

Unofficial word from the State Department is that this country will listen patiently to British pleas for help to resist Japan in China but will not take any measures that would risk war.

Investigators of Un-American activities are following a tip that the many small fascist organizations in the country are being directed and financed from a central headquarters.

On June 21, the new law advancing the cost of automobile operators' licenses from $1 to $1.25 went into effect. The period of validity of such licenses is three years.

The projected barter deal with Great Britain, which involved a swap of cotton and wheat for tin and rubber, is now in the "quiet stage." Little is being said, little is being done. Its advocates still expect a deal to be worked out.

Capitol Hill sees very slight hope that the WPA arts projects can be saved from curtailment by Congress. The folks "back home" are pressuring their Congressmen for at least a show of economy and the arts projects have been nominated as the "goat."

Few surprises in foreign affairs from the White House are expected before Congress adjourns. Attention is centered now on domestic affairs. But it is not unlikely that after Congress goes home, the White House may again make headlines in an attempt to straighten out world affairs.

Mr. Roosevelt is tossing out the idea of a new "lending-recovery" program to catch the public reaction. A flare-up of opposition would find him in the idea go over until next year. A fair amount of approval would find him pressing for action this year. Such is the advice brought out from conferences by White House intimates.

Pretty, puny and apparently unprotected fawns and other youngsters of the animal kingdom who may be found wandering in the woods at this season should not be picked up, no matter how good is a person's intention to "rescue" the animal, feed it or fondle it. This advice comes from the game division of the department of conservation.

The Export-Import Bank, now making many new loans to Latin America is having to exercise the wisdom of a Solomon to decide who shall get how much money for what. Scores of wildcat loan proposals have been filed with the bank. President Pierson's task has been to sift them through and scotch loan requests backed by promoters who are out for what they can get.

Planners attach the greatest importance to the coming Senate investigation of Government money and banking policies. High Federal Reserve Board officials are quietly setting it to work. They want to have the Senate decide on the question of what this government should do to find work for the immense financial resources of the nation. Exploration is being pictured as fundamental.

Seventy thousand men out of work from May 22 to June 8 in Detroit because of strike. What did that mean in buying power? If they earn five dollars per day (and that) and lost fifteen days each, that figures up to a total of $5,250,000. What a price we pay for labor! What a price we pay for labor! What a price we pay for labor!

Swift action in bringing into a court of justice this week the man charged with deliberately setting the big "Onaway" fire which in May did $163,000 estimated damage in Prevue Isle state forest, should be taken as an object lesson by everyone having any contact with Michigan's great outdoors. The person tossing a cigarette butt out of his car, or flipping away a match after lighting up while tramping a woods or stream, may cause as much damage as any "firebug" who sets off a blaze for a grudge—and may run into the tolls of the law with equal certainty.

The old bugaboo of the holiday motorists—the road construction gap—will be pretty well tamed under July 4 state highway department regulations this year. Michigan State police and the department are coordinating for the second year their efforts to expedite traffic, reduce accidents and drive the careless motorists from the highways during the holiday period. Murray D. VanWagoner, state highway commissioner, requested district engineers to close down July 1 to July 5 on all jobs where increased traffic might bring danger to motorists.

A raccoon is a rather easy going animal but a mother 'coon insists on one thing—she wants privacy for her family. Fred Stuever of the department of conservation's wildlife experiment station at Swan Creek recently found several litters of young 'coons in hollow trees. The night following the discoveries all of the young were moved by their mothers to other locations. Persistence of the 'coons in keeping the whereabouts of their young a secret was indicated when one mother moved her litter two times when the second den was discovered. Measurement of the distance between dens and a little figuring indicated that the mother had traveled at least two miles to give her five youngsters a new home. In moving a young 'coon the mother picks it up by the skin of the neck or back and carries it. Thus a domestic cat does her kittens.

State Enters National Pedestrian Protection Contest

Governor Luren D. Dickinson as he signed Michigan's entry in the National Pedestrian Protection Contest sponsored by the American Automobile Association. Awards will be given those states which do the most effective work in reducing pedestrian accidents and fatalities, similar contests will be held between cities throughout Michigan and the rest of the country. With the governor is H. G. Rounds, director of the safety and traffic division of the Automobile Club of Michigan who points out that this type represents an increasing proportion of the motor vehicle and traffic accidents each year. Approximately thirty percent of the street and highway traffic deaths in Michigan last year were pedestrians. The governor appointed Captain C. J. Scavarda, of the Michigan State Police, as the reporting officer in charge of the contest in the State.

