

Young men and boys who seek some form of athletic success, whether in amateur or professional games, understand that physical health and vigor are a very important factor in playing those games. If a youth is going to do well in those contests, he needs a very good physical development and plenty of power for vigorous action.

It takes a great supply of energy for a fellow to run on the football field, with his opponents trying to catch and tackle him. He needs similar vigor to do the swift and powerful work of football, baseball, tennis, or almost any outdoor games.

The athlete who is in first class physical condition can think quickly in emergencies, his mind is extremely alert, and his eye is very quick to see a suddenly developing situation, and his power to act adequately and correctly is greatly increased.

BE ROUGH ON RATS

Who doesn't make an attempt to keep moths from destroying our property? We don't like mice, either, and do something about it, but too often we forget to keep watch from collecting, especially in attics, and overlook the rat menace. With grain such an important issue, we learn that rats are destroying it at the rate of 200 million bushels a year. It amounts to $300 to $400 million, at present prices. This is the greatest amount of money we have lost through destruction by rats in our entire history. War on rats around Lowell will be a project to receive the full support of every resident.

HOME TOWN THOUGHTS

When new residents come into the community, there should be a general disposition to welcome them to introduce them and invite them to join the home town organizations and activities.

One of the most interesting things in the newspaper is the story of business developments, of bargains and special opportunities to buy, as told in the advertising.

Charles B. Gunn Passes at Age 79

Charles B. Gunn was born August 7, 1868 and died November 5, 1947, at the age of 79 years.

Mr. Gunn operated a bakery in Clarksville for a number of years and later did painting and decorating in Lowell.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Bagole, of California; one son, Arthur Gunn, of Kalamazoo; and three step-sons, Lester Scott, of Danville, Cleon Scott, of Algonac and Bert Scott, of Detroit.

Mr. Gunn was a good friend to all and a respected citizen. The community joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Funeral services will be held Friday at the Congregational church, the Rev. Norman Woon officiating. Burial will be in Clarksville cemetery.

Lowell Boy Scouts Are Preparing for Next Scout-O-Rama

No wonder that the word Scout-O-Rama is a magic word in the scouting world, suggesting action and color and the coming together of a great crowd of people to learn more of what scouting is and how it works.

It is little wonder that more than 3000 boys and men—women too—in Kent County have already circled the date of Saturday, December 13 on their calendars, for this is the date of the annual Scout-O-Rama, sponsored by the Grand Rapids Lions Club to be held in the Civic Auditorium on Saturday evening, December 13. They're all going to have a part in the double-barrelled show which is expected to draw many thousands of spectators.

The Scout-O-Rama will consist of two parts. Scouts in a series of more than 100 booths on the basement level will demonstrate a large number of scouting activities beginning at 7 p. m. Then at 9 p. m. the entire main floor of the auditorium will be transformed into one great stage with two thousand boys taking part in a huge and colorful display of scoutcraft.

Troops and packs and senior units are already making their choices as to what their various exhibitions will be. They will range from automobiling to printing and from Drayton to Stamp collecting and will include approximately one hundred different subjects.

It's no wonder the scouts are happy and their parents are proud of them. They're all looking forward to their big show on December 13.

Football

Red Arrows Fall to East

After a mid-season letdown, the Lowell Red Arrows played spirited ball to hold East Grand Rapids to a 19-7 victory, at Recreation Park Friday night. The score does not indicate the closeness of the game. With a few breaks the Arrows could have emerged victors.

East grabbed a 7 to 0 lead early in the second period, however, Lowell drove to the visitors 11-yard line but were unable to push the ball over.

A pass, Collins to Bird, scored the only Arrow touchdown. Collins dropped, kicked the point to pull Lowell up to within six points of the game. A last quarter touchdown put the game on ice for East.

This week Friday Lowell closes the season when they journey to Grandville to play the Grandville Bulldogs.

Refreshments were along Halloween tradition.

