

Governor Asks Aid of People In Cutting Taxes

Urges Churches To Take Part

Governor Luren D. Dickinson Saturday warned pressure groups against Treasury raids while his administration is attempting to balance the budget without new taxes and called upon the churches to help him organize a taxpayers' lobby to fight for economy in government.

He designated Sunday, April 30, as a state-wide day of prayer in the churches for a courageous stand by political Lansing against the temptation to overspend and increase the tax burden.

He declared that "the fear" of highly organized lobbies "with their floods of telegrams, letters and petitions" has resulted in extravagant spending in the past because there was no real organization functioning in the interests of the taxpayers.

The 80-year-old chief executive said "prayers have been given for me in practically all of the churches of the state since I was sworn in as governor," and added: "I have been a help beyond realization to a truly and firmly convinced Christian people and the good people all over the state should not stop with me."

Thousands Ready For Trout Season Opening April 29 Expect 25,000 First Day

The first contingent of Michigan's army of more than 100,000 fishermen will take to the streams Saturday morning, April 29, when the lid comes off on the 1939 trout season.

Estimates of the number of anglers on streams opening day are only approximate, but a minimum figure is 25,000. Before the season is over, more than 100,000 fishermen will try their luck in Michigan waters.

Fee for the 1939 resident fishing license is $1.00. This license entitles the taker of all species of game fish except grayling. It is required of all persons over 17 years of age taking fish in any manner in inland waters.

Non-resident license fee is $2 and a special non-resident 10 day license may be obtained for $1.00. A non-resident license for the angler's wife is issued for an additional 50 cents.

Size and catch limits on the "Big Three" of trout, brook, and brown and the rainbow remain the same as last year. No fish under seven inches in length may be retained. A total of 15 trout is the daily catch limit.

Reports from the northern streams indicate that excellent fishing conditions will greet the anglers. An unusually cold spring has resulted in the snow and ice melting very slowly.

While many anglers will tempt the trout with assorted and variegated colored flies, most popular lure on opening day will be perhaps the oldest of fish baits, the "Garden Hackle" or common angworm.

Human Skeleton Found Here Likely That of Indian Chief Discovery Recalls Old Legend

While working on a sewer project on Division-ave. just north of the Methodist church Monday, Lawrence Bieri and James Gaunt discovered a human skeleton, buried about 8 1/2 feet below the surface. It had been placed in the grave in an upright position.

The skeleton was taken to Sheriff Hugh Blacklock's office in Grand Rapids. It was in an excellent state of preservation. Some black hair, showing signs of having been braided, was found attached to one side of the skull.

The teeth were worn some but were still in good condition. No particles of clothing, buttons or personal effects were found, which would indicate the body had been there for a great many years. It was estimated that the burial had been made before the street was installed and that it must have been 75 or more years ago.

It is not known whether it is the skeleton of an Indian or a white man but it is likely to be that of an Indian.

Skeleton of Indian Chief? An old Indian legend tells the story of an Indian chief of the Ottawa tribe, which had its camping grounds in this district many years ago, who feared that the money paid the tribe for land sold to white men would not be used wisely, so he hid it. The tribe was antagonistic to the hoarding of money and tried to get the chief to distribute it among them but he would not do it.

They then exiled him from the tribe after trying to make him tell them the location of the money through methods of torture. While in exile, the chief died from the injuries of the torture. After his death, his tribe realized that the chief had been acting for their own good. To do him honor, they chose a pine tree on a side hill and buried the chief sitting up under it so he could always watch over his tribe.

This story may be the solution to the mystery surrounding the discovery of the skeleton on the Division-ave. hill.

The skeleton was given to the Grand Rapids public museum Tuesday after Coroner Simeon LeRoy had inspected it. The museum director accepted the skeleton, it was reported, for the museum's Indian collection.

Girls Lead Seniors At Clarksville

Jeanette Fries and Areta Miller lead the 1939 Clarksville graduates class as Co-Valedictorians. Bonietta Jackson is Salutatorian.

