Strand Theatre Will Reopen at An Early Date

Manager Callier, of the New Strand theatre announced today that he had concluded negotiations with RCA Photophone, Inc., New York City, for the installation of its sound on film reproducing equipment in his theatre. In making the announcement Manager Callier said that the equipment had been shipped from New York and that installation engineers were now busy on the job.

"It is with a great deal of satisfaction that I make this announcement," said Manager Callier. "Having had many opportunities to see various types of sound reproducing equipment in operation in various theatres, it did not take me long to come to a decision when I saw and heard the RCA Photophone projection apparatus in operation. In my opinion, having made comparisons with other sound reproducing equipment, it is the best. The invasion of sound into the motion picture industry presented a great problem to the exhibitor and particularly to the small town theatre owner. Coming, as it did, almost over night, there immediately followed a wide variety of so-called sound projection apparatus, and many exhibitors, myself included, in the effort to meet the competition installed one of the first equipment they could capture. However, there has been such vast improvements in the past six months that I decided a change was necessary.

"Dependent solely upon those who have so liberally patronized my theatre in the past, I felt obligated to give them the best sound reproducing equipment available. Therefore, I investigated dozens of theatres whose various types of sound projection apparatus had been installed and not only heard the sound delivered by them, but carefully inspected the machines in the projection rooms.

"When I learned that RCA Photophone, Inc., was a subsidiary of the Radio Corporation of America, and that its own engineers of the General Electric company and the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, had built the sound equipment, I became convinced that it was the apparatus for my theatre. Having satisfied myself on this point, which, in passing, was the most difficult problem I ever had to solve, I hope the patrons of the Strand theatre, and in fact everybody in this community, will endorse my judgment."

Manager Callier said he hoped he would be able to make the announcement of his opening date and the first sound picture within the next few weeks.

RCA Photophone sound reproducing equipment is installed in many of the largest motion picture theatres in the United States, among them are the theatres operated by the Radio-Kelth-Orpheum circuit and several hundred so-called independent theatres. Recent noteworthy installations include the Little Carnegie Playhouse on West 57th Street, New York City; the Pier Theatre on the million dollar pier at Miami, Florida; and the beautiful new theatre of California, California. One of the new Type "C" models was chosen by the Matsuo Steamship Line for installation upon the S. S. Malolo, largest and fastest passenger vessel plying the Pacific ocean.

Lowell Club Holds Annual Luncheon Meet

Members of the Lowell Women's club numbering about forty-five met at the Lone Pine Inn, Wednesday, May 14, for their annual luncheon. This being President's day and the last meeting of the year, our president, Mrs. C. D. Hodges, and her assistant, Mrs. C. H. Reynolds, acted as hostesses and had charge of the program.

After the customary business meeting conducted by the president, Miss Carrie Hanney, of Greenville, was introduced, and she gave a most interesting talk about the Kentucky school at Singing-Carr Creek.

Here we find the natives of the purest American stock, being the descendants of the English and Irish pioneers who settled among the mountains during the latter part of the 18th century. Being so isolated they have lived among themselves, and it was only about ten years ago that the first school was established with a membership of 26 pupils. Now they have about 150 enrolled with 30 in the high school.

Miss Hanney, who has worked in the schools for about three years, told about their eagerness for education and their appreciation of all that is done for them. There are no railroads in the place and less money per capita than any other place in the United States.

Mrs. Herman Strong, of Grand Rapids, sang two numbers "Bird Songs at Eventide" by Sylvio and "Coates" by Oley Speaks. She was accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Weekes.

Mrs. C. H. Hodges, retiring president, gave a short address thanking the club members for their co-operation during her two years as president and introduced our new president, Mrs. C. H. Reynolds. With a few witty remarks Mrs. Reynolds accepted the gavel and outlined some of the work she hopes to accomplish during the coming club year.

AUTO QUITS ROAD: LLOYD ROGERS DIES.

