Great Grid Game Seen Here By Crowd of 2,000

FOOTBALL MANNERS

CONSIDERING the intensity of the game of football, its hard clash of strong and vigorous bodies, and the strain on nerves and temper, it is truly remarkable that such good feeling usually prevails between the contending teams.

GOOD CO-OPERATION

A GENTLEMAN who recently got up a highly successful demonstration for a certain organization, was complimented for these good results.

ALL FULL TOGETHER

A POLITICAL CAMPAIGN is a time when people feel their differences and disagreements. When the campaign ends, then is the time for people to think of their points of agreement, and try to work together and co-operate for the general good.

WHAT WE ALL CAN DO

WHEN BUSINESS is slow, and many people are out of work, there are many who talk very vigorously, and ask why this or that thing is not done to remedy these conditions.

UNCLE SAM IS HEALTHY

UNITED STATES health authorities expect that this country will have the lowest death rate in 1938 that has ever been recorded.

BEST OF THE HOME TOWN

DO YOU get the best which the life of your home town has to offer? Or do you live outside its activity, so that you do not share the benefits you might have?

Great Interest Aroused In Home Talent Show

Sponsored By Am. Legion

The big Prairie Farmer-WLS Community talent show, sponsored by the Charles W. Clark Post of the American Legion, will be given three nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17, 18, 19, at Lowell in the City hall.

This show is patterned after the Prairie Farmer-WLS National Broadcast program as given in Chicago each Saturday night at the 5th Street Theatre, and is featured by impersonations of your favorite radio stars together with many new and original acts.

You enjoy seeing your own talented sons and daughters and your neighbors and friends on the stage, when they do a clever piece of work and exhibit good showmanship. Under the skillful training of the Prairie Farmer-WLS Community service directors, the whole cast would be as good on the radio as the sincerity into their acting which is so needed in home talent productions.

In every community we find young men and women of genuine ability and also many of the older people who, if they had a chance, would be as good on the radio as many of the real stars themselves. And the enjoyment that comes to the audience is as great, and even more so, sometimes, than if they were listening to the original artists in person.

The talent of the community is developed in this manner, a larger and finer community spirit is fostered and everybody is made happier and better by a big, clean, wholesome home talent entertainment.

Colorful Parade And Football Game On Armistice Day

Lowell stores and schools will be closed all day Friday, Nov. 11, in observance of Armistice Day which this year was declared a National holiday.

There will be thousands here to witness the annual Armistice Day football tilt between the Lowell and Grandville teams, which will start at 2:30 at Recreation Park.

Happy Occasion for Rotarians and Anns

Lowell Rotary Club held one of its most enjoyable meetings of the year this week Wednesday night, the occasion being annual ladies' night, which was held in the high school gym.

The evening began with a Mexican dinner at 6:30, served by Theron Richmond and his assistants, after which a most enjoyable program was carried out consisting of group singing, some fun-making stunts followed by a very interesting address by Editor George R. Averill of Birmingham, Mich., who talked on his travels through Europe in the summer of 1937 accompanied by Mrs. Averill and other members of the family, the talk being illustrated with pictures taken by Mr. Averill.

Rotarians for a long time have been waiting for a proper occasion on which to show their appreciation to Frank F. Coons for his splendid work as secretary since the club was organized in 1935 and this meeting seemed to be just the right time in a neat speech by past president B. H. Shepard on behalf of the club, Mr. Coons was presented with a handsome chair.

President W. W. Gummer presided and past president E. C. Foreman acted as program chairman.

Along Main St.

Lowell stores will be closed all day Friday, Nov. 11, in observance of Armistice Day. No mail deliveries on city nor rural routes.

The distinction of casting the first ballot in Lowell-tp, at the opening of the polls Tuesday morning, goes to Mrs. F. B. Thompson, who lives on Bowers-d. Participating in elections is one of the great privileges of a democracy.

Another great gala day in Lowell this week Friday in observance of Armistice Day. The annual football game between Grandville and Lowell will bring thousands of people. The Grandville and Lowell high school bands will be in gray uniforms and there will be heaps of color and plenty of excitement. The game starts at 2:30.

A shadow of gloom hung over Lowell Friday night with nary a smile or cheery word of greeting for anyone—Lowell had lost to East, and in such a tough manner! The chins of Lowell fans were dragging on the street and many a tear-stained eye came from Recreation Park after the game. But on Saturday morning the change had been made and the cry was, "Wait 'til next year!"

