

Casualties: Gould Rivette, Wendy Christoff Mishaps Mar Scout Weekend Campout; Leader Injured in Fall; Boy Burned

Wendy Christoff, 12 year old member of the Lowell Boy Scout Troop 102, and Gould O. Rivette, one of the adult committeemen and former scoutmaster, were both seriously injured Saturday in two separate accidents at Yankee Springs.

Wendy Christoff

the state camping area near Middleville, where the boys were attending their annual winter campout.

Gould's accident was the first. He fell Saturday morning, while skiing. He was taken to Blodgett hospital by Albert Dalstra, another committeeman who was assisting in the supervision of the weekend campout.

X-rays revealed that Gould suffered a crushed vertebra in the middle of his back. He will be hospitalized about a week or ten days, he states, and expects to resume his job at Attwood Brass in about two weeks.

Stove Explodes

Wendy's accident occurred at supper time, when the boys were preparing their meals. He lit a match to light one of the burners on a gas grill, and it exploded in his face, burning him also about the arms and chest.

After first-aid was administered Wendy was taken to the office of Dr. James Millard of Middleville by Scoutmaster James Droeger, where his first, second and third degree burns were treated.

He was picked by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Christoff, and he is now resting at home. The burns affected the lower half of his face, and his eyesight has not been impaired.

According to the leaders, the boys were all instructed on the proper use of the gas stoves when they were registered at the camp Saturday morning by the ranger of the park. The ranger stated the stove was in proper working order Sunday when he checked the troop out before their return home.

Don Slocum, another scout committeeman, also assisted with the activities of the weekend campout.

Two Get Lost

They say that trouble usually runs in threes, so it was no surprise to Droeger and Slocum when Sunday morning, after church services, two of the scouts were reported missing. They had apparently wandered away from the camp after breakfast.

The hikers, Mike Dawson and Bernie Osborne, were found on one of the roads leading into the camp area, about 12 o'clock. They had found their way out of the woods, and were headed back to the camp.

Kent School Board To Meet Tuesday

The Kent County School Board Association will hold their regular meeting Tuesday, February 12, at 8 o'clock, at Simon School, corner of Three Mile road and Walker.

A panel discussion will be held on the metropolitan area study and also on special education.

Roy Fetherston, superintendent of East Grand Rapids schools, will serve on the panel; also E. L. Taylor of Grandville, Lloyd C. Fry of Lee-Godfrey, and E. J. Kleiner of Rockford.

This is an important meeting, and all board members are requested to be present.

Village Plans For New Main Street Lighting

Interest has been shown by the village council to install new modern street lighting on Main street if a method of financing can be worked out.

In view of the fact that the village was unable to assess for the Main street improvements made in 1955, many feel that it would be only fair to have the property holders pay the cost under a special assessment.

As shown in preliminary plans, the new lighting would extend from Vergennes road to Jefferson street, would consist of 30 steel or aluminum poles with powerful mercury vapor or fluorescent lights at a height of 25 feet above the street.

The cost of the project is estimated near $12,000 with the Municipal Utility installing the lighting units.

The council will, if the project meets with general approval, get exact cost estimates and call a hearing for the special assessment district.

The cost to each property holder will be very nominal and the benefit in safety and prestige to the community would be very great.

Request Council Approval of New Fire Alarm Device

At their regular meeting Monday night the village council was asked to consider the installation of a device at the Municipal Utilities plant to warn of fire at the Root-Lowell Manufacturing plant.

The alarm device, installed in the plant's automatic sprinkler system, would set off a signal in the utility plant as soon as water started to flow through the pipes of the fire protection system.

The night men at the plant could notify the fire department of the alarm, and this would eliminate the necessity of hiring a night watchman at the Root-Lowell Mfg. company.

The matter was tentatively approved by the councilmen, but referred to Frank Battistella and Jay Boelens, chairman of the Fire and Utility committees respectively, for the necessary study to iron out the final phases of such an operation.

Should this device work efficiently, there are two other plants in Lowell equipped with a sprinkler type fire-prevention system, and they could also avail themselves of this type of fire-alarm service. They are the C. H. Runciman plant and the Superior Furniture company.

LITTLE JERRY BISHOP BREAKS LEG SUNDAY

Jerry Bishop, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bishop, N. Jackson st., broke his leg while playing outdoors Sunday.

French Youth to Address Rotary

Jean Mandelbaum, a seventeen-year-old exchange student at Muskegon High school from France, will speak to the Lowell Rotary club at their regular luncheon meeting Wednesday, February 13.

The Rotarians have already heard from Lowell's own exchange student from Hamburg, Germany—Miss Elke Gildhoff, so they will be most interested to know just what young Jean thinks of America.