Girl Scouts Return From Camping

Twenty of Lowell's Girl Scouts enjoyed a fine week of camping at Crystal Lake from June 18 to June 24. One cottage served for all the girls and through patient cooperation, good conditions were achieved. The girls provided their own cots and bedding and brought part of the food consumed. In alternating patrols they did the work of cleaning the cottage each day, preparing vegetables, serving meals and washing dishes.

A camper's day began at 6:45 with reveille and exercises ended with taps at 9:30. During those hours many, many activities were pursued, in addition to the work mentioned above; and one hour was given over completely to rest. In handicrafts the girls made tin can baskets, raffia baskets and mats and did wood-burning from original or copied designs. Many improved upon their ability in the water with daily lessons in both swimming and boating. Some scouts took exploratory hikes in small groups, and several nature study hikes were taken. After gathering leaves, girls made water prints of them to preserve in notebooks. Dramatics entered into the camp program when each patrol presented a play on Friday night.

All the campers felt that this week was indeed a worthwhile experience for them. They wish to thank all the patrons who helped to make it possible or added to their pleasure in some way.

Those who attended camp were Vivian Bieri, Betty Breen, Helen Christensen, Mary Ellen Curtis, Gloria Doyle, Zoia Green, Norma Jean Haglund, Bonnie Hale, Clara-dell Hill, Charlene Kyser, Marilyn Kyser, Roberta Mill, Evelyn Myers, Dorothy Richardson, Edna Peckham, Pearl Peckham, Gloria Penzook, Alma Stiles, Lillian Storman and Donna Thorne. Counselors in charge of the camp were Ruth Correll, Sonja Petrofsky and Marlon Bushnell.

Birthday Of a Nation

EDITORIAL

When the fathers declared independence of Great Britain on July 4, 1776, the chance for the little republic were not good. The idea of a democratic republic had been entertained previously by philosophers, and experiments in maintaining such a system had been tried before, but without permanent success.

The fact that our government has lasted 150 years, while many republican governments have perished, proved that in the main the fathers were right. To maintain this government with its liberty and justice, the American people have to develop a patriotic spirit that shall be equal to that manifested by the fathers.

The independence of the United States is the principal cause of whatever welfare we have in our land. Under American freedom, the pioneers were inspired to conquer the wild forest and the sandy deserts, and to bring this great land into productivity and to produce wealth to an extent never equaled before. Freedom and liberty have allowed us to develop whatever talents we have and have given us the finest system of schools the world ever saw. They have promoted scientific development that has filled our homes with comforts and luxuries. The country may well celebrate its birthday on July Fourth with enthusiasm, and resolve that it will never abandon the principles which our fathers handed down to us.

Lampkin Installed President of Rotary

The fifth annual installation of officers of Lowell Rotary Club was held this week Wednesday noon. Lee E. Lampkin, well known farmer and fruit grower of Keene-twp, being the new club president. Robert D. Hahn, local groceryman, was installed as vice president. Secretary F. F. Coons and Treasurer Harry Day have served in their respective capacities continuously since the club was chartered in 1935. Up to the present time the following persons have served as club presidents, E. C. Foreman, C. H. Runciman, Dr. E. H. Shepard and W. W. Gummer.

Mr. Coons gave a splendid report of the great International convention of Rotary held at Cleveland last week. About 10,000 delegates were in attendance from more than 50 countries throughout the civilized world. The other representatives of the Lowell Club present at the Cleveland convention were President Gummer and Vice President Lampkin.

As a token of the club's appreciation of his services during the past year, President Gummer was presented with a past president's lapel button, the presentation of which was made by Past President Shepard, the recipient responding with words of appreciation.

The outstanding event will be a spectacular fireworks display, which is one of the biggest free exhibitions of its kind in western Michigan.

Ramona Park for years has enjoyed an enviable national reputation for its wholesome amusements and the cars exercised for the safety of its patrons.

In Ramona Gardens Ballroom a Special Dawn Dance is planned for Monday, July 3rd. Jimmy Craig and his Magical Swing Orchestra will entertain into the wee small hours of the morning.

Ramona Picnic Grove as in past years will be a popular gathering place for family picnics and reunions. Free accommodations and free parking are the rule.

Curtis; judge advocate, R. M. Shivel; chaplain, F. E. Haner; sergeant-at-arms, John Kropf; adjutant, Oscar Breenin; director, R. B. Starkey.