Next meeting the last Friday evening in November with the Erwin Merriman family.

HUNTERS ADVISED TO LEAVE A DAY EARLIER

"Leave a day earlier on your hunting trip if you are going across the Straits of Mackinac by state ferry and thus prevent congestion at the ferry docks and waiting to get aboard the state ferries," Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler urges 1947's prospective deer hunting army.

Reliable Repair will be closed beginning Tuesday, Nov. 11, until Monday, Nov. 24.

Bank Closed Armistice Day

The State Savings Bank of Lowell will be closed on Armistice Day, Tuesday, Nov. 11, a legal holiday.

New Store Opens This Week Friday

G. R. (Butch) Thompson, on another page of this issue, announces the opening of his new meat market at 205 East Main street, Friday of this week, under the name of Thompson's Sanitary Market.

The new market is a definite improvement to Main Street, as Mr. Thompson has installed the newest equipment to handle meat and fish and will offer only U. S. inspected meats.

The Kent County Farm Bureau's annual meeting was held at the Lowell high school, Oct. 22. About 150 enjoyed the chicken barbecue. We were entertained by the Flat River Four.

All Hunters Should Be Courteous to Farmers

Preceded by the lines, "When hunters' guns sound like a battle, Lock up poultry, hogs, and cattle," the November Farm Journal suggests the following rules of etiquette for hunters:

Always ask a farmer's permission before you enter upon his land with a gun.

Respect "no hunting or trespassing" signs.

Leave your car in the farmer's barnyard.

Do not shoot near farm buildings or livestock.

Close gates when you use them. Always climb fences at a post.

Be extra careful with matches or burning tobacco, so as not to start a fire near buildings or in fields.

Pay the farmer as much respect as you would expect him to give you and your property.

Septic Tank Bulletin Is Now Available at County Agent's Office

A new bulletin which completely describes the operation as well as installation of a septic tank is now available at the county extension office, County Agricultural Agent E. K. Vining said today.

The bulletin "Septic Tanks" MSC Extension Bulletin 118, is a joint publication of the Michigan Department of Health and the Michigan State College Extension Service.

Recommendations made in the bulletin were gained from many years of study and observation of successful sewage disposal systems for rural and suburban areas.

Development of rural electrification and the rapid increase in the installation of water pressure systems and toilet facilities in farm and suburban homes, resort cottages and cabins emphasized the need for the information.

Complete plans for the building of a concrete septic tank are found in the bulletin, which is available without charge.

The county agent suggests that people who requested the bulletin when the Rural Progress Caravan visited the county during last winter should either call or receive their copy or write or phone and request that one be sent through the mail.

Mapes Com. Farm Bureau

The Mapes Community Farm Bureau will meet Nov. 14, at the McIntyre schoolhouse. Meeting will be called to order at 8:30. Bring sandwiches for yourselves and a dish to pass, also your own table service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker will be host and hostess. We hope that all the members will make a special effort to attend. If there are any that are not members that are interested in joining we would be glad to have you attend our meeting and learn more about the Farm Bureau. Now is the time for farmers to work together.—Claude Schmidt, reporter.

Kettering Offers Stock in New Utopian Company; Says World Does Not Need to Go to Pot

"I don't think we need to live in a crisis all the time, because the world isn't going to pot at all unless we want it to."

C. F. Kettering, retired vice-president of General Motors Corporation in charge of research and now its research consultant, was speaking.

The occasion was the 14th annual meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors' association in Detroit. News executives of daily newspapers throughout the United States were in attendance.

"Boss" Kettering's remarks, "The Day After Tomorrow," were an affirmative, positive reminder that Detroit's "know how" of making things through mass production was achieved only by competitive free enterprise and that we still live in "the golden age of opportunities unlimited."

"Since I have retired," he said, "I have organized several new companies. One is the Utopian Transportation Company, Limited, and that is a non-profit organization. I am trying to raise a few funds, and you can help in your little community, to give free transportation to these people who think this is a lousy country."

