Up and Down Kent County Roads

K. H. Vining, Kent County Agricultural Agent

Every once in awhile we hear some make the comment that Michigan State College in its phenomenal growth has forgotten its primary purpose of teaching agriculture and engineering. We folks who are on the staff live close to the college and know that such statements are not true. Emphasis in agriculture, engineering, forestry, home economics and veterinary science total large in the college enrollment. Research, extension and experiments also feature these departments.

Evidence to me that the college hasn't lost its touch with the folks back on farms and rural areas is the fine program set up at the college for Farmers' Week starting next Monday running through Friday. Just seems there is no phase or feature of Michigan agriculture that hasn't been touched in that week's program. A couple times I have started to pick out the meetings I wanted to go to and then found another interesting subject to be discussed and got lost trying to figure out where to go.

Was at the college one day last week and I know the folks over there are really striving to make this year's Farmers' Week a real event. Better be sure you have a room if you are planning to stay over night and if you go for only a day it might be a good thing to take your dinner.

Our office has complete program if you want one.

Kent County has four young folks in attendance at the winter Kellogg Foundation School at Michigan State College. Franklin Wegal of Sparta and Ray Hesche of Lowell are the boys. Betty Weber of Byron Center and Ruth Peters of Caledonia are the girls. This is a most worthwhile eight weeks. Have often wished I could take advantage of such a course.

Two other Kent County youngsters had a fine experience last week. Maurice Roberts of Kent City and Joan Carlson of Alto attended a 4-H junior leadership conference at Kalamazoo. Representatives were in attendance from a number of counties. Dan Anderson tells me this conference was one of the best of its kind in the state.

The fuel situation for those farm folks who still use wood or coal is being supplemented with apple tree wood in the fruit sections. Many of our fruit growers have been removing old apple trees or thinning their orchards. This wood, dried out, makes an interesting fuel.

Erwin Klenk of Sparta uses apple wood along with his stoker. Klenk tells me his coal bill is going to be small this year. The furnace is stoked with wood three or four times a day.

Driving home on the East Belt Line the other day we were glad to see workmen putting the finishing touches to a new traffic light at the East Belt Line and M-10. People can't read signs with the result there have been some bad accidents. Now we will see if they can tell red from green colors. Other lights are to be placed at similar intersections.

At a poultry meeting a couple of weeks ago we introduced Floyd Bergy of Alto to A. G. Kettunen, state 4-H club leader. Bergy was a member of a 4-H dairy club organized in Caledonia in 1916. Kettunen said he thought that was the first 4-H dairy club in the state. Bergy then told us that recently in going through his mother's home at Caledonia he found ribbons he won in corn shows back in 1912 and 1913. These corn clubs were the forerunner of 4-H club work. We judged similar exhibits as a teacher of agriculture at Fremont in New

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear Carlyon Weller, who passed away five years ago today, Jan. 27.

In our hearts your memory lingers, sweet, tender, fond and true, there is not a day, dear Carlyon, that we do not think of you.

Your loving Grandfather and Grandmother Quiggle and Family.

Uncle Sam Says

What would you do if you learned that the worker next to you at the office or in the plant was taking home extra pay every payday and you could do the same? Your Uncle Sam needs only one guess. Well, the Payroll Savings Plan for Savings Bonds actually provides extra pay because it accumulates Savings Bonds for you which pay off at the rate of 44 for every $3 in 10 years. All you have to do is to authorize your employer to hold back a stipulated amount which he will hand back to you in a better form of money---money which earns interest---U. S. Savings Bonds. Savings Bonds are extra pay. For example, if you take part of your pay in Savings Bonds at the rate of $3.75 per week, the Bonds become $3,162.45 in 10 years. U. S. Treasury Department
