

YOUR WASHINGTON REVIEW

York's Friendly Service bowling team, which has been far from the hottest on the Lowell alleys, received a lot of razzing when they entered the Mens City tournament held at East Recreation Alleys, Grand Rapids, last Sunday.

The contest had been running for ten days prior to their entry and the top score when they left that day was their own, a total of 3,175 pins for a three game series.

The Camp Fire Girls assisted in the Lily Sale Drive for the benefit of crippled children last Saturday. They collected $52.56 for the cause. Hats off to the Campfire Girls.

The other day midshipman Humphrey Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Route 1, Lowell, qualified for his aircraft qualifications by taking off and landing his SNJ "Texan" Trainer 6 successive times aboard the USS Cabot cruising in the Gulf of Mexico.

"Hump" as he is known by his friends here, graduated from Lowell high school in 1946, entering the Navy V-5 program the same year. Since then he has made outstanding marks scotologically.

Looking for a spring tonic? Then pick some of the small shoots of wild greens growing in your backyard or along roadways and eat them raw or cook them for dinner, the Michigan Department of Health advises.

Wild greens are good and are good for you, the Department says.

Michigan State College students went to the polls March 28-30 and rejected the college's 42-year-old Alma Mater in favor of "MSC Shadows", a song which has been a campus favorite since it was written by Barney Traynor in 1927.

The three-day election climaxed more than 10 years of student agitation for an "original" alma mater to replace the present one, the melody of which serves as background for more than a dozen college alma maters all over the nation.

Jokes, jests, jabs and jibes just by Jeff: When the weatherman predicts unsettled weather he is protecting himself against a lot of criticism. Money may be the root of all evil, and also of many a family tree. Some folks can predict the weather by means of rheumatism. The strapless sundresses are mighty pretty if the women can stay in them.

All invited to join in Singing Old Hymns. All people interested in the singing of old-time hymns are invited to a public singfest to be held at the Lowell Congregational Church Sunday evening, Apr. 24, at 7:30 o'clock.

This type of program has drawn large crowds everywhere and religious hymns have played a vital part in the history of our country and have become a typical American institution.

This program, which is free to the public is supported by the churches and musical organizations of Lowell. The entire evening will be devoted to religious songs.

Obituary Mrs. Clara B. Boman Mrs. Clara B. Boman, aged 80, passed away at Grand Haven Friday morning, surviving are her husband, Pastor Chas. W. Boman of Lowell; two sons, John Powers of Grand Rapids and Russell Powers of Grand Haven; a stepdaughter, Grace Boman; the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Grand Haven Monday afternoon with Pastor Mason of Grand Haven officiating. Interment was at Grandville, Pastor Goussard of Grand Rapids conducting the graveside service.

Mrs. Flora B. Heaven Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Beattie Funeral home for Mrs. Flora B. Heaven. The Rev. Edmund Luff officiated with burial in Clarksville cemetery.

Mrs. Flora B. Heaven, mother of Mrs. Vera Armstrong of Lowell, passed away Saturday, Apr. 9, in the Coldwater hospital at Coldwater, Mich. She had been in poor health for the past six months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Denison.

Christopher Bergin Passes at Age 97 Came Here in 1879

Christopher Bergin, a highly esteemed businessman and public official of Lowell, died in St. Mary's hospital early Wednesday morning where he had been taken the previous Sunday suffering from a severe cold.

Mr. Bergin gave many years in service to this community. He served 19 years as supervisor of Lowell township and in 1918 was chosen chairman of the board. He also served four and one-half years as township clerk, served the Village of Lowell four years as its president, ten or more years as village trustee and was village assessor until 1934.

Mr. Bergin is survived by two sons, Charles A. Bergin of Detroit and Dr. J. H. Bergin of Alma; a daughter, Mrs. H. J. Paterson of Alma; fifteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at St. Mary's Church on Monday, April 18, at ten o'clock. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

Trouth Fishermen Must Not Forget to Attach Special Dollar Stamp Thousands of Michigan trout fishermen preparing for the season opening April 30 should not overlook purchasing the $1 trout stamp and pasting it on their regular fishing license.

