

THE LOWELL LEDGER

Established June, 1893

LOWELL, MICH., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1953

Number 21

Forrest Buck, genial A & P Store manager, is taking another week of his much needed vacation, thus enabling him to be at the opening game of the football season in Lowell. The Red Arrows will strive to win that trophy from Ionia, as well as to start the new year off with a winning streak.

We hope to be able to give the football news to our readers each week with "Bucky" reporting.

An attractive paint job has recently been completed in the McQueen Motor Co. office and show room, also the store front has been re-painted.

In a note enclosed with the annual subscription renewal to the Ledger from H. H. Aldrich, now located at 1407 Santa Monica, San Antonio 1, Texas, he puts in a plea for more news from the Bowne Center area where he formerly lived. In part he writes: "There is hardly a familiar name in the Ledger any more after 19 years of being away, but we still feel it is a direct contact with the old home."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Storm have moved from Spring Lake to their new home at 915 N. Jefferson St., in Lowell, and are one of our welcome new families. They have two small children, Susan, 6, and Michael, 1. Mr. Storm is a salesman for the Big-nal Dental Supplies of Grand Rapids.

Lowell Hi Band To Play at U-M Again This Year

The Lowell High School Band has once again begun its busy year and under leadership of the present drum major, Chad Walter, is practicing for the local football games and also the 5th annual Band Day at the University of Michigan to which Lowell has been invited. This is a great honor as of the more than 200 bands eligible, only 100 were invited, half of whom will be going for the first time. This is the 4th successive year Lowell Band has been privileged to attend.

They will see the Michigan-Tulane game October 3, and participate in the half-time ceremonies with 100 other high school bands from all over Michigan. Tickets may be purchased through any U-M alumnus.

New Band Officers

Trophy for Winner of Annual Game To be Presented by V. F. W. Posts

Fred Beckett, Commander of the Flat River Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, proudly displays the trophy to be given to the winning team at the football game on Friday night between Lowell and Ionia. The trophy is a point project of the Lowell and Ionia VFW Posts. These football squads open the season each year with a hotly contested game held alternately at Ionia and Lowell. Friday night when they play the winning team will receive the trophy to keep until next year's game. The trophy won by either team three years in succession becomes the permanent award of the winner.

Lowell Showboat In Spite of Rain Breaks Records

The annual meeting of Lowell Showboat, Inc., held Monday evening reported earnings of $37,648.17 an increase of $614.93 over the 1952 record earnings. Net earnings of the 1953 show are expected to be about $9,120.45 after all the expenses are paid. Elected to serve as officers of the Showboat for 1954 were: C. H. Runciman, Dan Wingeier, E. C. Foreman, Theron Richmond from the Board of Trade and N. E. Borgerson, Oscar Nelson, S. D. Wingeier and William Christensen from the American Legion; all served on the board last year.

Entertainment Costs Up
Greatest increase in costs of the 1953 Showboat over the '52 Show was for entertainment, $11,803.41 spent this year is an increase of some $2,200, $1,500 of which was due to the seventh night show put on Sunday because of the rain on Saturday.

Federal excise tax was the next highest figure in expense and amounted to $6,414.61. Advertising costs were $3,227.10 in comparison to $2,600.99 last year, but the increase in gross revenue in spite of a rain-threatening week shows that this money was well spent. Erection of seats and preparation of the grounds was $3,357.06, a decrease from last year.

Total expenditures for the 1953 Showboat came to $29,124.82, a decrease of $4,172.69 over the 1952 show. This was due to the fact that no new seats or major expenses were incurred this year.

Showboat Gifts
The Showboat gave $7,000 from its earnings last year as follows: Clark-Ellis Community Memorial Bldg., $3,000; 4H Fair Bldg., Fund $2,000; Lowell Community Development Corp., $2,000. These gifts and the expenses of the 1953 Showboat will leave some $16,000 in cash on hand in the funds of the corporation.

Red Feather Red Cross Gifts Benefit Lowell

Stephen S. Barnard of Grandville and Paul S. Bond of Grand Rapids, both known to scores of Lowell residents, have been named general chairmen of the important county division of the 1954 Red Feather-Red Cross campaign.

Their appointment was announced by Edward J. Hekman, general campaign chairman.

