

KENT PARKS ARE OPEN

LOSING of twenty-two of Michigan's State parks went into effect July 1, because of insufficient funds for maintenance. Michigan people are now paying more taxes than ever before in the state's history, but it seems that the more we pay the less we have.

After reading the Plymouth Mail week after week and gradually comes to the conclusion that Editor Eaton leans toward the nomination of Alex J. Groesbeck for governor.

NOT SO BAD OFF

WE ARE at times inclined to view with more or less concern the amount of the aggregate indebtedness of the Village of Lowell, which is some where around $130,000. Based on 2,000 population this means a per capita indebtedness of $65 for every man, woman and child, within the village.

Election promises are sometimes fulfilled. Last fall taxpayers were told they would be relieved. We are being relieved, all right.

GOING TOO FAR

STARTING with July 1 we pay gasoline tax as follows: Highway tax, 3 cents; federal tax, 1 1/2 cents; new 3 cent sales tax for the state, 3/4 of a cent per gallon. Gasoline, which is classed as a necessity, is now higher taxed than luxuries.

Governor Comstock is quoted as saying that there is no longer a place in Democratic councils for Isaiah Lechove and that he must go. At least one "Isaiah" is prophetic.

WELFARE PROBLEM IS STATE WIDE

APERUSAL of the weekly newspapers in practically all sections of the state shows unmistakably that welfare relief costs are rapidly reaching the point where they can no longer be financed by taxpayers.

There are too many sources of public aid. There is a multiplicity of effort with resultant overlapping. Welfare officials should co-operate in adopting and following an iron-clad policy of work or starve.

DETERMINATION WINS

WISH the English language had a single short word to express the combination of qualities which enables some of us to fight our way to the top against heavy odds.

THE NAMING OF LAKES AND STREAMS

SPEAKING of the movement to secure a more fitting name for Lowell's nearest large body of water, commonly referred to as "the pond," the following communication from the Michigan Department of Conservation has significance:

Merchants Enter Role of Tax Collectors for State

Every merchant doing business within the boundary lines of the state of Michigan entered upon a new role last Saturday morning, July 1. The new role was that of acting as tax collector for the commonwealth in accordance with the provisions of the new 3 per cent sales tax law.

Merchants were at a loss to know how to proceed in collecting the new tax. A public meeting was held in the City Hall building by R. E. Springett, president of the Lowell Board of Trade, for the purpose of discussing the various angles of the new law.

Tells Story of How to Combat Pond's Origin Rose Chafer Pest

Grand Rapids, July 1, 1933. Mr. R. G. Jefferies, Lowell, Mich. Dear Editor: Ever since you came to The Ledger I have wanted to write you or call at the office, but put it off.

I always admired Mr. Johnson and his struggle to make Lowell a better and cleaner city and admire and rejoice how well his work is being carried on through The Ledger and the personal life of its editor.

Continued from preceding column "Mud Creek," "Cold Creek" or "Crooked Creek." Sometimes the contents of the waters have inspired the name as "Trout Creek," "Sturgeon River," "Sucker Creek" and "Turtle Creek."

"However the origin of the names of some of Michigan's streams would probably make interesting stories, according to the Fish Division of the Department, in Ogemaw county there is Tough Mire Creek, probably named by some disgruntled and disgraced traveler.

NEW CREAM STATION

Ralph Whinnery has opened a cream buying station in the building occupied by the "Down Town Dairy" on Riverside Drive.

Stranger—When does the five-fifteen leave?

Train Man—At a quarter past five.

Stranger—Thanks. I get all mixed up over this changing of time.

Parnell Girl Is Killed in Crash

Miss Loyola Byrne Victim of Motor Accident on Ada Rd. Miss Loyola Byrne, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byrne, Parnell, was fatally injured last week Thursday morning at 2 o'clock when the automobile in which she was riding overturned at the Ada-Parnell rd., two miles north on M-21.

Surviving Miss Byrne are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Byrne; five sisters, Lorene, Mary, Irma, Alice and Theresa Byrne, and three brothers, James, Justin and Francis Byrne, all of Parnell.

How to Combat Rose Chafer Pest

Principal W. J. Smith of the Lowell public school is in receipt of the following communication from the Entomology Department of Michigan State College:

When these beetles attack grapes, we recommend the use of 3 pounds of dry-powdered arsenate of calcium to 100 gallons of water or Bordeaux mixture, used thoroughly applied as a spray.

CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

The Michigan State Holiness Camp Meeting Association will meet at Eaton Rapids July 27 to Aug. 6. Rev. Lloyd H. Nixon of St. Joseph, formerly of Lowell, is president of the association.

TAX NOTICE

Lowell village taxes are due and payable at Hartman's drug store, beginning July 1st.

Reader Has Original Ideas

In Suggesting Name for Pond

Dear Mr. Editor: Naming "the pond," suggests to me several appropriate titles. For instance, the boys seem to think it is "Eden," for they swim there like Adam, so if "Lac Adam" is too suggestive of "like a dam," (but please do not call it "A-dam Lake,") then "Lac 'la Belle'" would please those who like liquids, and would be very suitable for these times of liquidation, pleasing to poets, wets and bankers.

Celebrate in Good Old Way At So. Boston

The "Glorious Fourth" was celebrated at South Boston Grange hall by a large crowd. Two ball games, Saranae vs. South Boston, umpired by Bert Conklin and Ed. Hansen, and the Elmidae Tertiles, vs. South Boston, umpired by John Lott, both games resulting in victory for South Boston.

Other members of the program were a piano solo by Betty Freeman; song with guitar accompaniment by Russell Schrier and America by all.

Ice Cream Industry Flourishing Here

William Christiansen is expanding his ice cream business at his plant on East Main-st. He has just installed a new machine that will enable him to make ice cream at the rate of 150 gallons per hour. It will be necessary for him to also enlarge his storage capacity to take care of his increased output.

Wanted—More Appropriate Name

NOTE—Quite a number of persons have brought in coupons suggesting a better name for "the pond" and others have asked for a little more time. For this reason and the absence of one or two of the judges, the closing date for receiving coupons has been extended to 8 o'clock, Saturday evening, July 15.

Vital Questions To Come Before School Meeting

Board of Education Report Will Lay Problems Before Patrons at Annual Gathering Next Monday Ev'g, July 10, at Central Building.

When patrons of Lowell School District No. 1 gather for the annual school meeting this evening they will come face to face with doubtless the most trying situation ever presented in the history of the school district.

Insufficient Funds

These three things in particular mean nothing more nor less than insufficient funds for the proper conduct of our schools. How much the school income will be reduced no one can tell.

Operating Costs Cut

During the past school year the cost of operating Lowell's schools was $31,986, and at that bonds and interest due of $2,400 had to remain unpaid because of lack of funds.

Income Falls

Here are some other interesting facts concerning our schools and the district's financial situation. The delinquent school tax of 1932 amounts to $8,729.73; or previous year, $4,672.38. This makes a total delinquent school tax of $12,702.11, which the school district has been obliged to worry along without.

Gets Good Laugh From Earl's Letters

Mr. Editor: Enclosed find $2.00 to pay for The Ledger. We always enjoy the paper and get a good laugh out of Earl Gurtis' letters. Here's hoping he keeps the letters coming often.

Coming Events

The Greene Circle will hold their annual picnic supper on the Church house lawn, Thursday, July 13th. Please bring sandwiches and one other dish to pass. All are invited, no collection taken. Come and have a good time.

Odds and Ends Here and There

Treasurer William C. Hartman reports that village taxes have been coming in at the rate of nearly $400 a day since collection of the summer tax began on July 1.

One of the interesting features of Farm Women's Week at Michigan State College, July 23-28, will be instructions in remodeling of out-of-date hats.

One radical change in the collection of malt tax was made by the 1933 legislature. The 1911 law provided that each retail dealer in malt products should pay a $25 license fee.

Gov. William A. Comstock will be the guest of honor at Michigan Day, Saturday, July 8, at the Chicago World's Fair—A Century of Progress.

C. H. Runciman of the Michigan Bean Jobbers Association will leave on July 17 for Denver, Colorado, to attend a meeting of the presidents of all bean jobbers' associations of the United States.

Meeting the Situation

Well, what can be done about it? In order to come within our income shall we make a probable cut in teachers' wages of some 60%?