More than 1,400 stamps have been purchased so far this year. Total trout stamps issued in 1948 amounted to 185,733 according to the conservation department.

Resident and nonresident alike must have the stamp pasted on their fishing licenses, as the duck stamp is glued on the hunting license, when they get out on the trout lakes and streams April 30.

While fishing for brook, brown and rainbow trout every angler must have the stamp with him—with one exception. The wife of the licensed resident angler may fish for trout on her husband's stamp, the same as she fishes for other species on her husband's license.

Revenue from trout stamps sales must be used by the conservation department exclusively for the propagation and planting of trout. The stamps are available at any one of the state's 3,300 license dealers in sporting goods stores, hardware stores, gas stations and resorts.

Evening Extension Class The Evening Extension Class met at the home of Mrs. Ruby Leeman last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Esther DeRushia, assisted by Mrs. Sowena, presented a most interesting lesson on Building Better Attitudes to the ten ladies present.

The special meeting for the completion of our lampshades will be held at the home of Mrs. Esther DeRushia, 712 N. Washington, Monday evening, April 25. All ladies are requested to bring their shades, frames and shears and a roundly lady punch.

Next regular meeting will be Wednesday, May 4, at the home of Mrs. Ed. Laux on Grindle Dr.

Parnell Extension Class The Parnell Extension Class met at the home of Mrs. James McCormack on Tuesday afternoon, April 5. An interesting lesson on "Building Better Attitudes" was given by the leaders, Mrs. Vincent Carey and Miss Ruth Howard.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess to the eight members and one guest present.

Let the Ledger want ads work for you.

Mrs. Fannie Rogers, 66 Life-Long Lowell Citizen Dies of Heart Attack

Funeral services were held at the Roth Chapel Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Fannie Rogers, a life-long resident of Lowell. The Rev. Phillip R. Gloffely officiated with burial in Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. Rogers entered Blodgett hospital last Friday for diabetic treatment but passed away unexpectedly Sunday morning of a heart attack. She would have been 67 on her next birthday, April 21.

Fannie Richmond was born April 21, 1882 in Vergennes Township the daughter of James and Eunice Richmond.

In 1901 she was united in marriage to Walter C. Rogers. To this union was born two children. Her husband preceded her in death on August 5, 1946. Since her husband's death she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Keiser in Lowell.

Mrs. Rogers was a member of the Lowell Methodist Church and the Martha Group of that church. She was also an active member of the Women's Relief Corps.

Surviving besides her daughter is a son, Lester, of North Hollywood, one great-granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Cahoon, Donald and Larry Keiser all of Lowell and Pamela Rogers of North Hollywood, Calif., one granddaughter, Christine Cahoon of Lowell, two sisters, Mrs. Will Hodgkins and Mrs. Carry Gilland of Grand Rapids and a half-sister, Mrs. Stella Wright of Lowell and several nieces and nephews.

Death of Ex-Gov. Osborn Felt Keenly in Lowell This community feels keenly the death of former governor, Chase S. Osborn which occurred on Monday at his winter home near Poulau, Ga. He was 89 years of age.

It will be recalled that Mr. Osborn addressed a meeting of the Lowell Board of Trade in 1911 at which time he announced that he would be a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. He was nominated and elected, serving from 1911-1913. He declined a second term.

Mr. Osborn was the principal speaker at the opening of the Lowell centennial celebration in 1931. The governor said he always liked to be in at the beginning of things.

Osborn was a great explorer, crusader for good government and noted for his gifts to worthy causes.

Hunting-Fishing Club To Be Organized Here The Ledger has been requested to announce that a Hunting and Fishing Club will be organized at the Lowell city hall Friday evening, April 15, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Chalmers of the Michigan State Conservation Club will here, along with a group from the Ionia Club.

Special entertainment will be provided. Come and bring your friends.

Back Your Hospitals This area is fortunate—fortunate in that the health of its residents is safeguarded by three excellent nearby hospitals—Blodgett Memorial, Butterworth and St. Mary's.

The services that they perform are many, including surgery, obstetrics, radiology, pathology and other medical care. Maintenance of these valued medical procedures is important to the life of every individual in this area.

