What's better than Miehigan maple syrup passed on to the white settlers and has been handed down through the generations.

The term "sugar bush" always used to amuse the uninitiated. It referred to a stand of maples where trees were tapped, sap gathered and boiled down to a syrup stage, And of course, a "sugaring off" party was the right consistency to dribble on snow and form a waxy bell.

Maple sugar was made from part of the syrup, but usually the bulk of it was kept for winter pancakes.

Today, few farm families make their own syrup, It's done by a

Where Do You Stand?

The Bible tells us that when Jesus was crucified there were two criminals crucified with Him, one on His right hand and the other on His left. For a while both mocked the Savior, but later one repented and believed in Christ, saying, "Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:42,43.

Yes, both were simers. One on the right hand and the other on the left. One repented, believed in Jesus as his Savior and went with Jesus to God's paradise. The other remained impenitent, unbelieving, and was lost forever. Where do you stand at the cross? With the repentant, believing sinner, or with the impenitent, unbelieving one?

"What will you do with Jesus Neutral you cannot be Someday your heart will be asking What will He do with me?
