

Jens Yde to Tour East Before Return

Leslie, put him on the bus for Detroit, where he will spend three days with another family before meeting other exchange students in Michigan.

The American Field Service has arranged a tour of the eastern states, Jens says. He and the group from Michigan will travel through Ohio, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

From there they will visit Washington, D. C. for three days and have the opportunity to meet President Eisenhower. Climaxing his stay in the United States, Jens and the others will take a sight-seeing tour of New York City.

Jens plans to leave by plane for Europe with other American Field Service students on August 4. In attending meetings of the Rotary Club, his sponsor, Jens said that he had learned a lot about the town and United States. Through the school and his family, he has a better understanding of the American people and their way of life.

His only disappointment was that he didn't get a chance to see the western part of our country. "But," he said, "that will give me an excuse to come back for a visit some day."

Jens promised to write the Ledger occasionally to tell everyone what he is doing. Of course, he'd also like to hear from his friends here when he gets home to Denmark. His address is: Jens Yde, Colbjørnsvej 11, Naerum, Denmark.

A farewell party was given in Jens' honor last week to wish him a pleasant journey home.

Martha Stiff Arrives in Hameenlinna

Martha Stiff, exchange student, is expected to have arrived in Hameenlinna, Finland, by this time. However no letter has been received to confirm this. Martha took a train to Montreal and during the trip, she found that one of the chaperones was from Denmark and knew Jens Yde, exchange student in Lowell last year.

At Montreal the American Field Service students boarded the boat, S. S. Waterman, where a dance band was playing to greet them. During the voyage, Martha studied language, presumably Finnish.

Before arriving in Finland, she traveled through South Hampton, La Havre, Rotterdam, and then to Stockholm, where the group spent a day sight seeing. She and 56 exchange students who went to Finland, crossed the gulfs of Bothnia and Finland on the ferry. She went to Helsinki and then took the train to Hameenlinna, where Martha met her family, Mr. and Mrs. Vaino Riski and their daughter, Paivi, 17 years old, and Jarkko, 21 years old.

Teenagers Attend Summer School

When high school is over in June, most students breathe a sigh of relief and forget about school for another three months. But some two dozen Lowell High School teenagers decided they wanted to study this summer.

There are some, of course, that have to make up subjects that they failed in school, but a good many of them are seeking advanced credits, said Stephen Nisbet, a summer school instructor himself.

The summer school where Mr. Nisbet teaches government is at South High School. Here Lowell students from junior high up through 12th grade are studying trigonometry, typing, government, English and scores of other subjects.

Altogether at South High, they have 1000 students—the largest class ever.

At East High School, the Honors Institute for Young Scientists is in session. Byron Floyd, who will be a senior next year, is studying chemistry there on a scholarship. Sharon Story has enrolled in a review chemistry course at Grand Rapids Junior College.

Most of these courses last for six weeks, two of which are nearly through. When these teenagers are finished with summer school, most of them will have a feeling of accomplishment that they have broadened their knowledge—and besides that, there will still be plenty of summer left.

Mike Wood Will Enter Annapolis

Mike Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood formerly of Lowell, will enter the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis on June 29. He was one of 1,000 chosen from a group of 5,000 applicants throughout the country. These 1,000 had the highest scores on a written examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood and their daughter, Margaret Ann, live in St. Clair, Michigan.

Herman J. Hagen, 66, Dies in New Orleans

Herman J. Hagen, husband of the former Pearl Pottruff of Vergennes, died Tuesday, June 17, at their home in New Orleans, Louisiana. Mr. Hagen was 66 years old and death was attributed to heart conditions.

Mr. Hagen was a member of "International Traders" and was engaged in import and export business.

He is survived by wife, Pearl Pottruff Hagen; daughter, Mrs. Ted Caldwell, jr., and three grandchildren of Midland, Michigan; two sisters, Mrs. Manley Osogood and Mrs. Charles Hutzel, both of Ann Arbor.