Jeanette Fries is 17 years old and is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Fries. She attended the Clarksville School until her last three years, which have been taken here at Clarksville. She is the President of her class, took part in the Annual Play, and is Editor of the school paper.

Areta Miller is 17 years old and is the daughter of Mrs. Lester Long. She attended the rural school until entering high school here at Clarksville. She is the Treasurer of her class, took part in the Senior Play, and played forward on the Girls' Basketball team.

Bonietta Jackson is 16 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jackson. She attended the rural school for her first eight grades. She is a member of the High School Chorus and is Art Editor of the school paper.

Burton Mick, Gladah Sargeant, Betty Stickley, Edna Sawyer, Pauline Yelter, Irma Heaven, and Rae Jean Yilford are also honor students.

The honor students of the Lowell high school graduating class of 1939 were selected Wednesday morning by a group of 75 pupils. Jacqueline Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Day, is valedictorian with 3.89 points. Ardis Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schneider, followed with 3.5 points to take the place of salutatorian.

Miss Schneider's sister, Kathryn, was valedictorian of the 1935 graduating class.

The next in line were Joy Dennis with 3.47 points and Dorothy Morris with 3.41 points.

Graduation exercises will take place on June 9 for the largest class ever to graduate from the Lowell schools.

The Lowell-Garden Lore Club opened their year with a tea at the home of Mrs. M. N. Henry on Tuesday, April 25. The president reported that the project of the gateway to Lowell will be completed in about ten days.

Mrs. James, the program chairman, gave the outline of the programs for the year.

The program for the day was made up of lovely music by the pupils of the high school and Bruce Walter. The first selection was two solos on the clarinet by Cleone Collins, accompanied by the piano by Mr. Walter.

Mr. Walter gave two selections on his violin, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. E. S. Miller. Two duets were rendered by Ardis Schneider and Dorothy Fletcher, accompanied on the piano by Virginia Doyle.

Refreshments were served by the chairman, Mrs. R. G. Jefferies and her committee and consisted of delicious sandwiches, cakes and tea.

Mrs. F. E. White, the conservation chairman, announced the next conservation meeting will be at the hill cottage of Mrs. F. J. McMahon on Tuesday, May 9. A plant shower on Mrs. McMahon is planned for this meeting.

Mrs. Anna B. Rowland, 63, passes in hospital. Funeral services for Mrs. Anna B. Rowland, 63, of McCorde's, will be held at the Roth Chapel Friday afternoon at two o'clock with the Rev. J. G. Ballard officiating.

It's time to get on the water wagon. Main-st. drinking fountains were turned on Tuesday.

Did you know that Manager Jay Bolens of the Kroger Store used to be a professional football player? Made his living at it, too.

Daylight savings time makes its change next Sunday at midnight. Don't be misled by the clock on E. S. T. the year round, but it is a job to get readjusted to the new hour of one's favorite radio programs.

The man who can devise a way of avoiding these twice-a-year changes will be a benefactor.

Silas Onlooker thinks that it might be possible for residents of Hudson-st. to get rid of the dust nuisance by having the Common Council fix the speed limit at ten miles per hour on that particular thoroughfare.

John A. Archart, manager of the Universal Metal Products company of Saranac, announced this week that Juri C. Armstrong has been appointed sales manager of that company.

Below will be found a brief synopsis of coming activities as presented by the various chairmen:

May Day will take on added significance next Monday for certificate holders of the Lowell State and City State depositors corporations—about 1800 in all—who will share in dividends totaling $75,600.41.

Standing room should be at a premium at the State Savings Bank the first few days of May—and don't fail to bring your certificate with you.

Lowell has its share of ardent folk in Richard Watters and Guy Slocum of Grand Rapids who have purchased in partnership a Waco airplane which is seen or heard frequently in this vicinity.

Each of the men has his private license and in the course of their flying have flown about 300 hours. The airplane is kept at the Grand Rapids airport and is flown in the men's spare time.

On Monday of this week the ship was government inspected and given a commercial license which is good for one year.

