

DIPLOMAS FOR CLASS OF 1930

Impressive Exercises at 52d Commencement of L. H. S.

INSPIRING ADDRESS

The fifty-second annual commencement exercises of the Lowell High school were held last Friday evening in the City Hall auditorium. Every available seat was occupied and many stood throughout the exercises, but fatigue was not noticed, the program proving of so much interest and moving with dispatch. As the professional was rendered by the High school orchestra the 49 members comprising the class of '30 marched to their places on the stage, presenting a fine appearance in their stoles and gowns. Invocation was said by the Rev. John Claus, followed by music by a semi-chorus. The salutatory with its nicely phrased greetings was given by Janet Hill and will be found in full elsewhere in this issue.

A splendid address on "Education and Some of Its Meanings" was given by C. F. Switzer, high school principal from Grand Rapids. Mr. Switzer stated that a high school education today was the equivalent of a college diploma 25 years ago, and spoke of the advancement that the world has made as due to the fact that the desire to climb upwards is planted in the human breast. Mr. Switzer emphasized that honest toil is not degrading and that the "white collar" in itself did not mean much without character.

Mr. Switzer told the class that education is not finished with the receiving of the diploma, that we begin to decay as soon as we cease using our minds and our bodies; no need to stop learning until life itself ceases.

The speaker emphasized the respect we should have for law and authority and lamented the ease with which some violate law today, declaring more danger threatened from this course than from any foreign foe, concluding this thought with the declaration that "education means training for citizenship."

Mr. Switzer concluded by saying that anything less than our best is betrayal of our opportunities. The easy life is full of disappointment and lost hope—the way to success in life is by courage and honest endeavor, and exhorted the members of the class to render distinct service to their home, church and community.

Mr. W. W. Gumsier rendered a solo, "Invictus," in a splendid manner. John Peckham, on behalf of the class presented the memorial, consisting of two trophy cases, which the school greatly needed, and which was accepted on behalf of the school by Supt. W. W. Gumsier.

The presentation of the Spade, which has been a tradition in the school for upwards of 30 years, being handed down by each succeeding class, was made by Lyle Broadbent and acceptance was made by Harry Broadbent.

The valedictory was finely presented by Ruth Clark and will be found in full elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. A. J. Kropf, commander of the American Legion post, presented the Legion Honor Cup Award which was bestowed upon John Peckham as the most outstanding student.

Mr. C. H. Runciman, president of the Board of Education, presented the prize for scholarship, which was awarded to Ruth Clark, class valedictorian. The members of the class were then presented their diplomas, Mr. Runciman making the presentation with well-chosen congratulatory remarks, and as each of the 49 graduates stepped forward to receive the emblem of reward for his labor, was greeted with generous applause.

Ledger Entries

Being a Collection of Various Topics of Local and General Interest

Michigan has 750 prisoners in federal prisons; more than any other state.

Governor Green has made definite declaration that he will not be a candidate for a third term.

Pope Pius, XI, who is 73 years old and has occupied the throne of St. Peter since February, 1922, is reported seriously ill.

Frank M. Johnson celebrated the opening of the bass season yesterday, but we haven't heard him say anything about inviting the Ledger force up to a fish dinner.

Governor Green has ordered all convict labor removed from state highway construction jobs "as soon as possible." Last year 1,000 convicts worked throughout the Summer.

East Grand Rapids, aiming to enhance its beauty by discouraging erection of sign boards, has raised its sign board license fee from $1 to $5 a month.

Abe Buzzard, 69-year-old Pennsylvania, has spent 42 years of his life in jail for stealing chickens. Between jail terms he is an evangelist. Another neat little problem for the psychologists.

Someone must have been humanizing the United States Shipping Board. That body has gravely ruled that babies born aboard its vessels must be carried to the end of the voyage without payment of fare.

Although New York City continues to be the home of more brutes than any other locality, its agricultural showing is not impressive. Official farm statistics of Manhattan Island give 5 miles, 5 horses, 17 cows, with 72 acres in cultivation, mostly potatoes.

