

War Chest Drive To Be Continued One Week Longer

The people of Kent County are lagging in their gifts to the National and Community War Funds and for that reason it has become necessary to extend the War Chest drive for another week, ending Thursday November 1.

We still have millions of men in service throughout the world, many of them from your own community and we must not let them down, in fact they need both your moral and financial support as much as ever. It is sincerely hoped that many who have already made their contribution will find it possible to make a second gift and that those who have not yet subscribed will give as generously as possible during the week ending November 1. Up to Tuesday noon Kent County was short nearly 50 percent of its goal.

You give only once a year to all the great causes combined in your Community War Fund, which in turn, supports all the 21 agencies of the National War Fund.

Right in your own community, there are troubles that have not ended. Family service, hospital and clinical services, visits by trained nurses, care for children right here in your own community, are still needed. These services are rendered by your own local agencies. They too, need your help.

National War Fund Dollar

C. H. Runciman, who is co-chairman with Hugh M. Blacklock for the Community War Chest for the Kent County area outside of the city of Grand Rapids, states that the National War Fund dollar, for use from October 1, 1945 to October 1, 1946, will be spent according to the following breakdown: USO, 54c; United Seaman's Service, 4c; War Prisoners Aid, 2c; Foreign Relief and Refugee Aid, 35c; Emergency Fund, 4c; Administrative Expenses, 1c; Total, $1.

Mr. Runciman and Mr. Blacklock, co-chairmen, have notified all regional chairmen of the extension of time to Thursday, November 1 and urge them to reassign their territories in order to bring their respective quotas to the 100 percent mark.

TB Seal Committee To Meet October 30

The Kent County Christmas Seal committee of 100 is rapidly being organized by the Grand Rapids Anti-tuberculosis Society to help with its 39th Annual sale of these well known health stickers, according to Walter H. Kurdelaki, the society's president. It will be composed of delegates from that many parent-teacher associations and clubs of all types and its function will be entirely educational. This campaign is conducted locally chiefly through the mails.

Reservations are coming into society headquarters every day for committee members who will attend the first dinner meeting on October 30 at 6:15 p. m. in Park Congregational Church. Instructions will be given and an interesting program is being planned for this first and only meeting. J. Vincent Sherwood, M. D., new medical director at Sunshine Sanatorium will give a short address on "Modern Methods in Treating Tuberculosis."

Organizations seem especially glad to participate this year because the funds raised will be used to purchase a mobile x-ray unit so tuberculosis may be found early in industries, schools and communities through surveys according to Mr. Kurdelaki. Dinner reservations may be made by calling Grand Rapids 85428 and must be in to society headquarters before October 27.

OPA News Digest

Used Passenger Automobiles

Beginning October 22, sellers of used passenger automobiles, rather than purchasers, will be required to file certificates of transfer with local OPA War Price and Rationing Boards. The filing of this certificate is necessary in order to keep a check on the price of used cars. Certificate blanks may be obtained at the local board.

"OPA Price"

A large part of the merchandise sold in retail stores will soon carry the words "OPA Price" instead of "Ceiling Price." To the shopper, the new wording will mean that the article is being sold at an OPA approved price. Retailers may use the words "OPA Price" for goods priced exactly at the ceiling, or below the ceiling. As a result, they will be relieved of the burden of marking many articles with two statements of prices, one to show the OPA ceiling, and the other to show the store's actual selling price. The new wording will be found on textiles, apparel, furniture, and (continued on page 8)

Bill Fryover Says That Japanese Are A Peculiar People

The Ledger is in receipt of a letter from Wm. E. Fryover, Ph. M. 2-c who served for a time with the 6th Medical Bn of the 6th Marine Corps. Wm. received special training on Guadalcanal from Nov. 1944 to March 1945 when his division left for Okinawa. Wm. states there was little laboratory work during that campaign as most patients were evacuated as quickly as possible from the hospital to hospital ships so he helped out in places where help was urgently needed, in the dressing rooms or on the road, giving plasma, penicillin, sulfa and tetanus toxoid.

At one time Bill's outfit worked 48 hours without sleep, taking tablets to keep awake until other medical companies "loaned" several of their doctors and corpsmen so they could get a much needed rest.

