FAVOR BILLION REDUCTION

REDUCTION of over one billion dollars in the valuation of the state for tax purposes was recommended by the State Tax Commission Monday. The big reduction was recommended by the commission because "property values, both farm and city are materially lower."

NO COMPROMISE

FANTASTIC as the report of a nation-wide conspiracy to wreck banks by circulating false rumors may seem, it is much too plausible to be ignored. An apparently well-organized group of revolutionary rumor spreaders is engaged in it, and there is evidence that they have worked in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan. The revelation of the plot has robbed it of much of its potency for evil. But already much damage has been done. The schemers are yet to be arrested. But the authorities have a considerable volume of evidence, and they should follow it relentlessly. With such outrageous and criminal acts there can be no compromise.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

FROM Mrs. L. W. Rutherford comes the following interesting comparison of a generation ago with the present: Eggs were 3 dozen for 25c; butter, 10c per pound; milk was 5c a quart; the butcher gave away liver and treated the kids, and bologna; the hired girl received two dollars a week and did the washing; women did not powder and paint (in public), smoke, vote, play poker, or shake the shimmy. Men wore whiskers and boots, chewed tobacco, spit on the sidewalk and cussed. Beer was 5c and the lunch was free. Laborers worked ten hours a day and never went on a strike. No tips were given to waiters and the hat check grafter was unknown. A kerosene hanging lamp and a stereoscope in the parlor were luxuries.

No one was ever operated on for appendicitis or bought glands. Microbes were unheard of; folks lived to a good old age, and every year walked miles to wish their friends a MERRY CHRISTMAS. TODAY everybody rides in automobiles, or flies; plays golf; shoots craps; plays the piano with their feet; goes to the movies; smokes cigarettes; drinks Ruckus Juice; blames the H. C. L. on the Republicans; never go to bed the same day they get up, and they think they are having a wonderful time.

BRIGHTER OUTLOOK

THE feeling in government circles, with the naming of ex-Senator W. Allee Pomerene, of Ohio, as chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, is that all the agencies for promotion of business recovery are now completed. The further feeling is that there is now no material delay or obstacle to the functioning of those agencies. Since there is much confidence in the potency of all these agencies, especially the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which is designed specifically for relief, there is an atmosphere of calm about the business future such as has hardly existed during more than three years past. The last possible impediment to the successful functioning of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was removed by giving the chairmanship to a Democrat and making the directors a Democratic board, with four of that party to three Republicans. It became apparent toward the end of the session of Congress that there was danger that the institution might be hampered by being dragged into politics. It was evident that during a political campaign, the Democrats as the party of the "outs" would be suspicious that the Republicans would use the power of loaning such an enormous sum as $2,500,000,000 for the purpose of helping Republicans.

GOOD INDICATION

CONCURRENTLY with scattering reports from various cities, it was evident that in some quarters indicating an upturn in business conditions, the Department of Labor made public a compilation showing a continued downward trend in relief expenditures during the last month. The period covered by the statement coincides roughly with that in which the recent check in the downward curve of commodity prices was noticed. No conclusions are drawn by the department from the figures made public. It is known, however, that in some quarters the drop in relief expenditures is taken as an indication that there has been some easing of the current economic distress.

TAX FIGHT JUST BEGUN

A NEW and intensified nationwide campaign to effect further economies in Federal, State and local governmental expenditures in the next twelve months was begun by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The plans announced by the President of the Chamber call for further concentrating the efforts of 1,600 business organizations under the leadership of the national Chamber. He said that the fight of business to lower the level of taxation has only begun.

FREE BAND CONCERT

The American Legion band will give another free band concert on Main-st., next Wednesday evening, Aug. 10. Everybody cordially invited.

70 4-H BOYS ENJOY 7 DAYS OF ACTIVITY

SPEND TIME PROFITABLY AT BOSTWICK LAKE CAMP

JUDGING FARM CROPS AND LIVESTOCK - GAMES FOR RECREATION.

Seventy farm boys belonging to Kent County 4-H clubs enjoyed seven days of camp at Bostwick Lake in Cannon-tp., the past week. Twenty-one handicraft and potato club members were in camp, July 21, 22 and 23. Activities in this camp were manual training and crops judging work. Bird houses, puzzles, rustic stools and hanging baskets were made. Corn, beans, alfalfa and potatoes were judged. The best bird house was made by Oren Frost of Moseley, the best puzzle by Gailord Tisdell of Nelson, and the best rustic work by Paul Wolf of Nelson. The latter work was judged the best piece in camp. Gailord Tisdell was the best crops judge.