Graveside services will be held in the Alton Cemetery, Sunday, June 29, at 2 p. m.

Red Cross Offers Tips to Swimmers

Swimming is the most popular sport in America today. But it is also a sport that takes a dreadful toll in lives every summer.

The American Red Cross has issued a list of ten safety tips to help people stay afloat and stay alive, designed to make swimmers conscious of the major causes of drowning. A. W. Cantwell, national director of Red Cross Safety services says "no one needs to drown if common sense is used."

The Kent County Chapter, American Red Cross, released today the ten safety precautions suggested by Cantwell:

1. Make sure you know how to swim properly.
2. Swim with another person or where someone nearby could give you help.
3. Swim in a safe place that has lifeguards.
4. Know the area you're swimming in. Check first for depth and submerged rocks.
5. Know your own limitations. Don't go beyond the safety limits or your own ability.
6. Don't swim right after eating, when overheated or over-tired.
7. Don't panic in case of trouble; float with your head up, treading water, and call for help.
8. Keep safety equipment in boats and canoes.
9. Stay with your boat or canoe if it overturns; it will probably float even when filled with water.
10. Don't put too much horsepower on your boat. Too much power makes boats hard to control and may cause accidents.

Jaywalking was costly in the U. S. last year—2,600 were killed.

Sam Ryder Farm is Site of Wheat Growing Contest

An eight-acre field on the Sam Ryder farm, three miles northwest of Lowell on Bailey Drive, is the scene of a test plot for a special wheat project sponsored by the Farm Bureau Services and the Kent County Agent. Shown here in the field of shoulder-high wheat are left to right: Asst. Farm Agent Dick Reath, Sam Ryder, owner of the farm, and George Fansler, representative of the Farm Bureau. Three different quantities of fertilizer were used on this test plot after two and one-half tons per acre of lime was applied last August. Analysis of the area shows a marked difference in the heads of the wheat in each test plot.

Here are representative heads from the wheat in the Ryder test plot.

No. 1 head was given 100 pounds of 0-25-25 fertilizer to the acre; No. 2 head is from the plot that received 200 pounds of 5-20-20 to the acre. No. 3 head is from the test plot sponsored by the Farm Bureau that received 600 pounds total spring and fall application of 5-20-20.

On the special test plot, 320 pounds of 5-20-20 was used in planting and a spring application of the same amount giving the test plot a total of 640 pounds of fertilizer to the acre.

Examination of the field now finds that the wheat is the same in most of the field but that the plot receiving the extra amount of fertilizer shows a marked difference in the head.

George Fansler, a neighbor of Mr. Ryder on Bailey Drive, is erecting a sign on the test plot to see if any farmers in the area are interested in inspecting the field.

A second test plot in Kent County is located on the Eldon Smith farm near Caledonia.

A special wheat growing project sponsored by the Farm Bureau on the Sam Ryder farm northwest of Lowell is beginning to show traces of the special attention a one acre plot in an eight acre planting was given.

One acre in the northwest corner was handled according to the recommendations of the Assistant County Agent Dick Reath and the Farm Bureau Fertilizer Department. This plot was plowed in June of 1956 when corn stalks were turned under. It was disked and dragged several times and soil samples were taken to the county agents office. Two and a half tons of lime to the acre was recommended and applied on August 22, 1957. Also advised was 300 pounds of 5-20-20 to the acre. Mr. Ryder used 200 pounds of 5-20-20 apportioned to the plot and 100 pounds of 0-25-25 on the balance of the field.

On the special test plot a new variety of certified Genesee Seed wheat was planted; on the rest of the field Mr. Ryder used a registered variety of Genesee Seed Wheat.

Each morning, following flag-raising, the girls will divide into units, corresponding to their Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups, for roll call and announcements. Next will come an activity period for each unit. Nature hikes will offer opportunities to collect and identify specimens, and the older girls will be taught fire building, the construction of hobo stoves, and outdoor cookery.