Proceedings leading to the construction of a U. S. post office building in Lowell are moving forward. The procurement division of the public buildings branch, Washington, D. C., is now making preparations to advertise for bids and plans and specifications are expected to be on file in the Lowell postoffice within a very few days. Contractors must file their bids by 1:00 p. m., Saturday, Dec. 9, 1938.

That brief cold snap of a few weeks ago made me believe that summer had passed and fly time along with it, so many screen doors were removed from their hinges. But it takes more than one swallow to make a summer and more than one cold snap to make a winter, hence many stores have been replacing screen doors during the past week, all of which have been the cause of some good-natured jibing. Storm doors will come next.

CHANCE

A car spins down the broad highway at sixty, I'd say, I see it swiftly come. Fuelless, it's a great, the wheel with a grip of rigid steel. 'Tis last driver sure just where he'd like to go!

If not, I'll never know. A skid, a slip, a twist of the hand and you'll wander in some Promised Land. So whether we ride or use the feet—We live by the grace of God and the people we meet. —Sara Snelling

Over 500 Attend F. F. A. Fair

Lowell high school F. F. A. fair held in the high school gymnasium Tuesday was a complete success, having more than 200 entries in all classes. Caledonia high school students took the largest number of ribbons with 13. Lowell trailed with 11, Sparta 4 and Cooperville 2. At the evening meeting more than 500 rural people attended to witness the initiation of new members into the club.

John Kleinhekel, teacher of agriculture in the high school and sponsor of the F. F. A., has planned a trip to Chicago for 19 students from Lowell with others from Caledonia, Sparta and Cooperville to the International Livestock show. They will spend the week-end in Chicago seeing the fighting and attending the show on Monday and Tuesday.

In Memoriam

On the occasion of Armistice Day we have brought vividly to mind that our own community had its heroes who were willing to sacrifice their lives on the altar of their country. Charles W. Clark Post No. 152, American Legion, mourns the following deceased comrades: Anton Anderson, Winford Alexander, Ed. Hand, Charles W. Clark, Charles Knapp, Peter Spearstra, W. H. Schneider, Robert Stiles, Sam Proudfoot, E. J. Murray, Darwin Dickson, Joe C. Scott and Rev. R. S. Miller.

PANCAKES for breakfast! Pancakes for breakfast! Pancakes for breakfast! Rub yer eyes an' stir yer bones! What's the big delay? Mother's got the griddle hot! Hi there, break away!

Shot to Death by Admirer' is becoming more common in newspaper headlines. Personally we don't particularly care for that sort of admiration. T. Alfred.

Republican Ticket Sweeps Michigan

New Deal Sustains Major Defeats Throughout Country

The Republican state ticket scored a sweeping victory in Michigan in Tuesday's biennial election. Former governor Frank D. Fitzgerald at this writing has a majority over Governor Murphy, Democratic incumbent, upwards of 90,000 and the entire Republican state ticket will replace Democratic incumbents by safe majorities. Governor Murphy had the blessings of President Roosevelt in the campaign and the eyes of the nation were focused upon Michigan as a result.

Republicans gained a dozen or fourteen governorships from the hands of the Democrats, the latter turning the trick in only three states. The New Deal suffered further defeat in the national Congress, Republicans gaining from 80 to 70 seats in the House and 10 or more seats in the U. S. Senate. Among the states to return to the Republican columns in addition to Michigan, are such important strongholds as Wisconsin, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Kansas. The Republican victories provide an interesting cross-section of the East as well as the agricultural West and Mid-west. Thomas E. Dewey, 36-year-old son of the Michigan weekly newspaper publisher and born in Shilwaukee County, 70 miles east of Lowell, who won deserved fame as a racket busting district attorney after taking up his residence in New York City, came within an ace of winning the governorship of the state of New York, losing to Governor Lehman by the narrow margin of around 75,000 votes.

Republicans Won Locally Honorable Carl E. Mapes of the Fifth Congressional district won by a handsome majority over Tunis E. Johnson, his Democratic opponent. Mr. Mapes had a majority of 4,000 in the city of Grand Rapids and carried almost every precinct in the counties of Kent and Ottawa. Harold Saur of Kent City was elected state senator from this district, defeating Frederick R. Schriber by upwards of 1,000 votes. Charles R. Feenstra was re-elected to the State Legislature from this district by a good majority over James P. Mulvihill, his Democratic opponent.