"The only thing about the Utopian Transportation Company that is limited is that the transportation is limited to one direction."

"The other company I have is a stock-selling company known as United States Preferred. I am trying to sell that, and I am getting along pretty well. Of course, a poor investor like myself doesn't understand a lot of things that are going on and apparently other people don't either."

"One of the things I don't understand is why this country is called upon to make up the deficits for all the cockeyed European ideologists, and stop our own work while

Here From Ecuador To Learn Milling

Mr. Isidro Ayora, whose home is in Quito, Ecuador, is spending a few weeks as the guest of the King Milling Company, studying the plan and operation of the mill, and conferring with the officials of the company as to the best procedures for the successful operation of a mill. Mr. Ayora and his father, Dr. Ayora, a former president of Ecuador are planning to build and operate a mill in Quito, and the Allis-Chalmers Company in Milwaukee, who will build the mill, suggested to them that they model their mill and operations as far as possible on the plans followed by the King Milling Company.

Mr. Ayora, who speaks excellent English, was educated in Ecuador. The family is at present living in Washington but are planning to return to Quito soon.

Twin babies, a boy and a girl were born to Mr. and Mrs. Elton Goodwin, of 217 Avery street, Lowell, on Tuesday morning of this week.

Fees Increased Under New Law 1947 Legislature Revised Charges for Many County Services

Many of the fees collected by county officers for services were increased by the 1947 legislature and the new charges are now in force.

Most of the changes in filing fees affect the County Clerk's office. Fees for filing certificates with the clerk have been doubled in most cases. Filing fees in many Circuit Court matters have been jumped about 25 percent.

A fee of $1 a year will be collected for handling temporary alimony and $5 a year for permanent alimony. This money goes to the county's general fund. Previously no fee has been collected for this service.

The fee for recording certificates of sale of tax lands has been increased from 25 to 50 cents; fee for nurse and trained attendant recording has been increased from 50 cents to $1; fees for physicians and surgeons' certificates from 50 cents to $1; fee for recording assumed and fictitious names from 25 cents to $1; fee for recording dentists' licenses from 50 cents to $1; fee for recording partnership certificates from 25 cents to $1.

Changes in court fees include the following: commencement of suits, from $3 to $4; applications for writs of mandamus, quo warranto, etc., except habeas corpus, from $3 to $4; transcripts from justice court, from $1 to $2; judgment by default or by consent without trial from $2 to $3; judgment against garnishee defendant upon justice's transcript, from $2 to $3; judgment on award from industrial accident board, from $2 to $3; pro confesse degree in chancery, from $2 to $3; decree upon answer or withdrawal of cross bill, from $2 to $3.

The legislature also changed the five-day waiting period on marriage licenses to include the date of issuance. Marriage licenses will expire if not used within 30 days.

There is only one change in filing fees for the register of deed's office. The fee for filing chattel mortgages has been increased from 25 to 50 cents. There is no charge for discharging the mortgages.

The Probate Court fee for letters, has been increased from $1.00 to $1.50 and the fee for drawing orders for publication will be 75 cents instead of 25 cents.

County Supervisors will now receive 20 cents for each dog listed to be taxed and the township or city treasurer will receive 15 cents for collecting each dog tax. The rate was formerly 10 cents for both the supervisor and the treasurer. Dog license fees remain the same, $1 for males and unsexed dogs and $2 for females.

The 1947 legislature also recognized the increased costs of newspaper production when they increased the folio rate to publishers of legal notices. The rate will now be $1.50 per folio instead of $1.20 for the first insertion; and 75 cents instead of 50 cents per folio for subsequent insertions.

Legion Sponsoring Armistice Dinner For All Veterans

A. H. Stormanz, Commander of the Clark-Ellis Post of the American Legion, announces a free dinner at the City Hall on Monday night, November 10, at seven o'clock, to which all veterans are cordially invited.

