MAKES REPORT ON ELECTIONS IN VERGENNES

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY IN-DICATES NO GRAND JURY PROBE NEEDED- FINDS CAUSE FOR CRITICISM BUT NO EVIDENCE OF CRIMNIAL INTENT.

A report filed last Friday with Circuit Judge Willis B. Perkins by Prosecutor Bartel J. Jonkman, who made personal investigation who made personal investigation of complaints regarding absen-tee ballots cast in Vergennes township in the September prim-ary election, deals exhaustively with the matter from all angles and indicates that no grand jury probe will be made.

If you intend holding an auction sale the thing that you are primarily interested in is to bring to your place the largest number possible of interested buyers. To accomplish this result your sale must be advertised—not necessarily in an expensive manner, but rather in a result-getting manner.

In this section-Eastern Kent and Western Ionia Counties-there is one sure and proven method of reaching the people and that method is by using the advertising columns of

The Lowell Ledger

People will travel long distances to attend a well-advertised auction sale. Ledger readers---and there are easily 4,500 of them for each issue of the paper--- are among the most prosperous to be found anywhere in Michigan and it will be well worth your while to place the news of your sale before them The publisher of this paper has had a number of years' experience in advertising auction sales and will gladly help you in preparing your advertising matter and assisting in other ways. You are invited to come to the Ledger office and talk the matter over with him.
