Lowell has 31 Victory Gardens listed in the Kent county prize contest. This is more than any other village in the county. Inspections by the judges will occur later this month and again in August, so get busy on those weeds.

Last half year license plates for passenger and commercial motor vehicles went on sale Saturday, July 15th. In the Lowell branch office of the Secretary of State. Motorists having first half year 1944 plates must return them to obtain last half year plates.

Will Ross returned Monday from a week's vacation spent in Lansing and Cass City. Mr. Ross has been an employee at the plant of the Lowell Manufacturing company some thirty odd years and wishes to thank the management for his vacation.

The business offices of the C. H. Runciman company are occupying the rear of the former Journal building on West Main street for the next three or four weeks, pending the enlarging and remodeling of the company's office building on Broadway. Entrance will be off the alley opposite the tile building.

The American Line Inc., 209 East Main, has installed new office desks and chairs, redecorated the interior, and increased their office floor space by removing the display platform in the front window. The American Line is enjoying a fine volume of business, with shipments going to various sections of the country.

The Reverend Wm. J. Murphy, who recently assumed the pastorate of St. Patrick's church, Parcell, is entering upon his new duties with interest and enthusiasm. He has been in town frequently during the past few days in connection with making final plans for the annual chicken dinner at Parcell, which will be held this year on Sunday, July 30, starting at 12:30.

All reports point to a bumper crop in peaches this year. Carl James, who was in the Ledger office the other day, said that he, working alone, knocked off over 5,000 peaches while thinking one afternoon from one o'clock until about four. Mr. James has a unique way of keeping track of his count, and those interested might inquire of him as to his method.

Looks as though housewives of this vicinity are making sure that they will have well-filled shelves and pantries for the coming fall and winter, judging by the way they have been flocking to nearby orchards during the past two weeks. They are making quite a saving through picking their own fruit. Red raspberries, black caps, cherries, etc., are abundant and of excellent quality.

The Lowell high school band, directed by Orval E. Jessup, an officer in the state association, has received national recognition for its impressive record of activities in connection with the war effort, a nice writeup having appeared in the Music Educators' Journal of May-June, 1944, under the column entitled, "The Wartime Program in Action."

Tribute is paid to all branches of the service, be it in military posts abroad or at home. Workers in factories, homes, fields, churches, civic clubs, schools, Red Cross Centers, all have their part to play. Sometimes neglected, but not because of no consequence or because it has not sacrificed, is the army of newspaper correspondents who are found wherever goes a uniformed soldier. From every point of combat you will find them risking their lives to give you in Lowell a picture of what is going on about them. They face the same danger as a fighting man but in most cases without any regular army training. They are often called upon to do the same tasks as the soldier. It is due them that you get news of what boys from such towns as this, are thinking of what some feel in Italy, see in France, want in New Guinea. This correspondent is the link between the Main Street in Middletown and a foxhole in some God-forsaken jungle.

Rate Is Increased on CCC Wheat Loans

Farmers Can Get Loans of $1.45 a Bu. on Acceptable Wheat Which They Store; Additional 7c for Farm Storage

The 7 cents a bushel increase in loan rates on 1944 crop wheat, announced several days ago by the War Food Administration, means that Kent County farmers can get loans of $1.45 a bushel on acceptable wheat which they store on their farms, John McCabe, Kent County AAA chairman, said this week. The rate previously announced for loans made in Kent County was $1.38 a bushel.

These Commodity Credit Corporation loans are made to farmers who want to store their wheat at the time of harvest for sale later on in the year. In addition to the $1.45 a bushel, an additional seven cents a bushel will be advanced as a farm storage allowance. If the farmer should deliver his wheat to the Commodity Credit Corporation in liquidation of his loan next April, he will keep the seven-cent allowance as compensation for the use of his farm storage.

Mr. McCabe said that because of current prices, and also the general lack of commercial storage facilities, his office expects to receive a large number of requests for loans on this year's wheat crop. The Chairman wishes to call wheat producer's attention to the fact that wheat containing excessive moisture and offered for loan cannot be accepted. Therefore those combining wheat should be certain that the moisture content is low enough to be acceptable either for loan, sale or storage.

