

Lowell Welcomes 4-H Club Members of County

END THE STRANGULATION. SIXTY days ago Gov. Comstock ordered ALL of the banks of this state closed because of the difficulties of a FEW. This action was followed by the closing of ALL of the banks of the nation by the new president, almost immediately after taking office.

Many banks in Michigan are still closed to the transaction of normal business. A third of the banks of the nation are still closed.

Why ALL of us should be made to suffer because of the mismanagement, and perhaps the trickery of a FEW, is beyond the understanding of the average man. The closing of our banks started strangulation at a time when we need free breathing instead.

There is hardly a small town bank but that would have weathered the storm if left alone. The same power that closed these banks should reopen them.

Open our banks and open them at once, is the demand of the people. Sixty days of strangulation is too much.

Ed. A. Nowack of Lansing is said to have stated recently that S. L. Marshall, editor of the Clinton County Republican-News, had a horse face. Undoubtedly Mr. Marshall would not care to trade ends with Mr. Nowack.

SALES TAX UP AGAIN. THE PROPOSED sales tax bill now before the legislature, if enacted into law, will provide the finishing touch that will spell ruin for thousands of small town merchants already greatly overburdened with taxes, slow accounts and high operating expenses.

ABOUT SIGNING PETITIONS. THE OTHER day we read of a petition, prepared by some bright lad, which was signed by hundreds by people asking the president to give the late executed Zangara a place in his cabinet.

BOOKS FOR 4-H MEMBERS. CLUB MEMBERS become so engrossed in their baby beef, pig, canning, clothing and other projects they may pay little interest in side lines like cultural subjects and sports, but the rule holds with them as with other youth that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

Low commodity prices and high debts are a bad combination. THOMSON—AFTER 80 YEARS. LIHU THOMSON, eighty years old, is still working, still inventing, writes Frank Stockbridge. Not so widely known as Edison, Professor Thomson ranks among men of science as the foremost living inventor in the electrical field.

HE DONE HIM WRONG. Two weeks ago The Ledger published an article by S. L. Marshall in which it was stated that Burnett J. Abbott, secretary of the State Administrative Board, had bought door kickers for State Capitol job seekers to kick.

BEER AND BUNK. A RECENT issue of "The American Banker" contained a two-column editorial discussing "Beer and Bunk" from a purely business standpoint.

DRUNK—BUT NOT LEGALLY. CAN A MAN be drunk and not legally drunk, is a pertinent question propounded by W. H. Berkeley in the Cassopolis Vigilant, who adds: "That's a question that may have to be settled by the supreme court."

Matrimony Splash. Georgia Coleman, Olympic diving champion, has splashed into matrimony, becoming the bride of "Ruf" Gilson, amateur golfer of Jackson Mich. She is honeymooning in Florida as shown in the photo.

Program for Good Friday At City Hall

"Last Words on the Cross" will be the general theme of the public Good Friday services to be held in the Lowell City Hall from 1:30 to 3 p. m. The following program has been prepared:

Hymn, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross,"—Congregation. Hymn, "Abide With Me,"—Congregation. Devotions, "I Thirst,"—Rev. S. B. Wenger.

Solo, "There's a Green Hill Far Away,"—Mrs. C. H. Runciman. Address, "Woman, Behold thy Son," "Behold thy Mother," Rev. John Klaus.

Address, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," "Today thou shalt be with me in Paradise," Rev. A. J. Hootsma. Hymn, "The Midnight and on Olive's Brow," Congregation.

Address, "My God, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?" Rev. R. W. Merrill. Quartet, (Meth.) "The Old Rugged Cross."

Address, "Father Into thy Hands I Commend my Spirit, It is Finished," Rev. V. Shirley. Hymn, "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross," Congregation.

Benediction, Rev. R. W. Merrill. Stores Closed, 1:30 to 3 p. m. Notice—inasmuch as all local churches will observe Good Friday, April 14th, it is suggested that all business places close from 1:30 to 3:00 p. m. in observance of the day.

Additional Entries. MICHIGAN REPEALS. MICHIGAN'S constitutional convention, held last Monday, voted 99 to 1 in favor of the repeal of the 18th amendment.

