

R. G. Jefferies is expected home this week end from St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor where he has been the past week for treatment. Reports are that he is getting along nicely.

Cliff Leesch, manager of the C. H. Runciman Co. Implement Sales, was taken to Butterworth hospital in Roth's ambulance Saturday night when he suffered a severe gall bladder attack. He responded nicely to treatment and was back home the next day and on the job in the salesroom Tuesday.

The Lowell folks attending the Iowa Free Fair grandstand show last week were pleased to see Rudy Cardenas in his fast juggling act. Rudy was a favorite star on the Lowell Showboat last year when he was 18 years old, and today he is rated the fastest juggler in the world.

The five singing marines who made a hit here on the 1952 Showboat were also on the Fair program and we were glad to hear them again. Those five voices are the very best.

Hap Hazard, clowning acrobats who was here some five years ago, was another feature on the Iowa star show, and he gets better as the years go by.

As men were assigned to work on improving Lincoln Lake road, they began looking for places to live temporarily in and near Lowell where they might have their families with them.

One of these men is Lee Carroll who tells us he has a warm spot in his heart for Lowell where his grandfather's family lived for years. He states his Grandfather Taylor was a lamp lighter in the early days of the village before electricity took place of the oil lamps on posts along our Main street.

The true American of today is putting Americanism ahead of political partyism. The younger voters have never known any other administration than the democratic. Republican administrations are history to the new voter. With them it is a baffling question whether it would be good policy to change. Young people are reading, hearing radio and television speakers and when election day is here, they will be ready to cast their vote.

If every American citizen who is qualified to vote will go to the polls on Nov. 4 and perform his duty, the candidates who are elected will have the satisfaction of knowing he is the choice of the people.

Four years ago the president of these United States and other officers were elected by 29 percent of the registered voters of this country—not by the choice of the nation's voters.

Jokes, jests, jabs and jibes just by Jeff. Anybody remember the old-fashioned steno-grapher who put the "rum" into argument? ... We have been hearing a lot about politics lately and will for the weeks to come, but the small boy who missed his favorite TV programs during the conventions just about expressed it when he said, "If all the speeches were laid out and end there would still be too many."

Did you ever wonder is the Golden Rule also buried in Fort Knox.

Lowell Club Host To Charles Boyer Rotary Governor

The Lowell Rotary Club was honored at its luncheon meeting Wednesday, August 6, by a visit from its District Governor, Chuck Boyer of Manistee, who was introduced by Program Chairman, Tom Moore.

In his address, Governor Boyer described the origin, growth and present status of Rotary International, stating that its present membership consists of 7,600 Rotary Clubs in the United States and numbering 83 in foreign countries, having a total membership of 350,000 members.

Mr. Boyer described the influence of Rotary on international relationships and stressed the opportunities of local clubs in sponsoring community service activities and the fostering of international understandings by their contacts with Rotary Clubs throughout the nation and in countries the world over.

He expressed a novel suggestion to the effect that clubs sponsor educational aid programs for boys and girls possessing exceptional native and scholastic ability with the object of creating future leaders in our country.

The governor's address was enthusiastically received and was followed by a tour of Lowell's newly constructed 4-H building.

Mrs. Boyer, wife of the Governor, was entertained at a luncheon at Lone Pine Inn attended by the wives of several members of Lowell Rotary Club.

Board of Directors Meet
President King Doyle called a meeting of the Board of Directors and all of the committee chairmen at the city hall at four o'clock to confer with the Rotary Governor.

Kindergartners 160,000 Strong To Start School

It's time to check up on the health needs of your youngsters who will enter school for the first time this fall, the Michigan Department of Health advises.

The children born in 1947—160,000 strong—will be starting school this fall. It will be the biggest kindergarten in the state's history and parents should see to it that every one of these children is in the best possible health and has had "booster shots" for protection against smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough before taking his place in the schoolroom.

Close association with many children in schoolrooms and on the playgrounds greatly increase the chances of exposure to communicable diseases.

Immunization Wears Off
The Department reminds parents that the immunizations their children received as infants may have "worn off" by the time they are ready to enter school and "boosters" are necessary to assure continued protection.

Those who had their shots as infants require only a single booster to raise their level of protection to where there is no danger of their contracting the illnesses. If, through some oversight, the child has not been immunized as an infant, the complete series of protective treatments should be given.