When Main-st. was paved some twenty odd years ago the handling of automobile traffic was not a problem and in order to save paving costs the sidewalks were made approximately four feet wider on each side of the street.

Now in these days of greatly increased motor traffic there are some who think that the sidewalks should be narrowed to their original width and the space thus saved used to make the pavements eight feet wider.

In this connection Mr. Harry N. Briggs makes the suggestion that if the village contemplates another WPA project here that it might be a good idea to give consideration to one of widening Main-st. What's your idea?

Jokes, jests, jabs and jibes just by Jeff. "One of the most humane of men" says Norton Henry, "is that fellow who is just pulling out of a parking space when you want to pull in."

When a Lowell man starts teaching his wife how to drive the car, keeping control of his temper is as important as keeping control of the car.

B. of T. Sponsors Great Program for Entire Community To Surpass All Previous Efforts

The April dinner meeting of Lowell Board of Trade was held last night at 6:45 at Richmond's Cafe. It was an enthusiastic evening with F. J. McMahon presiding.

The chairman of the various committees outlined their respective programs which indicate beyond a doubt that activities here this year will surpass in interest and profit to the surrounding community than anything ever before attempted.

These activities will include trade expansion, a good general sports program for old and young, completion of gateway markers, annual picnic, 4-H club fair cooperation, Wednesday evening programs for amateurs and other talent for the nine weeks preceding the Showboat.

Editor H. J. Kurtz of the Sparta Sentinel-Leader gave an interesting, practical talk on modern business and service to the public, which was much appreciated by those present.

Mr. Kurtz was introduced by D. A. Wingleer, program chairman.

Below will be found a brief synopsis of coming activities as presented by the various chairmen:

Better Business and Entertainment Henry Weaver, chairman of the Better Business committee, reported a program of activities that will provide much of interest and entertainment for the public and for a longer period of time than has been the case in the previous years.

This program will include Wednesday evening programs for the nine weeks preceding the Lowell Showboat, the program to be presented at the Showboat dock.

Cooperating With 4-H Fair W. V. Burras, chairman of the 4-H Club committee of the B. of T., reported for the continued cooperation of the Board in support of the annual 4-H club fair which has been growing in importance and value with each succeeding year.

"The boys of today will be the farmers of tomorrow," said Mr. Burras, "and we will get behind them 100%."

As exhibition buildings will be erected at M. S. C. according to present plans the ornamental gateway at East village limits will be started in the near future.

The markers promise to be of distinctive beauty when completed and the landscaping is to be unusually attractive. The project was sponsored by the Garden Lore Club, the Board of Trade cooperating.

Elaborate Sports Program Ray Avery, chairman of the Sports committee, reported a five-week program which it hopes will be carried out this summer.

(1) Under the direction of Ed. Kiel the tennis court is to be painted and nets repaired, a new pitcher's and home plate for the diamond, new screen for the grandstand and the diamond to be kept in shape.

(2) Under the direction of Carroll Buras an attempt is being made to provide transportation for junior high school age students to a swimming beach with a life-guard and dressing facilities on Tuesdays and Fridays, throughout the vacation period.

(3) A diamond ball field is under consideration at the extreme south end of the football field. Intentions are to light this diamond, build a backstop, and provide benches back of the back-stop. This project is under the direction of Jim McMahon and Lee Holland.

SEE AMERICA AN AMERICAN travel congress began its sessions April 14 at San Francisco, with 21 nations represented. They will try to promote travel in both North and South America.

Many of our people do not realize the glories of their own country, have they seen the peaks of the Rockies, towering into the clouds in solemn majesty? Have they watched Old Faithful geyser in the Yellowstone and its silvery columns far in air? Have they seen the glorious Atlantic dashing against the rocks of Maine? Have they paid a visit of honor to the scenes where the early settlers located on their perilous adventures?

It is a glorious experience to travel over our wonderful land, where man's science has turned the wilderness into beauty and where Nature stands close to God.