Later, on being transferred to the 4th Marine Regiment, he had his first close contact with Japs firing from thousands of caves which they had dug. Equipment of the medical corpsmen on the lines was carried in a bag about the size of the case in which a gas mask is carried. This contained everything from an emergency minor surgery kit to a bottle of aspirin. These men tended the wounded in foxholes, shell holes or behind a stone wall and were on their own as there were no doctors.

Bill's division had just completed preparations for a really critical period expected on a Pacific island when word came that the Japs had had enough. There was little celebrating as the men had to be aboard ship in three days, headed for Tokyo. The ship docked August 30. His outfit is now at Yokosuka Naval Base, the company being placed on M. P. duty. This Base has been used as a training center similar to Great Lakes, Ill.

Bill writes that the Japanese are peculiar. Their private lives could easily be compared to the feudal system of 600 years ago, while their industries are very modern. There is no sewage disposal, heating or cooking facilities comparable to any in the U. S. A., but everything, connected with the Government is modern. Buildings, schools and hospitals. The women have a habit of covering their mouths with a handkerchief whenever they meet an American soldier. Presumably to hide the gold in their teeth. Most Japs believe our soldiers knock out gold for souvenirs.

Bill concludes by saying how much he has enjoyed the Ledger and feels he knows each change that has been made in "the old home town".

Bona's wife, the former Lillian Fase, resides at Ada and his mother, Mrs. Ernest Fryover lives just east of Lowell on M-21.

Lowell Victor 7-6 Over Rockford Team

By Forrest Buck
Board of Trade Sports Chairman

After a touchdown famine the wearers of the Red and White can once more raise their voices in the Victors Chant, as for the first time this season the Redbirds played the kind of football of which they are capable. The fact that victory was achieved over Rockford, a rival of long standing, and their first defeat at home in two seasons gives the local partisans further cause for rejoicing.

With but two minutes remaining to halftime, Bishop smashed over from the five yard line, and later booted the all important point after the touchdown to give Lowell a 7 to 0 lead at the half-way mark.

Rockford came roaring back in the second half. A completed pass gave the rams a first down on the Lowell twenty. Fanchett on a spinner play carried to the four and then to the one, from which point Peck scored on a quarterback sneak. Nickols failed on a plunge for the conversion.

Not having given the large gathering of fans enough cause for groans and rejoicing, action continued to the last play of the thrill packed contest. Lowell found itself on its own two-yard line with only seconds remaining to play. A line play intended to freeze the ball, mis-fired and Rockford merged from the meles with possession of the pigskin. An extra timeout cost the Rams five yards and time remained for only one play. With the game riding on the outcome Fanchett dropped back for an attempted field goal. The kick started straight for the uprights, but veered at height and the game was over.

The Lowell line played its best for the season, with Doyle turning in a fine game. The whole team deserves credit, as the contest was won on a team basis and not on individual performance.

Too much publicity has made Rockford and its stars a target for every team on its schedule. The Rams have a good team and will yet be heard from in Grand Valley circles.

This week because of a teachers institute the game at Godwin was played on Thursday. The suburbanites nearly upset Grandville and will be no easy touch for the Redbirds, who still have a chance for a high position in league standings.

The next home game will be East Grand Rapids under the lights, November 2.

VANDALISM IS OUT

Hallowe'en is a holiday of the imagination and a frolic festival it used to be, when folk departed themselves in costumes fantastic to celebrate the night of ghosts and goblins. Police in cities over the land will claim that the true purpose of gaiety and pleasure of this holiday, has been replaced by vandalism and down-right meanness. The capers and cutting-up of old days has developed, in many instances, into a destruction of property and a reign of hoodlumism. All Hallow's Eve, according to ancient belief, was a visitation to earth of the good and bad spirits. Perhaps this type of celebrating is in memory of the evil spirits? But we are not apt to look on such actions in Lowell with favor. We would just like to catch a little evil spirit letting air out of tires or soaping store windows, and perhaps we could persuade him that it is possible to get some real fun and pleasure, of an innocent nature, out of Hallowe'en.

Statistics reveal that only 22 out of every 100 persons at the age of 35 are free of infected teeth. But bad teeth don't stop at being just bad teeth. The medical world is of the opinion that the majority of human ills have their origin in oral cavities.