GRASS SILAGE BEATS CORN

Ten tons of alfalfa-bromegrass in the silo from an acre of land with excellent prospects of a second crop for hay or pasture is an average yield on test plots at Michigan State College that points to greater use of this combination crop. Farm crops man at the college find the grass type silage involves less labor than corn, provides at least an equal yield in volume and has about twice as much protein as corn silage.

CANNING BULLETIN READY

Completion of a revision of Extension Bulletin 132, "Home Canning", is announced by the extension service of Michigan State College. Copies of the simple but informative bulletin which can be hung in the kitchen during operations can be obtained through county agricultural agent offices or by writing the Bulletin Room, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Wheat Allotment For Kent County Is Announced

County's Portion 19,000 Acres

The 1940 wheat allotment for Kent County is 19,000 acres, according to an announcement made this week by John McCabe, Chairman of the Kent County Agricultural Conservation Committee. County wheat acreage allotments for 1940 represent an apportionment of the State allotment of 739,792 acres, which in turn represent Michigan's proportionate share of the National allotment of 62 million acres.

The 739,792 acre allotment for Michigan was established in accordance with the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933. It compares with an allotment of 600,964 acres for 1939.

The Kent County wheat allotment is being announced six weeks earlier than last year in order that farmers may have the opportunity to plan operations for 1940 well ahead of seeding time.

In announcing the county allotment, Mr. McCabe said that he believed the county officers would be able to notify farmers in the county of their individual allotments by the middle of July.

Basic Wheat Loans

The Kent County basic wheat loan rate for farm storage of the 1939 wheat crop was also made known this week. The basic rate of Red Winter, Hard Winter and Soft Winter Wheat, No. 2 grade with a maximum moisture content of 14 percent, will be grade 1, 70 cents; grade 2, 69 cents; grade 3, 67 cents; grade 4, 64 cents and grade 5, 61 cents per bushel.

The loan value on mixed wheat or wheat with a moisture content between 14 and 14 1/2 percent will be two cents per bushel below the established rate. Smutty and garlicky wheat also will be subject to a lower loan value, ranging from 2 to 6 cents less than the basic rate.

Crop insurance on wheat planted this Fall will be available to those farmers who planted within their 1940 wheat acreage allotments. Last Fall, 5,777 farmers insured 75 percent of the average production. State Crop Insurance officials expect the number to be at least doubled this Fall. Active selling of Federal Crop Insurance will start in August.

The work of checking compliance in Kent County has already begun. Approximately fifty farm reporters are in the field at this time and rapid progress is being made. More interest than was ever known before in the Agricultural Program in the report made by many farm reporters.

Mistake Made in Coons' Adv. on Page 3

The Coons Clothing store is offering very attractive July 4th bargains on Saturday, July 1 and Monday, July 3 as will be seen by the advertisement on page 3. Two words were accidentally omitted from the special item on white sport oxfords and the omission was not discovered until after the advertisement had been printed, hence this correction: These regular $2.95 and $3.95 shirts are to be sold July 1 and 3 at $1 a shirt. Two shirts to a customer.

More Farmers Take Weekly Newspapers

That Michigan farmers are on their toes and more than keeping pace with the news of a swiftly moving world in their own communities as well as in national and world affairs, is disclosed today by a survey made by The National Fertilizer Association. Six hundred and fifty more than 32,000 farmers. The survey reports that 6 out of 10 of the State's farmers take a weekly newspaper.

This represents a gain of 4 percent in Michigan farmer-readers of weekly papers over the results of a similar survey made by The National Fertilizer Association 10 years ago.

The State is in line with the national results of The National Fertilizer Association's poll, which revealed that in 25 States over half of the farmers take a weekly paper. The National Fertilizer Association survey was conducted to determine farming practices in the use of fertilizer and to learn the sources of information which farmers use and rely upon. Six hundred and fifty more than 32,000 farmers in 25 States 25 questions of vital importance to agriculture.

According to a recent study of contents of papers farmers read, general news although demanded, does not take the place of neighborhood and personal news which is of primary interest to farmers. Reading Weekly newspapers with their facilities for gathering and printing intimate local news, fill this requirement and therefore hold an increasing popularity among rural readers.

Coons' July 4th dollar day special offers timely merchandise at very attractive prices, Saturday and Monday only. See large ad.—Coons.

Notice, Taxpayers

Village taxes are due July 1. I will receive taxes at my office from 9:00 o'clock a. m. until 4:00 o'clock p. m. every week day except Thursday afternoon. After July 31, 3% will be added. c7-2t E. S. White, Village Trustee.