The entire Republican ticket in Kent County was elected by better than a safe majority. In Lowell Township Lowell township cast 1308 votes in Tuesday's election. There were 645 straight Republican tickets and 388 straight Democratic tickets, the balance being scattered among the other eight tickets on the ballot. There were 253 split tickets. The vote ran about as follows: Frank D. Fitzgerald 782, Frank Murphy 492; Luren D. Dickinson 774, Leo J. Nowicki 479; Harry F. Kelley 720, Leon D. Case 531; Thomas Read 753, Raymond W. Starr 492; Miller Dunckel 745, Theodore L. Fry 500; Vernon J. Brown 770, George T. Gundry 457; Carl E. Mapes 802, Tunis Johnson 454; Harold Saur 768, Frederick R. Schriber 478; Charles R. Feenstra 766, James P. Mulvihill 479; Cornelius Hoffius 761, Glenwood C. Fuller 468.

Blacklock for sheriff had a majority here of 300 with the balance of the county ticket not far behind.

SCHOOLS CLOSED ON ARMISTICE DAY

The Lowell Board of Education voted at a meeting on Monday evening of this week to close the schools of Lowell District No. 1 all day on Friday, Nov. 11, Armistice Day. It was also decided that Christmas vacation would start Friday evening, Dec. 23, and that pupils would return to their studies on Tuesday morning, Jan. 3.

Be Sure to See Canvassers Working Rackets In This Territory

Entertainment for the whole family will be found in the coming production of "Giri Shy" on Wednesday evening, Nov. 16. It's the story of handsome Tom Ardale, played by Bill Lalley, who is about to be graduated from college with the name of being a woman hater; and what a contrast to his roommate, Oke Stinson (portrayed by Charles Dawson) who is faithful to all the girls, one after another, more than any other man in college! Tom is afraid, yet curious, to meet the fascinating Babs Sanford (Doris Christensen) who claims she is out "gunning" for him. Changing places with Birdie LaVerne she cleans the boys' apartment, aids by Peaches, Oke's current girl friend, Babs finally accomplishes her ends. The unexpected situations which arise from one mistaken identity after another, makes the story brimful of excitement and laughter. Birdie LaVerne is played by Marion Buras and Peaches Carter is played by Jacqueline Davis.

See "College Days" come to life in the coming production by the "L" boys and Girls' Club—"Giri Shy." General admission is 20c and if reserved seats are desired ten cents extra will be required. Tickets may be obtained at the Palace Cleaners up to 6:00 p. m. Wednesday evening, Nov. 16. The play is to be held in the Lowell high school gymnasium.

NOVEMBER 19 LAST DATE FOR WHEAT PREMIUMS Farmers who have applied for insurance on their 1939 wheat crops have until November 19 to pay for their premiums. Mr. Henry A. Timm, Kent County Crop Insurance Supervisor announced this week. "This is the final extension of time for payment of 1939 wheat insurance policies," Mr. Timm said.

Washington reports indicate that the chaplain has prayed only twice in the senate this year. Perhaps that is what's the matter with the country.

New M. E. Pastor

REV. WALTER T. RATCLIFFE

This community is happy to welcome the Rev. Walter T. Ratcliffe and his family to the pastorate of Lowell Methodist Episcopal church. They come to Lowell from a charge near Winona, Minn.

The Rev. Ratcliffe was born in Cohoes, New York, and spent his early life in several New York state cities. He was graduated from a Buffalo high school where he won honors in oratorical and public speaking contests and took part in debate and drama. He is '30 a graduate of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, with a B. A. degree and a graduate of Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill. Jarrett is one of the official theological seminaries of the Methodist Church.

The preaching experience of Rev. Ratcliffe was gained in two years as a student pastor in college, traveling almost 200 miles every week-end; a most interesting and varied experience in South Dakota during the dry summer of 1934, and serving two charges in Minnesota, both near Winona.

The Rev. Ratcliffe has been active in Boy Scout work, organizing a troop and serving as a troop committee member. He was serving as president of the Epworth League of the Winona District of the Minnesota Conference when appointed to the Lowell charge.

Mrs. Ratcliffe was the former Elizabeth Ann Heart of Evanston, Ill., where she graduated from Northwestern University. She has also taken advanced work in remedial reading. The Ratcliffes have two children, Elizabeth, three years and seven months old, and Miriam Joan, two years and six months old.

In the words of Rev. Ratcliffe, "We are very happy to be in Lowell and have found it a very friendly community. We come to serve not only the Methodist Church, but the whole community."