THOMSON—AFTER 80 YEARS. LIHU THOMSON, eighty years old, is still working, still inventing, writes Frank Stockbridge.

Can Buy Half-Price Permits Up to Aug. 1

Because of lack of information, many motorists have failed to take advantage of the half-price permit, allowing use of 1932 automobile plates until August 1.

In many communities the belief is prevalent that the half-price permits had to be secured before April 1. The law provides that the permits can be secured at any time prior to August 1, the day upon which they cease to be effective.

Woman's Club. The Lowell Women's club held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. H. L. Weeks on Wednesday afternoon, April 5th.

174 Handicraft Boys. Handicraft clubs will have 174 members in 24 clubs. First year members exhibit 5 articles, second year 4, and third year 3, 4th year 2 articles.

Public Invited. Both the clothing and handicraft club exhibits will be worthy of seeing and the general public is invited to see the exhibit and attend the afternoon program.

Enjoys Genus Osmerus Mordax. Upwards of 600 smelt were consumed by the 150 persons who attended the fish supper at the Congregational parish house last Friday evening.

100 Apply For Govt. Seed Loans to Date. County Agent K. K. Vining reports that up to last Saturday about 100 applications for government seed loan money had been made in Kent county.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Leonard VanderBond, 20, Paris township; Evelyn VanZalen, 20, Gaines township.

Auction Sale. On Monday, April 17th, at the place known as the Boyd Colson farm, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Alto, horses, cattle, implements, tools, etc., Irving Leigh, proprietor.

Through Advising Governor, Earl Curtiss Resting at Home. Alto, April 4, 1933. Lowell Ledger: I grasp the pencil once more, thinking how I have enjoyed the last month in the capital city, Lansing.

As well as the clerical force at Lansing. Again there are some bills if they ever get out of the committee need to be looked after—for instance the text book bill.

Well, cheer up, friends! We only get beer for 3c a bottle we will all sail along on a sea of beer. Eat up the cows, drink beer and not milk, spread our bread with oleo or castor oil, cup grease or blackstrap.

One other bill to repeal the weight and license tax. Hold fast to that law as that money trims our road trees, sows salt to hold down the dust and pays for repairs on the good cement roads.

With love to all I remain, EARL CURTISS.

Great Program for Achievement Day

Handicraft and Clothing Club Work of 454 Kent County boys and girls, who are members of 4-H clubs will be exhibited in the gymnasium of the Lowell High School all day, Saturday, April 15th.

All exhibits will be placed Friday, the 14th, and will be judged that evening. The clothing by Miss Lois Corbett, club leader, Michigan State College and the handicraft work by P. G. Lundin, club leader of Michigan State college.

Afternoon Program and Style Show. The afternoon program will be held in the senior assembly room, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Music, community singing, presentation of honor groups and style show will make up the most of the program.

High School Sport Realm. The boys are working daily at Recreation park in preparing themselves for the many track meets which are in store for them this spring.

Remember When. Do you remember when Train's race track was running in full bloom? When they commenced turning their horses about the first of May, getting ready for the Junco races and also for the fairs in the fall.

Public Invited to Hear H. S. Programs. Many excellent programs are in store for the High School Assembly to which the public are cordially invited.

Easter Bunnies Right On Time

Easter bunnies will be right on time this year, as always. These two maidens were slightly in doubt so they went out and around about and did they find bunnies, well yes! So now Sara Belle and Evelyn Tiffany, maidens fair of footlight fame, want all good little boys and girls to know that they have the evidence and that Easter bunnies and all their friends will be right on the job on Easter morning.

Mrs. Ida Young, who has been spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., drops a card to The Ledger stating that she will leave for home the 15th. Mrs. Young reports a nice winter in "The Sunshine City."

Electric light and power service from system central stations was extended to 31 additional Michigan communities in 1932 according to a compilation made by the Utilities Information Bureau. It was also furnished to more than 2,250 additional farms. These extensions increased the number of Michigan communities with electric service to a total of 1,323 and the number of Michigan farms to more than 36,500.

Leonard Kline, of Grand Rapids, dispatcher with the Associated Truck freight lines, died in St. Mary's hospital Thursday night from an infection developing from a scratch received while at work.

