Emily Wade was a girl who had always dreamed of buying a new car. Emily watched her pennies so when she saw a "medium-priced" car advertised for "only a few dollars more" than Ford she went to see it.

"My heavens," she gasped when she saw the car, "it doesn't even have automatic transmission; that's one thing I particularly need. And I do think power steering and power brakes dare a must." So Emily's dream evaporated. Then Emily stopped in to see her Ford Dealer an amiable (3) fellow, who showed her how to buy a luxurious said Emily. And she bought it right then and there. Now you know what Emily knows . . . for a luxury car, plus extras, at a sensible price, logic directs you to Ford.
