Ninety-Six Lowell Business Places to Report

This week over 96 business concerns in Lowell will receive the familiar annual request for a financial statement from Dun and Bradstreet. Since the early 1870's, businesses throughout the country, whether large or small, have received this request in January.

The Grand Rapids office of Dun and Bradstreet has sent this year, over 17,000 requests to retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers in Kent county and 24 other counties in its district. Across the country these requests number nearly 3,000,000, which when answered by business concerns, enables them to become better known to each other even though they may be located