"County residents are learning of the vast number of services—direct and indirect—they are receiving through their Red Feather-Red Cross gifts," said Barnard. "For example, in the Lowell area, the following direct services have been given in the past few months:

"Boy Scouts—Troop 102 and Pack 3102 given help through the Boy Scout council.

"Family Service—One fulltime staff member assigned to Lowell and seven other surrounding townships, making regular weekly stops at Lowell; dozens of persons given counselling in family problems.

"Hospitals—Three Lowell families given direct aid, totalling well over $200 this year.

"Legal Aid—Three Lowell families given direct aid.

"Child Guidance Clinic—Children in three Lowell families aided.

"Travelers Aid—Three Lowell families aided.

"In addition, of course, there are countless indirect benefits," said Barnard. Important among these are the lower hospital rates now enjoyed by the county. Before the United fund campaign went into effect, hospital rates for those outside Grand Rapids were higher than for city residents."

County Supt. Lynn Clark Clarifies Law Regarding Student Transportation

The number of telephone calls received this fall indicates that there is a great misunderstanding regarding pupil transportation in Kent County.

The first error is that many people think that the school board is obligated to provide transportation for all children who live more than one mile from the school building. The law actually states that the board MAY provide transportation for those children who live more than a mile from the school IF at a regular or special meeting the electors have approved transportation within the district.

The second misunderstanding is regarding the transportation of children attending non-public schools.

The local board MAY provide for the transportation of non-public children along the regular route of the public school bus. The bus may NOT deviate from its regular route. Districts transporting high school pupils only may NOT transport elementary non-public children and districts transporting elementary children only may NOT transport high school non-public children. Non-public transportation is NOT reimbursable as state aid. (Par. 352 1952 General School Laws).

Roofing Job Completed On Boy Scout Building

A nice group of workers turned out Sunday and put the red asphalt shingle roof on the Boy Scout building, making a completed job of it. Those reporting for work were Dick, Chuck and Jim Baird, Jim Droeger, Ed Kiel, Jerald Roth, Harold Lind and Bob Lee.

The regular Scout meeting was held Monday night with eighteen scouts present. They piled wood, raked and burned refuse and generally cleaned up the grounds. It was voted to postpone the overnight camp next Friday on account of the opening football game on that date.

There will be a working bee again next Sunday and there will be a choice of work. There is a well to drive, sewer mains to lay, doors and windows to fit and hang, hardware to attach, inside carpentry such as partitions and cupboards to build, and digging and painting.

Regular scout meetings every Monday night at 6:30. Be sure to come, boys, and bring your dads. Try a Ledger Want Ad for best results.

Elof Ericksons Greet Son Home from Prison Camp

Home again after 33 months a prisoner in a communist prison camp in North Korea, Cpl. John K. Erickson (center) is greeted by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. Erickson, who met him at the Grand Rapids Airport early Saturday morning. His experiences during his long internment were tragic and his physical condition not the best, but the happiness in his home coming is radiated from the expression in all their faces.

The whole community of Alto is rejoicing with the Eloff Erickson family on the return of their son, Cpl. John K. Erickson who was captured Nov. 29, 1950, with nine other American soldiers, while on patrol duty, and was confined in a communist prison camp in North Korea since that time until his release in the POW exchange.

Alto Business Men's Club and the Alto American Legion are sponsoring a Home Coming celebration honoring Erickson's return on Thursday, Oct. 1.

Erickson does not like to talk about his experiences in the POW camp which reveals acts by the captors so inhuman that it is hard to realize that such forms of brutality exist in the human race. After his capture he was taken on a 45-day death march to the prison which covered innumerable miles. On this march each man was given two ears of corn to eat. Many men never survived that march.

In the camp for the POWs, John was ordered to study Communist books, but he escaped this by telling them he could neither read nor write, and eventually they never found out differently since they allowed other prisoners to write letters home for him.

John was taken on several of these death marches on which some of the men threw themselves over cliffs preferring death to imprisonment by the Reds. Rations were so slim that the prisoners would kill cats and dogs for food to keep from starving. At one time John was so weakened and ill that he had to use a cane and his weight dropped from 190 to only 130 pounds. He was given only slight medical attention though he carried two bullets, one in his neck and one in his right leg, and both legs were riddled by shrapnel.

Following a 30-day rest at home Erickson will return to the hospital at Chicago where the bullets will be removed and he will undergo treatment.