To Start Retiring School Dist. Scrip

The Board of Education at a special meeting decided to recall $500 worth of scrip on Saturday, July 8. It will be retired according to date of issue and pro-rated according to sires as follows:

"I suppose you intend to hold me for ransom," said the prisoner who had just been captured by a bandit in one of our Latin American republics.
 "Ransom" is a very objectionable word," responded the brigand. "You will have the politeness to regard me as a revolutionist, simply collecting a campaign fund."

Hagen and family and friends and relatives from Lansing, Grand Rapids, Vergennes and Lowell. All enjoyed a fine chicken dinner after which ice cream and cake were served. Violin music was furnished by Ed. Hagen. In the wee hours of the night all departed for their several homes feeling amply repaid for their time spent with Mr. and Mrs. Cranz and wishing them many more happy Fourth of Julys.

Michigan residents who cut ragweeds twice yearly to prevent the plants from filling the air with pollen will help ally the sufferings of the people who are attacked by the gold fever and also those who need relief from hay fever, according to reports from the farm crops department at Michigan State College.

Possibilities of profitable seed crops from alfalfa and red clover are called to the attention of Michigan farmers by the farm crops department at Michigan State College, which predicts a good demand for first class legume seeds.

Social Events

Mrs. Frank M. Newell entertained at the Country Club Saturday with a 1:30 o'clock luncheon and bridge for the pleasure of Mrs. Leslie French of San Diego, Calif. Covers were laid for nine guests. Mrs. Raymond Bergin was awarded high honors and Mrs. Albert Roth consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Gehrer were pleasantly surprised when the German Ladies' Aid gathered at their home Friday afternoon with well filled baskets to have another Golden Wedding Celebration. Rev. W. Claus gave a splendid talk and the ladies sang a number of hymns. Mrs. Lucy Blaser, President of the Aid, presented the couple with a well appreciated gift and congratulations were given them by all present. Tables were set on the lawn and a wonderful supper was enjoyed by everyone.

The meat had just been put on the table and it certainly did look pretty small for the number to be served, as several people had dropped in for dinner without warning. "This mutton roast has shrunk away terribly," said the hostess, in her embarrassment. "I think," remarked one of the men guests, "it must have been off the same sheep as a flannel shirt I have."

Odds and Ends

Ontonagon county is the best deer hunting county in Michigan and Gogebic county ranks a close second, if statistics compiled by Game Division of the Department of Conservation and based on the reports of 27,000 deer hunters are any criterion. In the lower peninsula Alpena county apparently offers the best deer hunting.

Possibility that voters in 1934 may pass upon a bill seeking repeal of the private shooting preserve act, is seen in the request to the Department of State for information regarding initiatory legislation. The request was received immediately after the governor announced his intention of vetoing the measure which would repeal the private shooting preserve act. In order to place such a question on the ballot, petitions embodying the proposal and bearing 129,000 signatures, must be filed with the department at least 10 days before either a regular or special session of the legislature.

Employees of the senate and house of representatives were informed last week that attempts are being made to bring all legislators back to Lansing for the final session July 17. The attempt is being made by backers of the bill reducing small loan interest rates from three and three-quarters to one and one-half percent, and the bill setting up a separate board of osteopathy examiners. Both measures were vetoed and a movement is under way to override the governor's veto. The governor approved the bill allowing betting on horse races and vetoed the bill providing for a chain store tax.

While the state may spend money in huge sums, it collects it almost penny by penny. The three per cent sales tax, effective July 1, is a sterling example. If retail business of the state is only half as large as it was in 1929, the state government will gather in, at the rate of three cents on each dollar you and everyone else passes over retail counters, a total of some $32,000,000 a year.

KEENE SUNSHINE CLUB

The Keene Sunshine Club met with Eva Hull June 28, for afternoon meeting with fine attendance. Five guests were present, Eva Higgins, Mary Larsen, Lois Blough, Flora Hopkins and Evelyn Sparks. Members answered roll call by naming favorite season.

Business meeting convened and club voted to omit the club picnic as there were so many not in favor of having a picnic. Following business meeting the chairman of program committee presented an Independence or Patriotic program. Club sang Yankee Doodle, America the Beautiful, Rally Around the Flag, Boys, Mrs. Garfield's poem; a pleasing selection, Evelyn Sparks; a patriotic reading, Mae Fashbaugh, "Independence Bell;" and Mary Chamberlain, "The Declaration of Independence."

Program closed with singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Lois Blough and Eula