LIMIT IS 15 BLUEGILLS
Michigan law says that 15 bluegills are the possession limit for any one person at any one time. The law makes no exception in the case of a person who rents a quick-freeze food storage locker.

New Rules Affect Buyers and Sellers Questions and Answers

The following questions and answers, explaining how the used car regulation affects buyers and sellers since it became effective Monday, July 10, 1944, were issued Saturday by the office of price administration:

- Q. What types of used passenger cars are covered by the new price regulations?
- A. All types, makes and models. Q. Do all makes and models have specific dollar-and-cents ceiling prices?
- A. Dollars-and-cents prices are listed in the regulation for 23 makes and about 6,000 models manufactured from 1937 through 1942. This represents most passenger cars manufactured since 1937. (The regulation provides methods for setting ceiling prices on other models not listed with specific prices.)
- Q. Does the regulation apply to individual buyers and sellers of used cars as well as dealers?
- A. Yes, any person buying or selling a used car on and after the effective date of the regulation is subject to its provisions.
- Q. Where can I see a copy of the regulation listing the prices and explaining other details?
- A. At your local war price and rationing board or at any automobile dealer.
- Q. How do I find the correct ceiling price of a used car?
- A. Give your local board the facts about the make, model, year, manufacture, and extra equipment, such as radio, heater, and "built-in" equipment. The price clerk will then tell you the correct ceiling price.
- Q. What will this ceiling price represent?
- A. It will be either an "as is" price or a "warranty" price.
- Q. What is meant by an "as is" price?
- A. This is the base price listed in Appendix B of the regulation, plus the specific allowance for extra equipment (if any).
- Q. What is meant by a "warranty" price?
- A. A "warranty" price is a price that may be charged by a dealer for a "warranted" car.
- Q. What is a "warranted" car?
- A. A "warranted" car is a used car in good operating condition with which the dealer making the sale furnishes a written "warranty" that the car will remain in such condition for 30 days or 1,000 miles driving—whichever occurs first.
- Q. Who may charge a "warranty" price?
- A. Only a dealer as defined in Section 15-B of the regulation.
- Q. How is a seller qualified as a dealer under the used car regulation?

Prisoner in Germany

Lt. Allen Wisner

After having been reported missing in action, the cheering news reached here last Friday, that Second Lieut. Allen Wisner, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wisner, is a prisoner of the Germans. The news came Friday night in a telegram from the War Department, through the American Red Cross to his wife, the former Marian Reidsma, of Grand Rapids.

Lieut. Wisner, who was a pilot of a P-38 fighter plane stationed in Italy, had completed 12 missions, and was shot down over Austria on June 26. He had been overseas about two months, and in service since February 6, 1943.

His wife is in Detroit taking a three months' course in the Michigan Children's Hospital as part of her Nurses' training at Hagedorn Memorial hospital, Grand Rapids.

CALVIN PINKNEY IN HOSPITAL

Calvin Pinkney of Keene township was taken Tuesday noon to Butterworth hospital, where he underwent an emergency appendicitis operation, about eight o'clock in the evening of the same day. At last reports he was getting along well.

Now Is the Appointed Time For The Home Front to Land Its Hardest Punch to End War

A reporter's word picture of Michigan in mid-July, 1944:

Lake cottages and resort hotels are jammed to the limits. The 1944 vacation season in Northern Michigan, and many parts of the Upper Peninsula, promises to set an all-time record for attendance and expenditures. George Bishop of Marquette, manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, tells of visiting the Keweenaw highway commission's park and cabins out at Copper Harbor on the week-end of June 24-25. "More than 200 travelers were there," he confided. "Don't ask me how they got to Copper Harbor which can be reached only by automobile. I don't know."

Michigan, the world's automobile center, is awaiting 1946 which now appears to be the earliest date when production of cars can be resumed. As contrasted to California and other states where aviation is predominant, Michigan has an estimated "backlog" of seven billion dollars in automobile manufacture. It should absorb much of the economic shock that will be inevitable when war plants are reconverted to peace-time utility.