Farmers are warned by the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry against investing their money and placing their faith in hog-cholera medicines. Anti-hog-cholera serum is the only thing known that is a reliable preventive.

Harper's tells of a little girl sent to an institution for feeble-minded but found merely "sub-normal" and returned home. Her little sister in a burst of confidence told a play-mate: "Janie was sent away to be an idiot, but she couldn't pass and had to come back."

A young man of about 18 years of age whose identity seems unknown, while swimming in Grand River Sunday came very near drowning. As he was sinking the third time Morse Schwacha, a boy of 14, saw his danger and rescued him. Morse thought little of it, but we deem it a mighty brave act as he was much smaller than the victim.

Sunday, June 22, at 3:15 p. m., the stork brought to this country the most famous baby in the world—none other than Charles, son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, America's hero of the air, and the former Anne Morrow, his intrepid helpmeet. The Ledger joins with the rest of the world in wishing long life and happiness for the young eagle.

Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. John Claus. The Class of 1930 of the Lowell High school has passed into history—a credit to itself, to the community, to the faculty, and to the homes from whence they came.

HORSE RACES JULY FOURTH

Pacers, Trotters, Runners Will Furnish Good Sport

AT RECREATION PARK

Who doesn't live a good horse race? It has been aptly termed "the sport of kings" and all in this vicinity are going to have a good opportunity to enjoy some mighty fine sport along this line on July Fourth at Recreation park, Lowell. The races will start at 2 p. m.

Pacers, trotters and runners have been working out on the local track for several weeks past, and interest in the coming events has been increasing as the Fourth draws nearer.

There will probably be five entries in the 2:24 pace. Jimmie Gratian, with a mark of 2:27 1/2, owned by Wm. Cutler, of Cadillac, is quite a favorite, and also F. G. B., owned by Mr. McIntyre, of White Cloud. Then there are three locally-owned horses in this class: Suntes, 2:18, owned by Al Blaser, Russell Direct, Jr., owned by Will Flynn and Bingin Gordon, owned by Gardner and Lewis, of Lowell.

There are five entries in the 2:25 trot: Miss Lobek Todd, 2:28, and Miss Bingen Gordon, 2:24 1/2, both owned by L. C. Peterson, of Belding. Others are Uper McVay, owned by John Williams, and Argot Cochatta, owned by C. H. Runciman, of Lowell.

In the Green Mix Pace and Trot will find Mildred McKinney, owned by Dr. Draper, of Lowell; Caretta Hall, with a mark of 2:29, owned by Mr. Reed; Lady White Ball, owned by Wm. Cutler, and Tony T., owned by Earl Lewis, of Freeland.

The event will close with a spirited 5/8 mile running race. The above are declared to be a good lot of horses. They will take part in the best fairs of the state the coming fair season and all are assured of the best kind of sport by being on hand July 4.

75 Descendants of Chapin Sayles Hold Reunion

The annual reunion of the descendants of Chapin Sayles was held Sunday at the home of Dr. Cyrus C. Sayles, of Langston. About 75 persons were present.

There is a tradition that, "A Sayles never dies." The family is without doubt one of the longest-lived in the country. Of fifteen children, seven survive. The combined ages of the seven living totals 577 years. The family homestead was in Keene township, four miles north of Lowell on M-66, and all the children were well-known in Western Michigan.

Bring In Your Sick Poultry to Friday's Meetings

(By K. K. Vining.) Losses of older birds in farm poultry flocks have become serious on many Kent County farms the past year. The birds go off production, become dumpy and in a few days die. In the larger flocks this loss is serious. Requests have come from many poultry men for help in diagnosing these troubles in order to avoid them in the future.

Dr. H. J. Stafeth, of the veterinary department at Michigan State college will be in the county on Friday of this week for two meetings. The morning session will be at the farm of Jacob Spangenberg, two miles west and 3/4 mile south of Sparta. This meeting will start at 9:30 a. m. The afternoon meeting will be on the farm of E. W. Ruchs, 1 mile north and 3/4 mile west of Galedonia on M-37.

