Organize Council With Townsend Mayor Discuss Main Street Improvements

The new City Council met Monday night with Dean Manigold and Phil Schneider in attendance for their first duties as members of the city council. The council re-elected Ralph Townsend mayor, and Arnold Wittenbach, mayor pro-tem in organizing for the coming year.

New Main Street Sidewalks
Bids were received for construction of new sidewalk, curb and gutter in the 300 block of East Main Street, on the north side of the street. Low bidder was Lowell Construction Co., at $2,359.50.

Discussion on the project centered on cutting 3 or 4 feet off the present 16 feet of Main Street sidewalk to add room in the highway. This would require moving the street lights and perhaps the gas main shut-off valves which are located near the curb.

Also under discussion was extending the project to both sides of Main Street from Washington Street to Hudson Street in a project for this portion of the business district. The Council revealed that if this was desired the promotion would have to come from the Chamber of Commerce and the businessmen involved.

The Planning Commission will discuss the project at their meeting on Monday, April 22.

A hearing was also held on special assessment districts on West Street and Beach Street for sewer extensions. There were no serious objections and the projects are awaiting the approval of the State Health Department. The City Manager also received approval to replace the water main in the alley between Riverside Drive and Broadway Street.

Crash Fatal To Sikke Roorda, 44

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Roth Funeral Home for Sikke Roorda, aged 44, of 723 North Washington Street, Lowell, who was fatally injured in a 2-car accident on M-21 east of the Ada Bridge, Friday evening, April 12.

The Rev. Arthur J. Verburg, pastor of the Ada Christian Reformed Church, officiated at the services and interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mr. Roorda was dead on arrival at Blodgett Memorial Hospital where authorities said he suffered multiple body injuries.

The accident happened when a car driven by Jacob Bast, 35, of 634 Adams Street, S. E., traveling west on M-21 made a left turn in front of the Lowell-bound Roorda vehicle driven by the victim's son, Andy, 16.

Kent County prosecutor, Roger Boer, authorized a warrant Saturday, charging Bast with negligent homicide. He is being held in the Kent County jail. Bast told sheriff's deputies that he was turning left into Les' Bar to purchase cigarettes.

Seriously injured in the crash was Mr. Roorda's wife, Christina, 43, who is in the intensive care ward at Butterworth Hospital with multiple injuries; their daughter, Tena, age 11, in fair condition at Butterworth Hospital with a jaw fracture and possible head injuries; and Andy, a fractured leg and body lacerations. He is in good condition at Blodgett Hospital.

All the members of the Bast family were taken to St. Mary's Hospital where the mother, Dorothy, and daughter, Jay, 13, were treated and released. Mr. Bast was treated for an ear laceration.

Admitted to the hospital were Richard, 12, possible head and neck injuries; Debbie, 10, observation; Sandra, 8, injured elbow; and Danny, 5, right leg injury.

Mr. Roorda was born April 28, 1916, in the Netherlands and moved with his family to the United States seven years ago. He was employed at West Michigan Nall and Wire Company, where he was recently promoted as shipping clerk. He was a member of the Ada Christian Reformed Church.

Besides his wife, Mr. Roorda is survived by two sons, Andy and Tena; two daughters, Sally and Tena; all at home; and his father in the Netherlands.

Health Dept. Urges Septic Tank Care

There is a saying that whereas the bathroom used to be outdoors and the kitchen inside the house; the reverse is true today. If you live beyond the reach of municipal sewers, the desirability of using your backyard for cookouts this summer may depend on what you do to your septic tank in the weeks to come.

Septic tanks need "spring cleaning" every two or three years according to Dr. W. B. Prothro, City-County Health Officer.

The reason septic tanks need cleaning is because the tank is actually a reservoir for solids. When these solids begin to fill the tank they may be carried over into the drain field. This, in turn, causes a clogging of the soil and failure of the drainfield.

Septic tanks in densely populated areas are poor substitutes for municipal sewers and treatment plants. They do only a minimum job of treatment and due to the use of modern detergents have increased the pollution of many wells.

Lowell ladies in the Easter parade wore more corsages this year than every before local florists reported. Over 100 orchids were sold by one florist and some 600 carnations were used in other floral displays.

Churches reported double the usual attendance; most held extra services.

The sonic boom of a passing jet shook Lowell Thursday afternoon bringing citizens running into the streets. They only damage reported was the shattering of a 6 x 8 foot plate glass window at the House of Townsend on West Main Street.