The singles in horseshoe pitching was won by Gerald Kitson of Cannon and the doubles by Robert Stevens and George Isner of Grand Rapids township. In addition to the above work there was swimming, baseball, and camp fire, knot tying, and rope splicing. Fifty boys, members of 4-H livestock clubs were in camp, July 25, 26, 27 and 28. Judging livestock was the main work in camp.

Sheep were judged at Calvin Thompson's in Courtland, Jerseys at Clyde Partridge's in Courtland and M. Post and Son's in Algonoma. Hottelins at Jos. Brewster's and M. D. Buth's in Plainfield. Guernseys at Thornwood Farms in Cascade. Announcements of winners in judging work are to be made. Lewis Houghton of Alto had charge of the camp newspaper, Edmund Boyland of Ada the baseball games, and Ray Burgess of S. Gaines the horse shoe pitching tournament and Elmer Graham of Lowell the Parents' night program.

Singles in horseshoes were won by Henry Grote of Alto and doubles by Roy Burgess of Gaines and Elmer Cook of Ada. Swimming, camp fire, programs, and games were other parts of the recreation program.

From the judging work in camp there will be selected a group of boys to be given further training and from which will be selected a group of three to represent the county at the State Fair.

County Agent K. K. Vining had charge of the camp assisted by Adelbert O'Dell of Lowell and State club leaders from Michigan State College.

Free Sugar for Ledger Readers

Here's sweet news for these times! The Ledger, in order to show its appreciation to the many hundreds of subscribers who have been standing faithfully by the paper during these hard times, has decided to make a special offer good for four days only of 50 cents worth of granulated sugar absolutely free with each year's subscription paid in cash. The offer is good from Saturday, Aug. 6 to and including Wednesday, Aug. 10. Upon payment of subscription at the office during the above days, a coupon will be given for the sugar, good at any store in Lowell where sugar is sold. The Ledger will pay the merchant in cash for the sugar. Both new and old subscribers may also take advantage of this special offer. If two years' subscription be entitled to a dollar's worth of sugar.

Now's the time to sweeten up. Four days only—starting Saturday, Aug. 6 and ending Wednesday, August 10.

Observe Centenary Beaver Is. Mission

Beaver Island near Charlevoix, famous for its historic legend, and by virtue of its Irish inhabitants called the "Emerald Isle of America," will hold a homecoming Aug. 14 to 23 in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the first Indian mission on Beaver Island, founded in 1832 by Fr. Baraga. Entertainment will be provided each day of the celebration. Coronation of "Miss Beaver Island," who will be chosen by popular vote from the maidens of the Irish colony, will climax the event.

Constance Bennett In Smart Comedy

Looking her loveliest and giving her finest performance, Constance Bennett comes to the Strand this Sunday and Monday in her latest romantic comedy, "A Lady With a Past." Ben Lyon appears opposite Miss Bennett in this ultra modern and sophisticated comedy with just the right amount of romance to add a dash of color and flavor.

Free Sugar with The Lowell Ledger for four days only. Read the adv. on page 7 for full particulars.

See Talking Cow At Ionia Free Fair

An unusually fine array of educational exhibits have been arranged for to be shown at the 1932 Ionia Free Fair, August 15 to 20. Believe it or not (apologies to Ripley) there will be a talking cow that will carry on an illuminating conversation with her visitors during which she will tell about some of the salient features of milk production and distribution of dairy products. There will also be many other educational displays of interest to agriculturists prepared by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The state of Michigan will have an important part in the educational phase of the fair program with exhibits from the department of conservation and the department of public safety.

Many Contests on Farmers Day

Crowd of 5,000 Supplied Plenty of Competitors at Michigan State College Events.

Contests in farm tasks and a program of speeches, music, and entertainment drew a crowd of 5,000 to the 15th annual Summer Farmer's Day at Michigan State College, July 29.

The best hay pitching team was made up of Stanford Fisher, Ken Nichols and Raymond Snow, all from Napoleon. Second place was won by Will Black, Ralph Webster, and Jim Hullett, Lansing, R. No. 2. The best three men operating a hayloader were C. W. Sober and his two sons, Fowlerville. Second place went to Wayne Meese, S. S. Alf, and Alex Black, Lansing.

The hay pitchers put 3,800 pounds of alfalfa on the wagon in 15 minutes. With the hayloader, the first place outfit loaded 3,675 pounds in eight minutes and seven seconds. One ox-team used to haul a loader became discouraged at the bottom of a steep pitch and fell behind the horse team.

