Flower Show Uses Nautical Scheme In Arrangements

The Showboat Garden Club's 1952 flower show "Garden by the River" opened Monday afternoon at the Lowell City Hall with more than 300 entries of arrangements and specimen blooms.

At one end of the hall, a simulated ship's prow had been erected with an opening for visitors to enter to be served punch and cookies and rest in comfortable deck chairs.

At the opposite end a backdrop of the Lowell Showboat and its endmen was fronted by a typical wharf scene complete with cotton bales, fishing skiffs and other waterfront trappings.

The specimen blooms gave proof that the club's members and other exhibitors have been tending to their gardens, while the great variety of artistic arrangements were evidence of creative ability achieved by a number of people.

There were arrangements in bowls or symphonies, unusual treatment of weeds and wildflowers, fruits and flowers in unique containers.

Best of Show Award Mrs. L. L. Watkinson won the best of show award with her coffee table arrangement using driftwood, huge pine cones, evergreen branches, ivy, and orange oranges.

Lowell Showboat Opening Night Eclipses All Attendance Records Amateur Act Almost Steals Show

As the Lowell Showboat came down the river and gracefully made its turn at the bend for the 70th time since its beginning, an audience of some 5,000 eager witnesses crowded the stands and the very river's edge.

The eight Rockets, beautiful dancing girls, beautifully gowned, pleased everyone with their rhythm and grace.

The Barons acrobatic act was especially enjoyed with the little family, mother, father and little daughter, performing balancing acts in perfect timing.

Ed Ford and Whitely, intelligent dog act direct from Hollywood, intrigued the audience, in fact, one small girl from the crowd got away from her interested attendants and walked out on the stage to get a close-up view of the little dog in tuxedo walking erectly on two legs, before she was missed and swapped from the stage.

Arron and Broderick, comedy singing act from Radio City, was a series of surprises and that attractive soprano could sing grand opera and clown through lines that brought forth rounds of applause.

The Four Wades played two marimbas, an electric organ and an accordion. Not only did they play the instruments but they did dancing acts, baton twirling while doing acrobatic stunts, singing, and were a whole show by themselves.

Jessie, James & Cornell, rated as the hottest dancers in America, did tap dancing acts that were really fast-footed.

The endmen with Admiral Runciman as interlocutor really kept the show on the move. The chorus under direction of Orval Jessup with Don Mullen accompanying, provides a material needed in the building and background for a good Showboat performance and they are good this year, as they always are.

Opening Night Guests Charles Boyer

Opening night of the Showboat honored Rotary clubs of Michigan Charles Boyer, District Governor of No. 218, and Glenn Stewart of Kalamazoo, District Governor of No. 218, were guests on the Showboat and were introduced by King Doyle, President of Lowell Rotary Club.

Over 100 members of the Michigan Press Association were here for the annual Press Night and enjoyed a dinner at the Masonic Temple served by the Eastern Star. Guests passengers on the Showboat's trip down the river were Meredith Clark, President of the Michigan Press Association and publisher of the Vicksburg paper, Lloyd Buhl publisher from Decker'sville, and Adrian Kuiper, publisher from Grandville, who were introduced from the stage.

Other guests for the evening were Crippled Children from Mary Free Bed and hospitalized veterans from the Veteran's Facility. Also an estimated 1,200 children were admitted free when accompanied by adults.

The Hal Munro orchestra from Chicago and the local High School Band made the opening of the evening's performance peppy with music that is appropriate.

Lowell Area Hit By Terrific Wind Early Wednesday

The terrific windstorm which struck Lowell and surrounding area Wednesday morning about four o'clock was of short duration but did quite a little damage as it passed through.

Reports are that large trees were blown over or split and huge boughs broken. Grain was flattened in some places and a general "wind-blown" appearance is everywhere around.

In Lowell there were several trees broken over, television aerials blown down and damage to transformers deprived some of the citizens of electricity for a few hours.

The Showboat was damaged to a slight extent when the tarpaulins blew off and the decorations on the boat were torn and had to be replaced. As one citizen puts it, "everything moved that wasn't nailed down."

Western Michigan stock car pilots and mechanics are busily engaged in tuning their mounts for one of the areas biggest auto races of the season.

The new Saranac race course is fast becoming a favorite with the hard driving stock car jockeys, as its long straightaways and highly banked turns present a challenge for both car and driver.

Among local drivers who have already announced their intention of being in line at the starting grid for a shot at the victory trophy are Ed Marshall and Dean Hubbard, both driving cars of the fast and constant Bob Whiting team. These two up and coming fence busters have endeavored themselves with the Speedbowl fans through their hard and heavy driving.

Track officials, now using a new chemical, can guarantee a dustless race course.