The transportation situation isn't a bit good. The ODT estimates that 5,000 autos are getting junked per day. Automobiles are wearing out. Trucks are near to a serious deterioration point, especially heavy-duty trucks that haul freight interstate. Railroad passenger trains are overcrowded, and travelers can expect continued discomfort, delays, poor service. Buses are filled; standing room only is common. Strangely enough, air travel is the only service on which improvement is in sight, as plane-space priorities will be abandoned around Sept. 1.

To get a close-up of how global war is affecting Michigan, just look around your own block, if you reside in a town or city. Or survey the neighbors along your rural route. Rare is the house that does not have a service flag in a window. Michigan has sent approximately 500,000 men to war. Nationally there are more than 5,000,000 Yanks overseas and there will be more than 7,000,000 by the year's end.

Social unrest is shown by the number of realty transfers and realty travel. Labor turnover is still high. People are on the move. Theatres are thronged. Betting on horse races has reached dizzy heights. This craving for entertainment is a part of the war picture, an inevitable escape from war jitters. A good laugh is a good mental tonic. That's one reason the newspapers still continue the daily comic strips, despite stringent rationing of newsprint. People demand them.

The Michigan Mirror forecast Dec. 30, 1943, that the Nazis would surrender unconditionally by late autumn of 1944, still stands. If our American troops continue to receive a sufficient flow of munitions and supplies, and American industry—

Harvest Points to Bumper Wheat Crop

The wheat harvest is well under way in this locality, and everything indicates that the yield hereabouts will be of better than usual proportions, and in line with the state and nation which is producing the largest wheat crop on record, in fact, more than one billion bushels more than were harvested a year ago, according to agricultural forecasts.

The first deliveries made to the King Milling Company were brought in by Edward Downes of Ada and Harold Alberts of Belding, who brought in red wheat and white wheat respectively, both being of excellent quality. The red wheat yielded 62 lbs. to the bushel and the white wheat 60 lbs. to the bushel.

Order Extra Papers Early

Because of an acute shortage of pulpwood and newsprint, The Ledger can print only the number of copies each week which we believe will be needed. Persons desiring several extra copies of any edition of The Ledger are requested to order them not later than Tuesday noon of the week they desire the papers, to assure them of getting their copies. Extra Ledgers are sold each week as long as they last, but we cannot guarantee to have any number of extra copies.

Scholarship Winners At Interlochen Clinic

Flora Myers, Catherine Phelps and Dolores Dollaway will leave Monday to attend the two-week High School music clinic for band instruments, conducted by the University of Michigan at the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Fla., who plays the flute, and Catherine the bassoon, are receiving $30 scholarships from the Lowell city band fund. Dolores plays the clarinet, and this is the fourth summer she has studied under Professor Revell at Interlochen.

Raymond Houghton, violinist with the Lowell high school orchestra, has been attending the camp the past two weeks during the session for strings.

The purpose of the clinics is to provide special training and experience in string, band, and choral music for youth of high school age.

Judges to Inspect Victory Gardens

Lowell Victory gardeners are advised by Mrs. N. E. Borgerson, president of the Garden Lore Club, that all gardens will be visited by the judges again, some time in July, and another time in August. Judges are told not to spend much time on gardens that are not properly taken care of.

The qualifications and points that count in the Kent County Victory Garden contest are as follows: Plan of garden, 10; soil condition, 5; number and kinds of vegetables, 10; cultural practice, 10; succession cropping, 15; quality and production written records, 50. Lettuce and radishes do not count as qualifying vegetables.

There are 31 gardens in Lowell entered in the contest, more than from any other small town in the county.

We Get a Rise From Our Home Town Girls

"Dear Editor,
"Read your article concerning the girls wearing tan face powder. It might interest you to know that we girls back home haven't time to lie around to get a tan while working in war work; so we sort of pretend."

"We've heard a great deal about the Islanders' beauties. A few of us girls have learned to hula and can wear a mean play-suit. Practicing the hula is grand exercise and it tires one out enough to sleep relaxed, at bed time."

"When the boys come home you don't have to worry about their getting home sick for the Islands. We American girls can do anything the Island girls can—plus."