While in Lowell he will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rollins, who are the American 'parents' of Miss Gildhoff. Rollins is also area chairman for American Field Service in Michigan, which is the sponsoring group of this exchange student program.

To Visit School

Following the luncheon meeting Jean will speak to an assembly at Lowell High school, and will also visit various classes at the school.

Polio Clinic For Students, 15 or Over, This Friday

Friday, February 8, starting at 9 o'clock, a polio clinic is being held at Lowell High school for students 15 years of age or over. Drs. Thomas B. Hill and Orval McKay will be in charge of the clinic, which will consist of a series of two shots, for one dollar each. Date of the second clinic is to be announced later.

The one-dollar charge is nominal—just one-half that of the cost of the shot if given by private appointment. It covers only the cost of the vaccine itself, not the services of the doctors.

Students under 15 years of age are entitled to free vaccine from the State department of health; therefore they will not take part in this clinic. Parents of students in the junior and senior high have received slips from the school which explain the program. The slips must be signed and returned to the school by Friday morning if the student is to take part in the program.

A survey is being made of the group under 15 years of age, and a clinic will be planned for them at a later date.

Anyone who has already had one or two shots of the Salk serum should consult their family doctor before taking part in this clinic.

Assembly Program

An assembly was held at the school this week, with Charles Hill, local chairman of the March of Dimes campaign, in charge. He has also held programs for the Lions club, Rotary and Parent-Teacher association.

It is seriously hoped that all eligible students will take advantage of this program, as it has been pointed out—it is a shame to contribute to the March of Dimes, and not take advantage of its spectacular research.

Declare War on Pigeons; Kill 172 in One Day

Open warfare exists in Lowell between the pigeon flocks tormenting Lowell food processors and the Lowell Police Department.

The local businesses requested the aid of the police when the pigeon population became too much for them to handle, and it was feared that a visit from a state department of health inspector would mean their plants would have to be shut down.

Police Chief Frank Stephens states his department killed 172 in one day last week and expect to concentrate on this work again this week end.

Lowell's County Library Is Being Outfitted

The Lowell library, corner of Hudson st. and Main, is a scene of bustling activity these days, now that the changeover to the Kent County library system has become official.

Miss Inez Rutherford, Lowell librarian for many years, states that many new books, both fiction and non-fiction, are being placed on the shelves, giving a more varied selection to readers both young and old.

And a new service has been added, according to Miss Rutherford, by which you can order a book not on the shelf, and have it in a few days' time. If the book wished is not in the Kent County library or its branches, it will be ordered from the State library, and mailed here, says Miss Rutherford.

Workers from the Kent County system have been in Lowell this week sorting and arranging the library. Be sure to visit your library, and become one of its regular "customers".

Carl Venneman, 51 Dies Wednesday; Funeral Saturday

Carl E. Venneman, 51, passed away early Wednesday morning at Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids. He had been admitted there January 25.

Mr. Venneman was a truck driver for the King Milling company for 18 years. He was forced to quit this work last August, and entered University hospital in Ann Arbor for a serious operation. He had not been able to return to his work since that time.

A life resident of this area, Mr. Venneman was born in Cascade township and attended Strong school. He served many years with the U. S. Army, before coming to Lowell to live.

Besides his wife, Margaret, Mr. Venneman leaves four daughters: Mrs. Malcomb (Gloria) Williams of Grand Rapids; Mrs. William (Ellen) Warner of Saranac; Edith, Mrs. Rex Hendricks of Lowell; and Joan at home; also a son, Vernon, at home; and four grandchildren. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Glen (Alma) Vos, and Mrs. Irah Seeley, both of Lowell, and a brother Clarence of Kalamazoo.

Funeral Saturday

Mr. Venneman reposes at the Roth Funeral home where friends may meet with the family Thursday and Friday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 o'clock. Services will be Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. H. S. Martin and Rev. Elmer Buck officiating; interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Many Guests Invited to G.O.C. Birthday Dinner

Many distinguished guests will be in Lowell Friday evening to attend the birthday dinner of the Lowell Ground Observer corps, six years old now.

It is a planned pot luck, and anyone can attend. Just call Mildred King or Louella Hunn, to see what you should bring to the dinner.

Guests

Among the many guests to be present will be Dan Walters, executive secretary of Civil Defense in Kent County; Sgt. Greenlee from the Air Force Filter Center in Grand Rapids; and John Grotenrath, liaison officer for the county between the civil defense and G. O. C. units.

Frank Stephens, chief observer of the Lowell post, states he also intends to extend a welcome to the neighboring observer posts.

The Lowell G. O. C. has the remarkable record of serving the sky-watching cause for twenty-four hours each day for six years. This record cannot be met by many posts in Michigan!