UNIT TO DRIVE

When you came close to having that auto accident last winter, and called the other driver "crazy", you might have hit the nail on the head. In Detroit, they examined 467 motorists who were arrested for breaking traffic laws. 190 of these cases were serious mental cases, seven found insane, 40 on the verge of insanity, 46 feeble-minded and 97 judged to be mentally dangerous on the highway. Folks in Lowell wonder why licenses were issued to these, in the first place. It would appear to be negligence on the part of someone, or a laxity in traffic laws. This proves that there are many unfit drivers who should not be permitted the responsibility of handling a car. We will never be out of the red in auto fatalities if like cases are given licenses to drive.

WATCH FOR THEM

With the coming of warmer months we are beset all about with worry of weeds, if we care for our yards, pollen, if we care for our hay-fever, and termites, if we care for our houses. These nasty insects carry on a work of destruction of ten unknown until they have undetermined a whole structure and left it a hollow shell. They work from the inside out and do it rapidly well. The termite can be distinguished from an ordinary flying ant by the thickness of their bodies and their two pairs of wings being the same length instead of uneven as in the flying ant. In the larger cities concerns will rid homes of termites, but it is usually costly. A very effective way to protect your home from invasion is to secure information from your congressman or by writing Washington. Inspect your home before it is too late.

NEWSPAPER AND COMMUNITY

A NEWSPAPER is a kind of extension to ordinary commercial enterprises. It is from one point of view a commercial affair, whose business it is to make a living for its owners and workers. Yet it is far more than that. It is an instrumentality working for development of its home town, for aiding all its interests, for reflecting and expressing its life and thought. It is the duty of a local newspaper to do everything possible for the development of its home community.

To fulfill that duty, it can't do the whole thing alone. People should be ready to help by giving information about the school and sending in news items. Also the newspaper can't perform its function unless it gets adequate support through sales, subscriptions and advertising.

TOWN SPIRIT

A GREAT DEAL is said in schools and colleges about school spirit. By that it is meant that the students of that school should be loyal to its interests. That means working hard so the school shall have a good scholastic standing. It means lacking up the athletic team, and giving aid to every school enterprise.

PENALTY FOR DISORDER

People who maintain disorderly looking dwellings and home grounds do not always realize that they injure both their neighbors and themselves. If a house is allowed to look run down and shabby, if its grounds are covered with litter and weeds, the places next adjoining do not look so well. If a person was contemplating buying a home, he might hesitate about purchasing it if it was located near such a shabby looking place.

If the neighbors are thus injured, the owner of the place suffers still more. If he needed to sell his home, people would be reluctant to buy a property that looked so neglected. They would fear they would have not merely the expense of cleaning up the disorderly place, but that the house needed costly repairs. A few hundred dollars spent in improving such a place would add a large sum to its selling value.

MYSTERIES OF ANCIENT LIFE

SCIENTISTS are studying the remains of ancient tribes that inhabited our country in pre-historic days. Among those to which special study is given this summer are the Pueblo ruins in New Mexico. In those ancient dwellings there lived 1000 or more years ago, tribes of people who were very strong physically, industrious, self supporting, capable of meeting the problems of existence.

Before the civilized world ever knew there was any America, these people lived, died, maintained their institutions, carried on religious worship, and handed down their traditions. They still turn out pottery, wood carving, etc. of high artistic value. The industry and peace loving qualities of these people have given them their long history. Nations and tribes that avoid war and work faithfully for their living last long on this earth.

Milker Serves as Butt For Goat in California

SAN JOSE, CALIF.—Billygoats have all the breaks in California, according to a Milpitas dairy rancher. They can do all the butting they want to, but a California law which makes malicious injury to a billygoat a misdemeanor can be applied to retaliatory measures.
So discovered the Milpitas rancher, who was sentenced to one day in jail for using a pitchfork on a billygoat that had butted all the paint off both sides of his automobile.
"This is a serious offense," the court told him. "I could send you to jail for six months or fine you $500, but as the billygoat has recovered, I am letting you off easy this time."

Wire From Radio Set

HAMILTON, ONT.—The hired man of an East Falmoro farm thought radio music might make his task of plucking chickens a bit less tiresome. He brought a radio down to the barn. The aerial wire he attached to a metal stanchion which held a prize bull in check.
Then he plugged the other wire into an electric light socket. The hired man heard only the thud of a falling body. The bull died instantly, apparently a victim of electrocution.
All great joys are serious.—Alexander Smith.

