Lhere's been a lot of talk in recent weeks about "the buying power of the dollar" - past, present and future.

We can't foretell the future - but we can tell you this right now: You'll look a long way before you'll find a car that offers as much for the money as you can get in a 1950 Buick.

D GREATER VALUE

Close to half a million of these cars have been built and sold this year.

Close to half a million people have checked their features and prices against the field-and decided they'd better buy Buick.

As to prices—they start down below some sixes. And whether you price the SPECIAL, the SUPER or the ROADMASTER, you'll find, on a cents-per-pound basis, that few other cars can touch them

And this is for sure! When it comes to performance-ride-the way they handle and hold the road-and thrifty use of fuel and oil-Buicks cup sugar tablespoon milk (about) Candied Fruit Filling

Sift together King's flour, baking powder and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat thoroughly. Add King's flour mixture to creamed mixture with milk, using only enough milk to make dough hold together. Form dough into ball and divide in half. Roll out each half on floured board or waxed paper to rectangle 10 x 12 inches. Spead each half evenly with half of Candied Fruit Filling. Roll up jelly roll fashion, sealing edge. Wrap each roll in waxed paper and chill until stiff. With thin sharp knife, cut in slices about 1/8" thick. Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.
