With Ernie Pyle at the Front Trapped 8 Days in Plane, Ace Lives and Grips Courageous Allies See War at Its Worst and Carry On

Editorial SURPLUS WAR PRODUCTION The national houses of representatives has agreed to a proposal that the proceeds from the sale of surplus war property be assigned to a fund to reduce the war debt.

From the wisp and coils of telephone wire, hanging broken from high poles and entwining across the roads. From the gray, burst-purposed rims of the shell craters in the gravelly road.

PERMITMENT AND IMPROVEMENT (According to W. E. Robertson) Doctors report that in spite of rationing, people are still eating and drinking too much for their health's sake.

From the square blocks of bulleting stone still scattered in the village streets, and from the shattered rocks in the roads, still uncrushed by traffic.

Nothing but stern terms will do for Germany if the future peace of Europe is to be safeguarded. That seems to be the unavoidable conclusion reached by Albert Gleizer, writing for the Christian Science Monitor, after three years' experience in German internment camps, based on observation of actual Nazi behavior in the treatment of Jewish and Polish prisoners.

It took us almost an hour to get him out. We don't know whether he was still alive or dead. He was a little past 12 when he was first elected. I am wondering if the United States has any one man capable of holding that office.

Dear Editor: Many people back home have written me and frequently make a reference to the fact that when this war is over, they are going to go on the biggest drunk in their lives. I am not a Prohibitionist by a long shot, but wouldn't it be better for the fellows to write home and suggest to the folks that when the day of victory comes they kneel down and thank God that the conflict is over and that the lives of many have been spared?

It was a little past 12 when he was first elected. I am wondering if the United States has any one man capable of holding that office. The sharp-tailed grouse is a comparative newcomer to Michigan and is still in process of extending its range.

Keep On Backing the Attack With Bonds

Everybody checked the doctor who had arrived said, "Not the best possibility. You were sealed in there and it took men with tools half an hour to make an opening. And your leg was broken and your foot was pinned there. No, you haven't been set."

Ledger Entries WOUNDED RECOVERER CLOSE TO 90 per cent of the men wounded in the war have recovered, and about two thirds of them have returned to military duty.

THE HOME TOWN FOLKS PEOPLE SOMETIMES complain that they do not know many of their neighbors or townsmen. They believe they walk up and down the streets, not many of the faces they see are familiar to them.

HOME TOWN THOUGHTS The people who give hearty cooperation and effort to the good cause of their home town, get a lot of cooperation and help when they need it.

FREE ENTERPRISE AND STANDARD OF LIVING IT WAS, BELIEVE, IN 1908 that Chrysler, then an Iowa railroad superintendent, bought his first automobile, for which he paid more than $5,000.

MI WOUNDED NEVER GIVE UP THE days passed. He thirsted terribly. He slept some; part of the time he was unconscious; part of the time he undoubtedly was delirious. But he never gave up hope.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS... Judge, would you mind telling Charlie here what you told me the other night walking home from lodge. I can't wait it just the way you did. Tim. Here's what I told him, Charlie. There's no such thing as a voter's duty. A voter's duty is to vote for the man who will keep the country together.

Plumbing, Heating, Sheet Metal Work. RAY H. COVETT The Plumber. Naturalists report that wild animals, such as seals, which live in the most thickly populated country are much harder to tame than similar species from remote regions where they have had little experience with man.

When calling War-busy Centers. Sometimes you may hear the Long Distance operator say "Please limit your call to 5 minutes." That's to let you know the lines are crowded and to help more calls get through quicker.