People attending these meetings may bring in sick birds. They are not limited to older birds but this year's chicks may be brought in. Dr. Stafeth will hold post mortems on the birds and will discuss the diseases found and methods of control.

MAKE TURNS AT STREET INTERSECTIONS ONLY

W. J. Delaney, local traffic officer, asks the Ledger to caution automobile drivers not to turn cars around in the middle of a block. The practice has resulted in some minor accidents and if continued may bring serious results. Turns should only be made at street intersections after giving the proper signal.

Mrs. Esther Newcomb left Thursday to be the guest for an indefinite period of her daughter, in Kalamazoo.

These Schools and Teachers Deserve Marked Recognition

Most of our children wash their hands before each meal, keep fingers, pencils, etc., from mouth and nose or cover them when coughing or sneezing sometimes, at least, but when a whole school room of youngsters drink enough water, use milk instead of coffee or tea, brush their teeth and do three-fourths of a list of eleven health habits daily for twelve weeks, that group, including their teacher, deserves recognition, according to the rules of the National Tuberculosis association. A certificate, suitable for framing will be distributed by the Grand Rapids Anti-tuberculosis society to twelve Grand Rapids teachers and 53 in Kent county rural schools. The certificates come from the office of the National Association in New York and is the close of the Modern Health Crusade for the past school year. It is the hope of the tuberculosis movement that health education in youth will raise the general health of a community and thus automatically decrease tuberculosis. Honors will go to the following teachers in this locality: Ada, No. 2—Mary Gramton. Ada, No. 4, Fr.—Miss Carol Walden. Bowne, No. 1—Lucille Johnson. Bowne, No. 3—Beatrice Thomas. Bowne, No. 6—Lorraine Dygert. Bowne, No. 7—Mary Troy. Cascade, No. 6—Bessie Walker. Cascade, No. 10—Lula Ferrall. Lowell, No. 4, Fr.—Mrs. Wm. Fairchild. Lowell, No. 12—Flossie Bedell. Lowell, East Ward—Lois Krieger. Lowell West Ward—Katherine Perry. Vergennes, No. 1, Fr.—Irma Richmond. Vergennes, No. 10—Doris Roth.

Baseball Circus Greta Garbo Coming to Town

NOTED HAVANA RED SOX HERE FRIDAY FOR TWILIGHT GAME WITH FINEIS' OILS—STARTS AT 5:45.

The manager of the Fineis Oils base ball club of Lowell announces that he has completed negotiations for the appearance of the famous and original Havana Red Sox of Havana, Cuba, and the latter have assured him that they will positively make a personal appearance here with their full lineup of colored and Cuban stars, on Friday, June 27, to give battle to the local representatives.

Fans throughout the states are well acquainted with the caliber of the visitors, and recognize the fact that all the players have major league ability, being kept out of the majors, owing to the edicts against colored performers.

But when the visiting team trot out on the field, more will be presented than a major league outfit. The Havanaans are noted for their ability to entertain, and before the game will put on an exhibition of rick catches and shadow ball, intermixed with comedy. A sensational and happy period of entertainment to all fans at Recreation Park this week Friday is guaranteed, even to those who have never attended a baseball game. ## CO. RED CROSS FIRST AID COM.

Seeks to Prevent Two Ambulances Runs to Same Accident

TO SURVEY COUNTY

At a meeting of the Kent County Red Cross committee on highway first aid held in Grand Rapids last Thursday afternoon a county-wide ambulance exchange to (D. J. R. D. or more ambulances being called to the scene of one accident was recommended and the following persons named as a committee to investigate the possibilities of such an exchange: A. B. O'Brien, Dr. Lynn A. Ferguson and E. J. Holstein.

It is claimed that as many as four ambulances may make the run to a single accident through a duplication of calls.

A. V. Hall, who is a member of the executive committee of the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety, moved that through the Kent County Medical society doctors be asked to carry their professional insignia, a green cross, on their cars so that they may be called on in case of need. Less than 10 per cent of doctors carry this insignia at present, Dr. Ferguson estimated.