Be Sure to Join Red Cross

House-to-house calls to receive annual memberships in the Red Cross will begin this week Saturday under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Heart of Lowell. Assisting in the work are acting as zone chairmen are the following: Mrs. Ray Avery, Mrs. E. J. Englehardt, Mrs. E. C. Foreman, Mrs. Theron Richmond and Mrs. P. C. Peckham.

Don't forget the Red Cross, which comes to the country at this time with its plea for those suffering and distress. Every year many great disasters come to the country. Floods, hurricanes, great fires which drive people from their homes, subject them to exposure and sickness, and leave them penniless and crushed.

The Red Cross is the ministering angel which comes to all these folks in dire trouble, and gives them food and clothing and shelter and medical care, and transforms a broken and defeated family into one on which the star of hope is again rising. The noble work of this organization for health education makes life safer. Its many activities are like the healing touch of a hand.

Anyone should be proud to belong to such a noble society.

NEW FLYING CLUB PLAN FOR ALL INTERESTED

The Michigan State Board of Aeronautics in cooperation with the leading airplane manufacturers have made it possible for practically every citizen from 16 to 60 to learn to fly and obtain a government pilot's license at a cost within the reach of nearly every wage earner.

The initial move will be to establish clubs at airports where there is no operation at the present time. The first unit is to be established at the fine new Ionia airport. The plan calls for 40 members in each unit. For further details see advertisement on the inside pages of this issue.

MAC'S SERVICE STATION INSTALLS BATTERY CHECKER

C. K. Mackey, operator of West Side Standard Station announced this week that he has installed a new speed checker for batteries. This speed checker not only tells how much strength your battery has and how much of a load it will carry, but it also locates any leaks or bad connections in the cables. This battery check service is free of charge and only takes a minute.

Vining Discusses Farm News and Farm Views

Corn Test, Woodlot Pruning

Hybrid corn has attracted the attention of many Kent county farmers the past season. Not a few have carried on tests of various hybrid corns. Four such tests were carried on by 4-H Club members. Now comes a note of warning from the Farm Crops Department at Michigan State College. All variety tests and demonstrations in Michigan got ripe this year and in general the later the variety the bigger the yield. Varieties which in former years failed to ripen in Monroe County were dead ripe in Huron County.

The unusual fall weather has permitted corn to ripen in good shape. Growers who have conducted these tests or who have grown hybrids from out state particularly south should not take this year's results as final.

An interpretation of the 1938 trials by the college will be made in January. Howard Rather, head of the Farm Crops Department at Michigan State College, issues this warning statement.

Farm Woodlots

The forestry department at Michigan State College is planning demonstrations for farm woodlots to stress the disadvantage of grazing woods and things to do to obtain a better income from the farm woodlot. Any Kent county farmers who are interested in woodlot improvement may arrange for a demonstration through the County Farm Agent whose office is at 201 Y. M. C. A. Building in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Ira Full, extension forester from Michigan State College, will be available for the coming winter for illustrated talks on management of farm woodlots. Requests for these talks should be made through the county agent's office.

Pruning Pines Lessens Knots

As fruit pruning seems essential for the production of better fruit, the trimming of dead branches from young pine trees evidently has much to do with better quality lumber, says the forestry department at Michigan State College.

In efforts to put Michigan back into the lumber industry, the department recommends taking off the dead side branches so that knots will be smaller and more clear lumber can be produced on the trees.

Dead branches weaken so gradually that it often takes many years for a tree to cover over these scars. The larger the scar the larger the knot and consequently the smaller amount of clear timber.

White pine and red pine, common in Michigan, carry these dead side branches much longer than the southern pine. Benson H. Paul, silviculturist of the federal forest products laboratory, found that the average length of time required for branches to fall off from the first 20 feet of a white pine tree is 27 years. Southern pines shed these knots produced in six years.

Results of Paul's study are given in Miscellaneous Publication No. 307, "Knots in Second Growth Pine and the Desirability of Pruning," just published by the U. S. Forest Service. Other information on pruning white and red pine can be obtained by writing to the Forestry Department, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Member When

When quail were plentiful in this vicinity, and when there were no pheasants? When an old fellow saw his first car? It passed him on the road and he stood watching it when a motor bike brushed past him, he looked up with surprise and said, "I didn't know the darned thing had a colt."

When a young couple drove to a village and said to an old fellow, "Can you tell me where I can get a spark plug?" and the old fellow said, "You must mean a sparking plug. Well, Jim Johnson, the man that runs the livery barn keeps three or four of them and he rents them out to young couples for 25c an hour." Those were the good old days, for when a fellow didn't have a horse and buggy which most of us didn't have, we could rent a rig for a quarter an hour down town.