Firemen Called to Basement Fire Saturday

Lowell firemen were called to the Clark Hoxie home on Snow avenue Saturday morning about 10 o'clock when some rubbish caught on fire in the basement.

It was piled near the chimney cleanness of the furnace, but by the time firemen arrived the fire had been extinguished with little damage other than smoke.

Today's Zany Teen Fads Compete with Traditional Styles

The teen spotlight this week covers the teenage fads: Crazy saddle shoes, white blazers, crew cuts and your steady's class ring are all the rage. Gary "Elvis" Elkhoft is—as you have guessed—an Elvis Presley fan. Much in contrast to him are Judy Hadden, standing with Gary, and seated, left to right, Louise DeVries and Judy Mackie. They are examples of the typical teen age girl—all wearing the traditional neat looking skirt and sweater. Their hair styles vary, as all have individual tastes. But, most styles are similar, and teenagers do like to be different!

"C'mon, Pop, look what I've been do'in!" P.T.A. Sponsors Open House at Lowell Public Schools Monday

All buildings of the Lowell Public school system will be open Monday night, February 11, and the teachers will be on hand to welcome all the parents of the school children, their friends and relatives, when the annual Parent-Teacher Association sponsored open house will be held.

The doors will be open at 7:30 and the visiting hours will continue until 9 o'clock.

This is a wonderful time to stop and visit with the teachers, and see the lavish displays in the many classrooms showing the work being done by the students. The teachers and the students have worked hard getting ready for this annual visit, so be sure to pay a call next Monday night.

The P. T. A. committees have arranged for refreshments to be served during the evening. There will be no business meeting that night, according to Rev. J. Marion DeVinney, president of the association. This has been dispensed with so that the parents and teachers may devote the entire evening to visiting the many classrooms.

Vote to Sponsor Another Student From Foreign Land

At their regular meeting held last Wednesday noon, January 30, the Lowell Rotary Club voted unanimously to sponsor another foreign student's visit to Lowell, in 1957-58 under the exchange-student plan of the American Field Service.

Dr. Orval McKay has been appointed chairman of the committee to finance the student's visit here, and he will work with Gerald Rollins, area representative of the A. F. S. in Michigan.

Miss Elke Gildhoff, from Hamburg, Germany, who is attending Lowell High School this year under the sponsorship of the Rotarians, lives at the Rollins home. She will return to her home in Germany shortly after school lets out in the spring.

Miss Gildhoff visited in Detroit last Friday, attending a tea at the German Consulate. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanna, chairman of the A. F. S. in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna drove Elke back to Lowell, and a meeting was held at the Rollins home with Duane Fowler of Cadillac, another A. F. S. area chairman in attendance.

Also accompanying Mr. Fowler was another exchange student, Erik Rohrbek of Denmark, who lives in Cadillac with his American "parents", Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown, and attends Cadillac high school.

Important Program
Anyone who has had the fortune to listen to a talk by Miss Gildhoff, or by another foreign exchange student, will quickly realize the important work that A. F. S. is doing to improve international understanding.

All we know about foreign countries is what we hear over the radio, or read in newspapers, books, or magazines. That is the same for the foreign students, who really know little about our country until they have visited here.

There are so many little things about us that Miss Gildhoff can tell to the Germans when she returns home next Summer; and the next student to come, wherever he or she comes from, will be able to do the same.

Cub Scouts Make and Sell Small Flags This Birthday Weekend

Lowell Cub Scout Pack 3102 will converge on Main street Friday afternoon and evening (tomorrow) February 8th, and again on Saturday, February 9th, selling small flags which they have been making in their den meetings the past few weeks.

The purpose of the sale of the flags is to pay for their various expenses in carrying on their work and studies. Pack 3102 is one of the few self-supporting cub packs in the Grand Valley Council according to co-cubmaster Ted Walker, who, with his co-worker, Chancey Boyce, both urge Lowell folks to give attention to the boys when they come up to you this week end while you are doing your shopping. Any small donation will be most gratefully received.