The Department makes the products for the prevention of whooping cough, diphtheria, smallpox and tetanus in its laboratories. These products are distributed to your local health department and the physicians of the state without charge so that no child need be without this vital protection.

Your family doctor will give the immunization. In many communities, preschool immunization and booster clinics are set up through the cooperation of the local medical society and the local health department.

Youngster Needs Check-up
If the youngster who is to enter school this fall has not had a physical examination within the last six months, he should be taken to the family physician and dentist for a thorough check-up now so that whatever treatment is required to bring him up to optimum health can be completed before the opening of school.

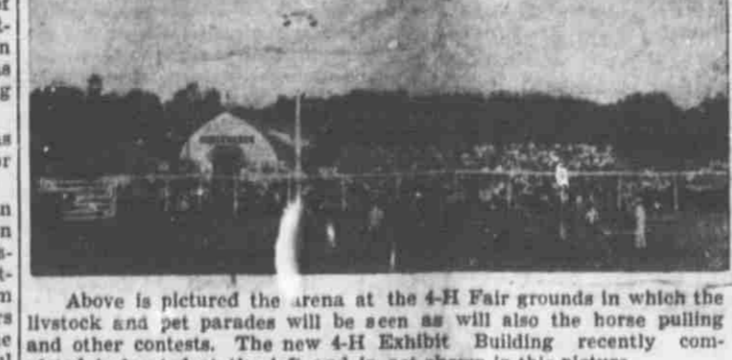

The health department recommends, too, that parents should take him over it, pointing out any hazards. Present day protection against the communicable diseases makes accidents the greatest threat to the lives of school-age youngsters.

Showboat Garden Club Entertains Guests
The Lowell Showboat Garden was honored at their meeting Monday night with several guests, Mrs. Thomas Stafford, district president, and Mrs. Nell, both of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Hilda Fineis and Mrs. Mazie Ray of Clemont, Fla. Mrs. Jake Callier was hostess at her home on North Hudson.

Mrs. Edward Kiel demonstrated how to make corsages, and a workshop was held in which corsages were made from common garden flowers.

Mrs. Francis Campau gave a few pointers on colors and arrangements, and for roll call the arrangements made quickest and best were won by Mrs. Bernard Kropf and Mrs. Clark Fletcher.

4-H Club Fair Opens Tuesday New Building, Added Attractions More Exhibits and Entertainment

Kent County 4-H Boys and Girls are a most active group the year around but when it is Fair time there is just no end to their activities and efforts to make a record over the previous year. Richard Machile, county agricultural agent says there's no keeping up with them.

With the new building for choice exhibits which should be shown inside the Fair promises to be much bigger and better than it has ever been before. All buildings are in good condition and will still be used and all space is at a premium throughout the grounds. Tents, too, will be in use.

Tuesday, August 19
The Fair officially opens at six o'clock with an evening program consisting of Tractor Handling Contest, Horse Show and Rodeo.

Wednesday, August 20
Judging will start in all departments at 9:00 a. m. and exhibits will be open to the public at 10:00. Flowers, baked goods and gardens will be entered until 11:00 o'clock. Games for smaller children at 10:30; demonstration of food freezing, bicycle races, pet parade, other races, first round 4-H softball tournament, will fill the day's program. The evening will feature talent numbers, pig scramble, dairy showmanship finals, livestock parade and baked goods sale.

Thursday, August 21
Tractor plowing contest starts at 10:00 followed by judging of ponies and riding horses. Softball eliminations, auction sale of gifts to 4-H Club Fair, light weight horse pulling contest. Frozen Food demonstration by Ellen Gebuhr, both afternoon and evening. Also in the evening's program the 4-H Lakes Barbershop Chorus will sing and there will be a 4-H Talent Show.

Friday, August 22
Exhibits open to the public at 9:30 a. m. followed by 4-H Archery contest, softball finals and horse-pulling contest. All exhibits to be released at 4:00 o'clock.

Tractor Plowing Contest
The tractor plowing contest which has been so popular in the past is developing into something of more than ordinary benefit to the Fair this year. To date six contestants have enrolled. All tractor drivers must be members of the 4-H Clubs. They will be in line at 9:00 o'clock Thursday morning.

Earl Thomas and Jim Cook have given their land adjoining the Fair grounds to be used for the contest. This is conveniently located for the public to witness.

This land is to be plowed and conditioned for wheat after the Fair and whatever proceeds are derived from the project will go toward the 4-H Fair fund to insure a bigger and better fair each year. Labor, fertilizer and seed are being offered as a donation to make the project turn out a bigger amount of money for the 4-H'ers.