Mrs. Cora M. Pennel, Northville, won the flower identification contest. Winners in wood lot thinning were Orlo B. Goss, Tekonsha, and Percy Hammond, Olivet. In the halter making and calf leading contest, prizes were won by Andrew Schrauth, Okemos, Emerson Teal, Charlotette, and Charles Babcock, Okonneto. Seventeen choirs competed in the singing festival. In class A, Walled Lake won first and Bristol, second. Eight prizes ranging from $60 to $10 were awarded in Class B. The placings were: Somerset, Goodrich, Howard City, Stockbridge, Portland, Martin, Milford and Cannon.

County Agent K. K. Vining had charge of the camp assisted by Adelbert O'Dell of Lowell and State club leaders from Michigan State College.

Cherries on Sale

I will be in Lowell Friday morning, Aug. 4, with another truck load of Montmorency cherries. If you desire some of these choice cherries phone orders at once to F. H. Daniels, 119-4. Price 16 quarts for $1.00. (p11)

BASEBALL

FINEIS OILS BLANK HOLLAND LEATHERS

The Fineis Oil Colored Giants blanked the Mosser Leathers of Holland, 3 to 0, at Lowell Sunday in a fast played game. Parfione allowed the Leathers only five hits and did not allow a man to reach third base. He struck out nine men.

Larry Hyma pitched a steady game for Holland, but the squeeze plays gave the Giants two of their three runs. Johnny Robinson hit a triple and two singles, while Shackelford hit a double and single to lead the Giants' attack.

Lowell and Freeport had a hard struggle Sunday to break the tie for second place in the Tri-County League. Up to the sixth frame it was Lowell 1, Freeport 0, when Freeport tied the score. Then in the 8th frame a triple and a double and an error on Lowell's part gave Freeport two more runs. Micky Hapeman pitching for Lowell, allowed the four hits, while Lefty Stewart pitching for Freeport allowed but three hits. A couple of errors for each team.

Ada plays Lowell at Recreation park on Saturday at 5 p. m. Ada is the leader in the Tri-County League and a good game is expected.

The Fallsburg Cubs lost a hard-fought game last Sunday to the Ionia Reds, score 4 to 0. Next Sunday the Cubs will play Brooklyn Corners at the park at 3. The Cubs have been materially strengthened by the return of three of last season's players.

Foreman Is Host to Belding Farmers Club

Members of the Belding Farmer club to the number of sixty or more are in Lowell today, guests of E. C. Foreman. The visitors will make a trip through the Foreman hatchery, the King Milling Company, the Lowell Sprayer Company and possibly other local industries.

At noon the visitors will be luncheon guests of Mr. Foreman at the Hotel and Gun Club. Members of the famous Foreman strain White Leghorns will be the piece de resistance.

Mr. Foreman was a speaker last winter before the Belding Farmers' Club, at which time the invitation to visit Lowell was extended to Mr. Foreman never fails to do his share toward keeping the old town on the map.

Flower Show Is Bower of Beauty

The second annual flower show of the Lowell Garden Lore club will be opened officially today, Thursday, at 2:30 p. m. Village President Ashley doing the honors with an address appropriate to the occasion. The exhibit will continue through Friday and Saturday. The hours are from 2:30 to 8 p. m. each day. There will be music and entertainment each afternoon during the tea hour.

The features of the show are so many and varied that only a visit of inspection can do justice to the exhibit. Members of the various committees have worked hard and faithfully to increase the success of the show.

Mrs. Joseph H. Brewer and Mrs. Sheffield, both of Grand Rapids, will act as judges and the announcement of awards will be made on Saturday evening by Mr. E. C. Foreman, president of the Lowell Board of Trade.

Here's a Story

Involving Octogenarians, Big Families, Liquor and Tobacco.

The Ledger pencil pusher stopped for a brief chat a day or two ago with Charles E. Clark, who for half a century was associated with his father, the late C. A. Clark, in the woolen mill business in Lowell, discontinuing the business about 20 years ago. A stranger would be surprised to learn that Mr. Clark will be 80 years of age the coming New Year's day. He looks 20 years younger.

To the question, "To what do you attribute your good health?" Mr. Clark replied:

"Well, I have never chewed nor smoked; never used hard liquor. I like lemonade the best of anything in the drink line."

A Record Family

In speaking of long-lived families, however, we doubt if there are many in the entire country that can equal the record of the Chapin and Eliza Sayles family. This family came to Lowell nearly a century ago, and settled on a farm in Keene-tp., where a family of 15 children was raised to maturity. Here are the statistical facts about the Sayles family:

The father, Chapin Sayles, lived to be 81; the mother, Eliza Sayles, lived to be 88. Of their 15 children, five are still living as follows:

Mrs. Clifton White, Lowell, 76; Mrs. Sneethen, Wash. State, 91; Mrs. Montie Sayles, Fremont, 80; Frank Sayles, Hastings, 72; Merritt Sayles, Lowell, 86.

