St. Patrick School Observes Education Week

Observance of Education Week at St. Patrick School, Parnell, was demontrated by members of the Junior and Senior Civics Class who held timely discussions and debate on education in our schools, including school aid, and the offerings of college at the present time.

Terry Nugent led the discussion on school aid as a controversial question in Michigan at present. Bob McCarthy and Jim Wittenbach favored more federal aid so that the less populated communities could have school opportunities equal to any region but they were shown the danger of this procedure. It was generally agreed by the student that teachers' salaries should have spent much on the preparatory education Bob Malone agreed with the idea of many that our schools have 'watered down' subjects to meet the needs of the vast majority, and by doing this have failed to place emphasis on the basic subjects, such as mathematics and history. To climax the program the students viewed slides on "How Strong is Russia?", "Ways Our Laws Are Made", and "Duties of a Juror" operated by Carrol Matulis.

HOW CAN SHUT-IN boys and girls keep up with their school work? One successful solution has been Michigan Bell Telephone Company's School-to-Home telephone installations. Even though a child is in bed, he can still take part in the lessons of his own class. He can ask questions and recite as if he were in school. Two-way speaker units make this possible. "OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOOD, To grandfather's house we'll go . . ." How long has it been since you recited that poem in school? It's called "Thanksgiving Day," and it was written in the last century by Lydia M. Child. Things certainly have changed since then: today instead of a sleigh ride, you can often get to grandfather's house in a few minutes by car. But if he does live too far away to visit, and you'd like to remember him on Thanksgiving Day, there's no better way to do it than with a leisurely Long

Michigan's Big Tourist Industry Sells Much Food

Tourists spend a lot of money

In fact, research shows that 28 cents of every vacationing dollar spent in Michigan goes into food, according to Robert McIntosh, Michigan State University tourist and resort specialist.

For example, tourists bought 38 million dollars worth of food in the upper peninsula in 1957. That's about 28 percent of all they spend while on vacation there. So U. P. tourist income for the year totalled 140 million dollars-one-fifth of the state total.

Michigan grossed 650 million dollars from the tourist business in 1958, according to the Michigan Tourist Council. McIntosh says the state's farmers sold about 740 mil-

First Congregational Church HUDSON AND SPRING STREET

Sermon Title: "The Blessings of Adversity"

(Temporarily Meeting in City Hall)

The answer to every community's problems is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and His saving gospel. It is the business of the churches of the community to proclaim that grand old gospel, or that community will suffer spiritually, morally, socially and economically. Colossians 2:3: "In whom (Christ) are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge."
