These two sorrowful cattle were not camera shy Wednesday morning. Although both animals were injured when the Elof Erickson barn collapsed, luckily they were not buried beneath the debris as the other 26 members of the herd were. Mr. Erickson feels they will all have to be slaughtered because of injuries.

No cattle were lost, but this barn was almost completely wreeked at Lie Glen Vos farm on Cascade road. The twister took roof, timbers, and bales of hay, hurling them across a wide area. The home was uninhabitable because of severe roof damage.

Although Mrs. William Sterzick did suffer minor head cuts when she attempted to run from her car to the Amos Sterzick house, she should feel very lucky that she wasn't in her trailer home, pictured above, at the time of the storm. Flying timbers caused this damage.

TWO FRONT BUMPERS IN ONE ... FOR PROTECTION HIGH AND LOW!

Here's what's out in front when you're behind the wheel of a new Oldsmobile! It's the exclusive "Intagrille", a full-depth bumper of sturdy steel, locked to the frame for your protection . . . double protection!

But that's not all! Oldsmobile did more than put a steel safety wall between you and all outdoors. "Intagrille" is out ahead in beauty as well as utility. That rugged front end is just as much an eye-catcher as it is functional. You not only get moe bumpers in one-double protection high and low-but "Intagrille" instantly indicates all the Oldsmobile action of super-resilient coil springs and larger, wider rear leaf springs means easy-going comfort. Rugged Oldsmobile chassis design—solidly stabilized at six points—resists road roam, takes away side high-compression, high-torque Rocket—with a 9.25 to 1 compression ratio, and featuring advanced big-bore, short-stroke design . . . a double NEW IDEAS EVERYWHERE! Behind the "Intagrille" is overall beauty that's yours only with Oldsmobile's styling leadership! And the smooth

Cub Scout Caravan Preparing to Leave Richards Park

The above picture was taken of a portion of the group of excited cub scouts, parents, and den mothers just before they took off from Richards Park in Lowell last Thursday morning in a 15-car caravan to Battle Creek, and an interesting tour of the cereal plants. Easter school vacation and lenient employers helped make the trip possible, not to mention postponed housework.
