HONOR DINNER BY BD. TRADE

Morrison Lake Club Is Scene of Delightful Affair

MANY IN ATTENDANCE

The Lowell Board of Trade did honor to itself last Monday evening when a large portion of the membership assembled at the Morrison Lake club for its regular June meeting and to enjoy a dinner given in honor of two of Lowell's older citizens, Mr. Will S. Winegar and Mr. Frank M. Johnson, both of whom are retiring from active business life here after long and honorable careers. Mr. Winegar, with a record of fifty years in the drug business and Mr. Johnson with a record of 37 years as publisher of The Lowell Ledger.

At 7 o'clock the party gathered in the pleasant dining room facing beautiful Morrison lake, and after doing full justice to a bountiful repast, order was called by President Verne E. Ashley, who called upon Norton Henry to preside as toastmaster. Events moved smoothly and in a happy vein under Mr. Henry's guidance. After a brief period of fun in which Mr. Winegar and Mr. Johnson proved themselves the best kind of good scots, a number of the old time residents were called upon who spoke reminiscences of everyday life in Lowell. Their remarks were greatly appreciated by the old-timers, and of unusual interest was that of the later arrivals of Lowell.

Among those who spoke were Rep. D. G. Look, R. D. Stocking, F. T. King, B. E. Quick, R. E. Springett, H. J. Coons, H. L. Weekes, Dr. F. E. White, M. B. McPherson, F. J. McMahon, J. A. Arthart, Wm. Hartman, E. A. Thomas and the Rev. A. T. Garland.

The Ledger wishes it were able to convey the interest which was manifested in the remarks of the above named speakers, and the expressions of good will and good wishes which were made for the two men in whose honor the dinner was given. Several of the speakers referred to "Long Ago Events," which had more or less to do in making local history.

At the conclusion of the speaking the toastmaster, on behalf of the Lowell Board of Trade, presented Mr. Winegar and Mr. Johnson each with a fine silk umbrella. The recipients made happy and appreciative responses. Mr. Johnson, at the conclusion of his remarks, in a pleasing manner introducing R. G. Jeffries, his successor as publisher of The Ledger, after which the meeting was dismissed by President Ashley.

FRANK M. JOHNSON,
Lowell Publisher for 37 Years.

KIND WORDS FOR LEDGER

Press of State Has Praise for its Past, Confidence in its Future

IS COMMUNITY ASSET

Many of the newspapers of the state have made comments on the recent change in ownership of The Ledger, expressing praise for its past and confidence in its future, all of which is gratefully acknowledged by both the outgoing and the incoming publishers. We believe our readers will be interested in the comments, a portion of which appear below.

From Belding Banner-News.

"The newspaper fraternity of the state of Michigan regretted to learn last week of the retirement of Frank M. Johnson, 'Uncle Marcus,' editor of the Lowell Ledger, which he founded nearly forty years ago and which has been under his supervision and editorship ever since. Mr. Johnson's retirement from active work marked the 50th anniversary of his start in the newspaper field, and it would be a hard matter to find in all those years, a time or an incident when Uncle Marcus' paper was not advocating progress and betterment of the community and while humans are likely to be on the wrong side occasionally, we could swear that Frank M. Johnson, both as an editor and as a citizen, has always been on the right side. We do not know of a person in the newspaper field in our near quarter of a century experience and acquaintance, who has had a truer heart, greater courage, or disclosed a liner friendship than our friend, Frank M. Johnson, and it is with genuine regret that we learn of his retirement, even though it is well earned and comes after a long life of service." (Continued on Page Two)

STRAND OPENS ON JUNE 15TH

New Talking Equipment, Acoustics Improved, Redecorated

IS ONE OF THE BEST

After weeks spent in making many improvements to an already fine theater, the people of this vicinity will be glad to know that the Strand will reopen next Sunday. Mr. Harvey Callier, the proprietor, has spared neither labor nor expense in providing one of the finest and best equipped play houses to be found in the state.

The new talking picture equipment is considered the very ultimate, being the R. A. C. photophone, and is identical with that used in the best metropolitan theaters.

