Religious, But Not Christian

There are many people who have a great deal of religion and yet are not Christians. They put in their "holy hour" in church every Sunday morning. They sing the hymns of the church. They give their offering. They may even sing in the choir, and they may even teach a "Sunday School" class, They can do all this

A man named Nicodemus came to Jesus one night. He was very, very religious. He was one of the rulers and teachers of the Jews. He was also a Pharisee, a strict observer of the Law of God. Yet Jesus told this man; "You must be born again or you will not enter, you will not see the Kingdom of God." Nicodemus needed the lifechanging power of the Holy Spirit in His life and he needed faith, personal faith in Jesus Christ, the Savior. So does everyone. Salvation is not your good works, but