LOWELL'S FOREST GROWS

Lowell forests were augmented last Thursday by the planting of 7,000 pine seedlings by the High School Ag. class under the direction of Anthony Rapes. County Agent K. K. Vining was present for the occasion. During the past 15 years so many trees have been planted here that it is quite difficult to estimate the number, but it goes into many thousands and is truly a valuable contribution to conservation in this community.

Bedbugs Will Vanish If DDT Is Applied

DDT, the new insecticide, sounds the death knell for bedbugs, Heriman King, extension entomologist at Michigan State College, reports.

A 5 percent spray or a 10 percent powder, properly applied, should put a speedy end to any troubles caused by these insects, he maintains.

Apply the spray or powder to mattresses, beds, and chicken-houses and those places will remain free of bedbugs for six months or more.

The 5 percent spray can be prepared by mixing 7 ounces of technical grade DDT and 1 gallon of kerosene. About three liquid ounces is needed for each full size bed, and is enough for a thorough and careful treatment of the mattress, pillows, springs, and joints in the frame. The spray should be forced into each joint of the bed and both sides of the mattress should be lightly treated. After a few hours of drying, the bed may be made up and used without fear of injury to the occupant. One ounce of 10 percent DDT powder will also treat a bed.

For additional insurance against the bugs, treat cracks in the room between the mopboards and walls. Use a mask while spraying to prevent breathing the fumes, and don't get the oil spray near a fire.

Up and Down Kent County Roads

By K. K. Vining, Kent County Agricultural Agent

Five Kent County schools are making fall plantings of trees—namely—Kent City, Cedar Springs, Rockford and Lowell. Red and White Pine are being planted for the most part. It's the first time we have made fall plantings in our school forests.

The soil is such that fall planting can be made. A total of 30,000 trees will be planted.

Sand Lake and Caledonia High schools have been interested in a school forest but to date no land has been available for the same. Any one knowing where non-agricultural land can be obtained near these schools can let the county agent's office know its location.

Corn shredders will soon be in operation and we suppose there will be the usual number of accidents from its use. Seems like the manufacturers of this machine could devise some safety measure that would materially lessen its dangers. This machine with a buzz saw has always seemed to be about the two worst accidents producers on a farm, next perhaps to "the gentle bull". Farm safety work can start this fall with all care possible around the corn sheller.

Checking over last months report of cow testing associations we couldn't help but notice some farm names that have been there for a long time. In the North Kent Association Carl and Lynn Bradford have tested continuously since 1920 or 1921. Testers came and left but these Bradford brothers kept their testing records. In the South Kent Association the name of Arthur Edison has been on the testing rolls longer than this County Agent can remember. Guess it's true we know the Edison's started testing Jerseys in 1907 or 1908. Kent and Ottawa had the second Cow Testing Association in the state and the Edison herd has been in since that time. In the Caledonia area E. W. Ruehs and Paul Ruehs have been testing their Guernseys since 1922. Other herds have tested for many years but we don't believe there are any other records quite so long.

We called attention a couple of weeks ago to the need of saving all legume seed possible in this state. Information coming to

So. Boston Grange Community Fair Saturday Night

Plans are well under way for the Community Fair which is to be held on Saturday evening October 27th. It is desired that all Exhibits be there ready for entry and classification by 7:30. Judging will begin at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Brown, the Home Demonstration Leader of Kent County, will judge all baked and canned goods. Alden Smith of Berlin Center, Webster Lowry of Danby and County Agricultural Agent, A. A. Griffith will judge grains, vegetables, fruits, potatoes, eggs and nuts. These entries are open to the public and it is hoped that there will be a large display. All exhibits above mentioned become the property of the grange and will be sold at Auction by Allan Haskins of Ionia. The proceeds will be used for sending Christmas packages to the service men of the community.

The needlework department, of which Mrs. Thelma McClure has charge, will only have articles for display, no prizes offered and articles remain the property of the owner, unless the owner wishes to donate. The same rule applies to the Antique, Curio and War souvenir display. Mrs. Alma Harker will have charge of this display. Mrs. Evelyn Parsons has charge of the fish pond and wishes the ladies to bring articles for it.

A correction is being made in the canned goods exhibit, individual cans will be accepted instead of groups of four.