The interior of the theater has been entirely redecorated and treated by engineers to correct acoustical faults. This is accomplished by the application of sound insulation material to the offending surfaces and eliminates all objectionable reverberation and interfering echoes that ordinarily tend to garble reproduction.

Lowell is exceptionally fortunate in the possession of a theater of the calibre of the Strand. It's reopening is a great benefit to the city, and it is a pity that the size of Lowell and moving picture men are continually inspecting this modern enterprise with a view of improving their own theaters.

We are sure the people of Lowell all vicinity will appreciate Mr. Callier's efforts. He has demonstrated his faith in Lowell in filling a desired need and in making a valuable asset for the benefit of the entire community.

Hollis Drew, who for the past four years has been manager of the Orpheum theater in Ionia, will assist Mr. Callier in the capacity of advertising manager, and in charge of projection work. Mr. Drew is a pleasant man to meet. He will move his family here in the near future.

ALL TEACHERS NOW SECURED

Three New Faces Will Grace the Faculty Next Year

A NUMBER 1 STAFF

The Lowell Board of Education has completed the roster of teachers for 1930-31. Three new faces will grace the faculty next Fall when school opens on September 2. Mr. Carl Brablec, who graduates from M. S. T. C. at Ypsilanti in June with an A. B. degree, will teach Junior High mathematics. Mr. Brablec hails from Britton. He has been very active on the campus at college, having served three years as a debater, and acting as editor of the college paper during the past year. Mr. Brablec replaces Mr. Milford Finch, who returned to school last December.

Miss Arlene Ogden, from Michigan State college, will teach French and English. She is one of the outstanding young ladies on the campus at Michigan State college. She will take the place vacated by Miss Van Hartsveldt, who has resigned to pursue other activities.

Miss Dorothy Busman will have charge of the Commercial department. She will secure her degree at Western State Training college in June. Miss Busman has had two years of experience in the class room. Miss Fox goes to Battle Creek next year where she will teach commercial subjects.

All of the other teachers will return. Mr. Smith has been promoted to the principalship. This move was made after consulting with Mrs. Smith, who is now principal. Mrs. Smith will remain as teacher of English. This change was made largely because Mrs. Smith found the work as principal too great a strain on her physical strength. She has never been physically right since her injury in an automobile wreck some time ago.

The rest of the teachers are: Mr. Lee Miller, social science; Mr. R. W. Finch, manual training and physical training; Pauline Walker, home economics; Anna Mae Lyse, languages; Adrian Zwemer, science; Helen Hause, mathematics; Mrs. R. W. Finch, social science and physical training; Dorothy Marsman, music and art; Lucy Moody, fifth grade C. B.; Dorothy Roth, sixth grade C. B.; Dora Bangs, kindergarten C.; Lois Krieger and Frances Sydnam at East Ward; Marion Bushnell and Katherine Perry at South Ward.

The schools will continue under the capable leadership of Supl. W. W. Gumsner, who has worked hard and faithfully to maintain and advance the high character of our schools.

Business men or local merchants who have accounts against the Board of Education or against any school organization such as classes or clubs should report the same to Mr. Gumsner as soon as possible.

Only cherry pie will be served for dessert in Traverses City hotels, restaurants, cafes and cafeterias during the third annual Cherry Harvest Festival to be held there next month. Pretty good pie timber, we'll say.

Lowell Wins State Championship In Stock Judging Contest

Mr. W. J. Smith, teacher of agriculture, has received a beautiful Walter French trophy from Michigan State College signifying that Lowell has won the state championship in stock judging. Lowell won first place after competing with 39 schools. The members of the stock judging team who brought this honor to Lowell were John Peckham, William Reed and Rudolph Wittenbach. These boys are scheduled to take a trip to Kansas City next Fall where they will compete for national honors. Mr. Smith entered three other teams in the contests which were held at Michigan State college in May. All of these teams made excellent records and we are proud of their accomplishments. In dairy judging Lowell placed eighth in competition with 80 other schools; in potato judging Lowell placed fourth out of 75 schools; in grain judging Lowell placed fourth out of 90 schools. The success of the Lowell teams was the outstanding event of the contests which were participated in by over 1,500 boys from all over the state of Michigan. Everett Wittenbach, Clarence Klahn, and Robert Townsend also are to be mentioned because of their high individual scores.