The United Hospitals Building Fund will assure every person in this area that any or all of these services will be ready whenever the need for them arises.

LOWELL GOLDEN GLOVERS EXPRESS THEIR THANKS The Lowell Golden Glovers and trainer, Lester Stauffer, wish to thank the merchants and other taxpayers who donated money, materials and labor so that they could have succeeded this season.

Six Kent Families Receive Honors As Prominent Leaders

Last Thursday afternoon at the Farm Family Progress Day, held at the Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A., six Kent County families were named for their outstanding progress in the Farmers' Home Administration program.

They were Mr. and Mrs. John Self of Caledonia, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Verdun of Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hescho of Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Carlson of Rockford, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parsons of Cedar Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson of Rockford.

These families were selected by the FHA Board which consisted of Adelbert Ottell of Lowell, chairman, Gerald Kitson of Rockford, and Jay C. Hansen, FHA supervisor for Kent County.

They were chosen from nearly 700 farm families in Kent County who operated with the local FFA and its predecessor the Farm Security Administration.

These families were chosen on the basis of their progress in family living, financial status, housing, education of children, soil conservation, and livestock and crop improvement work and were also judged on the basis of their character, community leadership, and participation in farm organizations, churches, schools and allied educational programs.

These families will be honor guests representing Kent County at a statewide program at M. S. C. this summer along with 250 other families selected for this honor. At this time they will all receive certificates of achievement.

Lowell Women's Club Plans Annual Luncheon, April 20 The Lowell Women's Club will hold their annual luncheon meeting Wednesday, April 20, at one o'clock in the Methodist church dining room. A very special meeting has been arranged as a tribute to the past president.

Miss Eleanor Denmore, head of the Kent County Extension Service, will give an interesting talk on her last summer's trip abroad. Mrs. Wallace H. Bartlett, accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Girdler of Grand Rapids, will furnish special music.

The ticket sale has been limited to 75 and those desiring tickets please contact Mrs. Jack Bannan, Mrs. Luana Townsend or Mrs. E. G. Jeffrey. The members are not club members are cordially invited, although the sale of tickets is limited.

Lowell Chapter Honors Mrs. Inez Avery, Past W.M. Cyclamen Chapter No. 94, O. E. S., held an honorary meeting last Friday night for Mrs. Inez Avery, past worthy matron of this chapter. She served during the years 1927 and 1928 and was worthy matron when they celebrated the 35th anniversary of the Chapter during those years.

Mrs. Avery filled many offices in the chapter during her membership and just a few years ago painted the Eastern Star flag which is considered one of the outstanding flags in the State.

The minutes of the first meeting of Mrs. Avery's regime, written by her secretary, Mrs. Willard Hunter, which were read, were complete and interesting.

Special tributes, music and gifts were presented to Mrs. Avery and delicious refreshments completed a memorable evening for all present.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeGraw drove Mrs. Avery to her home in Grand Rapids after the entertainment.

Farm Bureau News Morse Lake The Morse Lake Farm Bureau held their March meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark. After the business meeting, Glen Yetter discussed the topic for the evening which was "Should our present educational system be furthered by continuing with a 13th and 14th grade after completion of the 12th grade?"

The majority of the group decided that the present 12 grade system was sufficient but that more stress should be put on subject matter taught in the high schools where, as when a pupil had graduated from high school he would have some trade or vocation he could follow.

Our host and hostess served a delicious lunch.

Vets of Foreign Wars Hold Area Meet Here

At the last regular meeting of the V. F. W. on April 13, an area meeting was held at the post clubroom with about 50 members present from Grand Rapids, Hastings, Rockford, Belding and Grand Haven.

The Eighth District Commander, Claude Landstra, from Grand Rapids conducted the meeting, after which cards were played and refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Installation of Officers Sunday night, April 10, at seven o'clock, the following named men were installed in their new offices for the ensuing year of 1949-50:

Eighth District Commander officiated at the installation with about 45 members, their wives and guests present. Immediately following the installation, refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Any man wishing to join the V. F. W., contact any of the above named men and they will be glad to assist you in signing up.