CLEAN UP DAYS Clean-up-days and Clean-up-weeks have become regular features of many communities. It is a pleasant and hopeful sight to see trucks and carts carrying off accumulations of old refuse, ashes, and the rest of the litter.

The home places look like the boy who has had a bath after rolling in the dirt. As the kid once more shows a face of which the family can be proud, so the cleaned up town looks 100 per cent better.

Every day and every week should be a Clean-Up time, and it is easier to clean that way that try to do it all in one grand spree. These special days do stir a good many people to take care of old accumulations, and hence should be observed with enthusiasm.

MAY DAY THE first day of May in many lands has been a time of celebrations. When the spring brings the soft purring of gentle breezes, and the sun's healing rays warm up our cold tissues, men's hearts burst forth in new joy.

In England they used to set up maypoles on the village green, and the youths and maidens would dance around them with jolly enthusiasm.

These may dances appeared in the older history of New England. A maypole was set up at Merry-mount, but the governor of the province sent soldiers to the place, and cut down the pole. He solemnly named the place Mount Dagon, in memory of the Palestine idol that fell before the ark of the Lord.

Modern sentiment has no condemnation of those who wish to dance on May day, provided they are able to work the next day.

In some American schools the teachers used to lead the children out in the search for flowers, and taught the youngsters many things about these beautiful blooms, which seem so cheering and colorful after the death and deadness of winter snow. Various churches and societies have nice May festivals now on May day.

The day is also celebrated by many as International Labor day, in which hopes are expressed for better conditions for the workers. Except for such demonstrations, May day is just one more work day.

If our labor permit, it is a good time here in Lowell to look over the home grounds and gardens with attention they need for the year. Probably there are bare spots in your lawn that look like the disagreeable stain on a man's coat. Better have them fertilized and planted to grass seed, so they will no longer disgrace the view of your home.

LURE OF THE FISH WATERS AS SPRING comes on, the "lured business man" is supposed to think unsexily about his favorite fish brooks and lakes. The first thing you know he is out of the office and hiding himself to these haunts of the finny tribe.

Millions of men in every occupation love to pursue the speckled beauties. From the great statesman whose name is on the map of the nation, down to the farmer's boy and the dweller in the most humble home, the men do like to test their skill against these elusive swimmers.

The observation, the experience, and the wit of men in this sport are competing against the instincts, the wariness, and the seeming intelligence of their prey. The unskilled angler can see why the fish don't bite. He does not comprehend the moods of fish, and why they bite sometimes and sometimes they don't. The experienced fisherman sees what the fish wants or water or food supply that deters these game creatures. He learns how to satisfy their moods and offer them something to which they will respond.

FATHER OF GEORGE C. KENT LAD TO REST FRIDAY

The sympathy of friends in this community is extended to G. C. Kent, local jeweler, in the death of his father, Edward Kent, 84, at the home in Wyoming Park. Services were held last Friday afternoon at a Grand Rapids funeral home with burial in Grandville cemetery.

Surviving besides the son George of Lowell, are a daughter in Cadillac, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Budget Adopted Harry Day, Budget committee chairman, reported that the total amount asked for by various groups (Continued bottom of next column)

Annual Picnic Plans George Herald, chairman of the Annual Picnic committee, reported big plans for that popular event. For the inner man, there will be provided 2000 sandwiches, six bushels potato salad, baked beans, cold tea, hot coffee, and pop, all free. A five-piece band will circulate through the crowd playing popular music and a dance will be given at night in the Fallsburg Park pavilion.

Board of Trade (Continued from preceding col.) mittes is $1,524.50, which is an increase of $280.00 over last year's budget. It is hoped that this amount can be raised and the committee will probably start functioning the latter part of the week to get subscriptions. It has been proposed that B. of T. members subscribe as much per week as last year but make payments for 30 weeks instead of 17 weeks. The increase in this year's budget is due to the fact that Trade Expansion programs this year will cover a nine months period as compared with only three or four months last year.

