TWENTY-FOUR U. S. NEWSPAPERMEN ENJOY DINNER ON FIRST DAY OF 3000-MILE ONTARIO TRIP

Staff chefs at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Ontario, weren't quite sure whether this group of 24 United States newspapermen crowded behind the buffet serving table because they wanted to assist in serving, or because they wanted to be first in line for portions of some outstanding Canadian food delicacies. The 24 newspapermen, representing as many publications in 12 States adjacent to Ontario, are spending ten days in that Province as guests of the Ontario Department of Travel and Publicity. The buffet dinner in Toronto on the opening day of the tour was one of the highlights of the 3,000-mile trip which will take the visitors through practically all sections of Ontario. If you look closely at this picture, you may recognize Harold F. Jefferles, who is representing this newspaper on the tour through Ontario.