An attempt is being made to pin-point the responsibility for the damage caused by the Air Force jet.

Joe Vargo of Grand Rapids thought he had put out the fire in his car seat Saturday night, before entering the Riverview Inn.

Lowell firemen were called to extinguish a blaze which destroyed the interior of his car, later in the evening.

The light rain which fell early Wednesday morning was a sign of relief for the local fire fighters, in hopes that the wet ground will quench any possibilities of a grass fire breaking out.

Last week the local unit was called out for five different grass fires. One was started by a train along the railroad tracks, while other were started by people burning debris which got out of control.

Dedicate New Juvenile Home

After years of effort on the part of officials, civic organizations and individual citizens, the new Kent County Juvenile Court Center has become a reality. The new building, which will replace the antiquated "Children's Home" on Walker Ave., N.W., is located on a fifteen acre plot of ground at the corner of Cedar and Ball Streets, N. E. in Grand Rapids. The address is 1501 Cedar Street N.E.

This facility will house all of the services of the Juvenile Court, including Court facilities, administrative offices, probation services, separate living units for forty-five delinquent boys and girls requiring detention, educational unit, recreational areas, dining and food service facilities and a clinic to provide medical and dental care. It has been designed to aid the Court in offering individualized justice, positive help and secure custody to children in trouble with the law and themselves.

The Juvenile Court Center was built at a cost of approximately $1,000,000. It is completely paid for, the money having been voted overwhelmingly by the people of Kent County in a special millage proposal on April 6, 1959. It is anticipated that the building will be put into operation about May 15.

The Juvenile Court and its Citizens Advisory Council urge all of the citizens of Kent County to visit the building during open house from Friday, April 19 through Tuesday, April 23, 1963. The hours will be 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. daily.

Guides will be available to answer questions.

A fire late Monday evening destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seeley and family on 36th Street, south of Lowell. The local unit was called at 9:30; and was later joined by the department from Cascade.

A 2-stall garage and breezeway were completely destroyed by the blaze and the interior and exterior of the house was badly charred. Firemen battled the blaze for almost two hours, before it was completely brought under control.

Mr. and Mrs. Seeley and their three children were not home when the fire broke out. Neighbors who discovered the blaze turned in the alarm. The flames could be seen for miles around.

An estimated $5,000 damages was done, but officials have not determined the origin of the fire.

Arrow Nine Wins Over Ionia 9-4

The Red Arrow baseball team came home from Tuesday's double header at Ionia with a victory and a tie.

The first game closed at the end of the seventh inning in a deadlock. In the second game the Red Arrows slugged out a 9 to 4 victory.

The opening game featured tight pitching. Lowell's pitching chores were shared by sophomores Paul Kropf and John Kerekes.

Air tight pitching by Senior Ron Raymont and hefty hitting highlighted the Lowell victory. Raymont pitched the first four innings and allowed just two scattered hits.

Lowell scored the first run in the third inning when shortstop Bob Elzinga walked and scored on outfielder Craig Walters' long hit to left center.

Sophomore Paul Kropf hit a home run over the left field to increase Lowell's lead to 2-0 in the fourth inning.

Videan held Ionia in check in the 6th and 7th innings to become the winning pitcher. Duane McIver, Paul Kropf, and Craig Walters each produced two of Lowell's ten hits.

The baseball team will play again Friday at home against Lake Odessa at 4:15.

Local Cancer Drive Now In Progress

Nineteen sixty-two marked the 25th anniversary of the enactment of the National Cancer Institute Act and the launching by the ACS of its first national wide public education campaign out of which was to come a broad program of education, research and service through voluntary support.

Twenty-five years ago only one-in-seven cancer victims was being saved. A few years ago only one-in-four was saved. One cancer patient in three is now being saved. These statistics bear out the value of these programs launched in 1937.

In Kent County, our public education volunteers have shown 82 films to clubs and organizations. Letters were sent to clubs, P.T.A. groups and service organizations acquainting them with the educational materials available. The National Cancer Institute estimates that the elimination of the cigarette habit would eventually reduce lung cancer deaths by more than 60 percent from the present level of 37,000 annually.

Newest campaign nationally is that aimed at colon-rectal cancers, striking 70,000 Americans every year and causing more deaths than any other cancer. Seventeen percent of all cancers diagnosed in Kent County are colon-rectal cancers.

