

Lowell School Opens August 31st; Conferences, Scheduling Start Monday

There are many problems in connection with the opening of school on Monday, August 31—the earliest opening in years—due to the appearance of Labor Day September 6. Whether to open early and close early in June or to open later and close a week later in June was a problem given careful consideration by the Board of Education, and the Board left the decision to a vote of the teachers who preferred the earlier opening.

Book Store will be open for the sale of books starting August 17 from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Monday through Friday, and will continue until school opens.

Mr. Nisbet will be in his office to confer with new students and parents regarding their fall schedule. Former students who have changes in their schedules should also report at this time.

that the rooms will be in readiness by the second semester. This means however, that there will be some inconvenience for parents and some children for the first semester. Some grades will be large. The Kindergarten will be on the same schedule as last year when there were three sections. All of the outlying schools will be operated for the first semester and it is likely that some children will have to be transferred to other buildings, than those they attended last year. The Junior High School will appropriate another high school room—but this will be offset by the remodeling of the quarters used by the agricultural department making it possible to use one room for general purposes.

Special Education Room

The State and County funds are available for teaching some children who need special attention and a room must be found for that purpose. The County will pay for one of the rooms located in the addition to the Runciman Building and the teacher—who must have special qualifications will be paid, largely from County and State funds. A few Lowell children will be asked to attend special classes in Forest Hills Schools—as children from that district and other districts will come to Lowell. Definite assignments of children will be announced later.

Problems—Housing

The contracts for the construction of the addition to the Runciman Elementary structure will be let on August 26th and it appears

Lowell Boys Take On Pre-Season Drill

With football season just around the corner, Lowell High boys are starting to get in shape. Each night if you were to go down to Recreation Park, you would find some 25 boys running through a pre-season practice session strictly on their own.

According to the Michigan Athletic Association, a regular practice with a coach may not be held until the last day of August. But with the first game just a month away, the boys have taken it upon themselves to get in shape before the regular practices start.

Charles Pierce, varsity coach, announced that the first season practice will be held after the first day of classes, August 31. A meeting for all boys interested in playing and their parents will be announced a little later this month, Pierce said.

Assisting Pierce with the Red Arrows will again be Don Kelly, however, Dirk Venema, new elementary school principal, will not be coaching. Coaching the reserves will be Bob Perry, while Art Bieri will be taking over the freshman team.

Ten returning lettermen will give Lowell a strong line this year, Pierce said, but our backfield will be a little thin. He also stated that it was far too early to make any prediction concerning the 1959 season.

Limit Use of School Buses

A request by Bill Nowak and Bill Uetschewy who have been leaders in the Little League Baseball program here this summer for use of Lowell School buses to take team members to Detroit Saturday, September 5 to a baseball game, was denied on a 3 to 2 vote of the board, Walter Gumsir, Superintendent of Schools, explained the position of the state on use of non-school connected activities being permitted to use school buses, revealing that it was frowned upon although it was not specifically prohibited by law. The split decision of the board will set a definite policy of not allowing any group outside of school to use the buses.

Receive Bond, Money

The school district Monday received a check for $138,067.12 for the sale of the school bonds issued to construct the addition to the Runciman Elementary School. These funds were ordered deposited in the State Savings Bank. Bids will be opened by the board on Wednesday, August 26 for the construction.

Announcement will be made as soon as plans are completed.

Lowell Little League All-Stars Play Saranac

Last Thursday evening the Saranac Little League All-Stars defeated the Lowell Little League All-Stars by the score of 9 to 2 with the aid of some shoddy fielding by the local boys. The game was well attended with as many Saranac fans as local fans.

On Thursday evening of this week the local All-Stars will play a return game at Saranac with the game starting at 6 p. m. All local All-Stars will meet at the ball field at 5:15 p. m. and will leave here at 5:15 p. m. The game at Saranac must start on time as their field is not lit.