In the line of baked goods classes will consist of white and dark bread, biscuits, open crust and 2 crust pies, white and dark cookies, cake sugar, white and dark, syrup or honey, white or dark, and fried cakes. Come and bring your friends and have a game with these at South Boston on Saturday evening October 27.

CRICKETS

A cricket is a six-legged insect, which, if it be male, scrapes its two wings together to make a noise purely its own personal trademark. Some fool crickets sing in tones melodic while others who prefer quiet, find the notes sour and admire the female cricket for her characteristic of keeping still and going about her business. A Lowell man says this is not the usual female characteristic. The cricket should stay in the open but is apt to get into the clothes closet and make like a moth! A cricket on the hearth may be a lucky sign but regarding this, also. China used to hold cricket fights and place bets on the favorite, which would lead us to believe the Chinese don't cherish the crickets songs, either. But crickets are not easily scratched out and when spring comes round they will introduce the new members of their noisome group and give added zest to the poet or the practical housewife who still remembers the damage to a good wool suit.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

People usually have greater possibilities of personal development than they realize. Many of them are reluctant to take on new responsibilities and new tasks, and they cling to what is old and familiar. If they felt willing to take on these new opportunities, they would find their powers growing as they had to meet new situations and decide new questions.

There is a great deal of personal development in working with the home town organizations. People sometimes decline to take some office or responsibility in these societies, because they feel they lack the time, or doubt their own ability to carry on these new tasks. If they would assume these duties, they would find their powers and ability growing as they exercised leadership and had new experiences.

THE OPEN FIRE

When lumber and brick again take shape into American homes, most of them will have a place for a family hearth. The man who has one is fortunate, whatever he pays for his cord of wood. Open fires are a delight even though they mean extra labor in cleaning and cost extra to maintain. Luxuries are generally so, and a hearthfire is a luxury. Ask the man who owns one. In the fall before the furnace is started in the spring when the central heating plant is shut off, that fire place is a sensible construction as well as a family joy. Something in watching live coals and frelight brings a peace and contentment we don't explain. It is an appreciation that goes back to the time of the Greeks and Romans when they named a special goddess just to commemorate the hearthfire. This is another one of the glories of plain living, with no service charge if you have your own woods.

If you grow mint in your garden, boil a spray of it for twenty minutes in your apple jelly, then remove. It will flavor but not color the jelly. Use vegetable coloring to give mint jelly its green color.

INSECT PESTS

Insect pests keep the farmer on the jump most of the year. There are only 80,000 different insects in the United States. Of course they are not all destructive. Many are beneficial. But the destructive ones only are costly. The codlin moth cause ten million dollars a year damage. Of 73 of our worst insects in this country, 37 have been introduced from foreign fields. The European corn borer, cotton ball weevil, San Jose scale, Gypsy and brown tail moth, oriental peach moth and Japanese beetle are a few of the worst and the entomologist tell us that some of our choice pests have invaded other lands.

SUGAR STILL SHORT

The supply of sugar in this country is reported to be increasing slowly, but no marked increase in the present short rations is in sight for the rest of this year. It is also predicted that the control on sugar will be one of the last to be dropped. Predictions are indefinite as to the time when the country will get back to a normal pre-war status on this essential.

Blessings brighten as they take their flight, and the American people did not realize in the pre-war days what a comfort it was to get all the sugar they wanted. We have been able to get along on a short supply while the war lasted, but the housewife and the home folks will cheer when they can get all they want again.

BUSINESS GROWTH

The rate at which a business grows is apt to be determined largely by the amount of advertising it does. If it advertises somewhat freely, the service which it offers becomes widely known, and customers are likely to come fast. Many concerns have grown into important and profitable affairs in a relatively short time, because they constantly told the public what they were selling. People became interested in their offerings, and came to see. They bought not merely the advertised goods, but lines that were not advertised.

Advertising interests the people very keenly, as it gives them a good idea of the sort of thing that people are buying, and an idea also of the prices they should pay.

No More Baby Stuff for Me— Here Comes Some Real Feed!