Bill Lee Special
The Superior Furniture Co. of Lowell will present a piece of furniture to the 4-H girl that shows the best exhibit in the Home Furnishings project.

Other Awards
The Michigan State Apple Commission is sponsoring a contest in the apple pie baking project and the winners will be given opportunity to enter the awards in the State Pie Baking Contest in Grand Rapids Dec. 4, 1952, besides receiving cash awards in the 4-H Fair contest.

There will be a Better Hay contest with cash premiums, to be judged by the Danish system A-B-C open to everyone.

Feature Scrap Drive
All members of the Kent 4-H Service Club are working on the scrap drive sponsored by the Kent County Farm Bureau, and headed by Tom Lyon of Grattan Township. Routes have been assigned and trucks will pick up all scrap from the various depots, or from farms when called, and the entire collection will be in a pile at the Fair grounds. Anyone having scrap to offer may bring it to the Fair and throw it on the pile or may call any one of the Service Club or Farm Bureau and trucks will pick it up. This will be sold and money placed in the building fund.

Depots are placed at Wittenbach Sales & Service in Lowell, at Alto Farm Equipment in Alto, and other convenient places in the county. Picnic dinner at 1:00 o'clock.

Parents Advised Polio Increasing Urge Precaution

Reported cases of polio in Michigan are above all previous marks for this time of year, the state health department advises, and urges parents to observe precautions to help guard their youngsters against the disease.

Insist on rest periods of an hour or two a day for your children. Do not allow them to play to the point of exhaustion. Rest will not prevent polio but it may prevent the more serious polio if the child already has the polio virus. Do not allow your children to become chilled. Chilling has the same effect as exhaustion. Keep the children within their own circle of friends.

Be Alert for Symptoms
Be alert to detect early signs of sickness, particularly signs similar to the common cold. Low fever, upset stomach, intestinal disturbances, headaches, backache, stiff neck or back, tenderness or weakness of muscle groups, may mean polio. Report such signs to your doctor immediately.

Do not allow fear to cloud your judgment. Your anxieties will still fear in your children. Even if your child should get polio, he has an excellent chance for full recovery. Keep your children clean, well-rested and well-fed.

Consult your physician about postponing nose and throat surgery and your dentist about postponing tooth extraction if there is polio in your community.

Observe these same precautions yourself. While the percentage of all polio cases occur in children under 16 years of age, the remaining 25 per cent occurs among adults of all ages.

Accidents Cost $21,650,000 Daily Reports Council

If you spent $1,000,000 a day, it would take you almost 22 years to spend as much as accidents cost the United States in one year.

The National Safety Council says accidents cost the nation $7,900,000,000 last year—or about $21,650,000 a day!

According to "Accident Facts," the Council's statistical yearbook, just off the press, this includes: $2,900,000,000 in wages lost by disabled persons, lower wages due to permanent partial disability, and the present value of anticipated future earnings of those killed or permanently incapacitated; $1,400,000,000 property damage in motor-vehicle accidents; $1,300,000,000 in property destroyed or production lost in occupational accidents; $1,000,000,000 for administrative and claim settlement costs of insurance. This does not include claims paid.

$731,000,000 in property destroyed by fire; $550,000,000 for medical fees and hospital expense.

Current News Items About Our Servicemen

Philippine Sea Returns
After spending seven months in the Far East operating with units of the UN naval forces, the aircraft carrier USS Philippine Sea has returned to the United States.

Serving aboard her is Gordon F. Newell, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newell of 916 North Washington St. and husband of the former Miss Bea Meeuwse of Rt. 2, all of Lowell.

During her time in the Far East the Philippine Sea sent her Panther jets, Skyraider attack bombers and Corsair fighter bombers on daily strikes against Communists supply and communication lines.

In addition to the "line-cutting" and "rail-splitting" missions, the pilots concentrated on gun emplacements, troops, supply areas, factories and warehouses, destroying anything of possible use to the enemy.

As a parting shot at the Commies planes from the Philippine Sea, and three sister carriers hit the strategic hydro-electric plants along the Yalu River and throughout North Korea. With Navy, Marine and Air Force jets flying over, Philippine Sea planes delivered a stunning blow at the Red's power systems.

The Philippine Sea is the first of the four carriers that made the strike, to return to the states.

