Scout Paper Drive Lists 4 Phone Centers

Four Lowell Boy Scouts are taking phone orders for special pick ups of scrap paper in the big paper drive to be held next Saturday, September 22.

Galen Pletcher, TW 7-7185 will take care of the Addition, south of Main and West of the river; Dennie Howe, TW 7-9923, East Side; David Thaler, TW 7-7968, Segwun and outlying areas about Lowell; and Duane Mayou, TW 7-7576, the West Side.

Be sure to leave donation at the curb, but for some reason this is impractical, call one of the above four numbers evenings after 5 o'clock. Please, no phone calls on Saturday, Sept. 22, the day of the drive.

Remember, funds earned in this paper drive stay in this area, for the benefit of the local Boy Scout organization.

Council for fire protection, road drainage, street lights and water Married Fifty Years September 19th

Mr. and Mrs. fra Wesbrook, now of Fenwick, but both natives this area and residents here until 3 years ago, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary this Sunday, September 16th, when an open house has been scheduled at the Snow Community hall. Mr. and Mrs. Wesbrook were married September 19, 1906, at the bride's home and birthplace, on Gulliford drive (where her brother, Earl Kinyon, now lives). They lived at their farm on Str., which was Mr. Wesbrook's family home, until they moved to Fenwick 3 years ago to be near their daughter and only child, Mrs. Myrtie (Harry) TreDenick. The Wesbrooks have 3 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren; Mr. Wesbrook has 2 sisters, Mrs. Laura Carter of Middleville and Mrs. Bertha Thompson of Grand Rapids. Besides her brother Earl, Mrs. Westrook has three sisters, Mrs. Hazel Veiter of Alto, Miss Lettle Kinyon of Lowell and Mrs. Belle Enz, Lake Odessa. Mr. Wesbrook was born in Vergennes township, so both are natives of this area and have many friends who will want to meet with them at the hall between 2:90 and 5:00 o clock, Sunday afternoon. The Snow Ladies Aid will serve re-treatments. No invitations have been mailed.

FORD Trucks COST LESS

buyers know this-they also know that Ford on-the-job costs are low.

Take operating costs-no other trucks with engines of comparable horsepower can beat Ford-pioneered Short Stroke engines for gas and oil economy. And with Ford trucks, you get money-saving Short Stroke power in

Take maintenance costs-day-in, day-out dependability is a major reason why Ford trucks cost less. It means less downtime, lower repair costs, more work output. And take durability-Ford trucks are built stronger to last longer. This accounts, too, for Ford's traditionally high resale value. So consider everything when you buy-

It's just about certain now that Frank Sinatra will be Dinah Shore's guest star on her first hour-long show October 5. Producers' Showcase has as its November 12 offering Jack And The Beanstalk, an undertaking which promises to have some of the most arresting visual effects of any live show to date . . . The giant, for example, will appear in scenes with Jack towering above him some 26 feet. Beginning on September 20, Gordon MacRae will replace Otto Kruger as host of NBC's Lux Video Theater . . . Mac will double in brass as director-star of five major musicals for the show . . The sponsor's hope is that he will attract a younger audience.

Ed Sullivan has been "unable" to make arrangements for Ingrid Bergman to appear on his show.

Edward R. Murrow says it isn't so, but Walter Winchell stated in his column that he and Murrow will swap guest appearances on his NBC variety show and Person To Person . . . Ed says he doesn't know how he'd fit into a variety show and that while he'd be willing to interview the columnist from his home Winchell insists it be from his office. > Thus far Shirley Booth seems the likeliest contender for the title role in The Perle Mesta Story on CBS. ▶ Apparently Robert Montgomery has the inside track on signing up his one-time movie colleagues . . . Besides James Cagney and Constance Bennett, he'll present Claudette Colbert in a Robert Shaw original on September 24. ▶ Omnibus, with its new Sunday night spot on ABC all set, is gunning for big names to appear on the show . . . Christopher Plummer, noted Shakespearean actor, has been signed for an original drama . . . Bert Lahr and Agnes De Mille have been signed for three shows each.

Jean Hagen, who left The Danny Thomas Show to escape being type-cast as a housewife, will star in The Menace Of Hasty Heights on November 28 playing -you guessed it-a housewife.