Dividends Payable Next Monday A total of $75,650.61 in final dividends will be distributed to depositors of the former City State Bank of Lowell and the former Lowell State Bank on Monday, May 1, 1939, the date upon which dividends will be payable.

Payments will be made at the State Savings Bank of Lowell upon presentation and surrender of certificates of indebtedness issued by the City State depositors corporation and by the Lowell State depositors corporation.

With the final payment of the above mentioned dividends and a thorough examination of all the books, records and proceedings by the auditors from the State Banking Department, the two depositors corporations will pass out of existence and the remaining assets of both corporations totaling $289,000 will be liquidated by the Depositors Liquidation Corporation, which is a subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. This step has been taken as a matter of economy and whatever can be salvaged in excess of the above dividends from the remaining assets will be distributed to the depositors by the D. L. C.

Mother of Joseph Snell Passes at Age of 81 Sarah J. Snell, 81, died at the home of her son, Joseph, at 185 Pleasant-st., Saturday.

Upon retiring the night before she seemed to be in her usual health but complained of being a little tired. She passed away sometime during the night.

Surviving besides the son, who came to Lowell about two years ago to become section foreman on the Pere Marquette, is a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hall of Milwaukee, Wis., five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the home in Lowell Monday at 10 a. m. Burial was in Scottville cemetery.

Two Ball Games Here Next Sunday

The baseball season is now under way, the local teams playing their first games this coming Sunday, April 30, at Recreation Park, starting at 12:30 o'clock. A double-header will fill the bill with the Lowell of Trade team, or B team playing the first game with the O. K. Marquette team, and the Lowell team playing the second game with the Lowell of Trade team.

The A team, or the Lowell Merchants team, will play the Jess Elster's Colored All Stars from Grand Rapids immediately after the first game is over.

Village president J. A. Archart has promised to be on hand to pitch the first ball for the second game, which will start about 2:30. It is hoped that all baseball fans will turn out as some real good baseball is promised for this season.

The teams consist of practically all local boys from high school age and up and the boys feel they can really give you something for your money. Let's all turn out and give the boys a real send-off.

The local boys defeated Clarksville here last Sunday in a practice game by the score of 9 to 4. It was a very clean-cut game. Don't forget next Sunday, 12:30 at Recreation Park.

CLEAN UP DAYS Weeks have become regular features of many communities. It is a pleasant and hopeful sight to see trucks and carts carrying off accumulations of old refuse, ashes, and the rest of the litter.

MAY DAY The first day of May in many lands has been a time of celebrations. When the spring brings the soft purring of gentle breezes, and the sun's healing rays warm up our cold tissues, men's hearts burst forth in new joy.

These May dances appeared in the older history of New England. A maypole was set up at Merry-mount, but the governor of the province sent soldiers to the place, and cut down the pole.

The day is also celebrated by many as international labor day, in which hopes are expressed for better conditions for the workers. Except for such demonstrations, May day is just one more work day.

Human Skeleton Found Here Likely That of Indian Chief

Discovery Recalls Old Legend

While working on a sewer project on Division-ave. just north of the Methodist church Monday, Lawrence Bieri and James Gaunt discovered a human skeleton, buried about 6 1/2 feet below the surface.

The skeleton was taken to Sheriff Hugh Blacklock's office in Grand Rapids. It was in an excellent state of preservation. Some black hair, showing signs of having been braided, was found attached to one side of the skull.

It is not known whether it is the skeleton of an Indian or a white man but it is likely to be that of an Indian.

Governor Asks Aid of People In Cutting Taxes

Urges Churches To Take Part

Governor Luren D. Dickinson Saturday warned pressure groups against Treasury raiders while his administration is attempting to balance the budget without new taxes and called upon the churches to help him organize a taxpayers' lobby to fight for economy in government.

He designated Sunday, April 30, as a state-wide day of prayer in the churches for a courageous stand by political Lansing against the temptation to overspend and increase the tax burden.

In blunt language the governor invited taxpayers to fight fire with fire by forming their own lobby to combat the pleadings of pressure groups, intent upon inducing the legislature to give more generously to the causes they support.