The ten children who have passed away attained the ages given after their respective names:

Dr. Perry Sayles, 52; Dr. Edwin Sayles, 60; Dr. Lyman Sayles, 87; Dr. C. C. Sayles, 93; Wm. Sayles, 94; Sanford Sayles, 80; Mrs. Olive Taylor, 80; Mrs. Melvina Forest, 60; Leroy Sayles, 60; Mrs. Alice McCarty, 60.

It will be seen from the above that three of the children lived to be past 90; seven attained 80 or more years, two 70 or more, two 60, and only one under 60.

When asked if he had ever used tobacco, Merritt Sayles, one of the five survivors replied: "I never smoked in my life; when I was about 8 years of age I took a chew of tobacco and it was my last—I can still taste it."

Mr. Sayles is of the opinion that temperate habits were largely contributing factors to the long life attained by members of the family.

"Those of my brothers who used tobacco, used it very sparingly. Liquor was rarely touched by any of us," said Mr. Sayles.

LIVED HERE 50 YEARS AGO

William S. Coleman, age 76, died Saturday at his home in Grand Rapids and was laid to rest Monday in Oakwood cemetery, Lowell. Mr. Coleman resided in Lowell upwards of 50 years ago, following the hardware business.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Elvada Coleman; one son, W. S. Coleman, Jr., and one daughter, Mrs. C. M. Willy of Grand Rapids and one sister, Mrs. Harry Sherman of Owosso.

BIRTHS

On Sunday, July 31, at St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, to Mr. and Mrs. Duane Kietz, a 6-lb daughter, Irene Ann. Grandpa and Grandma Bennett are congratulating themselves upon the advent of their first granddaughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lewis at the Luz hospital on July 29th a 7-pound daughter, Lavonne Marie.

TO DISCUSS NEW SYSTEM IRRIGATION

STATE COLLEGE ENGINEERS WILL GIVE DEMONSTRATION FOR KENT COUNTY FARMERS ON AUGUST 5 IN PARIS TOWNSHIP.

A method of supplying water to crops on large or small areas at a cost which gives the farmer a good profit from the increased production per acre will be shown at the Dan Van Ree Farm, which is located half way between Eastern & Madison Ave. on Pennell Road in Paris township on August 5, by members of the Agricultural Engineering Department of Michigan State College, according to county agricultural agent.

The demonstration at the Van Ree farm will be supervised by Mr. George Amundson, specialist in agricultural engineering of Michigan State College. Two types of pumps for lifting water will be shown. The water is distributed in the fields by lines of canvas hose which permits the water to seep gradually through the cloth and furnish the necessary water for plant growth.

This method of irrigation was developed by Mr. O. E. Robey, a member of the State College Agricultural Engineering staff. It has been tested for two years, and has proved entirely practical in the field. In some of last year's tests, the added water supplied by the canvas hose increased the yield of potatoes 150 bushels per acre.

The normal rainfall in Michigan during the plant growing season is not enough to keep crops growing rapidly, and frequently the growth of crops is stopped for periods of several days by the lack of water. Irrigation methods in common use before the development of the canvas hose system were too expensive for use on ordinary field crops and were of such character that they could not be moved readily from place to place.

Cost records kept on irrigation projects where the canvas hose was used last year showed that, in some cases, the cost of applying one inch of water to an acre of soil was as low as 50 cents. The cost will depend of course upon the distance the water has to be lifted and the type of equipment needed to do the pumping. Michigan has an ample supply of water in streams, lakes, or shallow wells which can be utilized in most localities.

The types of pumps needed for such work will be shown at the Van Ree farm. The irrigating outfit will be put in operation in the morning and will be operated all day. An explanation of the methods will be made by Mr. Amundson during the afternoon. He will also tell about the results secured in irrigation of various crops during the past two years.

Any Kent County farmer who is interested in irrigation can bring a sketch of his fields and the source of available water, and receive advice from Mr. Amundson about the practicability of the project and the sort of equipment needed to make it successful.

Women Speakers To Give Program

A program of unusual interest at this time will be presented at Lowell City Hall next week, Wednesday, August 10, at 2:30 p. m., sponsored by the Lowell branch of the Woman's Kent County Republican club. The women who will speak include Mrs. Jacob Steketee of Grand Rapids and Mrs. H. P. Gotfredsen and Mrs. M. B. McPherson, both of Lowell.