Injured when his automobile left the highway on Cannonsburg-rd., about a mile and a half west of Cannonsburg late Friday night, Lloyd Rogers, 22, of 318 Douglas-st., N. W., died within a few minutes after he was taken to St. Mary's hospital.

His companion, Miss Margaret VanderKlock, 22, of 6033 Pleitt-st., S. W., is in a critical condition in St. Mary's hospital from internal injuries suffered in the crash.

The young couple were en route home about midnight from a party at Townsend park when Rogers failed to negotiate a turn in the road. The automobile went through a fence and turned over, throwing Miss VanderKlock clear of the car and pinning the driver under the steering wheel. Deputies Sheriff Charles Lawver and John Matthews reported.

In addition to internal injuries, which resulted in his death, Rogers suffered an arm fracture.

Coroner H. C. Wain is investigating the tragedy.—(Grand Rapids Press, May 17.)

Special Memorial day attractions include a sensational illuminated parachute jump from an airplane into Reed's lake at night. This is the first time that this feat has ever been attempted in Western Michigan. Ted Sweet, Michigan's one-legged ballroomist, will also attempt a parachute drop into the lake after seeking an altitude record with his balloon.

Fineis Oils Beat Athletics Tune of 7 to 1

Last Sunday, May 18 was an uncomfortable day both for players and witnesses, but about three hundred enthusiasts braved the cold breezes to see the opening game of the 1930 season at Recreation park between the Fineis Oils and the East Grand Rapids Athletics, which the local team won easily by a score of seven to one.

Brooks pitching in mid season form allowed the visitors three singles, two of which were bunched on the fifth inning, accounting for the visitors' lone score.

The game was snappy despite the cold weather, and only one error marred an otherwise perfect game.

This also was contributed by the visitors. The pitching tells the story of the entire game. While the East outfit were gathering their three safeties our boys were amassing a total of eleven safeties off Dideon's delivery for a total of fifteen bases.

Runs—Fineis Oils, 7; Athletics, 1.

Hits—Fineis Oils, 11, Athletics, 3.

Errors—Fineis Oils, 0, Athletics, 1.

Struck out—Brooks, 6; Dideon, 6.

Game next Sunday at Recreation park at 3:30, p. m., between the visiting team, the Pere Marquette of Grand Rapids and the Fineis Oils. The management has spoken for good weather, a big crowd, and a fine game and it is hoped it will not be disappointed.

Poppy Sacred Memorial to Soldier Dead

On Saturday, May 24, millions of Americans will wear the blood red poppy of Flanders Field, in memory of those gallant American boys who sacrificed their lives in the World War.

The little wild poppy was the one touch of beauty which survived all along the battle front. At the edge of the trenches, beneath the tangled barbed wire, along the ragged shell holes, and over the fresh graves it raised its brave red blossoms. The soldiers of all nations came to connect the poppy with thoughts of their dead comrades.

The idea was such a delicate and beautiful thing, that only a poet could give it concrete expression. The poet to whom the inspiration came was Col. John McCrea, a Canadian medical officer, soon to be beneath the poppies himself.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row,
Through the work of the millions of
Unremembered men who here lay low;
Their names are on the walls of Flanders—
To the people who still are living
Give them a resting place,
But do not move them;—
The dead of Flanders—
Blessed are their souls,
Blessed are their graves.

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary will be on the streets Saturday, May 24, and again on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (Memorial Day). They hope to dispose of 2,000 poppies in Lowell during this campaign. All of the money taken in goes for local rehabilitation work, to the hospitals, or to the Children's Bilet at Otter Lake.

Thelma P. Hahn,
Chairman Poppy Sale.

G. A. R. AND W. R. C. MEMORIAL DAY TRIBUTE.

Memorial day commemorates the patriotic dead—those who died in behalf of the Flag. It should be kept sacred. It should be a day when our people reverently consider those whose faces reappear only in memory and who fought to preserve our liberty and to establish justice.

It is the Nation's Day of remembrance, and tenderly remembers that great memory which draws us to our dead. Memory is the only friend, that grief can call her own.