Up and Down Kent County Roads

By K. K. Vining, Kent County Agricultural Agent

We are writing this week's column at Camp Vining, Bostwick Lake. The second section of campers have been cleaning up their cabins and the grounds preparatory to leaving after supper. Miss Helen Schlytern, in charge of recreation, is teaching the boys some group games which is something she really excels in and the best part of it, the boys like the games. Miss Deansmore has a group of girls giving them some work on personal grooming. Something doing all the time. This section was not so much on horse shoe pitching as some are but when it comes to volleyball and such games they played hard.

The handicraft project for this year were ping pong paddles for Red Cross. The boys did some creditable work.

The weather was hot at camp the first two days of the week. Generally there is a breeze off the lake but none this time. The rain on Tuesday night was a relief. Some of the campers slept through it all. Didn't know it had rained until morning. The cabins are tight and with shutters down the campers are comfortable.

Livestock boys held forth the last three days of last week, judging Jerseys at Emmet Davis', Brown Swiss at Dudley Cox's, Guernseys at Ed Allen's and Holsteins at M. D. Buth's.

The last section of camp will be made up of conservation and poultry members. P. G. Lundin, assistant State Leader, spent two days in camp on these projects.

The girls in camp represented no particular project.

A playground is needed in the camp. There is plenty of room in the swamp, back of camp. Some day we hope to see this area filled

Youth From County Enter Nation-Wide Vegetable Contest

Two youths from Kent County have enrolled in the fourth annual National Junior Vegetable Growers' Association $6,000 production and marketing contest, Prof. Grant B. Snyder, of Massachusetts State College, advisory chairman of the organization, announces.

The contestants are competing for a $500 national championship, a $200 regional award, ten $100 sectional scholarships and two $25 war bonds provided the association by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, Prof. Snyder said. The winners will be decided on the basis of the efforts made by the contestants on studies of vegetable production and marketing methods, their vegetable projects and their community activities.

"The importance of more efficient vegetable production and marketing is gaining substantial interest among our coming generation of farmers," Prof. Snyder said. "This is clearly indicated by the increased enrollment in our contest which this year includes boys and girls from 44 states."

Among the contestants enrolled from this county are: William Baehre, Kent City and Mary Jane Dockera, Grand Rapids.

Advises Workers Have S. S. Account Numbers

Advent of the canning season has renewed the drive for full or part time employment of thousands of persons in that important industry. Reminding all individuals who intend to take such employment or who are already employed in commercial canning that such work is covered under the provisions of the Social Security Act, William E. Kirehgesner, manager of the field office of the Social Security Board at Grand Rapids, urges all such workers to obtain their social security account number cards if they have not done so.

"Account numbers are issued at the field office in the Grand Rapids National Bank Building, or applications may be obtained at any post office and mailed to our office," Mr. Kirehgesner said.

Campaign Launched To Salvage Paper Held in 'Desk Traps'

County and local salvage committees have been called upon by Kenneth M. Byrnes, Chairman of the State Salvage Committee of the Michigan Office of Civilian Defense, to launch a campaign to clean out one of the most prolific sources of waste paper—the "desk trap," and by that is meant not only desks in offices, but in homes as well.

"One of the sources of waste paper which may be overlooked is the accumulation of material in desks," Burns said. "It has been found that in some cases as much as 25 pounds of paper in the form of obsolete catalogs, correspondence, circulars, file folders, and old magazines and trade publications can be salvaged from desks. Old check stubs, forgotten records, ancient correspondence, receipted bills of past years, and long forgotten accumulations are now weapons of war—fighting material which the paper mills require to make or protect the thousands of items which travel to battle fronts packed in paperboard."

KICK-BACK BY THE STATES A good deal of significance is attached to the fact that the Republican Governors of States were a major force in controlling the Republican National Convention. This is interpreted as meaning that the States are making a fight to regain their rights.

CLARE HOOTH LICE The speech by Congressman Clare Boothe Luce of Connecticut before the Republican National Convention was so different from every other speech that it stands out as one of the classics of the war.

FORECASTING THE FUTURE The attempt to look into the cloudy future and see behind the noisy curtain of events, is now a favorite occupation of Americans.

How long can Germany hold out? As fast as they did in the first 11 days of the recent bombing offensive, they would be in Berlin in about six weeks. This is almost impossible. They made their recent rapid advance after weeks of preparation, in which the rebuilding of the railroad lines to supply their advancing army played a large part.