Each girl will create some article in handicraft classes, and will also receive instruction in first aid and baby care. Active games will also be a part of the program, some of Indian origin being played. Thus, Camp Fire Girls will be able to earn honors in Outdoors Craft, Home Craft, Creative Arts, and Sports and Games, while the Blue Birds will be playing and learning "just for fun."

At noon the campers will eat their sack lunches at their unit centers. Several tents will be set up in the vicinity of the large cabin to serve as rallying points for the units.

Following lunch, a half-hour of "quiet time" will be observed, with the time being filled with songs, stories, discussion of the early days of the Indians around Lowell, and practice in Indian sign language. From 1 to 2:15 there will be another activity period, followed by a brief closing program and flag-lowering.

Girls who have not turned in their registration blanks and fifty-cent fees to their leaders or to Mrs. David Coons should do so immediately. The Scout bus will pick up campers at the Runciman Elementary building at 9:45 a. m. each morning, and will take them back to the school at 2:30 each afternoon. Each girl should provide her own lunch and money for milk, if desired.

NOTE ITEM IN MAGAZINE ABOUT REV. E. J. COCHRAN

The friends of the Rev. Edgar R. Cochran who was a pastor of the Lowell Congregational church for several years, will be interested in the following item in the Michigan Advocate under "Conference Notes."

"An unusual case was that of Edgar R. Cochran who had left the Conference in 1919, but asked to be reinstated and transferred to the Ohio Conference for purposes of retirement. He had been serving many years as a chaplain and was not asking the Conference for any pension benefits. "His reinstatement was being asked for sentimental reasons. Mr. Cochran was present and expressed gratitude for granting his request."

At present, there has been an indication that 44 steers will be exhibited, but they would like about 70 good ones.

William Rupp, secretary of the association, said that this year an exhibitor or farm will be allowed to show three steers in a class rather than two as in past years.

Those interested in the livestock show may contact Mr. Rupp at 728 Fuller Avenue, N. E., Grand Rapids 3, Michigan.

State Police Hope for Better Safety Records During July 4th Week End

Good as the Memorial holiday week end traffic record was, State Police are hoping for even a better record over the Fourth of July week end, and are going to do their part to help bring about that result.

While the remainder of the nation was reaching a new high in traffic deaths for the Memorial week end, Michigan's total was less than the year before with only 12, or one every six and one half hours.

Last year's Fourth of July toll was one death every five and one-tenth hours, or 20 for the 102-hour period. Because of the shorter week end this year, the death toll will be computed over a 78-hour period beginning at 6 p. m. Thursday, July 3, and ending at midnight Sunday, July 6. The worst Fourth of July in the last eight years was in 1953, with a death every one and nine-tenths hours, or 28 in the 32-hour period.

Plans Completed For Sidewalk Day

Plans have been completed for "Sidewalk Day" to be held here tomorrow, Friday, reported Business Promotion chairman, Marian Avery. More details are found in the Board of Trade's ad this week on another page.

ACE Plating Company Robbed Again!

The ACE Plating Company on Tuesday, June 23, was broken into about 1:30 or 2 a. m. Tuesday. About 2700 pounds of nickel was stolen. A hole was broken in the side of the Queens building with a sledge in order to enter.

The irony of the theft is, they stole Fay's '56 blue and white

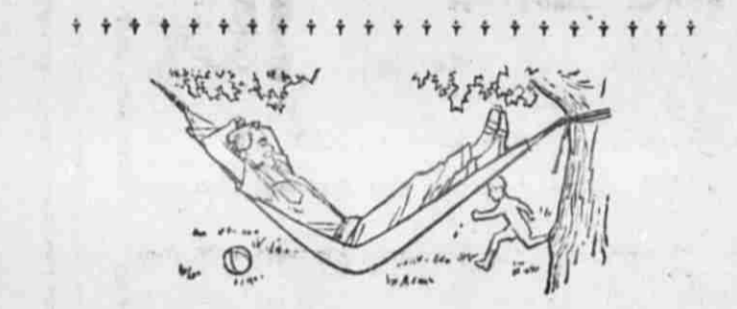

IT'S NOT TOO LATE.