The committee, consisting of the Commander, L. E. Johnson, Bob Ellis, Louis Kingsley, Peter Mulder, Frank Stephens and W. W. Gumbert, will cook and serve the meal, and they will provide a program which will be of interest to all.

The Flat River Ford will sing, and Howard Wickert, principal of Creston High school in Grand Rapids, will give the address. A collection will be taken to help defray the actual costs of the dinner and program.

An effort is being made to reach each veteran in this area by mail, but any veteran who does not receive a card is invited. He is requested, however, to phone in his reservation to Mr. Gumbert by Friday of this week.

The Legion is making plans for a year of activity and there is much interest in the work and recreation that lies ahead.

Lowell Dusters	10	11	14
Lowell Moose	9	12	12

No relaxation for bowlers in the Lowell "Jacks" league as upsets are apparently the rule. The Sprayers, and Lowell Electric retained their lead by shading Krogers 2 out of 3 points. H. Goff's 605 turned the trick, though J. Abraham's 646 for Krogers kept it close. Superior Furniture 4 points, Lowell Moose 0, Ford and Foguth over the Topps made the difference here. The Lowell Bears took a neat destiny from the Lowell Dusters as steady bowling from the Dusters paid off, 3 points to 1 point. 1 point "Casey" Koert, the new milkman, failed to hit 600.

Navy Reenlistment Deadline Extended

Ex-Navy men now have until December 31 to re-enlist in their same or slightly reduced ratings. In addition to the twenty-five ratings opened recently, several more have been opened, according to Chief Marlin, local navy recruiter, who is at the Lowell post office every Wednesday from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Ex-Navy men are eligible to re-enlist in the open ratings providing they were discharged on or after August 15, 1945. No basic training is required if previous service totaled at least sixty days.

Information on other ratings open for re-enlistment may be obtained at the Lowell post office every Wednesday.

Some for the Books From the '47 Season

A Brighton hunter, surprised by a woodcock flying out of a thicket straight at him, forgot to shoot, batted the bird down with his gun barrel. On a marsh near Pinckney a flock of black duck filled the till then vacant sky at precisely two minutes past closing time, prompting one irate hunter to swear the birds "must be wearing wrist watches." A Keweenaw hunter tested the effect of bird shot on a bear with two cubs, had to climb a tree. It was a small tree, and the bear shook him out of it. As he ran for another, companions rescued him. A farmer living near Owosso lost a waller with $120 in it while hunting pheasants a year ago; hunting pheasants over the same ground this season his dog found it, with the money mouldy but still intact.

When Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson returned Monday from a visit to Greenville and opened their front door they saw a sight to behold. Everything topsy-turvy—sashes over everything, flower plants upset (and Mrs. A. is justly proud of her flowers). A squirrel had gotten in through the chimney, probably playing Santa Claus.

Mrs. Louise Rickett, 86, who resides at the Hosley house, suffered bruises about the back, leg and ankle about 7:30 last Saturday night. Mrs. Rickett was hit by a car as it was backing out of a driveway on E. Main.

The Halloween party for the kids of the community at Recreation Park last Thursday night was a great success. The high school band headed a parade through Main street on the way to the park. The kids inbbed over 50 gallons of cider and ate upwards of 800 friedcakes. The event was sponsored by the Board of Trade, the Rotary club and the American Legion. Deputy Frank Stephens says there were no police calls during the evening.

Advertising gives the public a great deal of useful information about the prices of things and about what is being generally used, and a constant study of these notices is very useful.

An older man married quite a young girl. While he was entertaining visitors there was confusion in the hall. "Don't be alarmed," the husband smiled calmly, "that's only my wife sliding down the banister!"

Donald O'Hara, executive secretary of Michigan Municipal Employees' Retirement System, appeared at the council meeting on Monday night to explain the municipal pension system. "Thirty-five municipalities of the state are now members," Mr. O'Hara told the council, "and find it a very satisfactory retirement plan." The initial cost to the village can be spread over a period of up to 40 years. The council authorized the necessary analysis of payrolls to set up a cost schedule.

