nov. 21-22-23, three big days, so get those dates fixed in your mind. There will be something doing every minute that the doors are open. There will be exhibits, entertainment and prizes. The big prize for Saturday night is another Atwater-Kent radio. Tickets for this prize can be had from any Legionnaire. Remember the dates, Nov. 21-22-23.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Bible school, 10 a. m. R. Y. P. U., 6:30 p. m., led by Miss Bahna, of Grand Rapids. Evening services at 7:30. Prayer meeting, 7:30 Thursday evening at Dick Venlet's on Peck's Hill. A. J. Hallsma, pastor.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

We invite all to the services next Sunday. Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. Armistice day sermon by the pastor. Subject, "The War to End War." Church school at 12 noon. Intermediate League at 5 o'clock. At 8 o'clock p. m., the Kyros Concert company will give a sacred concert. This will be very fine and all are invited. Besides the singing of Mr. Kyros there will be a short lecture on Jerusalem by Cassandra in oriental costume, and a large illuminated painting of Jerusalem.

The Triple-C Circle will hold a coffee at the home of Mrs. Freyermuth Thursday, Nov. 7. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend. The Woman's Missionary society will hold their monthly meeting Friday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. F. F. Coons. All members and other women interested are invited.

Mill Tax Fight Goes Merrily On

The mill tax fight in the board of supervisors moved yesterday into its fourteenth day when the city supervisors walked out and left the 24 country supervisors and Walter H. Brooks, of East Grand Rapids, without a quorum.

Finding nothing else could be done, the township supervisors journeyed until 9:30 this morning, the court fixed by a motion offered by Supervisor Judson D. Forsyth, who took the chair, put the motion, declared it carried and led the procession through the door.

Rural supervisors protested yesterday the extension of the session is costing the taxpayers $250 a day, but there is a report the city supervisors are ready to attend to that—they will block adoption of pay-roll when the session comes eventually to an end.

Meet to Continue Tilt

The board met Wednesday morning to carry on the fight. Adoption of the county budget had been prevented Tuesday when the rural supervisors lacked one vote of putting it over. The mill tax for 1930 county road construction and the Covert road tax to be spread upon the county at large had been referred to the appointment committee of which Supervisor William Grewe is chairman.

As soon as Supervisor Thomas E. Walsh, chairman of the airport committee, had caused the matter of cancelling the Grand Rapids' Flying club's lease to the airport to be referred to the airport and finance committee and prosecutor for report at the January session, Supervisor Frank C. Steinmann, chairman of the city steering committee, moved to adjourn until this morning. This motion lost. So did a motion by Supervisor W. B. Chalmers to recess until Wednesday afternoon.

The appointment committee had no report. Supervisor Grewe answered the roll call at the beginning of the session and then disappeared. The city side was using all the strategy at its command. A delay in presentation of the committee report may be the means of bringing about reconsideration of the mill tax, leaders said.

Motion Is Lost.

Supervisor Post, of Algoma township, who had changed his vote on Tuesday that he might be in a position yesterday to move for reconsideration of the question of adoption of the budget, offered such a motion.

Only 23 affirmative votes were cast, three short of the number required. There were 19 negative votes, all by city members. Six members of the city faction, Supervisors Grewe, Kelm, Kik, Panfil, Scriber and Souter, were absent. The roll call, too, showed that although there were 45 members present when the budget adoption motion of Tuesday was defeated, and that number is required under the rule to permit reconsideration, only 44 voted on Post's motion.

Supervisor Emmons, of Wyoming township, protested the city members had right to obstruct business of the board by remaining away and he suggested they be denied compensation.

Supervisor Kamp offered a motion to recess until 2 Wednesday afternoon. It lost, 19 to 25.

OBITUARY—PHEBE ANN TOWL

Phebe Ann Towl, the youngest child of Benjamin W. and Caroline Towl, was born in Vergennes township, Feb. 6, 1846. At the age of 12 years she, with her mother and three other children, moved to Boston township, her father having passed away when she was about three years of age. Compelled by poor eye sight to leave the rural school she studied at home. Her mind was naturally bright and inquiring, as well as noble, and had it not been for the handicap of failing sight which finally left her in complete darkness, she would probably have been a woman of exceptional accomplishments. As it was she lived a fine Christian life and was greatly beloved by all who knew her.

During the past 62 years she has lived on the farm four miles south of Lowell, where, after an illness of several months, she passed away Friday morning, Nov. 1, aged 83 years, 8 months and 25 days. Since early life she was a member of the Methodist church in South Boston. She was the last member of her immediate family and is survived by no relatives nearer than her nieces and nephews—Mrs. Emma Rickner, the Misses Della and Hattie Hatch, of Lowell, Miss Eloise Towl, of Grand Ledge, Ben Towl, of Grand Ledge, and J. C. Hatch, of Lowell. These and other friends mourn her death, but rejoice that her sufferings are ended, and that her hope was bright to the end.

The funeral service was held at the home Sunday afternoon, Nov. 3, Rev. A. T. Carland, officiating. Burial was in Fox Corners cemetery.

Those from out of town attending the funeral were Ben and Eloise Towl, of Grand Ledge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deephouse, of Grand Haven, Mrs. Mary Denton, of Belding, Mrs. Lottie Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Elkins, of Rockford, Mr. and Mrs. Will Knaack and Charles Kelly, of Grand Rapids.