Just a Little Smile

A cobbler christened his establishment "The Boot Hospital." A customer brought him a pair of boots which would have disgraced a tramp, says London Tit-Bits Magazine.
"Shouldn't have these mended if I were you," said the cobbler. "I would throw 'em away."
"But I want them mended," was the reply. "This is supposed to be a hospital for boots, isn't it?"
"Yes, it's a 'ospital all right," rejoined the cobbler, "but it ain't a mortuary."

To Grannie on Mother's Day
When you get to know and love a dear lady,
The way we know and love you,
You find her faults are trivial,
And her soul is true blue.
So Grannie dear, we find it hard
To say aloud the things we mean,
Because for us you're queen of grandmothers,
Long live OUR queen!

Forty-seventh Year

No. 7

UNFIT TO DRIVE

WHEN you came close to having that auto accident last winter, and called the other driver "crazy", you might have hit the nail on the head. In Detroit, they examined 487 motorists who were arrested for breaking traffic laws. 190 of these cases were serious mental cases, seven found insane, 40 on the verge of insanity, 46 feeble-minded and 97 judged to be mentally dangerous on the highway. Folks in Lowell wonder why licenses were issued to these, in the first place. It would appear to be negligence on the part of some one, or a laxity in traffic laws. This proves that there are many unfit drivers who should not be permitted the responsibility of handling a car. We will never be out of the red in auto fatalities if like cases are given licenses to drive.

WATCH FOR THEM

WITH the coming of warmer months we are beset all about with worry of weeds, if we care for our yards, pollen, if we care for our hay-ferns, and termites, if we care for our homes. These nasty insects carry on a work of destruction unknown until they have determined a whole structure and left it a hollow shell. They work from the inside out and do it rapidly well. The termites can be distinguished from an ordinary flying ant by the thickness of their bodies and their two pairs of wings being the same length instead of uneven as in the flying ant. In the larger cities concerns will send homes of termites but it is usually costly. A very effective way to protect your home from invasion is to secure information from your congressman or by writing to Washington. Inspect your home before it is too late.

NEWSPAPER AND COMMUNITY

A NEWSPAPER is a kind of exception to ordinary commercial enterprises. It is from one point of view a commercial affair, whose business it is to make a living for its owners and workers. Yet it is far more than that. It is an instrumentally working for development of its home town, for aiding all its interests, for reflecting and expressing its life and thought. It is the duty of a local newspaper to do everything possible for the development of its home community. To fulfill that duty, it can't do the whole thing alone. People should be ready to help by giving information about news events and sending in news items. Also the newspaper can't perform its function unless it gets adequate support through sales, subscriptions and advertising.

TOWN SPIRIT

A GREAT DEAL is said in schools and colleges about school spirit. By that it is meant that the students of that school should be loyal to its interests. That means working hard so the school shall have a good scholastic standing. It means backing up the athletic team, and giving aid to every school enterprise. That idea carries schools ahead and makes them famous. It should also be applied to towns. It should persuade people to back up their local enterprises, spend their money at home, give aid to movements planned to develop the town, cooperate in the effect to create a more beautiful place by improving their own dwellings and home grounds. If a town has that loyal co-operation, it is bound to go ahead.

PENALTY FOR DISORDER

PEOPLE who maintain disorderly looking dwellings and home grounds do not always realize that they injure both their neighbors and themselves. If a house is allowed to look run down and shabby, if its grounds are covered with litter and weeds, the places next adjoining do not look so well. If a person was contemplating buying a home, he might hesitate about purchasing it if it was located near such a shabby looking place. If the neighbors are thus injured, the owner of the place suffers still more. If he needed to sell his home, people would be reluctant to buy a property that looked so neglected. They would fear they would have not merely the expense of cleaning up the disorderly place, but that the house needed costly repairs. A few hundred dollars spent in improving such a place would add a large sum to its selling value.

MYSTERIES OF ANCIENT LIFE

SCIENTISTS are studying the remains of ancient tribes that inhabited our country in pre-historic days. Among those to which special study is given this summer are the Pueblo ruins in New Mexico. In those ancient dwellings there lived 1000 or more years ago, tribes of people who were very strong physically, industrious, self supporting, capable of meeting the problems of existence. Before the civilized world ever knew there was any America, these people lived, died, maintained their institutions, carried on religious worship, and handed down their traditions. They still turn out pottery, wood carving, etc. of high artistic value. The industry and peace loving qualities of these people have given them their long history. Nations and tribes that avoid war and work faithfully for their living last long on this earth.

