Monday night stars (bottom, left) will be Sue Pierce, 14, and Vicki Hampton, 15, tap-dance duo from Grand Ledge, who perform part of their number on a pair of silver-colored chairs. Rounding out the week, "Ron-da," a lovely, 8-ft., dancing chanteuse (bottom, right), will entertain the capacity audience at the Saturday evening performance. A great crowd-pleaser at the amateur night show, "Ron-da" is a double-decker Flint team comprised of Ron Thalhammer (below) and Dave Reno (on top), both of whom are 18. think Michigan Bell serves in our state? The first three people we asked guessed "five hundred thou-sand," "two million" and "a million." Before you make your guess, here's a clue: in 1935 there were already more than half a million. Well, today there are almost three million! This shows how your telephone company has been building to bring modern, complete telephone service to you-when and where you need it.

EVER HEAR OF A TELEPHONE FARM? It's not like most farms because what's "planted" there by Bell Laboratories' engineers doesn't grow. But the farm does help us analyze and improve various types of underground telephone equipment. Into acres of ground go some 11,000 different items - wires and cable for example -that must be engineered for many years of dependable intervals of from 1 to 32

THE INSIDE STORY. "What do they carry in those little green telephone trucks?" you may have wondered. Well, each truck carries some 400 separate items-from an extension ladder to screws and plastic wood. Every one of Michigan Bell's more than 2,000 installation repair trucks is stocked in the same way. In an emergency, where trucks must be rushed from one part of efficient one-stop service when he visits your home.

Citizens met lest Thursday for their monthly coffee session at the YMCA, Mrs. Emma Klumpp brought along a photo of her daughter, Mrs. Harold Lind, and other members of Mrs. Fred Hosley's Sunday School class, taken on Island Park, a once-popular picnic spot on the Flat River below the Main St, bridge, Now no longer used, Island Park was the scene of religious revivals, baptisms, lodge reunions, band conventions, general picnicking, and the gatherings of family clans. Composed of a series of three islands, with approaches to each from the mainland, Island Park featured picnic tables, swings, and a bandstand where concerts were held each Sunday afternoon before large crowds, But the building of the railroad bridge over the end of the main Island made it rather unsightly, high water caused damage to anything of a permanent nature, and the park gradually fell into disuse, a forgotten symbol Comstock had replaced the state property tax with a sales tax that in a few years was piling up huge surpluses in the state treasury.

The state had refused to help the schools and municipalities, and in desperation the sales tax diversion had been put on the ballet for the state treasury.

Is just as much need for safety and convention is much more important than many citizens appear to realize. It is possible that a revision of the present constitution can preserve the best of our state found it desirable to live where they can have elbow room and enple.