Do You Fear Cancer? Avoid Worry by Having Check-Ups Periodically

Cancer ranks second among the leading causes of death in this country, but the disease probably ranks first among lists feared by mankind. This fear, much of it based on misinformation, is mainly responsible for many deaths from cancer which could have been prevented. It is believed that of the estimated 170,000 who die of it annually, at least one-third, or 55,000, could be saved if their disease was detected in the early stages, according to word received from the health education service of the Kent County Tuberculosis Society.

Don't Neglect Periodic Check-Ups Those who go regularly to their doctors for physical examinations have less to fear from cancer than those who neglect periodic check-ups. When cancer first attacks, there may be no pain. Often it is only when it grows larger that it causes physical suffering, so we must watch out for symptoms that might mean early growths. These include:

A sore on any part of the body, especially about the tongue, mouth or lips, which doesn't seem to heal. A lump, or hard spot anywhere on the body but particularly in the breast.

A sudden change in the color or size of a wart, mole or birthmark. Bleeding or other abnormal discharge from any natural body opening.

Persistent hoarseness or difficulty in swallowing, for any unexplained reason. Loss of appetite and persistent attacks of indigestion.

Lowell PTA to Sponsor Spring Music Festival

Don't forget the date, Wednesday, April 27, the evening of the Spring Music Festival. Orval E. Jessup, Lowell high school music instructor, is planning the musical program for the PTA members and interested parents of Lowell schools.

You can express your loyalty and support to the musical program in Lowell schools by attending this music festival. It will be held in the High School auditorium and refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miscellaneous Shower Mrs. Dorothy Bergama and Mrs. Frank Shores honored Mary Vos with a miscellaneous shower at the latter's home Sunday afternoon. Thirty-five guests were present from Lake Odessa, Belding, Trufant and Lowell. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and Mary received many lovely and useful gifts. Her marriage will be an event of April 22.

Churches Joining in Good Friday Services Easter Service at 7

The union Good Friday services will be held in the Nazarene Church from 1:30 to 2:30. The Rev. Paul Z. Hoorstra will be in charge. The Rev. Norman G. Woon will offer the prayer, and special music by the Girls' Trio. The message will be preached by Rev. Phillip R. Gloffely on the topic, "The Good Friday Story."

Easter Sunrise services will be held on Reservoir Hill at 7:00 a. m. The Rev. Phillip R. Gloffely is in charge of the services and Rev. Norman G. Woon will bring the Sunrise message.

In case of inclement weather, the services will be held in Methodist church. The bell will ring at 6:45 to announce that the services will be in the church, otherwise there will be no bell to call the people together.

Watch Steep Slopes When Using Tractor

Notes from Kent County Extension Office by Richard Machiele We see our first fatal farm accident occurred this past week. May we give a word of caution here. Watch those steep slopes when you work them with your tractor. Remember, the farm is a more dangerous place to work than any factory and each of us must be his own safety engineer.

During the past week we have had many inquiries from beekeepers who have hives of bees to rent. They have in the most part been referred to the fruit growers in the Sparta area. We would be glad to hear from any fruit grower who want to rent some bees for pollination. We'll get in contact with the beekeepers.

We have so far seven people who have expressed a desire to go on the "Malabar Tour" sometime in June or July. Had one request from out of the county. Would like to hear from more Kent County folks who would like to take the two-day trip so plans can be made.

We had word this past week that the Michigan bankers would again this year sponsor short course scholarships to Michigan State College. These scholarships are offered to worthy boys and girls in each county. Last winter three Kent County received scholarships sponsored by the Community Bank of Grandville, State Savings Bank of Lowell and Caledonia State Bank.

We will be glad to consider application from boys and girls in Kent County who would like to attend school for eight weeks. Write our office for application blanks.

The papers a few weeks ago cautioned farmers against using worm surplus charcoal named Whet-erite. This charcoal was being used for poultry feed. Dr. C. F. Clark, state veterinarian, again mentioned the danger of its use in a letter we received from his department this week. Be sure to look at the label before using, and be sure Whet-erite Type A-S is not used.