To Survey County. Mr. Ferris, Mr. Hall and Dean Jackson were appointed a committee to make a survey of the number and frequency of accidents in the county and of the principal hazards, using any information available in state and county records.

Dr. Ferguson and Dr. William W. Hall, president of the Kent County Medical association, were appointed to draw up brief instructions on what to do in case of accident and how to call help and to arrange for placards to be put up in stores and garages and other central points through the county. Mr. Hall recommended similar small cards for motorists and Paul G. Goebel suggested stickers with the ambulance exchange number, if this system is decided on. Sentiment was against using the services of volunteer unofficial first aid workers at the present time.

The committee will meet again when Mr. O'Brien's committee is ready to report.

Guernsey cattle, poultry, and hogs are visited here in addition to inspecting a newly installed drainage system. The last stop in the tour will be at R. D. Bancroft farm near Alto where the Bancroft herd of Jersey cows is the last stop after dinner. Here the tour will go to East Lansing to visit Michigan State college.

The tour will be in charge of Russell Horwood, an extension dairymen from Michigan State college. Mr. Horwood was a cow tester in Kent County in 1921 and 1922.

Give No Quarter to Thieving Gypsies

This is the season of the year when almost every community may expect to be menaced by unwelcome visits from gypsies. In this connection the Cheboygan Observer makes the following pertinent remarks.

"This week we are again reminded that roving bands of gypsies are about the state, and in almost every community visited, especially the smaller cities and villages, there is left behind a few sorrowing ones who have lost some hard earned shekles to the swarthy females in ways that are not cute or lawful. Always the gypsies are driven away, and some of them are brought back to the scene, and made to return what they have illegally taken. There is no other class of people in our midst allowed to commit crimes daily and openly and get away with it, be the gypsy is never punished unless being made to move on is punishment. A community of people that allows their officers to dispose of those crooks in that manner ought to be plundered and flim-flammed. Those swarthy nomads should pay the penalty of wrong doing as does our own people."

Here's a Mighty Fine Compliment

Not long since E. A. Stowe, the frank, free and fearless editor of the Michigan Tradesman, was in Lowell for a few hours' stay and in a subsequent issue of his publication paid this town the following compliment:

"If there is a brighter and more cheery and contented little city than Lowell anywhere in Michigan, I have failed to find it. Settled originally by people of energy and vision, the town has always been noted for the high character of its citizenship and the good use the citizens have made of their talent for organization and advancement.

Lowell has faced many hardships in the shape of fires and floods and the losses incident thereto, but the citizens have accepted every disappointment in a heroic manner and met the issues in manly fashion. I cannot recall any little city which has a richer heritage in the shape of sturdy, enterprising and capable merchants than Lowell. The present day merchants are making an energetic effort to maintain the good name Lowell has long enjoyed in this respect."

Mrs. Florence Whitfield, Miss Pauline Whitfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bozong and Mr. and Mrs. Coves, of Grand Rapids, were in Lansing to attend the graduating exercises at which time the former's son, George Whitfield, graduated from the electrical engineering department. He will spend a part of his vacation in Lowell.

Miss Hazel Ross is spending her vacation with the home folks. Miss Ross will return in September as instructor of Latin and English in Walled Lake High school, where she has taught the past two years.

ASSURED EXTENSION OF M-21 WEST THIS YEAR

A delegation made up of Grand Rapids, Grandville, and Urban-dale men were assured by Gov. Green that work on the extension of M-21 west of Grand Rapids will be started immediately.

FLOYD V. ALDRICH DIES SUDDENLY IN KALAMAZOO.

Floyd Verle Aldrich, age 42 years, died suddenly last Friday night at Kalamazoo, while attending college there. He suffered a stroke of apoplexy and was taken to a hospital where he passed away in about two hours.

The funeral services were held in Kalamazoo Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Aldrich is well known in this community, having relatives and many friends. He was the son of Wm. and Etta E. Aldrich. He leaves a widow and three children.