These soldiers died for us. They died for America. Then let us cherish tenderly the memory of our heroic dead who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance.

The W. R. C. ladies are asking the donation of flowers that they may as usual make some 200 bouquets for the soldier dead. They especially ask the school children to render their services in this part. Please bring to the City hall on Thursday afternoon, May 29. Some one will be there to receive them.

Decoration day exercises will be held at South Boston Grange hall May 30 at 9 o'clock, eastern standard time. Good program and speaking.

The Inexpensive Way To Achieve The Modern Decorative Touch

TO HELP YOU achieve the smart contemporary decorative note without refurbishing your home, there is nothing like wallpaper. Wallpaper enables you to attain freshened decorative distinction for every room... without relegating heirlooms... without experimenting in oddity... without expending overmuch.

It is not strange that wallpaper is depended upon to carry the decorative scheme of so many of America's most exclusive homes. Wallpaper furnishes the perfect setting for our furniture, our pictures, our clothes—ourselves. We can make that setting as vigorously modern as we wish and yet send none of our treasured period furniture to the garret. We don't have to make over our homes completely to bring them up-to-date in a decorative sense.

Wallpaper works the subtle magic which transforms a museum-like room to a miracle of cheer. Wallpaper can turn even the hospital-like cell which is the average American bathroom into a room worthy to be considered a part of the home's decorative ensemble. Wallpaper can bring color and design into a kitchen, a closet or a hallway which might otherwise have been less attractive than the more important rooms of the house. Truly—wallpaper works wonders.

They Wield the Strap
No ancestors except their immediate ones seem to have an effect on the manners of children.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The delightfully appetizing way French chefs have of preparing vegetables by adding a dash of sugar to restore or "point up" their natural sweetness, is becoming increasingly popular with American housewives. Here are two recipes from Mr. Diat's own private collection that have a special appeal.

Wash thoroughly and drain three pounds of spinach. Boil fifteen minutes in one cup of salted water to which one teaspoon of sugar has been added. Drain and press out all of the water. Rub through a coarse sieve.

Melt four tablespoons of butter, adding three tablespoons of flour to make a smooth paste. Add slowly one and one-half cups of milk. Cook and stir widely until thick. Cool slightly and add the yolks of four eggs. Add the prepared spinach and one teaspoon of powdered sugar. Fold in the beaten whites. Pile in a buttered soufflé dish and bake in a moderate oven over for twenty-five minutes.

Peas and Carrots in Cream—4 portions—Plunge two cups of fresh shelled peas into boiling salted water to which one teaspoon of sugar has been added. Boil slowly for twenty-five minutes. Cook six small diced carrots in the same manner. Drain them both and saute gently in two teaspoons of butter. Add salt and one teaspoon of sugar and blend with four tablespoons of boiling cream, which may or may not be thickened with three-fourths teaspoon of flour.

Favorite Recipes of a Famous Chef

as Told to Anne Baker
By LOUIS DIAT, Chef,
The Ritz Carlton, New York

Favorite Bible Passages of Thomas D. Schall
U. S. Senator from Minnesota.

Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.— Hebrews 12:6.

Comment: In the first year of my blindness I often wished that He had not loved me quite so much, but through the chastisement has come to me understanding. With that understanding I realize the truth. I no longer pray "Take the cup from me," but accept the fight for life as it is presented to me. After twenty-one years of darkness I wouldn't trade the understanding that has come to me for all the eyes in the world.

I entered the forest of darkness untaught, undisciplined, grasping, selfish. I came out of that darkness when understanding became my sight, when I had learned to bear disappointment, when I had comprehended to do the thing that was to be done for love of the cause and not for self-aggrandizement. When I became interested unselfishly, and worked because the work was there to be done, without considering whether the result would help me or not—though in the doing of the thing that would not help me I was most helped—I began to understand what Christ meant, when His disciples, quarreling among themselves as to who should be first, replied: "The first shall be last and the last shall be first. He that shall endure until the end shall be saved." (Compiled by the Bible Guild.)