We had notice today from the Higgins Lake Nursery that evergreen trees ordered from our office are being prepared for shipment. The date when the trees will be in has been set for April 22. Details as to time and place will be sent to those who have placed orders. The year's orders amount to 156,000 trees.

These first sunny spring days surely show up our dirty windows, don't they? It isn't a job we especially enjoy, but it's nice to get it done.

When it comes to washing windows, you may be pleased to learn that one of the best cleaning agents is clear warm water. That is, if the windows are not too soiled, and if the water is soft. (If it isn't soft, you can soften it).

This suggestion comes from Margaret Childs, a member of the institutional administration staff at Michigan State College. For dirtier windows she suggests a solution of vinegar-water or ammonia in water. Four tablespoons of ammonia to a gallon of water.

Soap isn't so good when it comes to cleaning glass. Oh, it can wash the dirt off all right, but the trouble comes with washing the soap off after you're finished. Soap requires too much rubbing and rinsing. That means too much time and energy, more than the average homemaker has to spend.

There are several good tools you can use to help you with this job. A chamois, a sponge, or any soft, lintless cloth can be used to rub the windows.

Another suggestion to guarantee good results: When washing the windows, wash only one or two panes at a time, then wipe them dry.

100 Home Ec Girls Capture the House With Fashion Show

Over one hundred school girls from grades seven through twelve under the direction of Miss Phyllis Thielan, Lowell high school home economics teacher, participated in the second annual fashion show last Wednesday evening in the school auditorium.

These girls, with the guidance of Miss Thielan, had completed their various clothing projects in six weeks' time.

Miss Thielan made the remark, "So many times children make clothing in home economics classes they can never wear. I was determined to have my girls do differently." Out of the large crowd of parents, relatives and friends attending this show there wasn't a person present who didn't express their amazement of the fine work displayed by each girl.

Theme, "Fashion Pattern Book" Janice Colby, tenth grade, gave the introduction to the show. The theme was "Fashion Pattern Book." Carol Dee Timpsom, seventh grade, presented about twenty-five girls of her class whose project had been to make aprons. Then Judy McMahon, eighth grade, presented about twenty-five girls from her class, modeling pedal pushers, sundresses and housecoats.

Joyce Graham, tenth grade, next introduced the section of the pattern book labeled "Free and Easy Casuals." Girls from grades nine to twelve modeled cotton dresses, skirts and blouses.

"Dorable Date Wear," the next section, was presented by Phyllis Osmer, ninth grader, and consisted of taffeta and rayon dresses.

The outstanding event of the evening was the section, "Suits Suitable for the Easter Parade." Madelyn Cole, tenth grade, accompanied by her little sister Bonnie, aged 7, made a grand opening for this section, wearing suits Madelyn had made of identical material.

The section, "Prom Time," the last in the program, was presented by Marcia Althaus. These girls modeled formal suits they had made.

The grand finale was the "Easter Parade" when all of the girls walked across the stage and down through the audience. Miss Elaine Houghton, pianist, accompanied them with the musical selection, "Easter Parade."

This outstanding program was concluded by Janice Colby presenting Miss Thielan with a bouquet of roses and a gift in appreciation of all she had done to help them make the show a success.

Famous Newsmen Coming

All over the world there are millions of people who feel that they know Lowell Thomas. His fluid, pleasant and warmly varied voice has been broadcasting the news five days a week since 1930—the longest continuous record of any radio personality. For the past fifteen years he has also been narrating all Fox Movietone Newsreels, as well as hundreds of travelogues and short subject films.

He will be in Grand Rapids Tuesday evening, April 26, at which time his thousands of West Michigan "fans" will have the opportunity of greeting him in person. Under the sponsorship of the Grand Rapids Chapter Order of DeMolay, he will present a thrilling colored moving picture "Around the World With the Lowell Thomases." He will be accompanied by his equally famous son, Lowell Thomas Jr., who made most of the film and will have an important part in the program. It will be presented in the Civic Auditorium, Grand Rapids, at 8:30.

Particulars regarding reserved seats will be found in an advertisement on another page of this issue of the Ledger.