Special Session May Be in Offing Proud of Primary

by Gerald R. Ford, Jr.
Rumors that a special session of Congress may be in the offing are crowding in upon Congressmen's already busy and troubled days before election. If the President so desires Congress must convene for a special session on the day appointed by him. BUT should Congress so desire, their first act upon reconvening could be to pass a resolution for adjournment. The important thing to remember is that once the Congress has met they are an independently functioning body.

This same idea makes it possible for present members to demand the presence of a quorum and send the Sergeant-at-Arms to arrest the truants. If absent members persist they could be fined by a resolution passed by Congressmen present for the season.

This in effect is a functioning of the system of checks and balances so wisely provided by our Founding Fathers. Not only can the three branches of the federal government act as a check upon each other, but within each branch a reciprocal control is designed to keep everyone in line.

Backbone Still Intact
Members of Congress, including your own Representative, receive many, many letters and, needless to say, some communications are quite critical. Frankly, I like to know the adverse comments as well as the others. As a matter of fact, criticism, constructive that is, never hurt anyone.

One type of letter, however, burns me up. I mean the anonymous letter where the writer refuses to sign his or her name. For example, last week a letter came to the office which started out like this: "Show your backbone if you still have one." There was no signature at the end.

If nothing else I would like to write this anonymous person that his Congressman recently had a physical examination and my doctor informs me my backbone is Okay!

Michigan May Well Be Proud
My heartfelt congratulations to all those responsible for the excellent turnout for the record total in the primary elections. I was very much impressed by the reports of those who worked so diligently processing registrations and absentee as well as ordinary ballots.

Michigan should be mighty proud of the record primary vote. The right to vote is a priceless heritage and many of our finest youths have given their lives to protect our nation and the right to choose our own government officials.

Congratulations to the folks who voted. Let's make a new record for citizen participation in November.

Proceed With Caution
And speaking of November 4th, one member of the Democratic party doesn't seem to be aware of what that date means to all potential officeholders. His campaign headquarters at the Rowe Hotel sported a gigantic sign saying "Vote No. 2." A man so filled with progressive ideas that he's willing to jump the election day gun ought to be regarded, I think, with extreme caution.

By this time, a midnight maneuver with paint and brush may have corrected the blunder, but I'll give you odds there's one red-faced Senator in the Michigan delegation.

Civil Rights Issue, Again
The civil rights issue is getting its usual quadrennial kicking around this election year with almost devastating results. Sectional disputes are causing a hopeless rift in the Northern and Southern factions of the Democratic party and Democrat leaders are making like Olympic tug-o-war champs in their inability to resolve differences.

It leaves the voting public in pretty much of a quandary. When they turn on the radio or TV they hear one Democrat hopeful praise platform builders for their astute appraisal of the civil rights issue. With a flick of the tuning knob the whole picture changes, however, as another Democrat politician says the whole thing has been grossly misinterpreted. Well, pick your sides, boys, the real battle comes November 4th.

— And believe it or not I'm going to close without making a single guess as to what the flying saucers could be!

Don't Cross Yellow Line Safety Commissioner Warns Highway Users

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler today announced the opening of the August state-wide safety program aimed at reducing traffic accidents which are the result of unlawful and dangerous passing.

The campaign, sponsored by the State Highway Department, is using two slogans: "Don't Cross the Yellow Line" for drivers using the highway, and "Keep In Line" for drivers using city streets.

Passing on hills and curves is one of the most dangerous things a motorist can do, according to Commissioner Ziegler. In commenting on these hazards he said, "The State Highway Department has painted yellow lines on hills and curves where the visibility is reduced to a point where it is dangerous to pass. These yellow lines are provided as a safety service to motorists. Since they are placed in accordance with the law and it is not only dangerous, but unlawful, to cross the yellow line."

As a further warning to motorists the State Highway Department has erected 120 safety posters along strategic points along the highway system. These posters carry the slogan "Don't Cross the Yellow Line."

The Safety Commission has prepared radio trailers in cooperation with the Michigan Broadcasters Association and motion picture trailers for use throughout the state in an effort to urge motorists to drive more safely.

MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

RESEARCH PAYS OFF

There's been a lot of talk about better-baiter relations in Michigan and there's going to be a lot more. In the heavily populated southern and southeastern parts of the state the pheasant and quail are the most popular game birds. The pheasant territory is privately owned by hard-working farmers who aren't too fond of trespassers. Hence the "relations" problem. The State is stepping in as peace-maker, putting itself in the farmer's place in a huge research project at Rose Lake near East Lansing.