Ironia people had a novel experience last Saturday. They saw a bank open instead of close. The State Savings Bank, which closed its doors, Sept. 12, 1931, was reopened for business, disbursing about $30,000 of depositors' funds which had been tied up. The cashier announced that about $40,000 more will be distributed to old depositors within a few weeks.

The Kansas robin, which has been lighting its own reflection in a window for two or three weeks as a rival in Grand Rapids, appeared at the sunroom window of the home of Phil Tobias, Union Blvd., last Monday morning. Fluffing up its feathers in apparent fighting array, the brilliant feathered songster suddenly flew straight at the window. Time after time the bird repeated its attack, thumping with considerable force against the glass. Tuesday morning it returned to the attack and continued throughout the day. Again Wednesday and Thursday the sham battle was on. Apparently the belligerent robin is none the worse for its joust with an imaginary rival.

Sunrise Easter services from Hollywood Bowl, Los Angeles, will be broadcast over W. G. N. Chicago at 8:30 o'clock. As the orchestra begins their music the mocking birds are heard to chime in and all is as plain as though one were attending in person. In 1929 Mrs. Margaret Stowell attended this Easter service and the seating capacity of 30,000 was filled to the limit, with at least 10,000 people around on the mountain sides. People began to assemble long before sunrise that they might obtain seating room to witness this wonderful service.

Rev. S. B. Wenger spoke at an all community meeting at Alto Friday night, April 7th. Plans are on foot to resume services at the church in the near future with Rev. Wenger for their pastor as he was last year.

Glendon Swarthout of the Lowell High School had the honor of winning alternate place in declamations in the sub-district oratorical contest held at Ionia last Thursday night. Schools participating were: East Grand Rapids, Greenville, Clarksville, Elsie, Ionia and Lowell. The critic judge was Prof. Roy W. Hamilton of Alma college, who declared that the honors were practically even between Annette Newell of Ionia and Glendon. The district contest will be held in Grand Rapids in May.

Thurston Springett, son of Attorney and Mrs. R. E. Springett, has been elected to membership in the National Honorary Chemical Fraternity. Thurston is now in his senior year in chemical engineering at the U. of M. and the honor goes only to those students having better than B average each year.

Louis Ferioga, a Grand Rapids supervisor, not regarded as particularly friendly politically to the "city hall crowd," was elected chairman of the board of supervisors for the coming year at the annual organization meeting of the board, Tuesday afternoon.

Origin of News

The word "news" is commonly supposed to be derived from the adjective, new. It is said, however, that its origin is traceable to a custom in former times of placing in the newspapers of the day the initial letters of the cardinal points of the compass. These letters were to indicate that the paper contained intelligence from the four quarters of the globe.

May Be Necessary to Shorten School Year

The attached letter sent to the teachers on April 8 explains the present status regarding prospects for continuing the school year until June 9 as planned. At a meeting of the Board of Education which will be held on May 2nd definite plans will be made for the balance of the year. These plans will be based upon conditions existing at that time. It will be interesting to note that if the school year is finished as has been planned, on June 9, that the total amount spent will be approximately 30% less than it was in 1930-1931.

The Board's Letter

Below is a copy of the letter mailed to each teacher: Lowell, Mich., April 8, 1933. Dear Teacher: It has been the purpose of the Board of Education to maintain the schools in a business-like manner satisfactory to pupils, teachers and patrons. It is the purpose of the Board to continue all of us to take precautionary measures. Adhering to the policy of "Pay as you go," the Board feels that it is unwise to become indebted to a point where it will be impossible to close the school year in a satisfactory manner. We still have hopes of continuing school as planned but we feel it wise to take measures by which the Board will be enabled to make changes in these plans if necessary. At a meeting of the Board Friday night we were instructed to notify you that your teacher's contract for the school year 1932-33 will terminate Monday, May 8. We are hereby giving you such notification which is in accordance with the terms of your contract.

Financial conditions and developments during the next thirty days will cause the Board to determine just what course to follow after May 7. We sincerely hope and trust that we will be able to continue as planned. However, if in the meantime conditions do not improve, it is very likely that curtailments will be made—even to the point of closing school.