St. Mary's Parish Annual Fall Festival Sunday, October 4th

The annual Fall Festival of St. Mary's Parish, Lowell, will be held Sunday, October 4. Original plans which called for the holding of the event at the local 4H grounds have recently been changed, and the festivities will now be confined to the new school and surrounding grounds.

Special Homecoming events have been devised to make this year's Festival the best ever held in the local parish. Of particular interest will be an Open House for St. Mary's School. Everyone is invited to visit the new modern school plant during the day.

A delicious ham dinner will be served in the school from Noon until 6:00 p. m. Waiting in line to be served will be eliminated by the issuing of serving numbers.

At least four special rides for children will be in operation during the day. EVERYONE is welcome.

Gardens of the Bible Reviewed at Silver Tea

The Garden Lore Club Silver Tea was attended by about one hundred ladies at the home of Mrs. E. C. Foreman Tuesday afternoon. Guests from away included Mrs. Robert E. Mills from Bloomfield Hills, a former president of the Lowell club and in whose administration the gateways at east and west Main street village limits were placed. Red roses and lovely fall blooms were in evidence about the rooms and formed a dainty centerpiece for the table from which tea and cakes were served. Miss Audie Post and Mrs. Ray Rogers poured.

The Rev. Howard McDonald of Alto gave a most interesting talk about gardens of the Bible, Garden of Eden, Gethsemane, and God's Garden, and reminded his hearers that the Bible opens and closes with gardens. The club and guests thanked Mrs. Foreman for opening her lovely new home with its magnificent view to them.

A bee is admired for his industry, but he is respected for his ability to sit down and concentrate.

Lowell Schools Early Enrollment Reaches 853

The total registration in the Lowell Public Schools shows an insignificant drop of only fifteen from a year ago. The total a year ago was 868, and for the current year 853 had enrolled by last Friday—a comparative date. The pupils in school now show an increase of 19 over the number in school at the close of the school year in June. The figures do not include those children who have left to enter St. Mary's Parochial school. It is interesting to note, too, that the number of non-resident or tuition pupils is less in the elementary grades than a year ago. The Board of Education accepts elementary children from only three neighboring closed districts. The figures clearly indicate that additional facilities will be needed very soon for the marked increase in the early grades.

The number of students entering the high school is greater than ever before, with a total of 399. The registration by grades is as follows:

Kindergarten, 72; 1st grade, 72; 2nd grade, 66; 3rd grade, 39; 4th grade, 40; 5th grade, 43; 6th grade, 46; 7th grade, 36; 8th grade, 43; freshmen, 126; sophomores, 98; juniors, 91; seniors, 84.

Foods Public Service Described at Rotary

Giles Nelson, head of the State Department of Agriculture, was guest speaker at Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Lowell Rotary club.

Introduced by King Doyle, program chairman, Mr. Nelson described very graphically the work done by this important state agency in the protection of our citizens against food adulteration, short-weighting, and the misbranding of food stuffs consumed by the general public.

The speaker most definitely convinced his hearers that the state funds used for this important public service is money well spent.

Funeral Rites Monday For Margaret Rietberg

Funeral services were held in Rauchenberger Funeral Home, Grand Rapids, Monday afternoon for Mrs. Margaret B. Rietberg, with Rev. Philip Clotfely officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Born in Caledonia Jan. 16, 1875, she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Bunn. She attended public schools in Caledonia and Byron Center. She was married to Albert D. Rietberg in Grand Rapids 62 years ago, and resided in that city 63 years.

Mrs. Rietberg was a member of D.A.R., Eva Gray Tent No. 2, Women's Relief Corps No. 41, Grand Rapids, Sunlight Rebekah Lodge No. 63, and West Side Maccabee Hive of which she was chaplain for sixteen years.

Three Times Tested Methods of Relief For Hay Fever

There can be more to hay fever than a brief period of sneezing and watery eyes, a University of Michigan allergist says. Hay fever may start a chain reaction of allergy to such things as dust and food, states Dr. Kenneth P. Mathews, assistant professor of internal medicine at the U of M, who adds that from 35 to 40 per cent of hay fever sufferers eventually develop bronchial asthma, a much more serious disease. There are so many kinds of pollen and fungus spores that the hay fever problem varies with geographical area, the individual and the season. The most common type will begin in Michigan August 15, when the ragweed starts to pollinate and will run until late September. This year, physicians will continue to use the three-time tested method of desensitization with allergy, Dr. Mathews explains. Hypensitization, or injection of pollen extracts in gradually increasing amounts, builds up the individual's tolerance for a particular pollen. This method, practiced at the cause of the patient's trouble.

