She filled her life with summertime As leaves partake of rain and sun. And gave her world the summer's

Before her winter had begun. And as we treasure flowers we've pressed

Or autumn leaves as souvenirs, So will our memories of her Be deeply cherished through the years.

In loving memory of our dear son, on Okinawa:

From our happy home and circle God has taken one we loved; He is borne from sin and sorrow To a nobler rest above. No one knows how much we miss

None but aching hearts can tell. Lost on earth but found in heaven Jesus doeth all things well.