Germany still has a great army. There are reports that the war with Germany can be finished in 1934. To do that it is necessary to keep American war production at top notch, and to give our forces all the oil and gasoline they need.

Nothing must be allowed to interfere with that unloading. Everything we can lay our hands on is thrown into the guarding of those beaches and ports. Allied ground troops police them from the land side. Our two navies protect them from sneak attacks by sea.

MOBILE AAC ARTILLERY IN ITALY - Partially hidden by a camouflage net, the business end of three gun pieces pointed from this U. S. Army self-propelled half-track which is part of the equipment of an anti-aircraft battalion on the Italian front.

ARMY'S OLDEST REGIMENT

The Third U. S. Infantry, oldest American regimental unit in continuous service, this year is honored in the 160th anniversary of the organization of the Army. Incorporated in the Federal service by authority of Congress in 1784, the regiment is older than the Constitution and the Nation.

EQUIPMENT OF A FIRST-RATE FIGHTING MAN - J. The flame-thrower is rapidly becoming a major weapon in the American soldier's arsenal. 2. A gas mask and helmet. 3. A portable radio which keeps him constantly in touch with his unit. 4. Infantry crew of the deadly 81-mm. mortar protected by riflemen with the famous M-1 rifle. 5. This is the 'doghouse' itself - a basic fighting man who's ready to prove he's the best soldier on earth. He wears a steel helmet and gas mask and carries the M-1 rifle. 6. 81-mm. troopers are infantrymen, too. His weapon is the light, accurate 81-mm. mortar. 7. The Thompson sub-machine gun is a weapon of opportunity, which, with its rapid rate of fire and accurate accuracy is a favorite of many doughboys. The Tommy gun is fired from a kneeling position. 8. The Infantry mortar, serving as a courier, wears a duck mask and in the helmet carries his Tommy gun ready for instant use.

Let these guys start it!

Let these guys start it!

Let these guys start it! There's a day coming when the enemy will be licked, beaten, whipped to a fern-thee every last vertige of fight knocked off of him.

Let these guys start it! And there's a day coming when every mother's son of us will want to stand up and yell, to cheer ourselves hoarse over the greatest victory in history.

Let these guys start it! Our leaders have told us over and over again that the smashing of the Axis will be a slow job, a dangerous job, a bloody job.

Let these guys start it! Buy your Invasion Bonds Today. Sponsored and Endorsed in Behalf of the Men in Our Armed Forces by the Lowell Ledger.

Ora Jeanne Schneider Weds Cpl. James De Beck

Miss Ora Jeanne Schneider and Cpl. James G. DeBeck, both of Grand Rapids, were united in marriage in a simple ceremony, at five o'clock, Monday, July 10, at San Jose, Calif., in Trinity Episcopal church, before the altar decorated with white gladioli and stock, and illuminated by lighted white tapers. Dr. Mark Rifenbark officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a white chiffon gown with shirred bodice and long bouffant skirt. The finger tip veil was edged with lace and held in place with a beaded coronet. Real orange blossoms were worn in her hair and she carried a French bouquet of pink and white rose buds.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Vinton H. Mathews, formerly of Lowell. Mrs. Vinton H. Mathews, Jr., attended the bride as matron of honor, and John Jamison of the U. S. Navy attended the groom. Mrs. Mathews wore a pale blue chiffon gown, and carried a bouquet similar to the bride's.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Marion A. Schneider, attended in a yellow linen frock with matching collar hat and black accessories. Mrs. Vinton H. Mathews, Sr., acted as mother by proxy for the groom and was attired in a figured and white jersey frock with a black hat. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, Sr. The table was beautifully decorated with old silver service and tiered wedding cake.

The new Mrs. James DeBeck, is the daughter of the late William H. Schneider and Marion Schneider, who were well known for many years in Lowell. The bride is a graduate of Ottawa High School and the University of Grand Rapids.