City Incorporation Popular Change

Survey of villages in Michigan that have changed to cities in the past ten years reveals that change to city government has been a popular one. In no case has there been any change where the benefits have not met with the citizens approval. The three things keeping more Michigan villages from the change, Michigan Municipal League reports, is the requirement of 750 minimum population, the second reason, is the lack of knowledge on the part of village residents as to the advantages of city incorporation. The last but an important reason is human inertia and opposition to any change.

In nearby communities Hudsonville and Cedar Springs, the change has been made but not without effort on the part of its citizens. In both communities several votes were taken before approval was secured.

The case in Lowell appears much the same, the August 31 vote will be the third for the community. The first in 1936, the second in 1958. The last vote showed that the community was ready for the change by the overwhelming yes vote in the village. The vote August 31 will be confined to all village residents but for a very few fringe area citizens. For the exact boundaries of the proposed city see the election notice published on another page.

City Advantages

Many would like to have the city advantages reviewed; these were all printed at the time of the 1958 vote but bear repeating.

- 1—Simplification of Government
- 2—Single Assessor
- 3—Single registration for elections
- 4—Representation on Board of Supervisors
- 5—Provide expanded primary judicial system
- 6—Great powers to provide public services
- 7—Appoint all administrative officials
- 8—Longer terms for elected officials
- 9—Make savings through modern council-manager operation
- 10—Provide for the adoption of a charter that is tailored to the wishes of the citizens.

Council Acts To Repair Bridge; Build Sewer

A special meeting of the Council on Thursday, August 6 with Village Engineers, Williams and Works, the council authorized the plans for rebuilding the walk area on the bridge, and construct 3 blocks of sewer on Jefferson. The walk area on the burned out part of the bridge, caused by the Jan. 2, 1958 fire has been an eye sore for some time, but the council delayed taking action against property owners as long as there were plans for building in this section. Immediate steps will now be taken to put up a retaining wall to hold up the sidewalk; the State Highway Department has agreed to extend the cement and steel railing when the foundation work has been finished.

Sewer Health Hazard

Williams and Works will also put out plans and specifications for three blocks of sewer on Jefferson Street from Avery to North. Bids will be taken as soon as possible. This section of 8-inch sewer has long been a bottle-neck with a 12 inch line on Jefferson above North Street and a 20 inch at Avery. This has caused the small sewer to back-up waste into basements and streets. Construction of the addition to the Runciman Elementary school compounded the problem so that immediate action was necessary.

Improve Water Supply

The Village engineers are also being asked to complete testing for additional water supplies for the community. Test wells and pumping will establish whether the area checked two years ago south of Recreation Park near Grand River will produce a good water supply. If not other sections will be explored, to give the town a sound water source and prevent curtailment of sprinkling such as is happening this year.

Engineer Streets

There have been many complaints of citizens on north Jefferson street about the grade of the road after the sewer construction two years ago. To satisfy as many as possible the village engineers are being asked to survey the street and produce plans to put back to the original location. Work was also authorized on Division Street and on James Street by the council to plan for improvements in the near future.

therefore, that in the past seven years under President Eisenhower the cost of living has risen only 3.7 percent or an average of 1.4 percent each year.

In contrast, from 1947 through 1952, there was a 50.9 percent increase in living costs while from 1952 to 1954, the Consumer Price Index went up by 28.7 percent.

Sound and responsible federal fiscal policy contributes to a sound economy and a stable dollar. President Eisenhower has led a vigorous battle against inflationary legislation and has had to veto proposals that would inevitably increase the cost of living.

Michigan presently is planning 1076 miles of new road in the federal interstate system. On July 1st, 204.2 miles were opened to traffic and 108.8 additional miles were under contract for 1959.

Letters and telegrams coming into my office during the past week indicate a serious concern by many of our people with the recent decision of the Committee on Ways and Means relative to financing the federal government's share of the highway program.