More Wildlife Per Acre
If the farmer's interested—and many of them are—the Conservation Department can show him how to improve his property and most importantly so much that it will support the maximum amount of game without affecting his crop production. At the Rose Lake Wildlife Experiment Station an intensive study of game populations and game good game has been going on for several years. The station is built around typical farm land. More than 60 acres is actually under cultivation, that's entirely practical.

Application Plan
Let's suppose you're an average Michigan farmer. Your farm includes some perfectly flat acreage, a few gullies or drainage ditches here and there, fence rows, and maybe a woodlot or two. Any game on your farm must find

'What to Cook' Problem Solved by Housewives

Good Old Navy Beans
In these days when the housewife is confronted daily with the problem "What to Cook?" good old Navy beans are always well come. Here are a couple that have proven popular to many.

Bean Soups
2 cups baked beans
1/2 cup bread crumbs moistened
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon sage
Salt to taste
Shape like sausages—roll in crumbs and brown crisp in fat. Good hot or cold.

Baked Bean Loaf
1 can baked beans
1/2 cup brown bread
1 can tomatoes
1 cup pepper
1/2 cup vinegar
2 eggs (lightly beaten)
1/2 salt
1/2 celery salt
Mash baked beans, add brown bread cut in tiny pieces, 1 cup liquid from can of tomatoes, eggs, salt, celery salt, pepper and vinegar. Bake in old bread pan 45 minutes in moderate oven. At the picnic, heat canned tomato soup and pour over loaf.

She Took
She took my hand in a sheltered nook,
She took my candy and my book,
She took that lustrous wrap and fur,
She took the gloves I bought for her,
She took my words of love and care,
She took my flowers so rich and rare,
She took my time for quite awhile,
She took my kisses, maid no shy,
She took—I must confess—my eye,
She took whatever I would give,
She took—she took—she took—she took—
SHE TOOK ANOTHER GUY.
Money never makes a man, but it unmake a lot of them.

COUNTY SOIL TESTING LABS MAKE BIG GROWTH

From a single county soil testing laboratory in 1948 to 43 operating in Michigan in early 1952, that's been the growth of convenient facilities for soil testing and fertilizer recommendations for the good farmer of the soil they till. The above picture is typical of the inside of a county soil testing laboratory. It shows R. H. Hargrave, county agricultural agent of Washtenaw county, leading a line of farmers in Big Rapids. The map below shows the counties in the state with soil testing laboratories. Note the increase in the number of laboratories and service stations in the past few years. County extension offices, aided by other agencies, have promoted the installation of soil-testing equipment within the counties. (MBC Photo)

Former Owner of Delinquent Land May Recover It

Former owner of land, which has been deemed to the state because of tax delinquency, still can pay back taxes and recover the property under a little known and comparatively recent state law, the conservation department points out.

Owner of land delinquent for the 1948 tax must act not later than November 4, when recovery period expires. Land tax delinquent prior to 1948 and deemed to the state cannot be recovered in this manner.

Since 1951, when Act 167 became effective, the department recovered 343 lots and about 1,100 acres to former owners of land which had reverted because of nonpayment of 1947 taxes.

The former owner first should determine if the land actually has been deemed to the state. Does he have a 1948 tax receipt? If he cannot produce a receipt, and he is in doubt as to the tax status of the land, the county treasurer can clear the picture for him.

Should the land be tax delinquent and deemed to the state he can go to any municipal governmental unit by November 4 and request a resolution that the property be withheld from state sale. With this resolution, the county treasurer is authorized to collect the back taxes, with interest, and make a report to the state auditor general. After the tax record has been cleared, the conservation department then will execute a deed to the applicant which will reinstate the owner's interests as existing prior to the deeding to the state.

By means of this new deed the applicant cannot "improve" his former title, the department notes.

Campers at Grand Haven state park got rough treatment from a Lake Michigan storm that recently struck at night with hurricane force.

The Coast Guard station reported winds above 80 miles per hour during the storm that blew tents apart, knocked trailers off roadways, and uprooted trees.

One trailer was uprooted during the storm and first aid had to be administered to an occupant. Fish were found in the center of the park drive, blown there by the storm's force.

The storm struck about 2:30 a. m., and continued about two hours.

Fund Drive in Progress For Mentally Retarded Children in Michigan

Michigan Ass'n. of Parents and Friends of Mentally Retarded Children started a statewide drive for funds August first, to aid Mentally Retarded Children in Michigan.

