mind that comes from giving their children "phone home money" whenever they go out. One mother puts it this way: "Phone home money is as important for children as a handkerchief. Often they want to go somewhere straight from school. It's such a comfort to me to know that they'll phone me first. And from the children's point of view, help is now always as near as a public call booth."

WILL MOM MAKE IT? Will she downstairs to the phone before it stops ringing? Will she slip or trip on the way? And afterwards, when the panic has died down, will-you perhaps decide that Mom deserves a special gift - an extension phone in her bedroom, handy to the bathroom, so that she never has to rush again. Call the Busine Office, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, TAIKING OF bedroom extensions, we've just heard of a man who sprained his thumb when he stumbled, on his way downstairs to answer a nighttime phone call. Shortly after, he had a bedside extension installed. But guess what happened the very next time he had a late phone call -he was all the way downstairs and groping for switches and muttering to himself before he realized that there was now no need to stir from bed!

WITH ALASKA ONE OF "us," a lot of flag makers are going to be busy with needles, thread and extra stars. Talking of flags, did you know that the world's largest belongs to Michigan-or more exactly, to the J. L. Hudson Company in Detroit. Its vital statistics-height 104 feet, width 235 feet, weight 3/4 ton. The oldest existing American flag can be seen at the museum in Old Bennington, Vt. The first flag to use the stars and stripes design was made by Betsy Ross in her cottage in Philadelphia (now a national shrine). The design was approved on June 4, 1777.