Doctors now sit around television sets and watch operations in distant cities, watch great surgeons do miraculous jobs on human frames. If this gets to be a general practice, maybe families and friends can look in on operations, and forestall those long and tedious recitals about "my operation".

It's so easy to forget! No in the families of soldiers and sailors who did not return. There, time is no opiate and memories are vivid. But in other homes, it's so easy to forget. When the turbulence of war has ended and living again resumes a pleasant, routine pattern, it may, on first thought, seem unimportant to devote a day in reverent memory of our soldier dead. But think! It is to each of these that we owe our life and liberty today. If their sacrifice had been in vain, we would now be existing and laboring under the heel of tyrants. Not a record of our freedoms would appear in history books. So let us take time to reflect upon the price that others paid for the preservation of liberty for us. May we show our appreciation by reverent participation in the observance of Armistice Day. Lowell Granite Co. 300 E. Main Phone 30

The Sunday School LESSON by Paul Z. Hoornstra, M. A. Lowell Church of the Nazarene "The Church for the Whole Family"

"Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." (1 Corinthians 10:31). Regarding this, Dr. Hugh C. Bennett says, "The Apostle Paul's plea in this chapter is essentially directed at Christians' responsibility. In this he strikes at the heart of personal relationships. In any phase of life, when people seek for privilege and shun responsibility, their relationships are out of balance and someone's happiness is jeopardized. This is true, not only in Christian life, but in all of human experience."

There is but one rule-of-thumb that assures social tranquility: that is the Golden Text, "... do all to the glory of God." If we do this, we will be doing "... unto others as we would they would do unto us." What surer route to peace can there be than to do unto others as we would they would do unto us? What surer route to peace can there be than to do unto others as we would they would do unto us? How are you living?

English folks are taking their trouble on the chin. Foods are eaten and around mashed potatoes and boiled cabbage. Farm land must be really farmed or someone is found who will do the job.

SWEST BOWNE Mrs. E. T. ANDERSON Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowman and family of Dalton and Mrs. Mrs. Art Winstoff and son of Caladonia were Sunday dinner guests at the South Boston home.

The sale sponsored by the Grand Rapids Gleaners' Association a couple weeks back went well. $800 was the average price per head with total sales slightly under $10,000.

Someone told a story at the college last week about an equipment company that made a survey of the needs of a farm home. The farmer was told if he would buy equipment for the house his wife would have a car in 10 days more time. Many extra days would give his wife just that much more time to talk about his shortcomings.

E. W. Hacks of Caladonia almost got himself in an embarrassing position. He was helping get ready for the Gleaners' sale the day before it happened. That night the Kent County Farm Bureau had its annual meeting in Lowell. Eric was in the program. He asked Dick Macfie if he could put his clothes in his car. When Eric went to get his clothes they had disappeared. He didn't put them in Dick's car but in Arthur Edison's. Art had gone home. It looked like Eric might have to go to the Farm Bureau dinner in his overalls. But Edson was coming to the Farm Bureau meeting. Eric retrieved his clothes and attended the meeting with peace of mind.

A number of years ago we were in a group at Michigan State college discussing farm machinery. Ed H. Mouselman, then head of the agricultural engineering department made the statement that the time was past when a farmer could be a tinker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kapuga and Frank Jr. of Lansing spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bailey. Orville Austin and Mrs. Orlando Odell called on Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bowen of Saranac Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tencknick of Twin Falls, Idaho, were Sunday guests at Lone Pine Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bieri and Joan were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bieri. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Willard of Grand Rapids were afternoon callers and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Myskowski were Sunday evening callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Biggs and family of Helling were Thursday day callers at the Karl Bieri home and supper guests of Mrs. T. W. High C. Bennett says.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin Fairchild and Renee spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Fairchild in their home. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Chaffee and Mrs. Effie Gooen visited on Sunday.