Wheat Allotment For Kent County Is Announced

County's Portion 19,000 Acres

The 1940 wheat allotment for Kent County is 19,000 acres, according to an announcement made this week by John McCabe, Chairman of the Kent County Agricultural Conservation Committee. County wheat acreage allotments for 1940 represent an apportionment of the State allotment of 739,792 acres, which in turn represents Michigan's proportionate share of the National allotment of 62 million acres.

The 739,792 acre allotment for Michigan was established in accordance with the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938. It compares with an allotment of 689,954 acres for 1939.

The Kent County wheat allotment is being announced six weeks earlier than last year in order that farmers may have the opportunity to plan operations for 1940 well ahead of seeding time.

In announcing the county allotment, Mr. McCabe said that he believed the county officer would be able to notify farmers in the county of their individual allotments by the middle of July.

Basic Wheat Loans

The Kent County basic wheat loan rate for farm storage of the 1939 wheat crop was also made known this week. The basic rate of Red Winter, Hard Winter and Soft Winter Wheat, No. 2 grade with a maximum moisture content of 14 percent, will be grade 1, 70 cents; grade 2, 69 cents; grade 3, 67 cents; grade 4, 64 cents and grade 5, 60 cents per bushel. The loan value on mixed wheat or wheat with a moisture content between 14 and 14 1/2 percent will be two cents per bushel below the established rate. Smutty and garlicky wheat also will be subject to a lower loan value, ranging from 3 to 6 cents less than the basic rate. Crop insurance on wheat planted this fall will be available to those farmers who planted within their 1940 wheat acreage allotments. Last Fall, 5,077 farmers insured 75 per cent of the average production. State Crop Insurance officials expect the number to be at least doubled this fall. Active selling of Federal Crop Insurance will start in August.

The work of checking compliance in Kent County has already begun. Approximately fifty farm reporters are in the field at this time and rapid progress is being made. More interest than was ever shown before in the Agricultural Program is the report made by many farm reporters.

The Coons Clothing store is offering very attractive July 4th bargains on Saturday, July 1 and Monday, July 3 as will be seen by the advertisement on page 3. More Farmers Take Weekly Newspapers

That Michigan farmers are on their toes and more than keeping pace with the news of a swiftly moving world in their own communities as well as in national and world affairs, is disclosed today by a survey made by The National Fertilizer Association of the reading habits of more than 32,000 farmers. The survey reports that 6 out of 10 of the State's farmers take a weekly newspaper.

This represents a gain of 4 percent in Michigan farmer-readers of weekly papers over the results of a similar survey made by The National Fertilizer Association 10 years ago.

Curtis; judge advocate, R. M. Shivel; chaplain, F. E. Haner; sergeant-at-arms, John Kropf; adjutant, Oscar Bresina; director, R. B. Starkey.

GRASS SILAGE BEATS CORN

Ten tons of alfalfa-brome grass in the silo from an acre of land with excellent prospects of a second crop for hay or pasture is an average yield on test plots at Michigan State College that points to greater use of this combination crop. Farm crops men at the college find the grass type silage involves less labor than corn, provides at least an equal yield in volume and has about twice as much protein as corn silage.

The total amount of tax to be raised is $13,440.25, to be distributed as follows: General fund, $11,200.21; sinking fund, $1,680.03; bond fund, $560.01.

The recent announcement by Dr. John W. Trumble of his intention to engage in the practice of Veterinary Medicine has been received by farmers and dairymen of this vicinity with considerable satisfaction. Dr. Trumble has had extensive experience with the Bureau of Animal Industry for several years and is generally recognized as a veterinarian of ability combined with a deep liking for his profession.

"Air ye goin' my way?" The young fellow who has been planning to take to the road this summer and hoping to go places and see things by "bumming", has been given a word of advice from Jeff Davis, the King of Hoboes. He has more than 20,000 youngsters on the road and an expected 50,000 by July. The odd jobs to be found are scarce and the risk of hunger, jail and association with criminals is common. Folks in Lowell will do their best to keep their young off the road, for such travelling is apt to produce trouble and sorrow. It is too often that the paths aren't straight.

EDITORIAL

WHEN the fathers declared independence of Great Britain on July 4, 1776, the chances for the little republic were not good. The idea of a democratic republic had been entertained previously by philosophers, and experiments in maintaining such a system had been tried before, but without permanent success.

When republics have failed, it is because the people were not sufficiently intelligent and conscientious to make that form of government a success. The founders of our government based their actions on a supreme confidence in the sense and honesty of the people. They assumed that the majority of the people will prefer honesty to dishonesty, and that they will not be fooled by selfish and designing men.