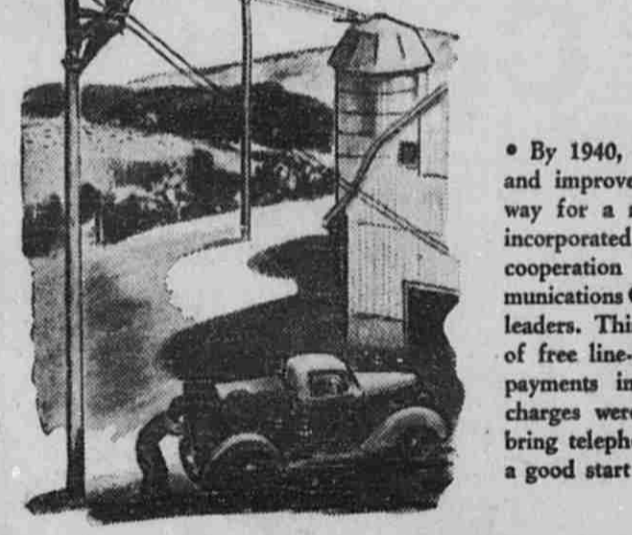

Let Ma sleep, fellas. Here comes some more of that swell pig meal. Boy, it's a he-man feed that's got everything we need to grow up in a hurry. We know it by the name of KING'S PIG RATION

MAPES DISTRICT Mrs. M. M. ROWLAND The Misses Betty and Peggy Bresina of Grand Rapids spent the week-end as guests of Mr. Thomas Rathburn at the S. M. Rowland home. They called on Mrs. Sam Myers Sunday afternoon.

This is the plan that we began in 1940

By 1940, Michigan Bell's rural expansion and improvement program had been under way for a number of years. That year we incorporated it into a plan worked out in cooperation with the Michigan Rural Communications Committee...

This is the war that delayed the plan that we began in 1940

For nearly four years, our fighting forces took almost all of the nation's telephone manufacturing output. Nevertheless, we installed all war-essential rural telephones. Today there are more farm telephones in Michigan than ever before.

This is when we expect to resume the plan that we began in 1940

Just as soon as trained manpower, materials and manufacturing facilities are available in sufficient quantities, we will push forward our $13,500,000 5-year, rural expansion and improvement program. We have important new devices and construction methods which will make telephone service available to more rural folks.

To The Parents of This Community— Will You Read This in the Interest of Your Family?

We all know the value of Christian education. Remove the Christian Churches from any community, and no one wants to live there. Disinquency accompanies disinterest in Christian training.

The Sunday Bible School cannot replace home teaching. No one can substitute for Father and Mother and their influence upon children.

But the Sunday School does what no one else can do—it teaches groups of children and young people all the main principles of Christian living.

Community War Chest Drive Extended to Thursday, November 1

America heard her cry

Of what the Nazis left of Holland—the half that was still above water—came a desperate cry for help last Spring.

The Germans had taken everything—even the blankets off the sick in hospitals. They took so much that 125 children a week were dying of hunger in Rotterdam alone.

Dutch doctors needed a new drug, called protein hydrolysate, which, when mixed with blood plasma and injected into the veins, could keep these children alive until they were strong enough to eat.

They sent a desperate cable to American Relief For Holland. Within 48 hours, supplies in this country and England were bought, loaded into a transport plane and sent on their way.

And the light came back into thousands of children's eyes. And into the eyes of many other people.

For, in the midst of their despair, standing in the rubble of their broken cities, this gift from America gave the Dutch new faith in mankind. It is desperately important—to their future peace and to ours—that they should have such faith.

Restoring hope to thousands who have been beaten down by the Nazis and the Japs is the job of the various allied war-relief agencies that are members of the National War Fund.

When you give to this cause through your Community War Fund, your hand doesn't stop here. It helps hand longly G.I.'s a laugh, by sending U.S.O. entertainers overseas. It provides foster parents for the children of service men whose homes have been disrupted by war conditions, sends a visiting nurse to a new baby. In one way or another, it reaches into the lives of millions.

When an American from your Community War Fund calls to your home, let your dollars express your belief in democracy—and help others to believe in the American way.

Give generously to Your Community War Fund

house furnishings household appliances and other reconversion goods. . . in fact, most of the things that consumers buy, except food.

Bed Linens

Consumer prices on sheets and pillow cases will show an increase as a result of increases in prices granted at the retail and wholesale level to reflect higher prices required at the manufacturing level by the Bankhead Amendment to Stabilization Act for 1944. This amendment has compelled OPA to raise manufacturer prices for sheets and pillow cases on two different occasions, but both increases were absorbed by retailers and wholesalers. The latest increases to manufacturers can not be absorbed by the distributors and still allows them a fair return for their services. So consumers must pay for the increase in price.