SUPERVISORS IN HOT BATTLE

City Group Would Wrest Control of Board From Ruralites

CUSTOM CAST ASIDE

The so-called city group of supervisors, said to be under the dictatorship of George W. Welsh, city manager of Grand Rapids, is attempting to unseat Maurice Post, of Ionia township, as chairman of the board.

This attempt to unseat Mr. Post violates an established custom, whereby for years the chairmanship has alternated regularly between city and country. At the regular April session Mr. Post was elected to the office, being the rural section's turn to have the chairmanship. A perusal of subsequent official proceedings shows that Mr. Post's election was fully recognized as committee appointments were approved in the regular way and other business duly transacted.

Following the announcement of George E. Fritz, district census supervisor, that East Grand Rapids had a population of more than 4,000, which, if true, would entitle the city to an additional supervisor, effort was made to secure the additional appointment, which was done. With a fourth East Grand Rapids supervisor the rural call becomes 52, and 27 is necessary for a majority. The vote being close between the two groups, the importance of another vote becomes significant.

M. B. McPherson, of Vergennes township, capable champion of the rural group, questions the E. Grand Rapids census on three important points: First, that the census returns are not official until reported from Washington; second, that many persons, at least, made up largely of nurses in training at Blodgett hospital, should not have been included in the East Grand Rapids census, as they are counted elsewhere; third, that the action of the East Grand Rapids mayor, in appointing a fourth supervisor and the city committee in confirming it is unheard of. "The haste was unseemly," says Mr. McPherson, "and the action certainly unwarranted. There will be little difficulty in overturning the appointment."

It is to be regretted that the amicable "gentleman's agreement" which has prevailed on the Board of Supervisors for many years, whereby the chairmanship has been alternated and board affairs generally speaking fairly conducted, should be cast aside through the injection of cheap politics. To the credit of some of the city supervisors it should be stated, we are informed, that they do not wholly approve of this attempted unfair domination, and it is to be hoped that the board's business will again be handled in a manner for the good of Kent county as a whole.

Free Chest Clinic at City Hall June 18

Lowell will again be favored with a free clinic for examination of the chest on Wednesday, June 18. It will be conducted in City Hall by the Grand Rapids Anti-tuberculosis society, from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m. This will be the last chest clinic until November and all people who are feeling tired and run down, have a slight cough with loss of appetite and weight, should check up on themselves now.

Tuberculosis is easily cured in the very beginning but almost hopeless if let alone until it is far advanced, according to the experience of tuberculosis workers. Preventive work can be done best amongst children who have lived in the same house with a case of tuberculosis.

OILERS DROP SECOND GAME IN ROW TO SPARTA.

Fineis Oils traveled to Camp Lake Sunday to revenge the defeat received at the hands of Sparta a week ago, only to be more decisively defeated than ever. Sparta turned the trick this time to the tune of 8-0, scoring the first shut-out victory over the Oilers and avenging a similar defeat registered against them a year ago.

Summary—Sparta: 8 runs, 11 hits, 2 errors. Fineis Oils: 0 runs, 3 hits, 2 errors.

Next Sunday the Fast Wilcox-Rich Corp. team comes to Lowell from Battle Creek.

The Ledger covers this territory thoroughly.

Incompetent rains and a low temperature made the affair very disagreeable for athletes and spectators, but it was found necessary to run the meet scheduled. The race track was a sea of mud and all of the events had to be run off on the grass turf. This fact made it impossible for competitors to lower any of the records in the track events.

The schools participating were East Grand Rapids, Rockford, Sparta, Grandville, Grand Haven, Godwin, Comstock and Byron Center. Took part in class "B" were: Grand Rapids, Grand Haven, Grandville, Comstock and Byron Center. Incompetent rains and a low temperature made the affair very disagreeable for athletes and spectators, but it was found necessary to run the meet scheduled. The race track was a sea of mud and all of the events had to be run off on the grass turf. This fact made it impossible for competitors to lower any of the records in the track events.