When a man saw a line around the whip then told our arms, and well, 'nuff said. —Contributed by Arthur Clarke, R. F. D., Alto.

4-H CLUBS AT MICHIGAN FARM FESTIVAL

The 4-H Clubs of Michigan have an important part in the Michigan Farm Festival at Grand Rapids, Nov. 14-19. There is to be $2,000 in cash premiums offered on the 4-H displays. Judging contests in livestock, farm crops, poultry and livestock will begin Friday morning, Nov. 18, at ten o'clock. There will be demonstrations for canning, clothing, farm crops, poultry and livestock starting Friday, Nov. 18, at ten o'clock.

Demonstration teams wishing to compete should write to F. Earle Hass, District Club agent at Grand Rapids, for a definite time for their demonstration.

The British are allowing their pound sterling to fall in value as a deliberate policy to gain a trade advantage over the United States in an effort to redress their trade balance with this country. A cheaper pound is complicating the problem of marketing American farm products in England, and unsettling the negotiations for a reciprocal trading treaty.

East Gd. Rapids 6, Lowell 0

Lowell High school football team will play Grandville here at Recreation Park on Friday, Nov. 11, to settle 2nd place in the Grand Valley Conference. Grandville is tied with Lowell now and a great battle is expected. Grandville scored 18 points against East Grand Rapids which shows they can play football.

Lowell was defeated 6-0 here at Recreation Park last Friday, before a crowd of 2,000 rosters. A last-minute pass near the Lowell goal line was deflected by Stauffer as he tried to bat it down. Maloney also took a stab but missed and the ball settled into the arms of Stonehouse, the intended receiver, for the touchdown. The time remaining when he crossed the goal line was only two seconds according to the timekeeper's watch.

The game in the first half was nearly even with Lowell having the edge with three threats to the East goal. The time half found an inspired East team which threatened the Lowell goal several times. In the last quarter Kyser was injured and the Lowell team settled down to a defensive game. Maloney intercepted an East pass on an 11 yard 20 yards, but East held the Lowell team and took the ball on downs ending Lowell's last half attack.

Dawson, Hughes, Young and Curtis were outstanding on the line with all of them in on nearly every play. In the backfield Kyser, Stauffer and Maloney were outstanding. The Lowell team played a hard game from start to finish and only the breaks defeated them.

Strong inner Administration support is marshalling behind the idea to introduce military training and military discipline into CCC camps.

Odds and Ends

The heavy spending rate at WPA is causing consideration already about how much more to ask for and how soon to ask it when Congress reconvenes. The figure of $500,000,000 to carry through next June is mentioned.

Farm leaders expect the C. I. O. to go to bat strongly for a Government guarantee of the cost-of-production to farmers. Hostility toward the C. I. O. in agricultural regions is mentioned as a motivating factor.

Search for a formula for settlement of the war debts is on again. The only result of informal conferences to date is a large question mark. Maneuvers for a get-together may take more definite form now that the November elections are over.

Lawyers both at the Wage-Hour Administration and the Department of Justice are wondering whether the courts might become clogged within a few days or weeks with litigation over application of minimum wage and maximum hour standards.

Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, is worried over the possibility that both Senate authors of the 1938 Agricultural Adjustment Act will be retired from Congress by the voters this year, placing difficulties in the way of the defense of the Act.

New Deal advisers whose voice on matters of policy often have been influential for five years, were left out of the councils that led President Roosevelt to go in for more rapid armaments. New Deal enthusiasts in the Administration and out are cool to any armaments idea that might take the place of new social measures.

Another attempt to get authorization for high-power Government broadcasts to South America is expected in the next Congress. American diplomats to the South report that practically every American speech of importance is made unintelligible on South American radios by static interference from Europe.

Fascist nations are encouraging some Latin American republics to "blackmail" the United States by threatening to confiscate properties in which American investment is heavy. This is to discourage American interests in new Latin American investments, leaving the field to the governments with channeled trade.

Dislodgement of the British from a position of power in the Chinese area is forcing new attention by this Government to relationships with the Philippines, which can soon come within the range of Japanese ambitions. State Department and Army opinion is strong that independence for those islands is not defensible.

The Department of State is in the market for a new American foreign policy with a popular appeal. The old policy of a popular front of democracies as opposed to a phalanx of dictatorships blew up with the pact of non-aggression with the Soviet Union. So far the diplomats are at a loss for an understandable substitute that will command public support.