A corn crop uses two pounds of nitrogen to each pound of available phosphoric acid and each pound of potash. If your corn plants are not as large as usual at this date—call us for Mathieson Anhydrous Ammonia, 82% nitrogen, for side-dressing. Make sure your corn crop has enough nitrogen—Mathieson Anhydrous Ammonia—the nitrogen that feeds corn quickly and constantly because corn digests it and makes protein with it so easily.

OLIN MATHIESON CHEMICAL CORPORATION PLANT FOOD DIVISION

A YOUNGSTER WALKED into a drugstore and asked for a job. "What's your name?" asked the druggist. "Alexander Graham Bell," replied the boy. "I guess that's a pretty well-known name, son." "It ought to be," said the boy. "I've been delivering groceries in this neighborhood for two years now."

EVEN ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL himself (the inventor, not the delivery boy) couldn't have guessed how important his invention would become to us. The phone plays a part in just about everything you do. Take your vacation, for example. When it comes you'll want to be able to relax and enjoy yourself. So take care of all the worries beforehand, phone ahead to make all your reservations or let friends know when you'll arrive. It'll be such a weight off your mind and for such a small cost!

A GROCER FRIEND tells us the story of a lady who called him about an order. "Please bring some of your snap beans to the phone," said the lady. The grocer, who takes everything in his stride, complied. "Now break one," she commanded. He did, and a sharp "pop" went over the wires. "Fine," said the lady, "send me three pounds."

THE REASON WE mention this incident is to show that there isn't any end to the telephone's usefulness. Every day someone hits on a new way of saving time and money with the phone.

Kill Crabgrass With Chemicals

Lawn owners can take another swing at crabgrass with chemicals before the grass gets more than two inches high this summer, according to Buford Grigsby, weed control specialist at Michigan State University. Several chemicals can help rid lawns of crabgrass. These include phenyl mercuric acetate and disodium methyl arsonate. Trade-name formulations of these chemicals vary, so follow directions for amounts and number of treatments, reminds Grigsby. Crabgrass cannot be controlled quickly or even in one growing season, the specialist emphasizes. A control program extending over several years will probably be necessary if the infestation is heavy. The key to success is to prevent plants from setting seeds that will grow the following season. If seed production is controlled, the supply in the soil will be used up and crabgrass will no longer be a serious problem in a lawn, Grigsby says. Also, crabgrass doesn't do well when shaded. Practices, such as fertilizing and proper mowing, to encourage thick growth of the turf grass will help keep crabgrass out of the lawn.

Food Buying is Steady; Large Purchases Slow

Consumers seem to be in a cautious mood now. They're spending for food, clothing and other necessities, but are holding back and shopping around before buying larger items, says Eunice Pardee, extension specialist in home management at Michigan State University. The business recession of today can be traced, in part, to people resisting price rise. Big items like cars, houses, refrigerators and new furniture are moving less rapidly than last year, adds Mrs. Pardee. People seem to be shying away from taking on debt at the present time. Payments on installment debt are greater than the amount of new loans. It looks like some people are learning that debt can often be a burden. They also seem to be putting an increased value on savings as they are putting more money into savings bonds now. Borrowing to build or buy a home should be cheaper in the months ahead than it has been. With a period of business decline, college graduates won't find jobs as plentiful this year as in the past several years. And high school and college students are going to have less opportunity for summer jobs, too. Another interesting note is the decline in marriages—they're 14 per cent lower this February than last. The birth rate has leveled off, too. Although it's still on the increase, population growth may be less rapid in another year. Population growth seems closely related to prosperity.