He declared that "the fear" of highly organized lobbies "with their floods of telegrams, letters and petitions" has resulted in extravagant spending in the past "because there was no real organization functioning in the interests of the taxpayers."

The 80-year-old chief executive said "prayers have been given for me in practically all of the churches of the state since I was sworn in as governor" and added: "That these have been a help beyond realization I am fully and firmly convinced. The Christian people and the good people all over the state should not stop with me."

TRUTH about ADVERTISING By CHARLES B. ROTH

IF YOU want to discover the humanizing influence of advertising, one of the extra dividends it pays you every time you buy, make this experiment: First go into the store of a merchant who doesn't advertise; it probably won't be a very large store. Next go into the store of a merchant who does. See where you receive the most courteous, the most attractive, the most gracious service and treatment.

Fragile Look Fostered by New Coiffure

By PATRICIA LINDSAY

ARTISTS and poets have raved about the lovely ring of a woman's neck since time began. It is supposed to be one of our most alluring feminine charms. And because fashion repeats itself, napes of necks are bare again, as those new and exciting, brush-the-hair high coiffures are here for a long stay!

Such a hair-do is gloriously feminine. It is a way of making a woman of a girl more fragile. You know-looking as if she might not be able to take a severe scolding! And that's always a help!

Dame fashion has a way of keeping us on our toes. We can never quite sit back and say, "I'm all right."

Born in England Laid to Rest Here

Mrs. Thomas Woodhead passed away at her home in Vergennes township early Saturday morning, April 16 at the age of 76.

Ann Fogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fogg was born in 1863 in Normanby, England. In the year 1891, she came to this country and was united in marriage to Thomas Woodhead who came to this country three years before. She resided in Ionia for nine years, moving to Lowell in 1900 and later moving to Vergennes, which has since been her home.

To this union three children were born, John of Detroit and Mrs. Ellen Sterzick of South Boston and Albert, who passed away three years ago. Mrs. Woodhead was a very passionate home lover. She was devoted to her husband and children being always the faithful and loving wife and mother.

She leaves to mourn their loss the husband, son and daughter, seven grandchildren, one great-granddaughter, and four sisters and five brothers in England.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, April 18 at the home at 1:30 p. m. and at the Alton church at 2:30 p. m. Rev. R. M. Barksdale officiating. Burial was in Alton cemetery.

Thy voice is now silent, thy heart is now cold,
 Where thy smile and thy welcome oft met us of old,
 We miss thee and mourn thee in silence unseen,
 We dwell on the memories of joys that have been.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy and for the lovely flowers sent in our recent bereavement, the loss of our dear wife and mother. We wish especially to thank Rev. Barksdale for his comforting words, the pianist, and singers for the music and songs rendered.

Thomas Woodhead,
 Mr. and Mrs. John Woodhead and family,
 Mr. and Mrs. John Sterzick and family.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our father, Arthur Shilton, who left us April 29, 1932.

His Daughters,
 Ethel M. Shilton,
 Mrs. M. P. Schneider.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Medora Godfrey, who passed away one year ago, April 27, 1938.

A dear one from us has gone,
 A voice we loved is stilled,
 Some day we hope to meet her,
 Some day we now not when,
 We shall meet her in a better land
 And never part again.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Olmstead.

In memory of our dearly loved son, Gerald Bunker, who passed away two years ago, April 29, 1937. I can not say, and I will not say that he is dead. He is just away! With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
 He has wandered into an Unknown Land
 And left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be, since he lingers there
 And we—Oh we, who the wildest yearn
 For the old time step and the glad return,
 Think of him faring on as dear
 In the love of There as the love of Here.
 Think of him still as the same, I say,
 He is not dead, he is just away,
 Mother and Dad.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors, the Odd Fellows, and Rebekah lodges for the flowers and kind expressions of sympathy extended to us in the death of our mother, Mrs. Sarah Snell.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snell and Children,
 Mrs. Elizabeth Hall and Children.