The law of equal freedom means that each individual is entitled to the greatest possible freedom consistent with the equal freedom of all others. In short, equal freedom means fair play. It means, moreover, that the law of freedom is free. He is responsible for his acts. His very right is exactly balanced by a corresponding duty.

Wash Day Tips The combed smooth curtain tassels with a string at their ends, before washing. They won't tangle then. Remove in a tub or bucket before getting clothes in the washing machine, for they may be damaged by the agitator. Dampen collars and cuffs that are badly soiled, brush with a soap jelly and put in a hot water wash machine. After using, cover the washing machine to prevent the sun from fading the fabric. Buy transparent or muslin cover, or make your own from material left over from a suit. Wash with electric mangle, your ironing board.

Editorial

WHO WANTS ECONOMY?

A long step toward cutting the cost of the Federal government can be made without imperiling the national defense or any other essential expense. It can be done by the simple expedient of not spending tax money for purposes which can and should be carried on by private capital.

It was recently announced that current Rural Electrification Administration grants are at an all time high. REA's appropriation for this fiscal year came to $225,000,000, and was second only to the $250,000,000 it received in the fiscal year ending last July. There is undoubtedly a great deal to say on both sides concerning REA's virtues and vices. But the fact remains that the electric utility industry, in all parts of the nation, is perfectly capable of providing farm electrification as rapidly as possible, has put farm power service at the top of its list of going projects—and is doing the job without a penny of tax money and is creating new taxable assets for all units of government in the process.

The industry's program is designed to bring practically every farm in the country within easy reach of central power in about two years. The only factor that might delay completion of the program on schedule is material shortages. In any event, virtually complete electrification of rural America, by free, taxpaying, regulated enterprise, is definitely in sight.

The Reclamation Bureau has been another major offender in spending unnecessary millions, and it is now being criticized for apparently spending even more money than Congress authorized. Congress should really study the cost of this kind of socialism, and do something positive about it—in spite of the protests of home town boosters who dislike curtailment of Federal spending in their areas. The record proves that while there has been a lot of talk about economy in government, local groups try to prevent it.

ADVERTISING RELIGION

From St. John's Republican News: Declaring that the "masses of the unchurched are not going to be reached by services conducted in a church building", the Rev. Paul W. Quillan urges the Methodist church to spend $300,000 on a national advertising campaign, employing the radio, magazines and newspapers to interpret "the central truths and activities" of the Christian church.

This is somewhat of a novel idea for religious emphasis but, along with other preachers, Dr. Quillan believes that the church must employ a vocabulary which is comprehensible to the layman.

It would be an interesting experiment for a church to adopt the modern method of business and propaganda for the purpose of putting over its message. Obviously, if men and women outside the church are to receive the story, it must be carried to them and we know of no better way of doing this than by an intelligent advertising campaign.

CARD OF THANKS

To all those who sent me flowers, cards and letters during my stay at the hospital and since my return home, I am deeply grateful.

Mrs. Edith Bunker

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express to our kind neighbors and thoughtful friends our heartfelt thanks for their many expressions of sympathy. The beautiful floral offerings were especially appreciated.

GET DEER LICENSES BEFORE GOING NORTH

One annoyance deer hunters may avoid is a wait in line for a license in northern towns near their hunting camps, simply by buying in advance from their home town license agents, the conservation department advises.

Last year more than 350,000 deer hunting licenses were issued. While northern dealers are well stocked with licenses now, local shortages can develop when many hunters wait until they reach the hunting area to buy theirs.

"Imagination makes suckers of us women. Jennie paid $35 for a hat she wouldn't have on her head if it had been priced $1.45.

"Course one can go far on imagination like thinking your house won't burn. Better buy additional coverage to take care of increased cost of material. Rittenger Insurance Service has best buys."