Mrs. Steketee is the newly appointed National Republican Committeewoman for Michigan and is a speaker of ability whom the people of this community will be glad of the opportunity to hear.

Mrs. Gotfredsen will talk about the recent Michigan air tour in which she represented Lowell and Mrs. McPherson will tell of a woman's experience in a national convention. Mrs. M. N. Henry will sing.

The men are not to be slighted, however. Congressman Carl E. Mapes, Senator James A. Skinner, Rep. Dexter G. Look and others will be present.

All people of the community, both men and women, are cordially invited to attend.

Airplane Rides Saturday, Sunday

By a special arrangement with the Capital Furniture City Service, local theatre and Showboat patrons will be able to enjoy airplane rides Saturday and Sunday for the very nominal fare of 75c. These tickets are available to everyone who attends the Strand theatre or the Showboat and entitles the holder to a regular $1.50 passenger flight. The equipment used is the latest in commercial aircraft and licensed by the government and will be flown by the best pilots in this section. The plane will be in Lowell Saturday and Sunday to accommodate all who care to take advantage of this unusual opportunity.

Odds and Ends

Here and There

Pithy Points Picked Up and Patly Put By Our Peripatetic Pencil Pusher

The Knights of Columbus will hold a Kent County picnic at Fallsburg park next Sunday. It will be an all-day event with an interesting program.

Samuel Davis, 94-year-old Civil War veteran, was in Lowell on business Saturday. Mr. Davis lives about 12 miles northeast of Lowell, just over the line in Ionia county, and is quite active for his years. He is the last survivor of the Civil War residing in that community.

The wife of Sheriff Fred Kelley was taken to St. Mary's hospital Sunday when it was found she had sustained fractured vertebrae in neck and back as a result of an accident on M-21 when the car occupied by the Kelley's overturned after being crowded off the pavement. Mr. Kelley, his son-in-law and grandson were slightly injured. Mr. Kelley is expected to recover, but she will be obliged to remain in a cast for several weeks.

Richard White, who has been serving in the U. S. Navy for the past two years as radio operator, writes an interesting letter home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. White. Richard is aboard the U. S. S. Preble, stationed at present at Port Angeles, Wash. He is writing the following paragraphs from his letter: "While coming in the Strait of Juan De Fuca we could see British Columbia on the left of us and Washington on the right of us. There is a mountain range on both sides of the Strait and it is all covered with pines and firs and there is snow on the mountain tops. It is the most beautiful scenery I have ever seen."

Wm. Van Voorst reports that he has been informed by Evers Wolfe, State Conservation officer, that there is no protection for eagles under the Federal law. Protection is offered, however, under an old Michigan statute. The question arose over the recent killing of a peregrine falcon by 14-year-old Marvin Briggs, who thought he was shooting a hawk as it was making away with a young goose from the Briggs farm yard. The "hawk" proved to be a Baldhead American eagle. Mr. VanVoorst has succeeded in mounting the bird, adding materially to his fine collection.

The Grand Rapids Committee of 100, which for many weeks past has been making a thorough study of the script method and of the unemployment and welfare relief program sponsored by George W. Welsh as city manager and director of public welfare, on Monday advocated the complete overthrow of the Welsh program. Specific proposals for a new method of procedure were offered. Perhaps Mr. Welsh saw the handwriting on the wall a few days ago when he resigned as city manager. Mr. Welsh attained much publicity a few months ago through a magazine article which lauded his scrip system and welfare program, both of which have long been condemned by a large percentage of the people of Grand Rapids.

Albert Roth, 71, Dies Unexpectedly

Albert Roth, for many years a highly respected citizen of Lowell, passed suddenly away Aug. 2, 1932, at his home in Lowell, at the age of 71 years, 4 months and 16 days. He was born at Wauterly, Canton Bern, Switzerland, December 18, 1860. He was married to Marie Engel, September 1883. To this union nine children were born, six daughters and three sons. His wife, three daughters and two sons preceded him.

In 1896 he, with his family came to America and settled down in Lowell, where he resided ever since. Under the pastorate of Rev. Wm. Rogatzky he joined the German M. E. church in the year 1896, and remained a faithful member of the same until his departure. For many years he was an official of the church board. He was a great lover of song and the Roth quartet was often a great blessing and inspiration to the congregation. He was a true husband, a good father and a helpful neighbor.

Funeral services were held in the home on Thursday afternoon at 5:45 and from the German M. E. church at 2 o
