65th Amniversam

In the fall of 1892, A. L. Coons started a clothing business in the same location as the present store. There were four other small clothing stores in Lowell then, and the going was tough. But there were lots of loyal customers - some families have traded with us for three and four generations - and now we are celebrating our 65th Anniversary

To make the celebration a big one...

For 8 days Friday, Sept. 27 through Saturday, Oct. 5 we offer 2 large groups of suits:

In 1892...

Grover Cleveland was elected president the second time.

The G. A. R. had considerable influence in politics in these parts.

Main Street was deep with mud in the spring.

Most of the sidewalks were built of boards.

There were plenty of passenger trains through Lowell, but no paved roads.