Scholarships are provided each year for qualified Medical Technicians to study the staining and reading of Papanicolaou smears. There is an ever increasing need for technicians with this training since the number of smears read has increased from a little over 200 a year, 7 years ago, to nearly 25,000 this year. The curable cases of cancer detected with the Smearex Test in Kent County has increased from 9 in 1956, to 54 in 1961.

The many Service projects of the Unit require the recruitment of hundreds of volunteers. Responsible for this recruitment were Mrs. R. D. Siegel of Alto, Rural Chairman of Volunteer Activities, and Mrs. Robert Bylenga, City Chairman of Volunteer Activities.

The many units are Cancer information center, surgical dressings, loan closet, visiting nurse, medications, transportation. Center keeps a permanent registry for all the Grand Rapids Hospitals. The records have been coded and put on IBM cards. The total number of cases listed in the Central Cancer Registry is 7,027 as of January 1, 1962. One hundred and ninety-one were children.

The local drive is now underway sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Lowell and "Lights On," will be held on Monday, April 22. Please be ready to receive the volunteer worker who calls on you.

Home Economics Digest

Remember the old saying, "I never smell a small that smell like that smell?" To smell flowers that smell is mouth watering. When the season starts, get ready with net, pins and needles and take to the waters for a good smell dip. Whether you dip smelt or buy them, they're best eating when fresh. The delightful flavor of smelt is due to the oil in the fish, and this flavor is lost as the oil evaporates. So use them quickly. Since smelt are small about seven to eight inches long it takes a lot of them to satisfy a real smelt lover, so be sure to buy or dip plenty. Paced with a mess of smelt to clean, the novice is often appalled by the number. Really, it isn't so hard, if you work fast. You don't have to scale them, for scales are small and delicate. Just use the head of a kitchen knife to remove the scales. Then, if you work fast, you can remove the scales in a few minutes. That's the secret. It is to, except washing thoroughly and refrigerating until time.

Lowell Council Proceedings

Regular session, Monday evening, April 1, 1963, in the council room of the City Hall.

Council was called to order by His Honor Mayor G. Ralph Townsend at 8:02 p. m. and the roll was called by the Clerk.

Present: Councilman Wittenbach, Marsh, Schlemmizer, Mayor Townsend.

Absent: Councilman Myers.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Marsh, supported by Wittenbach, that the minutes of the March 18, 1963, meeting be approved as corrected (the first paragraph on Page 4 having been amended) (Councilman Myers entered the meeting).

Yes: Myers, Marsh, Townsend, Schlemmizer, Wittenbach, 5.
No: None.

The clerk read the following list of bills payable:

General $6,627.70
Water & Sewer 1,110.66
Deposits since last meeting of March 18, 1963: 22.75
Water & Sewer 22.75
Agency Fund 369.20

COMMUNICATIONS

1. Wolverine Electric Cooperative request for easement. (See MOTIONS)

2. Proxy request from American Home Assurance Company. (See MOTIONS)

3. Letter from Lowell Area Schools re access streets and sidewalks. Read, tabled for future meeting awaiting information from Automobile Club of Michigan.

A resident from the area of Hudson and Spring Streets was present in the interests of speed control on Hudson Street. City Manager Olson will contact the County Sheriff's Department and Attorney Vander Veen stated that since this is TIME AND PLACE FOR A PUBLIC HEARING ON A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE ZONING ORDINANCE, he would like to inform Council of his findings on a study of the proposal. He stated that he had drawn up a new ordinance which would create four new commercial classifications, coming under the "Commercial and Light Manufacturing" zoning. This ordinance does not attempt to spell out the boundaries; it does not say where these types shall be. It spells out what will be permitted in each of these classifications. He has brought it before the Council for whatever disposition they may wish to make of it. Several copies had been distributed to Council members.