The fact that our government has lasted 150 years, while many republican governments have perished, proved that in the main the fathers were right. To maintain this government with its liberty and justice, the American people have to develop a patriotic spirit that shows that that manifested by the fathers.

The independence of the United States is the principal cause of whatever welfare we have in our land. Under American freedom, the pioneers were inspired to conquer the wild forest and the sandy deserts, and to bring this great land into productively and to produce wealth to an extent unequalled before. Freedom and liberty have allowed us to develop whatever talents we have, and have given us the finest system of schools the world ever saw. They have promoted scientific development that has filled our homes with comforts and luxuries. The country may well celebrate its birthday on July Fourth with enthusiasm, and resolve that it will never abandon the principles which our fathers handed down to us.

Girl Scouts Return From Camping

Twenty of Lowell's Girl Scouts enjoyed a fine week of camping at Crystal Lake from June 18 to June 25. One cottage served for all the girls and through excellent cooperation, good conditions were achieved. The girls provided their own cots and bedding and brought part of the food consumed. In alternating patrols they did the work of cleaning the cottage each day, preparing vegetables, serving meals and washing dishes.

A camper's day began at 6:45 with Reveille and exercises and ended with taps at 9:30. During those hours many, many activities were pursued, in addition to the work mentioned above; and one hour was given over completely to rest. In handicrafts the girls made tin can baskets, raffia baskets and mats and did wood-burning from original or copied designs. Many improved upon their ability in the water with daily lessons in both swimming and boating. Some scouts took exploratory hikes in small groups, and several nature study hikes were taken. After gathering leaves girls made spatter prints of them to preserve in notebooks. Dramatics entered into the camp program when each patrol presented a play on Friday night.

All the campers felt that this week was indeed a worthwhile experience for them. They wish to thank all parents and patrons who helped to make it possible or added to their pleasure in some way.

Those who attended camp were Vivian Bieri, Betty Brezina, Helen Christensen, Mary Ellen Curtis, Gloria Doyne, Zsa Green, Norma Jean Haglund, Bonnie Hale, Clara Hill, Charlene Kyser, Marilyn Kyser, Roberta Mill, Evelyn Myers, Dorothy Peckham, Jane Peckham, Pearl Peckham, Gloria Pennock, Alma Stiles, Lillian Stormzand and Donna Thorne. Counsellors in charge of the camp were Ruth Corro, Sonja Petrofsky and Marlon Bushnell.

Lowell Druggist Named Pharmacy Head

At the annual convention of the State Pharmaceutical Association, which held a three-day session last week in St. Joseph, M. N. Henry, pioneer Lowell druggist, was elected president of the association for the ensuing fiscal year. Next year's convention will be held in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Henry, who has operated a drug store in Lowell for the past 35 years, has rendered distinguished service in state druggists' affairs. He has served six years on the State Board of Pharmacy, six years as a member of the executive committee of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical association, one year as vice president and one year as president-elect of the association.

Mr. Henry has always been active in local affairs serving four years as village president and as president of the Lowell Board of Trade. He was a charter member of the B. O. T. when it was organized in 1908 and each year since that time has served on one or more committees.

TRUTH about ADVERTISING

By CHARLES B. ROTH

MY FRIEND asked me if I would go with him to buy a horse. I went. We traipsed from one dealer's to another. One man asked us $300 for a horse. The next man had a horse which looked no better, but his price was $450. Before the afternoon was over we had seen horses ranging in price all the way from $150 to $14,000.

Now, the $14,000 horse was a much better animal than the $150 horse. No use to deny that. But nowhere along the line did we find a stabilized market.

Had we bought we would have been paying a price which the seller thought his horse was worth. There was no market authority we could consult which would tell my friend whether he was being overcharged or undercharged.

That same evening I went out to buy a small household item—one which is advertised in all the newspapers. I knew what the market price would be: advertising had told me.

With confidence I asked the clerk for what I wanted and put my 25 cents down on the counter. Had he said: "I am sorry, sir, but the price is 50 cents." I would have left and gone somewhere else.

What assurance have I, as a consumer, that someone won't take advantage of me and overcharge me in this bold way?

My only assurance is the advertising which I read in the newspaper. That is my market and my buyer's guide. It tells me the prices I must expect to pay. Let the seller who tries to charge me more be aware.

It also tells me what quality I may expect. Let the seller who tries to give me a poorer substitute beware.

So you see that advertising stabilizes prices and enables me, no matter how inexperienced I am in business, to buy with the same expertness and assurance of a professional buyer who spends his life buying for a large concern.