The Labor Day week end is almost here and so is a chance to get away for that final summer fling. It may be a bit crowded at hotels, motels and lodges so it's a good idea to think ahead and call ahead for reservations. It's so easy to do. And it can save you so much trouble, too—unless you enjoy riding around until late in the day to find a vacancy sign. So remember that resolution you made last summer and phone ahead now.

To help you determine the amount of time for roasting, figures are given for roasting, and about ten minutes per pound and

This check for $6,959,679.73 from Michigan Bell Telephone Company will be distributed among school districts throughout the state. The money, earmarked for the state primary school fund, represents Michigan Bell's largest single state property tax payment in history.

Let the meat thermometer tell you if the roast is done to perfection for those who like their beef rare, medium, or well-done. Boned and tied rolled rib roast in U. S. Choice class is excellent for barbecuing.

Part of the season, home grown potatoes are now at local markets selling for around 7 cents a pound. Because they are the first of the season, they will be a little feathery.

There's home grown sweet corn too, and home grown escarole or endive which can be added to the tossed green salad for 15 to 20 cents a bunch. Some stores sell cabbage by the head, others sell by the pound. Either way, cabbage costs around 5 to 8 cents a pound. One average size head will usually weigh between 2 1/2 to 3 pounds. Easy on the budget, cole slaw teams well with barbecued chicken.

Rid Closets of Clothes You Don't Wear. A good slogan for your wardrobe is "every garment in service," suggests Bernetta Kababak, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State University.

Your clothing inventory can guide your clothing purchases in the future, and it can help every garment in service.

At least 26 Michigan children under 14 have died from tractor accidents since 1950. Pfister says too many people feel a natural pride in their tractors. The tractor when he's six to ten years old. Such young children just don't have enough skill and judgment to handle a complex $2,000 machine.

This over-all look can lead to a coordinated clothing plan for you, too. Maybe a new skirt will put forgotten blouses and a jacket into service again. Maybe a new shirt and scarf will perk up a dress. Perhaps a few alterations will revive an old suit.

What the St. Lawrence Seaway Means to Every Michigan Citizen

One of man's greatest dreams—the St. Lawrence Seaway—is a come true. What will it mean to Michigan—to our town—to you and me?

Although the full impact of the Seaway, in the terms of greater industrial wealth for the great mid-west area, may not come for another decade, according to business experts, its effect already is being felt and a greater future is clearly in sight.

Just about everyone in the business and industrial pictures concedes the Seaway means a big boost in the business and industrial economy of the Great Lakes states. There is no limit to the amount of material ships from the ocean trails may bring to harbors and ports or take away from these cities to nations overseas and American cities along the coast.

The potential for industrial and commercial development resulting from the Seaway is enormous. The Muskegon Chronicle said recently, "The translation of potential into fact is up to us."

The statement sums up very well the challenge that faces Michigan communities. The opportunities of the Seaway are not limited to those towns and cities along the Great Lakes, Indiana cities, who have the right industrial atmosphere and community spirit to nurture industry, will be able to move their products to and from the Seaway ports by truck or rail and still capitalize on the advantages offered.

The cities that will prosper in the future due to the Seaway are those which get busy, now and develop the community get-up-and-go spirit it takes to build a bustling community, the kind that attracts and encourages industry.

What the St. Lawrence Seaway means to Michigan and its communities, is stressed in an industrial development advertisement entitled "Our Passport to Progress" which appears in this newspaper today. It is another in a series of industrial development advertisements sponsored by the Michigan Economic Development Department which appear in this and more than 300 other Michigan newspapers as a public service.

Officers elected were Gordon Ferguson, President; Kenneth King, Vice-President; Mrs. Robert Walker, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mrs. Claud Slixoo, Historian. The reunion plans to meet next year at Francis park in Lansing.

Methodist Church News. The Commission on Christian Education will meet Friday, August 14, 1959 at 8 p. m. at the church. Rev. Reynolds' sermon topic for Sunday, August 16, at all churches will be "The Magdalene," the fifth in the series, "Faces About The Master."