The drive aims at raising $15,000 for the care, training, education and research of such children.

Co-operating in the drive will be the 1000 persons having membership in the Michigan Association throughout the State, who are also depending on everyone or donations.

The known figures are that 2% of the Nation's population is mentally retarded. Nine tenths of these (three million) mental defectives are not in institutions, thus understanding their plight is doubly important to each of us.

That is why money is needed to study new ways of aiding these handicapped.

Sponge Yarn

Following mats, yarn of cellulose sponge yarn in 4-inch rope form, cleans and polishes like a charm. The yarn does not scratch and can be sterilized in boiling water, will not sour. A dishwasher made of the fabric which can be used with soap or detergent cleans pots and pans, silverware, etc.

Today's farmer has to be a shrewd businessman and operate his farm on a sound financial basis, MRC agricultural economists say.

Notes from Kent Co. Exten. Office

Agriculture

The Lowell 4-H Club Fair will soon be here! Dates are August 19 through 22. A good program has been planned for the event. Again the fair board is asking for donations to the auction sale which is one means of financing this fair. Farm produce of any kind always sells well.

Last week Earl Bentley of Ada and Howard Krum of Lowell each gave us a purchase order for an oven-dressed turkey to be delivered at the time the purchaser wishes. George VanderMeulen in charge of the sale says he has just received an order for $20 worth of merchandise from the F. W. Woolworth Co. in Grand Rapids.

Word has come from the Michigan Crop Improvement Association that prices for certified seed for 1952 will be: Wheat—$3.85 per bushel (treated) and Rye $3.00 per bushel, Certified. Yorkwin wheat is available from the following Kent County farmers: Kenneth Goodwin, Ada; G. A. Huyek, Caledonia; C. Robert Johnson, Sparta; D. A. McPherson, Lowell; Edwin Parmeter, Rockford.

Had the pleasure of attending the Lowell Rotary this past week and saw our good friend, Tom Lyons, put on a good show for the members. The result of this show is that Tom will donate a 200 lb. hog to be raffled off this fall and the proceeds to go for the 4-H clubs. Thanks Tom, for your generosity.

There is still some good exhibition space left at the Lowell Fair both inside and outside. Call Everett Wittenbach if you are interested in rented space.

We have the results of the tillage trials held on Bill Meyer farm in Caledonia. The surprising result is that all plots on which the plow was used had the highest yields. The highest was on the once over plow plot on which the plow and clodbuster were used in one operation. Second high was the conventional plow-disk and harrow with the lowest yield on the field cultivator plots. We'll try again next year and see what we get.

Late blight has been showing up on potatoes and tomatoes. Keep vine covered with your favorite fungicide as long as we keep this moist humid weather.

Michigan State Fair Special Days Announced Aug. 29 Through Sept. 7

The 1952 Michigan State Fair will be held in Detroit Aug. 29 through Sept. 7, with the usual general exhibits open throughout the week. A program of special days has been announced by General Manager James M. Hare, as follows:

Friday, Aug. 29, Grand Opening day; Saturday, Aug. 30, Upper Peninsula day; Sunday, Aug. 31, Labor America day; Monday, Sept. 1, Young Exhibitor's day; Wednesday, Sept. 3, Governor's day; Thursday, Sept. 4, Farmers', Old Timers', and Farm Products day; Friday, Sept. 5, Science and Industry day; Saturday, Sept. 6, Veterans' day, and Sunday, Sept. 7, International day.

Traffic Deaths Gain First Half of Year

Michigan traffic accounted for 168 deaths during June, bringing the toll for the first six months of the year to 728. This was an increase of 18, or three per cent, over the 710 in the same period last year and, on the basis of previous trends, indicates the 1952 fatality record may exceed the 1951 total of 1,640 by at least 100.

FAMILY SUNDAY DINNER HONORS MRS. L. DYGERT

Mrs. Anton Kropp entertained Sunday with a family dinner honoring the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Loren Dygert of Caledonia. Other guests were Mr. Loren Dygert and son Don, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dornbos also of Caledonia, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shuman of Sparta, Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Olsen of Howard City, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dygert and daughter Deborah, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dygert and Larry of Grand Rapids.

Plant Food

A plant food that not only is the scientific concentration of nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium, but also has "trace minerals"—boron, copper, manganese, sulphur and zinc—is now available for flower and vegetable gardens, shrubs, and lawns. It is soluble in water and has no odor.