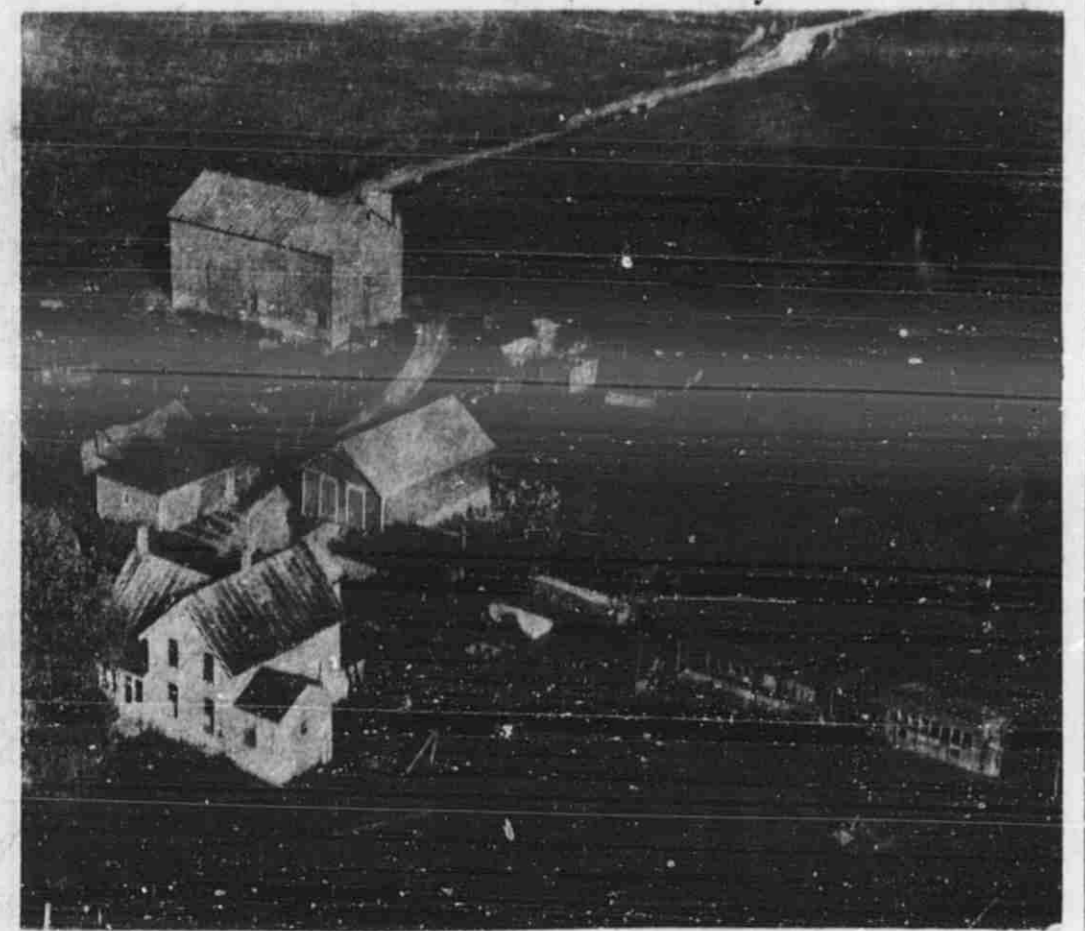

This is all part of the activities of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 through 13.

Parents, Remember!

Remember, the parents' interest in the scouting program is essential to the success of the cub pack and the scout troop.

Who Owns This Week's Mystery Farm? "Brannan Farm" Has Been in The Family Over 100 Years

Do you know who this farm belongs to? Last week the first one to call the Ledger, after 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, was one of the family which owns the "mystery farm". This contest has created a lot of interest among not only the long-time residents but folks who haven't lived here all their lives. Join the fun. If you call first, Thursday, correctly identifying the above aerial photo, you receive a subscription to our paper. The farm owners will receive a copy of the above picture, suitably framed.

About last week's farm, it has been in the Brannan family for 107 years. Five generations have lived here. The farm is owned by Mrs. John Brannan, and is located at 10887 60th Street. The name is registered at Lansing.

Previous owners of the plot were Robert Mintum until 1837 and John Ball to 1850.

First Settled in 1850

The farm was first settled and put under plow in 1850. Type of farming is listed by the Brannans as wheat and grass.

Mrs. Brannan has three children:

Barry of Ann Arbor, Don of Grand Rapids, and her daughter, Mrs. Francis Wakefield, who lives on the farm. Also living with her are 2 grandchildren, Patricia Brannan and John Wakefield, who are the fifth generation residents of this Michigan Centennial farm.

Patricia goes to Morse Lake school, which stands on land given by the Brannans to the school district. John goes to Lowell junior high.

Cede to Railroad

In 1887 a parcel of this farm was ceded to the Grand Rapids,

Lansing and Detroit Railway company, subsequently the Pere Marquette, and now the C & O. Later a water tower and telegrapher's station was established, known as "Brannan Station".

Rug Depicts History

Mrs. Brannan has hand-hooked a stairway runner 27 feet in length depicting the history of the family from 1840 to the present day. This rug has been on exhibit at the Grand Rapids public museum and a news item concerning it was circulated nationally at one time.

Mrs. Moffit Dies at Lowell Rest Home

Mrs. Bertha Moffit, age 85, passed away Wednesday morning at the Lowell Rest Home, where she had been a patient for about two weeks.