The Board realizes its obligation to pay the teachers for services rendered according to the terms of the contract. Payment will be made as soon as the money is available. We appreciate the splendid attitude of the teachers during these trying times and we have the same spirit of co-operation may continue.

Sincerely yours, C. H. RUNCIMAN, President Bd. of Education, FRANK F. COONS, Secretary Bd. of Education.

Every week there are a whole lot of things that folks would like to sell or buy. There isn't a home that doesn't need something out of the ordinary run of merchandise several times during the year. And on the other hand every home has articles turn up every so often that can be sold. The only difficulty in both cases is to find the seller or buyer.

SIX SAY THEY FIND IT NECESSITY; NO LUXURY

"Inquiring Photographer" Gets One Verdict on Telephone
A recent question asked by the "Inquiring Photographer" was, "Do you consider a telephone in your home a luxury or a necessity?" All six persons interviewed considered it a necessity. Said a musician: "There are many contracts which I get over my phone which would not be possible otherwise." A military manufacturer in emergencies and also explained that household difficulties are often minimized by prompt telephone calls.
Experience Proved Its Real Worth
A door covering salesman explained that while he might occasionally be called on for a telephone, he never could do so on the telephone, as in certain emergencies it might be worth its cost for ten years. Said a merchant: "The other day, our youngster had an accident and my wife immediately notified me and a doctor. We were there almost instantly, and that one call was worth a year's cost of service. It is absolutely necessary for a wife." An all-way manager likewise referred to the necessity of the telephone for his wife, saying her trouble and time and being worth more than its cost when he was out for a week. He said his wife's nervous system is benefited.
The sixth person interviewed, a salesman, said he spoke from actual experience. He and his wife thought they would save money by cancelling their telephone service; but after a month without a telephone, and many inconveniences, they decided that it was an absolute necessity.

Welcome, Kent Co. 4-H Club Members

All Lowell Congratulates You on Your Achievements

We Shall Press On!

We may be down but we are not out. With the vast amount of foods, metals, timber, cotton, wool, factories, railroads, and man power in this country we have no honest reason for failure. Our economic machinery seems to be out of gear but we certainly have brain power enough to get it back in order if we all do our best to help out.

Let us all do our share. Boost and not knock. Lowell is only a small community but we have our share to do and we can do it.

With the same determination which put over the "Centennial" and "Showboat" let us all put our shoulder to the wheel, loyally support our government, carry on to the best of our ability, boost your neighbors' business, do all possible to aid those less fortunate than ourselves, and with a united determination work for the return of good times and a renewed prosperity.

Wake Up Your Liver-Bile
—Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, and often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Demand a substitute, 25¢ at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

DIS HERE DEPRESHUN—

Once more it comes de time
Wen de wind begins to blow;
Wen it sets de trees a'rockin',
An' a-pilin up de snow.
Wen de air an' a-glistenin'
An' de rabbit' in his hole,
An' de woodpecker's peckin'
On de clothes-line pole.
Wen Ah listens to de rattle
An' de shuddah oh de door,
An' de cold comes up
Through de cracks in de floor,
Wen de frost's on de window,
An' de nail-heads white,
An' Ah habs to keep a fire
In de house all night.
Ma toes gits cold.
Wen Ah hustles off to bed;
An' slides beneath de covers
An' covers up ma head.
Ah doubles up ma legs,
Ma chin between ma knees,
An' den Ah starts a-blowin'
So ma legs don't freeze.
Ah listens to de moanin'
An' de worry ob de storm,
An' all ma troubles leave me
Wen Ah starts to git warm.
De only worries dat Ah had
Am only in ma head,
An' dey ain't room for me an'
den.
Wen Ah gits into bed,
Ah guess dat maybe after all
De world's all right.
Wen Ah'm way beneath de covers
On a cold, cold night,
A little harder hardship
An' de thing to make us see
Dat our troubles an' our worries
Ain't what dey's supposed to be.
An' rubbin' shoulders wid de world
Until deys lame an' sore,
Makes us 'preciate de sunshine,
An' de roses round de door.
So now Ah's quit ma moanin'
For at last Ah comes to learn
We makes de troubles dat we gits
An' gits de good we earn.