The Sweet Busy Bodies

The April meeting of the Sweet Busy Bodies 4-H club met at the Sweet school for election of officers.

Officers elected were: President, Marion Wieland; vice president, Shirley Preston; secretary, Connie Place; treasurer, Kay Bignall and reporter, Sally VanVorst. Games were played and refreshments served.

Hi Blyan of Grand Rapids reports that not long ago he was listening to the Quiz Kids on the radio. The moderator said, "We're going to make three noises and each noise is supposed to remind you of the name of a Congressman." The first noise was that of an automobile engine. One of the Quiz Kids immediately said, "That's an automobile." The moderator said, "Right. What Congressman please?" The answer was prompt and accurate, "Ford of Michigan." I got a chuckle out of this. I guess the name Ford will always be connected with automobiles even if it's not related to the famous Henry.

Recently your Congressman spoke out in protest of the Veteran's Administration policy in regard to contracts with local educational institutions. The story is, up until a few weeks ago, all the GI Training Programs in Michigan were going along smoothly under the auspices of the State Superintendent of Instruction, Lee Thurston. Then, with less than 90 days to spare before an arbitrary deadline, the VA announced that all previous contracts were cancelled. Educational institutions were asked to fill out an elaborate report and make new contracts, and until this is done the entire veteran training program is interrupted.

In this matter I feel especially interested. Immediately following the war I helped Frank Wood and other interested veterans get these training programs started. I know how much good they have done in Grand Rapids alone more than 800 GI's will be affected. Why the VA had to throw this monkey wrench into a program whose value was so well established is beyond me. Just a whimsey of bureaucracy, I guess. I intend to do everything I can do to help local educators get this situation straightened out. Michigan can well be proud of the way it has run its GI training programs. It should not be hamstringing now.

In the greater Grand Rapids area the United Hospital Drive is now going forward. Wright, Chester, Polkton, Allendale and Georgetown townships in Ottawa County are included as well as Salem, Dorr and Leighton in Allegan. The Hammon Survey on which the hospital needs of the area were determined showed that citizens from those three areas were served by the three major hospitals in Grand Rapids. Up Kent City way Harold Sauer is heading the drive. Harold Vaughan in Sparta, C. W. Runciman in Lowell, E. H. Ruehs in Caledonia, Dick Krause in Rockford and Arthur Thede of Wayland are some of the other prominent citizens who are putting their shoulders to the wheel. Here's hoping the drive will be a success. Remember, what we do voluntarily has no strings attached; what government does always takes its measure of freedom.

Last week broke all precedents for visitors. Spring vacation brought many parents and their children to see Washington. From Holland came Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pelgrim and family; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dains and family; Wm. Vandewater; Ed Bosch and family; Mr. Rauschenberg and daughter; Miss Corinne Pool and Jill and Sharon Crawford. The contingent from Grand Rapids was equally large: Mrs. Paul Goebel and daughter Bets; Miss Lela Davis; the Leo Kulp; Senator and Mrs. John Martin; Mrs. Raymond J. Murray; Mrs. Evans; the J. C. Vinkemuller; J. C. and Craig Strain; Gordon Solomonson; Bob and Christian; Richard Blake; Pat Pease; Mrs. John P. Ward and Bernard Boshowen. Think they all enjoyed themselves with Washington at its spring best. I enjoy seeing them. It's a pleasure to have so many good friends.

It is anticipated that the House of Representatives will recess for a few days over Easter. Much as I'd like to come home, I feel I should stay here and take advantage of the brief vacation to bone up on some of the pending legislation that is so important. The Taft-Hartley question is scheduled for immediate House attention after the recess. On that controversial issue, I want to know all sides of the question before I take my stand.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of a cherished friend who passed away on April 15, 1946. To live in the hearts we leave behind, is not to die.

Maude Adriance. p50

A perfect gentleman makes every other man in the room uneasy.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends and relatives for the lovely cards and flowers sent me, and the many other acts of kindness shown me during my recent illness at home and in the hospital.

Mrs. Velma Dawson. p50

Some people seem to have opinions that have been in their family or generations.