Mrs. Moffit was the mother-in-law of Arthur Hilzey, an auctioneer from Dutton, and very well-known in this community.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Edna Hilzey, Mrs. Moffit leaves a brother George Holly of Caledonia.

Services for Mrs. Moffit were held Saturday afternoon at Caledonia; burial in Alaska cemetery.

Man Hurt as Car Rolls Over on North M-91

Claude Murray, 62, of Sayles Road was injured Wednesday morning, January 30th, when his car skidded on an icy curve on M 91 just north of Lowell, and near the Municipal Power Plant dam.

Mr. Murray was on his way to work at the Kelvinator plant in Grand Rapids. The accident occurred about 6 o'clock.

He is at home, but under doctor's care for back injuries.

R. L. CORNELL IS IN ARIZONA HOSPITAL

R. L. Cornell is in the hospital in Tucson, Arizona, where he had been wintering for his health, and his wife states that he is suffering from pneumonia.

He has been hospitalized about two weeks. Their daughter, Lila, Mrs. A. D. Grover of Lowell, is in Tucson with him.

Lowell Township
Supervisor
Primary Feb. 18

Theron Richmond was born and raised on a farm northeast of Lowell, in Smyrna. In the early 20's he, with a brother, established the North Star Bus Line, operating from Grand Rapids to northern communities.

From 1925 to 1941 Mr. Richmond was in the restaurant business in Ionia and Lowell. He has resided in Lowell for the past 27 years. During the last 12 he has been in the real estate business, and also during this time has served on the village council, and has been a trustee of the Lowell School District No. 1.

Theron has served as president of the Lowell Board of Trade, and of the Rotary Club. He has also been a director of Lowell Showboat, Inc. for seventeen years, and is at present secretary of this important civic organization.

Mr. Richmond has always been interested in farming, having owned and operated the Altman farm in Lowell and Vergennes townships, and now owns property in Lowell and Lowell townships. He fed out fifty head of cattle this past year.

Because of Mr. Richmond's knowledge of farm and village values, the various types of legal descriptions and his background of business and government experiences, we feel he is particularly qualified to serve Lowell as its township supervisor.

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER
More than 4,000,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12, marking the 47th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Since 1910, Scouting has served over 26,000,000 boys and adult leaders.

Through its Four-Year Program "Onward for God and My Country," the organization seeks to train more boys in patriotism and character so that they will become intelligent citizens with an appreciation of the free way of life and a dedication to the high spiritual ideals.

Boy Scout Week observances will feature preparation for the Fourth National Jamboree, which will find 50,000 Scouts and leaders camping where Washington camped at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, next July 12 to 18. The nation's 11,000 Scout units will feature re-dedication ceremonies on February 8, the actual birthday of Scouting in America.

Prayer for Today
We are indebted to a beautiful prayerful patron who submitted the following thought-provoking reverse to be published for our readers.

Although we have a policy of not printing material from anonymous contributors, we felt that these well-chosen words were greatly enjoyed by our subscribers:

"We thank thee, Father, for the morning light. For the blanket of snow which covers the earth to protect the flowers below; For the birds that sing and the breeze that blows; the sun that shines to melt the snow.

"We thank thee, Father, for the homes we have for the care we share with our neighbor near, with God's guiding hand. We thank thee, Father."

Jefferies Named to Michigan Week Committee
Harold F. Jefferies, editor and publisher of the Ledger has been named to the School Newspaper Committee of the Michigan Week activities board, according to a letter received this week from Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

The committee's duties are to plan the details of the annual Michigan Week page contest—a special page written by students, and appearing in each local paper on Thursday, Education Day, of Michigan Week.

Last year, the Lowell Special English Class, under the direction of Kenneth Williams, won a Michigan State Flag for the local school for their prize-winning entry.

Michigan Week 1957 is set for May 19 to 25.

Laura E. Shepard, Village Clerk

Boy Scout Week February 6 to 12
The nation's 4,000,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders will mark the 47th anniversary of their organization during Boy Scout Week, which started yesterday, February 6, and ends on Saturday, February 12.

The observance has as its theme "Onward for God and My Country" with a special emphasis on "Duty to Country."

Sunday, February 10, is Boy Scout Sunday. Scouts and leaders will attend religious services in uniform in countless churches of all denominations. Those of Jewish faith will hold their observances in synagogues and temples on Friday evening, February 8, and Saturday, February 9. Many speakers, addressed to Scouts, will meet in homes to discuss some aspect of the Boy Scout Week theme.

In hundreds of communities, Scouts, their parents, and institutions sponsoring Scout units will unite in paying their respects to the volunteer adult leaders whose contributions of time and effort in behalf of youth make these units possible.

National Scout officials say that 87 per cent of all Scout units will have a dedication ceremony on February 8, and that 11,000 of them are made possible by the sponsorship of churches and synagogues.