No one objects to paying the established price for something he wants. But all of us hate to be robbed by an unscrupulous man who, taking advantage of our ignorance, "soaks us good and plenty."

The way to avoid being "soaked" in this complete way is to buy advertised goods from merchants who advertise.

There was a time in America when there were no set prices. Each merchant charged what he thought "the traffic would bear." Advertising came to the rescue of the consumer. It led the way to the established prices you pay when you buy anything today—except, perhaps, horses.

State Enters National Pedestrian Protection Contest

Governor Luren D. Dickinson as he signed Michigan's entry in the National Pedestrian Protection Contest sponsored by the American Automobile Association. Awards will be given those states which do the most effective work in reducing pedestrian accidents and fatalities, similar contests will be held between cities throughout Michigan and the rest of the country. With the governor is H. O. Rounds, director of the safety and traffic division of the Automobile Club of Michigan who points out that this type represents an increasing proportion of the motor vehicle and traffic accidents each year. Approximately thirty percent of the street and highway traffic deaths in Michigan last year were pedestrians. The governor appointed Captain C. J. Seavarda, of the Michigan State Police, as the reporting officer in charge of the contest in the State.

Baseball Fans Enjoy Good Games

The Lowell Moose diamond ball team picked up no matter how good is a person's intention to "rescue" the animal, feed it or fondle it. This advice comes from the game division of the department of conservation.

The Export-Import Bank, now making many new loans to Latin America is being to exercise the wisdom of a Solomon to decide who shall get how much money for what. Scores of wildcat loan proposals have been filed with the Bank. President Pierson's task has been to sift them through and scotch loan requests backed by promoters who are out for what they can get.

Planners attach the greatest importance to the coming Senate investigation of Government money and banking policies. High Federal Reserve Board officials are quietly letting it be known that they want to have the Senate decide on the question of what this government should do to find work for the immense financial resources of the nation. Exploration is being pictured as fundamental.

Seventy thousand men out of work from May 22 to June 8 in Detroit because of strike. What did that mean in buying power? If they got 4 dollars per day (and most of them had more than that) and lost fifteen days each, that figures up to a total of $5,250,000. What a price we pay for labor misunderstandings! Or do we pay it to maintain the supremacy of some particular labor leaders?—Cassopolis Vigilant.

Swift action in bringing into a court of justice this week the man charged with deliberately setting the big "Onaway" fire which in May did $163,000 estimated damage in Presque Isle state forest, should be taken as an object lesson by everyone having any contact with Michigan's great outdoors. The person tossing a cigarette butt out of his car or flipping a match after lighting up while tramping a woods or stream, may cause as much damage as any "firebug" who sets off a blaze for a grudge—and he may run into the toils of the law with equal certainty.

The old bugaboo of the holiday motorists—the road construction gap—will be pretty well tamed under July 4 state highway department regulations this year. Michigan State police and the department are coordinating for the second year their efforts to expedite traffic, reduce accidents and drive the careless motorist from the highways during the holiday period. Murray D. VanWagoner, state highway commissioner, requested district engineers to close down work on construction projects from July 1 to July 5 on all jobs where increased traffic might bring danger to motorists.

A raccoon is a rather easy going animal but a mother coon insists on one thing—she wants privacy for her family. Fred Stuewer of the department of conservation's wildlife experiment station at Swan Creek recently found several litters of young coons in hollow trees. The night following the discoveries all of the young were moved by their mothers to other locations. Persistence of the coons in keeping the whereabouts of their young a secret was indicated when one mother moved her litter two times when the second den was discovered. Measurement of the distance between dens and a little figuring indicated that the mother had traveled at least two miles to give her five youngsters a new home. In moving a young coon the mother picks it up by the skin of the neck or back and carries it much as a domestic cat does her kittens.

Job-Hunting Girl Over 30 Has Competition
JUST this week a girl over 30 came to me in sheer desperation. She needed a job and couldn't get one. "I'm an experienced typewriter," she said, "with eight years of experience here and there. I'm not keen about receiving offers, but I'll take any job. I simply have to get to work. Yet every place I apply they more or less tell me they want a younger girl. How high is 40?"

Daintiness in Women Wins Men's Favor

MEN loathe careless grooming. In fact I think that men are inclined to be more fastidious about us than we are about ourselves! That statement will probably bring an avalanche of mail contradicting me. Well anyway, men do like us smelling, tidy in our dress and noticeably well-groomed. It isn't too easy to keep fresh as a flower, or crisp looking as a lettuce leaf. It takes some little trials. We must bathe more frequently.