Ionia Editor Holds No Grudge Agin' Pat Bowes

In his "Seasoned Hickory" column in the Ionia County News, Editor Fred D. Keister writes in a humorous vein concerning a well-known Lowell officer as follows:

"Pat Bowes, veteran officer of Lowell, was responsible for the capture of two of the inmates who recently escaped from the state hospital. It is characteristic of Pat to be on the job whenever there is anything stirring. Despite political opposition he has been a member of the sheriff's force in Kent county for many years, where it is known and recognized that as long as he is in the saddle law and order in that part of the county is going to have a few well down in front. The only mistake Pat ever made was the time he let the city slickers from Toledo strip him down to his underwear and made him trudge twelve miles back to town in the boiling sun of an early Summer morn. Since then Pat has his shirts glued to him whenever he starts transporting any of the bad boys over the county roads. Pat is a good officer, only we didn't think so the time he butted in, and started to search a taxi cab in which we were riding without proper authority. But we've forgiven him for that breach of etiquette a long while ago, and now that the matter is a closed incident we might say he'd have had a whole lot more luck that night if he'd used a stomach pump instead of a flashlight."

Social Events

The "Past Grands club" met with Nina Alger Monday evening. Nine members were present. After the business meeting the hostess served ice cream, cake and wafers. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Agnes Alexander Monday evening, July 28.

Mrs. O. J. Yeiter entertained her bridge club Thursday night for dinner. The rooms were profusely decorated with different colored roses in vase bouquets. Honors of the games went to Hazel Koop, Fannie Bergin, Monica Doyle and Beatrice Althen.

Mrs. Charles Kysler, her children and their families met relatives at Fallsburg park numbering forty in all Sunday to celebrate what would have been her father's 100th birthday anniversary. He died an aged man of 81 and his natal day is still remembered and celebrated by his children, grand children and great grand-children.

The annual reunion of the Chapin Sayles family was held at the home of Dr. C. C. Sayles in Langston, Sunday. Dr. Sayles is 90 years old and a sister, Mrs. John Sneathen, of Everett, Wash., the guest of honor is 88. There were about fifty present and after a bounteous dinner Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sayles and son Bob, of Muskegon, entertained with musical selections. Singing and dancing were a part of the program.

Janet Marie Andrews entertained sixteen little school friends and playmates to a matinee party at the Strand Saturday afternoon. After the theatre party all were treated to ice cream, candy and gum, celebrating her seventh birthday, which occurred Tuesday, June 24. Many lovely gifts were presented the young hostess as mementoes of the happy day, as this will probably be her last birthday spent in Lowell for many years.

A "half past one birthday" was celebrated by Philip Schneider, Jr., at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Schneider, of South Lowell Tuesday, June 24. His little guests were Lawrence and Bertha Schneider, Jerry and Donnie Kysler, Delesos Dolloway, Marilyn Able and Bettie Reynolds with their mothers. The two grandmothers, Mrs. M. P. Schneider and Mrs. Harvey Haysner were also present. Ice cream and cake were served by the young host's mother. The really truly birthday comes Dec. 24, just one and a half years ago.

Miss Doris MacFarlane, of Kalamazoo, spent Saturday here. She has finished her year's work at Michigan Training college, and will take up work at a girls' camp "Holtzheim House," Pine Lake near Detroit, as director of athletic activities. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. MacFarlane drove to Detroit with her Sunday. Monday all returned to Ann Arbor attending the graduation exercises when their son-in-law, Keith Johnston, graduated from the Dental school. He has been appointed by directors of the Couzens fund as one of the dentists who will do corrective work in counties where there are no clinics. His work will consist chiefly of dental work for children.

LOCAL GARAGES HAVE BIG DAY

Lowell Officers Send in 356 Cars Thursday For Inspection

GOT YOUR STICKER?

The brake testing campaign which has been under way in Kent County since June 1st closed last Monday. During the campaign all cars which had been tested as to brakes, horn, lights and steering mechanism were given an official O K sticker after the defects, if any, had been corrected. Hundreds of drivers here promptly complied with the efforts to make for safer driving.