TV NEWS

NO FUTURE? ? ? Ed Sullivan, celebrating the completion of 10 years on TV, recalls the early days of television. Soon after his series started, Ed went to Hollywood to recruit talent. A producer told him that there wasn't any future in TV. "What are you gonna do for programming after George George, the wrestler, retires?" the producer asked. All Hollywood reactions were about the same, Sullivan reminisces. "Of all the big names I talked to in Hollywood only George Burns realized the potential of television. It was six months before I could persuade any star to appear on my show."

VITAL STATISTICS As "Matinee Theater" approached its 650th, and last performance, producer Albert McCleery translated some of the show's history into statistics. McCleery says that the written material used for the 650 productions totaled over 4,000,000 pages, weighing almost 30 tons. He adds that he and his 70-man staff have conducted 30,000 interviews, hired 7000 actors, built 4200 sets, used 210,000 props, made 15,000 costumes, consumed 1 1/2 tons of eye shadow, answered 33,000 fan letters and drunk 9000 gallons of coffee.

TV BRIEFS: Robert F. Lewine, NBC program vice president: "There will be more quiz shows this summer than last season, but fewer than last fall than in the summer." Gail Patrick, producer of the "Perry Mason" series, of Erie Stanley Gardner: "He's written so many mysteries he's suspicious of everybody."

Maize Hayes, about Ed Sullivan: "There's a wonderful thing about Ed. You have the feeling that man really appreciates you."

WARNING: The U. S. Census Bureau estimates that by 1975 American women will outnumber men by more than 2.5 million. "Help!" said one. "A shark has just bitten off my leg." "Which one?" inquired his anxious friend. "How do I know... all sharks look alike to me."

July 4th Program Off to Gala Start

Michigan—the "Water Wonderland"—isn't without water problems. Prof. Karl Lagler of The University of Michigan Department of Fisheries said recently: "Just because every Michigan license plate advertises the state as a 'Water Wonderland' doesn't mean it has no water problems." About 15,500 cups of coffee could be brewed for every resident of the state with the amount of water Michigan uses daily. With the multiplied demands of growing industry and population, the need for water is increasing at a fantastic rate. Michigan's problems aren't caused by a shortage of water, but rather with distribution of the abundant resource. Prof. Robert Dils of the U.M. Department of Forestry and a specialist in water resources, chimed in with Prof. Lagler. He pointed out that Michigan is second to no state in water resources. CHIPPEWA—The county was named for the Indian tribe of the same name. Organized in 1843.

Plan Fireworks, Baseball, at Ada For July 4 Fete

The Ada Fourth of July celebration will begin at 7 p. m. at the Ada Athletic Field. Two baseball games will be played to start the evening. The games scheduled are: Quarry Baptist vs. Ada Merchants; the second game is Lowell Moose vs. Ada Merchants II. A fireworks display will follow sponsored by the Ada Fire Department and the Ada Merchants, will conclude the celebration. The grandfather was telling the boy tales of the old West and how Billy the Kid had killed 21 men by the time he was 21 years old. "Gosh, grandpa," said the youngster, "What kind of a car did he drive anyway?"

Rev. Lester Cobb officiated at the ceremony in a church decorated with pink and white poinsettias and gladioli, in the presence of the immediate families.

For her wedding, Miss Geldersma chose a yellow net floor-length gown over tulle with a shoulder length veil. She carried a white Bible topped with red rose buds with streamers of satin ribbons.

Mrs. Faith Anderson, friend of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Mike McDonough, cousin of the bride, was best man. Mrs. Anderson wore a blue net dress over tulle and carried a bouquet of roses.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in Alto. Mr. and Mrs. William Fairchild of Alto, served as Master and Mistress of Ceremonies.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Virginia Daniels, Mrs. Helen McCaul and Mrs. Marilyn Onan.