Michigan Imports Too Many Horses

Two Farm Meetings for Demonstration of Horse Hitches

Michigan needs to grow its own horses. Farmers will be interested in the figures given below relative to the horse situation in this state.

There is an unusual amount of interest in all phases of horse work. The cost of using horses has been materially cut with the cheapest farm grains, hay and so forth, that have been produced in many years. On the other hand, the value of the horse is high compared to all other classes of livestock. The value of the horse on the farm in Michigan is $97.00, the same as it was the past year. Only in two states, Maine and Massachusetts, does the horse have a higher value. The value of the horse in the United States is $54.15, which is an increased value over that of the past year. Statistics show that in all the western states that we have depended upon quite largely for supplies of horses, the horse has increased any place from $2.00 to $5.00 per head.

Michigan is not producing enough horses to take care of replacements on the farm. The past year 10,897 head were shipped into the state, as shown by records taken from the State Department. Taking into consideration that many horses coming into the state each year can be readily seen, Michigan, according to the latest census, has 366,000 horses and 6,000 mules on the farm. With added interest in all phases of horse work there has been an increased interest in the breeding program. This is also indicated through the increase of licensed stallions the past year. There were 47 licensed draft stallions used in 1931 as compared to 489 in 1932. According to figures taken from the Horse Association of America, Michigan requires 25,510 horses to take care of replacements each year. In 1929 they were raising only 7,584 colts. These figures, the known number of horses coming into the state, the demand and high prices being paid for horses in this state, call for a definite breeding program. This is being brought to the attention of the Michigan farmer.

If horses were used for farm work like they were in 1918 the American farmer would have a home market in the form of horse power for at least thirty-six millions of crop land which equals the crop land of the states of Iowa and Illinois combined. The value of horses estimated in farm crops are shown by the following figures. In January, 1918, it took 54 bushels of corn, 118 bushels of oats, 45 bushels of wheat, 200 lbs. of butter, 826 pounds of native beef or 613 pounds of fat hogs to buy a farm chunk costing $100. In January, 1933, it took 312 bushels of corn, 414 bushels of oats, 153 bushels of wheat, 395 pounds of butter, 1,500 pounds of native beef cattle or 2,380 pounds of fat hogs to buy the same kind of horse though his price in dollars is reduced to $75.00. All comparisons are from the Chicago Open Market and differ greatly in many localities.

The use of multiple hitch has become a common practice in most states and in many sections of Michigan the purpose of this hitch is to bring about the more efficient use of the horse on the farm. It is used commonly in connection with plow work when four or more horses are used as one unit. Through the use of horses and multiple hitch, the known factor which causes a loss of from fifteen to twenty-five percent in power, namely side-draft, is eliminated. Inasmuch as horses are worked in tandem, only the leaders being driven and the rear horses bucked back and tied in, they are very easily handled. Horses worked in these hitches work freer, cooler and without crowding or tramping one another. In many instances farmers would work five or six horses on two bottom plows if they knew this method of hitch work. The use of these hitches are common in many sections of the state. It was a most common practice the past year, to start four, five and six multi-hitches on tractor plows. Indications are that this year many horses will be started on tractor equipment. Any farmer having four or more horses should be interested in seeing how these hitches operate.

Another example of over-production; the hundreds of bills already introduced at the state legislature.

Franklin Thomas started to school last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Condon of Corning, entertained Sunday honoring the birthday of Mrs. Condon's mother, Mrs. Susan Huffman of Sidney, Indiana. Her eight children came to spend the day with her. They were Mr. and Mrs. Curt Lenwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Barnhouse of Pierce, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grover Huffman of Akron, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. William Huffman of Saranac, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Huffman of Shepardsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kiste of Moseley were afternoon callers.

At noon they sat down to a table loaded with good things to eat and a birthday cake with 78 candles. It was a real pleasure for the whole family to get together to swap yarns and relate childhood experiences with each other. The time came much too soon for them to leave for their various homes. Many gifts were brought to the honor guest and all wished her many more happy birthdays.