THIS is-to coin a phrase—a "shopper's market." Folks are taking a keen look at what they get for what they pay—and they're taking a double look at price tags. That's the kind of market where Buick really shines. Do you know why? Buick prices are down within easy reach of the folks who buy what's known as "the low-priced three." Fact is—a big chunk of Buick sales comes from the folks who trade in one of this low-priced trio. For very few extra dollars, they're getting a lot more automobile. They're getting more power—and the thrill that goes with it. They're getting "big-car" comfort. They're getting a ride that costs a million dollars and more to develop. They like the room, the fabrics, the extra appointments they find in the smart-stepping beauty pictured here. And they like Dynaflow Drive. They like the way it handles. They like the way it's engineered. They like the belt they get out of touching off the power of its Fireball 8 Engine—and they like the miles they get from a gallon of fuel. When we tell you that business is great, we can back up that statement with figures. More people are buying Buicks than any other car at their price or above. Why don't you come in and see for yourself what's behind this popularity? If you can afford a new car, you can be the proud owner of a Buick. Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. State Engaged in Greatest Program Of Road Building

As any Michigan motorist can readily observe, road and street agencies throughout the state are currently engaged in the greatest construction program in our history.

All told, the Highway Department, county road commissions and municipal street departments have more than one million dollars worth of road improvements under way.

This is welcome news to Michigan's long-suffering citizens, who have observed the slow but sure destruction of our highways by a combination of inadequate revenues, doubled costs, wear due to age, skyrocketing traffic and the unprecedented growth of heavy commercial vehicles.

Increased revenues to forestall the destruction of our roads were provided for by the Legislature in June, 1951, after three years of effort climaxed by overriding the veto of the Governor, who vigorously opposed the increase in the gasoline tax. The governor has taken credit for the increased building of Michigan's highways. However, anybody who followed the battle between the Governor and the good roads forces during the past four years knows that it was the Republican leadership in the House and Senate that is responsible for Michigan's current record-breaking road construction program.

Records Broken at Straits
27,813 vehicles crossed the Straits of Mackinac via the Michigan State Highway ferry boats during the Fourth of July holiday week-end. Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler reported today. This is an increase of 74.6 per cent over the 15,781 vehicles which were carried in the corresponding period in 1951.

Hunter's Advance Copy Of 'Dope Sheet' Ready

Deer hunters now can get an advance copy of the "dope sheet" giving complete data on last year's hunting, from the conservation department's game division, Lansing, or from any regional or district office.

General distribution to hunting license agents will not be made until early fall when licenses are shipped.

The information folder, with a general archery and special season breakdown by counties, shows hunting pressure, number of deer shot, percentage successful and other details of interest to hunters. Deer regulations for the coming season are missing this time since 1952 rules will not be set until the August conservation commission meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to acknowledge with grateful appreciation all the kind expressions of friendship which came from our many friends and relatives during my stay at the hospital and while convalescing at home. The many, many lovely cards, letters, beautiful flowers and gifts and friendly calls meant so much to me and my family.

With deepest gratitude,
Wave Condon.

She: "Oh John, when we were first married you used to tickle my chin. Do it again."
He: "Okay, which one?"

about this question . . .

I consider myself an amateur photographer, but I do a certain amount of custom work for pay. Does this disqualify coverage of my photographic equipment by my household fire and theft policies? Is an all-risk camera policy advisable in my case?

Study Reveals Accidents Fourth In Death Causes

Accidents, fourth leading cause of death in the state, rank first in toll of working years, according to a study made by the Michigan Department of Health. Working years are estimated as those from ages 18 to 65.

In 1950, accidents were responsible for 3,783 deaths in Michigan and the loss of nearly 58,000 working years. While almost five and one-half times as many persons died from heart disease as from accidents, the average age at death from heart disease was 67.5 years. Statistically speaking, this caused no loss in working years. Over twice as many died from cancer, but with 62.2 years the average age at death, there was an average loss of only 2.8 working years per death. Over one and one-half times as many persons died from apoplexy. The average age at death was 70.4 years so there was no loss of working years.

From the standpoint of statistical averages the person dying from heart disease or apoplexy actually had a dividend of three to five years over what is normally considered a working life, while the accident victim fell short by 15.3 years and the motor vehicle accident victim by 23.6 years.

Most accidents in Michigan occur on the highway, with almost as many at home and a much smaller number on the job.

Falls are the leading cause of fatal home accidents, with burns and scalds, mechanical suffocation, poisoning, gas and firearms following.

Persons 65 years of age and over suffer the greatest number of home accidents, with children under five a close second. At these two ends of the life span, home accidents outnumber motor vehicle accidents, accounting for over half the accidental deaths.

Miss Anita Doyle Honored at Showers

Two bridal showers have been given recently honoring Miss Anita K. Doyle. Last week Wednesday Mrs. Jerald Roth was hostess for a miscellaneous shower, her guests including friends in the immediate neighborhood. Delicious refreshments were served.

On the following Tuesday Miss Shirley Richmond, Mrs. Wm. McCarthy and Mrs. Paul Schneider were co-hostesses for a personal shower for Miss Doyle, the event taking place at Fallsburg Park where the guests enjoyed a bountiful picnic dinner.

At each of these social affairs the bride-elect received many beautiful and useful gifts.

"Who are the people doing all the cheering?" asked the recruit as the soldiers marched to the train. "The ones who aren't going," answered a veteran.