Peach Puree in Freezer Aids Menus

Frozen peach puree is one good way to utilize excess or dead ripe peaches which are too soft to withstand the processing involved in canning or freezing them as halves or slices. Pauline Paul of Michigan State College's foods and nutrition department gives these directions for puree preparation: Wash and cut peaches in half and remove pails. Steam seven minutes. Sieve. Or peaches may be dipped in boiling water, peeled and pitted, then cooked three minutes in boiling syrup and pureed. The syrup should be saved for use in canning or freezing half or sliced fruit.

Hunters' 'Dope Sheet' Ready for Deer Season

Deer hunters may obtain the long-awaited deer "dope sheet" prepared each year by the conservation department's game division. The fact-packed four page leaf-let gives a thorough presentation of hunting information by counties, by types of seasons, by location of hunting and as an overall state picture. The information was gathered from thousands of hunters during and shortly after the 1952 season. Game workers have openly thanked hunters for their cooperation during the post-season surveys and checks that made the 1953 dope sheet possible. About 75,000 of the leaflets were printed and are now available to the public at department headquarters buildings, from the game division office in Lansing and through various conservation agencies and organizations.

News from Cascade Community

Faster Bookmaking
A new hot melt resin takes only seconds to dry, against hours needed for animal glue, thus helping to speed mass production of low-cost books. One printing company is able to pour forth a torrent of books at the rate of 20,000 an hour. This is 20 minutes from a single binding machine, or more than twice as fast as was possible with old-type glue. This new hot melt adhesive forms a bond which is not affected by humidity and which mice or insects will not eat. It does not dry out or become brittle. Books thus created also open flatter than those using animal glue in backing.

NO ONE IS IMMUNE TO IYV POISONING
No person is completely immune to iyv poisoning and there is no section of Michigan where the three leaved iyv plant cannot be found. The Michigan Department of Health said in advising care in avoiding the plant. Learn to recognize the plant and stay away from it. Iyv poisoning is always unpleasant and it can be serious, causing a month-long illness which may require hospitalization.

The poison in the iyv plant is an oil which can be carried on smoke, soot, dust, on the fur of pets, garden tools, firewood or other items which have come in contact with the plant. A person may have a recurrence of iyv poisoning from wearing uncleaned clothes which were worn at the time of the original contact.

In one day... you can pick 8 to 10 acres of 100-bushel corn with a McCormick 1-PR

This McCormick 1-PR pull-type picker, which attaches or detaches in a jiffy, makes corn picking a fast, one-man, one-tractor job.

Flooding gathers pick up tangled and down corn, and the aggressive snapping rollers save all the ears. The 6-roll husking bed easily handles bumper yields. It keeps the ears clean whether the husks are dry and brittle or damp and tough. Kernels shelled by the husking rolls are caught by a shelled corn sizer. You can operate this one-row picker with any two-row tractor.

Visit VFW Home At Eaton Rapids Sunday, Sept. 27

Would you like to visit the V. F. W. National Home at Eaton Rapids? The V. F. W. Auxiliary of Lowell is organizing an auto trip there for Sunday, Sept. 27, and anyone interested in seeing how this worthwhile Veterans' family home is run is cordially invited to join the Lowell V. F. W. Auxiliary and Post members on this excursion whether or not you are a member of the organization. This National Home for Veterans' families is inspiring in its completeness of purpose, to give a home to the children of deceased war veterans, a home of which they may be proud and in which they may enjoy many of the advantages that they might otherwise not have. It is not run like an orphanage. There are many houses, erected and paid for and kept up by the many V. F. W. Auxiliaries and Posts throughout the entire nation. In each lovely home reside from four to seven or eight youngsters with a house mother. The Home has its own hospital, nursery, swimming pool, recreation center, chapel, its play grounds, food lockers, farm animals, etc., and is very like a small village. The children go to Eaton Rapids to the public school system on their own buses. To see how this "village" is organized is inspiring to anyone, so, if you would like to visit it you are invited to come along on Sunday, Sept. 27. Bring a picnic lunch and meet at the V. F. W. Hall at 9:45 a. m. For further details call Mrs. Claude Ridgway, Mrs. James LeDuc, or Mrs. John Troy.
