Remember When

Tomatoes were called love apples and considered fit to eat as they were poisonous? Raisins were packed in heavy ten pounds? Whole bunches of grapes were dried and packed in boxes called "fruit"? We always got whole nutmegs and every cook had her nutmeg grater, and quite often got a small piece of nutmeg which was in flavor? Pipes had covers so smokers would not get their pipes around buildings anywhere?—An Old Timer.

On Tuesday Miss Florence King entertained ten ladies from Lowell at her home on Madison-av., Grand Rapids, with a luncheon in Mrs. Clark's honor.

Miss Eunice Clark arrived on Tuesday from Washington, D. C., and she and her mother will join Mr. Clark on August 6 when they will leave for a camp in northern California.

Mrs. Gordon Frost entertained with a birthday party Monday afternoon in honor of the 77th birthday of her mother, Mrs. Susie Sayles. Guests were the guest of honor and Mesdames Norma Frost, Zella Day, Katie Blass, Hattie Parker, Lady Wilson, Essie Gordon and Agnes Gordon. Mrs. Sayles received a number of nice gifts. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Sayles and Mrs. Frost received honors at progressive euchre.

Interesting Program Presented

The ice cream social given Friday by the Good Will Club on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Lady Sheen of Keene was well attended. Mrs. Will Washburn of Lowell held the lucky number on the lovely pyramid cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Elta Wicks.

All enjoyed the following program:

Doris Adams, piano solo, "Chiming Bells" by Erb and "Beside the Stream" by McLachlan; Wayne Peck, recitation, "Blessings on the Flapper Girl"; Damaris Lawton, tap dancing; the Misses Mary and Naurine Cahoon, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Cahoon, songs, "In the Little Gypsy Tea Room" and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream"; Marjorie Adams, piano solo, "Silver Cords" by Richter; Damaris Lawton, tap dance; Elaine Kohn and Mary Thompson with Evelyn Bowen at the piano, "Hiland Fling"; Catharine Bollock and Irene Bollock, accompanied by the guitar, "I'm Lonesome for You, Caroline" and "He Was Just a Lonely Cowboy"; Elaine Kohn, piano solo, "In the Valley of the Moon"; Catherine Bollock, songs, accompanied by guitar, "That's How I Got My Start" and "Old 97"; Mrs. Edyth Wicks, piano solo, "The Isle of Capri."

Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Garfield were pleasantly surprised Sunday when they arrived at Fallsburg Park to share what they thought was a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson. But for several weeks the Peterson family have been inviting relatives and preparing to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. A large banner reading "Golden Anniversary" caught their eye as they alighted from their car and, of course, greetings followed from guests who had come from Lansing, Ionia, Lake Odessa, Saranac, Grand Rapids, Middleville, Chicago, Holt, Belding and Lowell.

The ladies were prettily decorated in white and silver and were arranged in a T shape so that the honored couple could view the one hundred and five guests present. A beautiful white and silver trimmed pyramid cake was in its place before Mr. and Mrs. Garfield. Several letters of regrets were read, one coming from a sister of Mr. Garfield, and her family from Ohio who were unable to attend.

In the afternoon, Charles Palmer of Saranac officiating, refreshed their memory with marriage vows using a ring presented Mrs. Garfield for the occasion which was mounted with her birthstone. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whinnery. Mrs. Whinnery was one of the attendants twenty-five years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Melba of Chicago presented them with a lovely silver coffee service. A silver collection was also taken and they were requested to buy some gift in memory of this anniversary.

Rules and Classifications For 5th Annual Flower Show To Be Held Here Aug. 1-2-3

The fifth annual Flower Show sponsored by the Lowell Garden Lore Club will be held in the high school gymnasium August 1, 2 and 3 at the same time that the Lowell Showboat is held there. Prospective exhibitors will find the following rules and classifications a help in preparing their entries for the Show and if you wish any further information, the committee will be glad to furnish it.

Explanation

There will be a $2.00 cash prize donated by the Garden Lore Club and all third prize winners will be requested to put their names on their tickets and drop them in a box for the drawing. The drawing will be held at the same time the other prizes are awarded.

We urge everyone to cooperate and make the Flower Show of 1935 the best. Show your loyalty to Lowell by bringing flowers and exhibits regardless of the prize.

The ladies on the reception committee will judge the best singing bird each day.

All flower exhibits are judged by the following points:

Stem 15 points.
 Color 25 points.
 Foliage 20 points.
 Quality 20 points.
 Substance 20 points.

Rules Adopted by Committee

1—Exhibits must conform to the schedule and exhibitors must comply with the rules or be disqualified.

2—The decision of the judge shall be final. He may withhold or reduce any prize if the exhibits are not worthy. He may also recommend additional awards at his discretion.

3—Exhibits must be classified and entered before being staged.

4—Exhibitors will be allowed to make only one display in a class and will not be permitted to enter the same entry in more than one class.

5—All entries excepting flowers must be in and completed by 8:00 p. m. July 31. Shadow boxes must be finished, except placing the flowers by 8:00 p. m. July 31; otherwise they will be staged "Not for competition."

6—All flower entries must be in by 11:00 a. m. August 1.

7—The flower show will be open to the public at 3:00 p. m. August 1. The show will open at 9:00 a. m. August 2 and 3, remaining open each day and during the evening.

8—Refreshments will be served each day from 2:30 until 4:30 for a nominal charge.

9—Voting and drawing for all prizes will close at noon August 3. The prizes will be given to the winners at 2:30 p. m. August 3.

10—Exhibits must not be removed before the closing of the show. Entry and award cards must remain on the exhibit during the show.

11—Only the exhibitor may change the classification of his or her entry and no changes may be made after the entries are staged and the exhibitor has left the hall.

12—Exhibits should not be moved by the exhibitor after being staged.

13—Containers will be provided only for the specimens.

14—While due care will be taken, the management will not be responsible for loss or damage to exhibits or property of exhibitor or prizes not called for at the specified time.

15—No exhibitor will be allowed in the hall while the judging is in progress.

16—Exhibits containing wild flowers, shrub plants, etc., forbidden by the Wild Flower Preservation and Conservation Societies, will not be judged.

17—Artificial aides such as dyed, ribbons, tinsel, stuffed or wooden birds are discouraged.

Fair Warning!

After a visit to London, Sandy returned to his native village and was asked about the great city. "Oh, it's a grand place, all right," said Sandy, "but the people there have to be watched." "What makes you think so?" asked his friend. "Well, I bought a box of pins, labeled 'A thousand for a penny.' On the way home in the train I counted them, and they were six short!"

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Pauline B. Gardner, who passed away one year ago July 20. She suffered here, but now she's best With perfect peace and heavenly rest. The depth of sorrow we cannot tell For the loss of one we loved so well. And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep Her memory we will always keep; Her smiling face, to us so dear, Her gentle footsteps no more we'll hear; Her willing hands and face so sweet In heaven some day we hope to meet. Her Sad and Lonely Parents, Brother and Sisters. c9