Portland Pool Pushes Hear Expert Tel Pro's Of Indoor Construction
Lowell municipal swimming pool backers will be interested in a recent meeting held in Portland, where a similar drive is now underway as is being pushed in our city.

The speaker of the evening, Gordon Stowe, of Lansing—is an architect and he talked to the group concerning the building of a public swimming pool.

In citing some approximate costs of public pools in this general area, Mr. Stowe quoted a cost of $125,000 for an outdoor pool in Grand Rapids. The pool was 30 by 70 ft., and the price included the filter system and bath house and shower facilities.

By comparison a 25 by 75 ft. indoor pool at Charlotte, in conjunction with the high school, cost $230,954, including shower and locker rooms, and some spectator seating facilities also the filter system.

Indoor Pools
The indoor pool at Sexton High School in Lansing was built at a cost of $288,425. It is 30 by 75 ft., and has a full size gymnasium above the pool. By deducting $60,000 as cost of the gym, the pool would cost about $228,000.

Broken down into payments, the number of days the pool could be in use each year, the cost per year for the Grand Rapids pool is $130,800; $38,900 for the Charlotte pool; and $53,700 for the Sexton Pool.

The speaker made special note of the fact that in more communities to operate an indoor pool, such as at Sexton and Charlotte, and that it can be used many more days each year. Operating costs were not included in the figures he gave. Admission charges to swimmers varied in each city.

Stringent Rates
In addition, Mr. Stowe listed the stringent rates of the health department which must be followed in both construction and maintenance.

Speed Limit
Highway deaths will decrease only when the motive power ceases to regulate the speed.

The problem that disturbs us as a business man, a taxpayer, and a citizen of the world is, "Where is the money coming from?"

Farm Bureau Drive for Members is Gaining
A report from the Kent County Farm Bureau office shows that the membership in the County is increasing. The count as of January 21st was 1,691 Family Members of which 149 are new members.

This would seem to show that the Farm Bureau is the popular choice among farmers for a farm organization.

Two townships, Courtland and Grand Rapids have exceeded their goals. Several other townships are very close.

In Oakland Township, 100 per cent of the 1956 members are on the 1957 roster.

Kent County still needs 148 members to make its goal for 1957.

Ray Rittenger was born and raised on a farm northeast of Lowell, in Smyrna. In the early 20's he, with a brother, established the North Star Bus Line, operating from Grand Rapids to northern communities.

From 1925 to 1941 Mr. Rittenger was in the restaurant business in Ionia and Lowell. He has resided in Lowell for the past 27 years. During the last 12 he has been in the real estate business, and also during this time has served on the village council, and has been a trustee of the Lowell School District No. 1.

Ray has served as president of the Lowell Board of Trade, and of the Rotary Club. He has also been a director of Lowell Showboat, Inc. for seventeen years, and is at present secretary of this important civic organization.

Mr. Rittenger has always been interested in farming, having owned and operated the Altman farm in Lowell and Vergennes townships, and now owns property in Lowell and Lowell townships. He fed out fifty head of cattle this past year.

Because of Mr. Rittenger's knowledge of farm and village values, the various types of legal descriptions and his background of business and government experiences, we feel he is particularly qualified to serve Lowell as its township supervisor.

LOOKING FOR a Valentine gift idea? How about an additional telephone—in color? It was a popular gift at Christmas, and it's about perfect for Valentine's Day, too. An attractive phone expresses the right sentiment. It tells your Valentine you want to keep in touch—every day throughout the year. It's a gift, too, that will save steps and time for some lucky person. To order your Valentine phone, call our Business Office. It will be gift-packaged and installed when you wish.

"LET'S GET THE FAMILY TOGETHER if the weather's good." That "M" used to be a mighty big one. But now you can get the family together no matter what the weather or how far apart all of you live. A Conference Call will do it. You just give the operator the names and addresses or telephone numbers of the members of your family. She'll get them all on the line at the same time, whenever you want. Call the Long Distance operator soon and have her arrange a Conference Call. It'll be fun.

HERE'S A WONDERFUL IDEA for you folks with a son or daughter stationed with the armed forces in Europe. Why not enjoy a telephone visit with them over the new overseas telephone cable. After 6 p.m. or all day Sunday you can call just about any place for as little as nine dollars, plus the 10 per cent federal tax. Would be quite a thrill to loved ones across the ocean, wouldn't it? Lots of people are doing it. More than 15,000 made overseas calls during the first month the cable was in use. And the number is growing every day. To place your call to Europe, just call Long Distance and ask for the "Overseas Operator."

Lowell Council Proceedings

Regular session, Monday evening, January 21, 1957.
Council was called to order by President Peter Speerstra at 8:07 p. m.