Mr. Vander Veen stated that he had contacted Planning Consultant Bagby's office in an effort to learn what a "Commercial Reserve" area would be. Mr. Bagby described something like what is described at the Planning Commission meeting and stated that the City of Wyoming had such a classification. Contact with the City of Wyoming disclosed that it had no such classification and

Attorney Vander Veen's opinion, that it would not be legal for two reasons:

1. It sounds like "strip" zoning, which is unconstitutional.

2. It might deprive a property owner of his constitutional rights in the use of such property.

He recommended against considering further the classification called "Commercial Reserve," at least for the present. If it is pursued, opinion and recommendations should be procured from both the Planning Commission and the Zoning Board of Appeals and from Mr. Bagby and perhaps something could be worked out along similar lines in the overall plan which Councilman Bagby will present. (See MOTIONS)

Councilman Schlemmizer related it appears that M-91 was to be rerouted into Saranac and suggested further contacts with the State Highway Department. Manager Olson will contact the Planning Department of the MSHD.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Marsh, supported by Schlemmizer, that the bills payable be allowed and warrants issued in the various amounts.

Yes: Marsh, Wittenbach, Schlemmizer, Townsend, Myers, 5.
No: None.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Schlemmizer, supported by Marsh, that the Wolverine Electric Cooperative request for easement on property adjoining the Boy Scout Cabin be granted conditionally on its removal of brush and leaving the premises in the same condition in which they found them.

Yes: Schlemmizer, Townsend, Myers, Marsh, Wittenbach, 5.
No: None.

IT WAS MOVED by Councilman Marsh, supported by Schlemmizer, that the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS THIS BEING THE TIME AND PLACE FOR A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE MATTER OF A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE ZONING ORDINANCE, which would create four new commercial classifications; and notice having been published; and

WHEREAS no one has appeared in opposition to or for the adoption of such ordinance; and

WHEREAS it is the general consensus that any rezoning should be made after completion of a master plan by our Planning Consultant;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the matter of adopting an ordinance to amend the present zoning ordinance be tabled for future consideration along with any new ordinances that may be suggested by Planning Consultant Bagby.

Don't Answer Child With, "Don't Know" Encourage Him With, "Let's Find Out"

When your child asks a question you can't answer, do you say, "I don't know," and let it go at that?

Or do you add, "Let's find out?"

If you don't, you should in order to encourage the curiosity and joy of discovery every child needs to become a curious, logical citizen.

And to help foster the curiosity of the child—and the ability of parents to help their children—two departments of the National Education Association have published a new booklet called Your Child and Your Curiosity: A Handbook for Parents. Publishers are the Department of Elementary School Teachers and the National Science Teachers Association. The booklet was written by Glenn O. Blough, professor of education at the University of Maryland.

Science teaching in the elementary school, which could cure the rote learning of the studies of plants and animals, can no longer be limited, the booklet points out, for the world of children has become infinitely more complex than it ever was before.

The world they see firsthand, listen to on the radio, and read about, is broad and complex. It is as wide as from the atom to the rocket, from the earth to the farthest star.

But why start science in the elementary school? Why so early?

The booklet explains that science helps teach children how to solve all kinds of problems—not just scientific ones. It helps develop a scientific attitude of making decisions on the basis of facts. It helps them to broaden their interests and appreciation, not solely of scientific things.

How can parents help? The booklet lists these suggestions:

By actively listening to the child's comments and questions, and reacting to them.

By being interested in the child's activities and letting him know of your interest.

By helping him learn to observe his way things happen, and to draw conclusions from them.

By taking him with you, even on routine errands to the gas station or garden shop, or better yet, on special trips to the zoo or aquarium.

By providing materials for learning—perhaps an encyclopedia, or microscope, or guidebooks to animals or plants.

By checking up on the school science program, and backing plans for improvement.

By joining the child in scientific studies, helping him find the sources to answer his questions.

By inviting the child to join you at gardening, raising tropical fish, collecting rocks, or some of the other scientific pursuits.

By providing space for the child to work out his experiments, keep his collection, build his apparatus.

Attorney Vander Veen's opinion, that it would not be legal for two reasons:

1. It sounds like "strip" zoning, which is unconstitutional.

2. It might deprive a property owner of his constitutional rights in the use of such property.

He recommended against considering further the classification called "Commercial Reserve," at least for the present. If it is pursued, opinion and recommendations should be procured from both the Planning Commission and the Zoning Board of Appeals and from Mr. Bagby and perhaps something could be worked out along similar lines in the overall plan which Councilman Bagby will present. (See MOTIONS)

Councilman Schlemmizer related it appears that M-91 was to be rerouted into Saranac and suggested further contacts with the State Highway Department. Manager Olson will contact the Planning Department of the MSHD.

Housing Changes As Family Does

Housing for changing families means housing that meets the needs of the family in each stage of its life cycle. Evelyn M. Hillis Duval told a Farmers' Week audience at Michigan State University Thursday (Jan 31).