On Thursday local officers began the work of notifying drivers of cars not bearing the official stickers to have same checked at once, and as a result 356 cars were sent to local garages that day, and to say that these garages were busy is but putting it mildly. Cars were lined up a block or more away at times, awaiting their turn. Some were found OK, but many more were found to be a hazard to life and limb while on the highway. Some had defective lights and the local supply of bulbs was nearly exhausted; some had brakes so badly in need of adjustment that had their drivers been given the go-ahead, they would have stopped short of half a block; others had horns that would not respond and some even steering mechanism sadly in need of repair.

If a car is found to be defective in either braking efficiency, lights, horn, steering mechanism or windshield wiper, and the owner refuses to have the defect corrected, the fact is reported to the sheriff of Kent County after which the law steps in.

Local garages participating in the campaign were Stormzand's Central garage, Gould's garage, Webster Bros. Chevrolet, McQueen Motor Co., L. E. Johnson's Ford Motor Co., and Frank Stevens garage. These concerns cheerfully co-operated in the movement for highway safety by making no charge for inspection and testing, charges being made only in those cases calling for labor or parts.

All of which brings home to each one of us this pertinent thought: "Who will stop accidents who will?"

DECISION SOON IN BOVINE CASE

Validity of the State T B Law Concerns Herd Owners

PREPARING BRIEFS

The end of the long dispute between E. S. Townsend, Ionia county drover, and the state department of agriculture over the validity of the state bovine tuberculosis testing law loomed Thursday as opposing counsel concluded the oral arguments in Ionia circuit court. It is probable Judge Royal A. Hawley, before whom Townsend's suit has been tried, will render his decision about July 1.

After George E. Nichols, attorney for Townsend, and Paul G. Eger, assistant attorney general, had completed their respective attacks and defense of the statute, Judge Hawley requested Mr. Nichols to file a brief prior to June 25. In this he will set forth his conception of whether the law now in force under which the department of agriculture conducts its enforced tuberculin tests among privately owned herds provides adequate compensation in its $60 maximum for owners whose animals might suffer injury or become diseased in the event of faulty application of the tests or subsequent negligence on the part of testers.

Defending the department of agriculture's power to enter upon private property and enforce the bovine tests as a matter of safe-guarding public health, Paul G. Eger, assistant attorney general, cited decisions in various cases in other states in which the state's arbitrary authority had been sustained.

He questioned the court's jurisdiction in deciding police power issues of the state in health matters, and advanced the belief this authority was vested in the legislature alone. Manifest delays resulting if herd owners generally were to demand retests of reacting cattle, as well as the unreliability of retests from a scientific standpoint, were the basic reasons, he said, for the department ruling prohibiting retests.

Lawrence Hawthorne

So often we look to a far distant day
For the joys that we think life should hold;
We want to be happy, contented and gay
But the world seems unfriendly and cold.
We hope that tomorrow our ship will come in,
That tomorrow success will arrive;
We dream of the time when our luck will begin
And we'll be mighty glad we're alive.

And yet, when we ponder, we soon understand

OUR GRADUATES. The members of the 1930 class of the Lowell High school have received their diplomas and have gone "out of school life and into life's school."

Full of hope and ambition are the graduates. They look into the future with the eager desire to get into this big game of life. From now on the big decisions will be theirs to make. No longer will they be problems to be settled by the parents.

Whether they go on to college or take their places with the carners of a livelihood, the outcome of their undertakings depends directly on themselves. It is theirs to decide whether or not they will be successes or failures.

In the great game of life there are many things which they will have to experience and find out for themselves. No matter what cards are dealt them by fate, whether they hold aces or deuces, the only way to win is to play the game squarely, whether win or lose, be fair. Another thing they will learn is to always give value received and a little more if possible. The main thing is to always play the game. We are proud of the 1930 graduating class. They have done much for the old school along lines of athletics, dramatics, music, and have ever shown their loyalty by their whole-hearted support and cooperation. We wish them all the success in the world and hope that all through life they will be as happy as they have been here. We don't intend to give advice, but just a little word of encouragement. Beyond this we won't write. Give the weeks of your life to what you can and the best will come back to you.