Roll call: Trustees Jones, Battistella, Fonger, Munroe, Boelens, Thompson. Absent, none.

The minutes of the last regular session of January 7, 1957 were read and approved, with two deletions.

Police Chief Stephens' report covering the period of January 1-19 was made a part of the record.

The clerk reported building permits, issued by Building Inspector Theo Bailey, as follows: Mr. Hugo Connor, Garage and breezeway, 312 Highway St.; Mr. C. J. Place, To move house from 112 N. Hudson and relocate at 206 Maple; H. R. Myers, D. O., Residence, adjoining present lot (407 N. Div.).

Village Superintendent Moore reported 1. Price of fuel oil increased again. 2. The need for depositing $10,000.00 in the Light and Power Debt Retirement Fund.

Trustee Fonger submitted damage bill from West Main Street residents for damaged incurred to his automobile because of the high sidewalk on West Main at Vergennes. Clerk directed to acknowledge.

Communications was read from Rev. K. McIver acknowledging donation to the summer sports program and use of the park and lights.

Area Veterinarians Attend M.S.U. Meet

John Trumble, and Roy Westcott, Lowell; and Richard D. Siegle, Alto, have returned from the 34th annual Post-Graduate Conference for Veterinarians at Michigan State University.

More than 400 midwest practicing veterinarians and university students participated in the event sponsored by the M. S. U. College of Veterinary Medicine.

A faculty of 37 outstanding specialists from nine states offered advanced training in the treatment of farm and home animals. Clinical operations, including the rapid collection of blood for transfusions and swine practice techniques, were presented by closed circuit television over WKAR-TV campus station.

The veterinary physician and public health practices, new treatments for old diseases, swine diseases and management of the small animal hospital were the topic on the agenda. This year's event was held on campus with the College of Veterinary Medicine Alumni Day. More than 300 M. S. U. graduates renewed old friendships at the two-day educational conference.

Conservation Department officials are working out the details of a proposed "parks use sticker" program which would help to finance Michigan's state parks.

The state Conservation Commission approved the general program at its January 11 meeting in Lansing and agreed to ask the Legislature for authority to establish a $2 per automobile annual fee for state park visitors. A smaller daily fee would be charged for park visitors who do not wish to purchase the annual sticker.

Under the proposed program, use fees would be charged per automobile, not per person, and the annual use sticker would be valid at all state parks throughout the year. A detailed request covering the program will be presented formally to the Legislature by the Department during the current legislative session.

Few Minutes A Week Can Keep Good Farm Records

Farmers have little choice but to keep some kind of adequate records on their business operations. But it can often be done in a few minutes each week.

R. G. Wheeler, farm economist at Michigan State University, says there are several acceptable methods of keeping farm accounts. No specific system is best, but it can be a simple one.

The income tax book prepared by M.S.U. and distributed by county agricultural agents and many cooperating banks in Michigan will do the job on most farms. It is a general book, and may need some adaptation for some specialized farms, but some 30,000 of them are used in Michigan each year.

According to Wheeler, here's what you need for satisfactory farm accounts: Under receipts and expenses, the dollar amounts, quantities and prices should be included. It is often helpful to include the persons or firms receiving or paying these sums.

Depreciation schedules should be kept for income tax and social security benefits. A separate book can be obtained for this. Complete inventories may be included in the depreciation book. If you keep track of these

Rowland Ryder Wed Saturday at Palo

Miss Alice Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfred Peterson of Palo, became the bride of Rowland Ryder Saturday evening, January 5th, in the services at Palo Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ryder of Bailey Dr., Lowell, are Rowland's parents.

The bride was presented in marriage by her brother, Robert Peterson.

For her wedding she chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and Tulle, fashioned with a fitted bodice, a high neckline with a Peter Pan collar, and long sleeves, tapering to points over the wrists.

A lace tunic featuring long pointed scallops enhanced the bouffant skirt of the wedding gown. Her elbow-length nylon tulle veil was secured by a pearl and iridescent sequin tiara.

The bridal bouquet of red roses and white carnations, was carried on a white Bible.

Mrs. Arden Peterson attended the bride as matron of honor, and was groomed in a ballerina length dress of ruby Crystallite fashioned with off-the-shoulder neckline and fitted bodice. A matching head piece and a colonial bouquet of white carnations tied with a silver ribbon completed her ensemble.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Ryan, a sister of the bride, and Miss Maribeth Taylor, were also attired in gowns identical to that worn by the matron of honor.

Mr. Ryder was attended by Austin Bowman, as best man, William Schreier and Richard Roth seated the guests. All of the gentlemen are from Lowell.