Plain-Talk-Tires

There will be a substantial shortage of new passenger tires for many months in the future. While this shortage remains most acute, rationing must be continued. Production of new tires will fall far short of the total number needed during the next 4 months.

Builders Hardware Increased

An increase of 10 per cent in ceiling prices for low and medium priced builders-hardware items essential in low-cost residential construction has been granted to encourage broader production of such items. The higher prices are authorized for steel hinges and butt hinges, and for locks and other builders-hardware items made of cast iron and steel and a few items of wrought brass. Even with the higher prices, persons building or repairing homes will benefit. OPA points out, for without increased production buyers would be required to buy a higher-priced wrought brass and cast brass hardware.

Churchill Hopped In

Winston Churchill hailed a cab and told the cabbie to drive him to Broadcasting Station BBC, where he was scheduled to make a speech to the world.

"Sorry, sir," said the driver who failed to recognize him, "ye'll have to get yourself another cab. I can't go that far."

Mr. Churchill, surprised, asked the cabbie why his field of operations was so limited.

"It ain't ordinarily, sir," apologized the driver, "but ye see, sir, Mr. Churchill is broadcasting in an hour, and I wants to get 'ome to 'ear 'im."

Mr. Churchill was so pleased that he pulled out a pound note and handed it to the driver, who took one look at it and said, "Hop in, sir, I'll wait with Mr. Churchill."

Members of the British house of commons receive 600 pounds a year or about $2,424. The English pound is worth approximately $4.04 in American money. They are also given traveling facilities. Members of the house of lords are unpaid.

Low School Notes

Early this fall the boys of Lowe school made a new ball diamond and a much needed back stop. Our teacher this year is Mrs. Watts of Alto.

We are very happy to have our school room redecorated and we have a sand table. The school board put up new swings for the little folks.

The enrollment of Lowe school is fourteen. For the first six weeks we have three pupils in our school without tardy or absent marks. They are Donald Sterick, sixth grade, Constance Barnhart, third grade and Duane Fox, first grade.

Don Fox and Johnnie Kowalek have been the leaders of our Citizenship Club which we organized at the beginning of the year.—William Howard, Gerald Posthumus, Reporters.

WOMEN'S CLUB

The Lowell Women's Club met at the City Hall on Oct. 17. Following regular business a representative from the Grand Rapids Safety Council showed an interesting film and gave a talk about prevention of accidents in the home.

Each year in the United States thirty-thousand deaths are caused by falls. Wet floors, toys and loose rugs should be avoided to reduce the hazards of home accidents. Mrs. Bert Purchase then gave a report of the Kent County Federation held on Oct. 8 in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. George Hale was program chairman and Mrs. Beulah Duell pleased the club with 2 vocal solos, "A Winter Lullaby" and "Shadow March." Tea was served.

The next club meeting will be held on Nov. 19, at 8 o'clock in the Congregational Church. At this time the St. Cecilia chorus of Grand Rapids will give a recital and a silver offering will be taken. Please note the change in date.

THE MYSTERY OF THE VANISHING LADY

A young, beautiful widow smiled good night to her escort, then vanished utterly. Despite 17 years of patient, exhaustive investigation, police have failed to solve the mystery of her fate. The story of this "vanishing lady" is detailed in this Sunday's (Oct. 28) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

SENIOR FARM BUREAU

At our October 19 meeting of the Sr. Farm Bureau a very interesting and lively discussion was carried on as to the possibilities of organizing a Farm Bureau store at Lowell, and as a result we decided to ask Mr. Shultz out for our next meeting in order to understand it better.

We also presented a motion to have State Fair moved to a more central location.

Don't forget these two coming dates, October 30 at Fountain St. Baptist church at 7:00 Tuesday evening, the Sr. Farm Bureau banquet, and on November 2 there is to be held at Portland an officers training class.

Wish more of our many members would come out and help us make our meeting a bigger success. Next one will be held at the Grange Hall on the third Friday night in November. Potluck lunch and bring own table service. We have good eats and lots of fun so let's all join in and everybody come.