One of five booths illustrating home economics extension work of Michigan State College set up for the Farm Festival at Grand Rapids Nov. 14 to 19, will be an arrangement by women of Jackson county to display a well planned wardrobe for the rural family. Mrs. Margaret Reed, Jackson county home demonstration agent, is cooperating with the group of women whose exhibit is to be on display on the second floor of the Manufacturers' Building on Ionia street in Grand Rapids during the week of the festival.

For Lazy Motorists

CLEVELAND, Ohio . . . Postmaster Michael F. O'Donnell tried a new idea last week when he installed a new curb service mail box for motorists who think it too much bother to get out to mail a letter. If this one proves popular others will be erected at convenient locations in the downtown district.

The fact that a child or other person who has not reached legal age holds a social security account number does not give any employer the right to employ such a worker in a manner which conflicts with laws relative to child labor. The fact that young persons have these numbers does not entitle them to do any work which conflicts with national or state, labor laws.

Woman's Club

Club Hears Inspiring Address By Mrs. Fred Raymond

The postponed meeting of the Lowell Woman's Club was held Oct. 25 at the home of Mrs. R. G. Jefferies with a good attendance. The usual business was promptly taken care of and halting on the names of Mrs. Emerson Wieland, Mrs. Altenburger, Mrs. T. Anderson and Mrs. Paul Kellogg resulted in the announcement of four new members for the club.

Mrs. F. E. White gave a very interesting report of the West Central District meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs at St. Johns. She spoke of a Forum held by Mrs. Treasa Way Merrill of Detroit, formerly of Lowell, who stressed the importance of voting, of renewing our allegiance to America and of being on guard as to loss of democracy and the rise of dictatorship. Of special significance was the emphasis on motherhood and encouragement of young leadership.

Mrs. Fred Raymond of Grand Rapids gave the address of the afternoon, reviewing early struggles of the women of our nation as they endeavored to unite their efforts looking toward the building of better homes and higher ideals in all walks of life. Now their building program has changed to that of keeping what has been accomplished. Ideals must be upheld since character is higher than intellect. Guidance of our youth should emphasize the dignity of labor. Responsibilities of citizenship include national housekeeping but we need to remember that housekeeping begins at home—in the local community. Sharing with one's neighbors and carrying on in the fellowship of service contributes to the pattern of life.

Mrs. Carl Mapee spoke interestingly of social life in Washington and both she and Mrs. Raymond answered the many questions of their very appreciative audience. The meeting then adjourned, to meet on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd with Mrs. M. N. Henry at an Oriental Tea.

Interesting Meeting On Far East

One of the largest and most interesting meetings of the Lowell Woman's Club was held Nov. 2 at the home of Mrs. M. N. Henry.

The subject for the day was "The Far East". The president, Mrs. W. W. Gunner, called the meeting to order. The club song was sung with Mrs. Wm. Wachterhauser accompanying at the piano. The collection was reported by the club and the business for the day taken up, after which the president called upon Mrs. C. A. Hall, program chairman for the afternoon to take charge.

Mrs. Hall presented the following program: Mrs. David Cox played the national hymn of China and Japan; Two Chinese and Japanese duets were played by Mrs. Cox and Miss Charlotte White; Mrs. Bert Quirk read several very interesting Chinese poems with a translation of each; Miss Smith and Miss Huffman, in Japanese costume, sang the "Japanese Wedding Doll"; Mrs. Cox as their accompanist. Each number of the program was very well given, and afforded much pleasure and entertainment for the club. The president introduced Madam Saino, a little Japanese lady, in national costume, from Grand Rapids but formerly of Toledo, which she left fifteen years ago.

The chairman, Mrs. Hall, then presented Principal L. R. Miller, addressing the club on the subject of the conflict in the East. Mr. Miller is exceptionally well informed on the situation which exists in these two warring countries of China and Japan. He gave the history and developments of the government powers of these two countries, also the causes leading up to the present war. Mr. Miller portrayed vividly in a forceful manner to the club many confusing angles in regard to the stand Japan has taken and the effect it has had on China. His address was very much enlightening and educational. The club was most appreciative to Mr. Miller for giving his afternoon to this subject.

The club was then served with tea, poured by Mrs. M. Houseman and Madam Saino. Others on the committee assisting the hostess, Mrs. Henry and chairman Mrs. Hall, were Mrs. Chas. Doyle, Mrs. R. Mill, Mrs. W. Burdick, Mrs. L. A. Denny, Mrs. H. J. Coons and Mrs. W. L. Stowell. The club adjourned to meet Nov. 16 with Mrs. N. E. Borgerson.