F. M. Johnson, Republican-Tribune: "The Michigan weekly newspaper field suffered a distinct loss this month in the retirement of F. M. Johnson, who, after 37 years continuous service has sold the Lowell Ledger to R. G. Jefferies, for some time with the Clinton County (St. Johns) Republican. Mr. Johnson has wielded an influence—always for good—beyond the community so well served by his newspaper. Beyond this physical property, Mr. Jefferies has become the custodian of a newspaper of long and honorable journalistic traditions.

Next Sunday is an excellent Sunday on which to go to church. You can't fool all the people all the time by saying that you are better than the people who go.

Don't mail us any communication until you have signed your name. This is necessary, not for publication, but to insure consideration in this column. It is theirs to decide whether or not they will be successes or failures.

Since the death of a reporter, shot by a gangster, the press of Chicago has declared its complete war upon the gangs. Why did they wait? Readers who resolved to save some of their money during 1930 have time to begin, even if the year is half gone.

DAVIS LAKE. Mrs. Fred Davis was in Grand Rapids Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, and children were in Galesburg Saturday evening and called on Mrs. S. Van Name. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Golby spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Name. Mrs. Nick Pitsch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bush, and children were in Galesburg Saturday evening. Mrs. Nick Pitsch and son were in Grand Rapids Tuesday afternoon on the reading public, a scan, after seeing and hearing hard to what should have been a good feature without being able to comprehend "what it was all about." Result, nervous strain and waste of time. So, knowing that a new sound-reproducing system had been installed by the Strand theater people at great expense, this Doubting Thomas, proceeding to try it out, was agreeably surprised on reaching the far door of the auditorium to hear and understand the words, then apparently proceeding from the screen. So, with a pleasant surprise being ended a satisfactory evening's entertainment. Having been a complainant, it is only fair to announce the success of this expensive enterprise of Mr. and Mrs. Callier, which will mean much, not only to the people with defective hearing, but to many others to whom the unnatural and sepulchral tones of early talks were far from worth while.

Uncle Marcus has always tried to play fair and this voluntary acknowledgment is simply an instance. If you need an evening's relaxation, try the newest New Strand and see how you like it.

After reading of Chicago U. P. item in a Detroit paper about the marriage of an opera dancer with "the most beautiful pair of legs in America," I wonder if the brains of this country are running to legs, beautiful or otherwise, and if it is not possible that the adept who wrote the item has not seen all the beautiful legs in the U. S. A. It is quite within reason that there are a few million pairs of beautiful legs modestly draped with deerskin that have never been exhibited on any stage at so much per. And then, again, I think Almighty God for his own great country with his own national common-sense children to each of whom he has allotted at least a teaspoonful of brains, a people whose thoughts and aspirations run to higher, better and more inspiring things than the "beautiful" naked under standing of a Chicago opera dancer. It will be a sad day for America when control of our national, state, and community affairs passes from the great out-of-doors to Detroit, Chicago and New York and others of their ilk.

Suffering cats! Ledger boys and girls, in these days of nude color posters and no history at all, when Main street resembles nothing so much as a bathing beach, let's have done with that state of mind called "false modesty" and when speaking of legs let's not say "limbs," because an arm is a limb. Such silly talk reminds one of the over-modest young woman who called a certain "limb-borne" for Pete's sake, let it be half-way sensible and call a spade a spade and a leg a leg!

Lowell Changes Year by Year

The average community, they say, changes 10% of its population each year. People move in. Others move out. Some pass away. Others are born.

Here at the City State Bank, we meet new customers frequently--people who have moved recently to the Lowell community. We like to meet these newcomers. If you are a recent arrival in this community, come in and get acquainted.

It is our honest belief that you'll like our banking service. Hundreds of others do.