Cpl. DeBeck is also a graduate of Ottawa High School, and is the son of the late James DeBeck and Mrs. Heurietta DeBeck, who is associated with the Association of the Blind in Grand Rapids. He entered the Armed Service a year ago in January and has been stationed the past nine months in Camp Pinedale, near Fresno, California, in the Signal Aviation Corps.

Following the reception, the couple departed for Fresno, where they will make their home for the present.

Mrs. Schneider, who is affiliated with the American National Red Cross, and who has been in Nebraska the past nine months, accompanied her daughter across country to San Jose. They have been the guests of the Matthews.

SPORTS

By Forrest Beck
Head of Trade Sports Chairman

July 19th, thirty-five boys enjoyed a picnic lunch and a period of games and swimming at Crooked Lake, under the direction of C. Lewis, assisted by Don Stocum and Larry Schneider.

This Friday, July 21, the boys were to meet at Recreation Park at 10 o'clock and hike to Pillsbury Park where they will have their lunch and participate in a play festival with Mr. Lewis.

Last Tuesday at 6:20, the Cardinals defeated the West Side Yanks, 16 to 3, with Schneider the winning pitcher and Washburn the loser. Washburn although losing played a nice fielding game.

At 7:30 the South Side Lions defeated the East Side Tigers, 10 to 3 with Miller the winning pitcher and Collins the loser.

dealers) the buyer and seller must jointly fill out a "certificate of transfer" which the purchaser must turn in to his local war price and rationing board at or before the time he applies for gasoline rationing coupons for the car purchased.

Q. What information must be furnished on this certificate?

A. Complete name and address of the buyer and seller; a complete description of the car; the selling price broken down to show the base price and the dollars-and-cents allowance for the extra equipment (if any); and a certification by both the buyer and seller that the actual selling price does not exceed the maximum price permitted by the used car regulation.

Q. Must dealers display the maximum prices of used cars offered for sale?

A. Yes. A tag must be displayed in a conspicuous place on each car offered for sale.

Q. Will ceiling prices established by the used car regulation change at any time?

A. Yes. On Jan. 10, 1945, and each six months thereafter, established prices for cars and extra equipment will automatically be revised.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Fourteen young people enjoyed a swimming party at Cascade Country Club Tuesday afternoon, as guests of Marjory McQueen, after which they returned to Royce Story's home for a winter roast at their outdoor fireplace, followed by the movies at the Strand. Besides the above mentioned, other guests were Anita Doyle, Jean Freymuth, Jo Reynolds, Carol Kroff, Dorothy Alexander, Dolores Klesch, Richard Doyle, Darle Rickert, Ronald Watta, Douglas Wingler, Berwyn Klooterman and Roger Tusken.

Mrs. Will Moore entertained a company of eighteen Sunday at her home in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clark Morse and little daughter of Jefferson City, Mo., who have been spending two months with relatives in Lowell and Kalamazoo. A potluck dinner was enjoyed and a pleasant day was spent by all. Mrs. Morse and daughter will return to Jefferson City next week.

Mrs. Dale Morgan of Grand Rapids entertained for her cousin, Mrs. Ada Pegler Felling of San Francisco, Calif., with a dinner last Friday evening at Martin's, Comstock Park. This is Mrs. Felling's first visit to Michigan in 35 years. Other guests were Mrs. Alfred Plumb, Mrs. Carroll Perkins and Miss LaVande Moore of Grand Rapids and Mrs. M. N. Henry of Lowell. Mrs. Henry, who was a house guest of the Plumbs over Friday and Saturday, entertained the same group on Saturday afternoon with a theatre party at the opera, "Roberta."

On Tuesday they were guests of Mrs. Plumb at a luncheon at the Pentecostal Club.

In an open letter to Coal Dealers, W.P.B. points out that in 1941, '42 and '43 when the government had requested summer coal buying, an adequate mine supply of bituminous coal was in prospect. Now the position is far more serious. They predict a shortage for the coming year between coal production and requirements of at least 25,000,000 tons.

Two American soldiers in Egypt lived for months on dehydrated beef, dehydrated milk, dehydrated butter and vegetables. Visiting a Cairo museum they saw their first mummy.

"This is going too far," said one. "Now they're dehydrating women."—Wichita, Kansas, Democrat. "Live, above all things live, don't simply exist."