To complete the wedding party, a slice of the bride, Miss Kathy Ryan, served as flower girl, and carried a basket of rose petals. The ring bearer was Robert Peterson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Peterson chose a blue gown, and wore a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Ryder also selected a blue gown, and her corsage was made of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

The bride is a graduate of Ionia High school, and has been employed by McCord Television service in Ionia. Mr. Ryder attended Lowell schools, and is employed here by M. A. B. A. They will make their home here, at the Kloosterman Trailer Park.

Each year more than 14,000 Boy Scouts attain the coveted Eagle Scout rank.

things, you shouldn't have too much trouble with your income tax statements, nor your social security reports, Wheeler says.

Clings to the road like a stripe of paint!

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going. Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoes Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nicely, too—with up to 245 h.p.* Come on in and take a turn at the wheel of a new Chevrolet.

This Can Get to Be a Habit! Arrows Seek First Win From Rockford Here Friday; Belding Comes Tuesday

Unsuccessful in an attempt last Friday for their first win, the Red Arrows will try again this Friday, February 8, when they play host to the Rams of Rockford. The last meeting of these clubs saw the Rams eke out a 44-42 victory. Reserve action begins at 7 o'clock.

In another home game, February 12, the Arrows tangle with the Belding Redskins. The Redskins, like the Arrows, have had a dismal season winning only one, while the Arrows have yet to end up on the top end of the score. The reserve squads clash at 6:30.

Little Arrows Win First Tournament Contest

Monday night the eighth grade "Little Arrows", in a tournament held at Ionia, defeated Greenville, 35-21. Frank McMahon poured 20 points through the hoops for the victorious Lowell team. This win advanced the team to the "finals" of the tournament. Wednesday night, February 6, they were to battle Belding for the championship and the trophy.

Last Friday the boys defeated Rockford, 44-39. Frank McMahon had fifteen points in this game for scoring honors.

Poor Seventh Grade

The seventh grade cagers were not nearly so fortunate as their older brothers, having a record more like the Lowell varsity—no wins this season. In this instance it might not be so well to tell a youngster to "Follow the Arrows". But they are playing hard and enjoying the sport of basketball even through they lost to Rockford Friday, 52 to 20. Larry Miller scored 8 points to be the high man. Knapp of Rockford had 21.

In their tournament game, with Belding, the boys lost 21 to 11. Mayou, with 4 points, was high man for Lowell; Spencer scored 8 for Belding.

Against the Grandville Bulldogs last Friday the Arrows again wound up on the short end of the score, this time 60-42. This defeat extends the current streak to fifteen, eleven this season.

Although the Arrows jumped to early 2-0 and 4-2 leads the Bulldogs soon showed their superiority as they rolled to an 18-14 first period lead. This lead they increased to 38-23 as the first half ended.

The Arrows continued to fall behind their taller opponents as they trailed 52-32 at the three quarter mark. Sparked by fresh blood from the bench the losers managed to outscore the victors in the final quarter.

Lowell 14 9 9 11-43
Grandville 18 20 14 8-60

Sophomore guard Chuck Ryder led the Arrows with eleven points, scoring in only the first and final periods. Len Fase and Orison Abel followed with ten apiece. Substitutes Tony Stormzand and Bob Minnie added 4 points each. Collins and Norton each had two. Wade and McKenney meshed 20 and 19 for the winners.

The Lowell reserves were again defeated as they bowed to the Grandville seconds, 73-37. Steve DeVries had 12 points and Dick Harris, eight, for the losers. Follow the Arrows.

Bob Thaler, rep.

What Will Be Site of Lowell Pool?

The Swimming Pool Committee members are actively investigating all of the site possibilities in Lowell, in an intensive effort to determine the most ideal place for the swimming pool. Readers are asked to keep watching the Ledger for a forthcoming article on "how a swimming pool site is determined."

The committee has also requested the heads of Lowell's many fine organizations to appoint "committee representatives," who will serve as liaison officers between their respective organizations and the Main Committee, with whom they will be kept in close contact.

Hot Lunch

If you are hungry for bar-b-ques, don't serve 'em for supper next Monday night, not if you have a youngster that goes to Lowell public schools and takes advantage of that tasty hot lunch provided in the new school kitchen. The week of February 11 starts out on Monday with bar-b-ques, cheese, carrot sticks and sliced peaches on the menu.

Corn and weiner casserole has been planned for Tuesday. Blueberry muffins and jello complete this lunch.

Some turkey and gravy with mashed potatoes will be served Wednesday. Apple sauce for dessert.

Thursday's fare will be goulash, an old favorite. Peanut butter sandwiches and pudding will go along with this menu.

Creamed tuna and peas on a biscuit will close the week on Friday. Salad and cookies complete this meal.

Milk with each lunch, of course, and it is also available for just pennies if your youngster carries a sack lunch from home.