Dr. Duval, Chicago family life consultant and author of "When You Marry," said the seven stages are: the newly-weds; the child-bearing families; the families with pre-school children; families with school children; families with teenagers; families with young adults; and the empty-nesters.

By being interested in the child's activities and letting him know of your interest.

By helping him learn to observe his way things happen, and to draw conclusions from them.

By taking him with you, even on routine errands to the gas station or garden shop, or better yet, on special trips to the zoo or aquarium.

By providing materials for learning—perhaps an encyclopedia, or microscope, or guidebooks to animals or plants.

By checking up on the school science program, and backing plans for improvement.

By joining the child in scientific studies, helping him find the sources to answer his questions.

By inviting the child to join you at gardening, raising tropical fish, collecting rocks, or some of the other scientific pursuits.

By providing space for the child to work out his experiments, keep his collection, build his apparatus.

Each stage, she noted, calls for housing that meets different needs.

The parents need a place to call their own, out of the adolescent bubble.

"It houses were designed for family living," Mrs. Duval stated. "There would be flexibility—a design that would grow as the family grew, adapting itself to new tasks and activities, functions and values step-by-step through the life cycle."

A thing of beauty sometimes proves to be an expense forever.

Important notice to drivers regarding: the UNINSURED MOTORIST

For 5 years the
"Citizens' Man"
has offered his policyholders coverage that pays for both property damage and bodily injury loss caused by the uninsured, irresponsible motorist

This coverage can be added to any Citizens' private passenger car policy for just $7 per year. If the policyholder is involved in an accident caused by an uninsured, irresponsible motorist who cannot pay for his liability, Citizens' will take care of its policyholder's damages the same as if the motorist were actually insured. Ordinarily no deductible applies, the loss is covered from the first penny up. And this coverage not only protects in ordinary cases but covers if the uninsured driver is from out-of-state, and in cases of hit-and-run, excepting only that a fifty-dollar deductible applies to property damage in the case of hit-and-run.

While this saves our policyholders from loss, it does not absolve the uninsured driver from his rightful responsibility; for Citizens' goes on to pursue the claim through all legal means.

Did You Miss Easter?

Last Sunday was Easter Sunday. Did you miss it or did you really observe it? You missed it if Easter to you was simply comprised of Easter bunnies, Easter bunnies, Easter chicks, Easter eggs, or the Easter ham you may have had for Easter dinner.

You may have even missed it if you went to church for the wrong purpose. Thousands of hypocrites went to church last Sunday. Many churches were forced to hold two services because of them. They went to show off their latest finery or to appear respectfully religious. Next Sunday they won't be there and they won't be back until next Christmas or next Easter.

Then, too, some people went to church but missed Easter because they failed to hear a message of the Christ who arose physically from the grave as victor over the grave, not only, but also over sin, and death, and hell.

Or did you truly observe Easter by worshipping the risen Christ and can you now say, "O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." I Corinthians 15:55-57.

Defending track champion, Bob Knight of Grand Rapids kicked off the 1968 racing season by roaring to victory in the action packed 10-mile feature race for super modifieds Saturday night at the Berlin Raceway, before an estimated 4,000 fans.

Knight took over the lead on the seventh lap after race leader Jack Smith of Grand Rapids and chief challenger Nolan Johnson of Hastings locked wheels. The mishap sent Johnson careening out of contention and Knight into the lead, finishing ahead of Wally Sanders, Smith, Ralph Baker and Dick Carter.

Heat race winners in the super modified class were Gordy Johnson of Hastings, Sanders, Baker, and Dick Carter who proved to be the fastest of 52 qualifiers.

The first race of the season at the one-half mile Marne oval saw Baker, Knight, Don Schippers, Johnny Logan, Sam Sessions and Gordy Johnson tangle with the concrete retaining wall. Wayne Burkhorst of Zeeland climbed up a light pole and flipped his race car. All drivers escaped injury.

Scott Presley of Grand Haven proved the class of the modified sportsmen cars capturing the 25-lap main event over Rich Senneker of Grand Rapids and Duane Cottrell of Muskegon.

Winners in the heat races for the sportsmen were Bud Meyerling, Huram and Ray Lockwood, and R. J. Presley.

Lowell drivers participating in the action in the modified sportsmen field were Hugh Linkfield, Ralph Lawrence and Jim Thompson.

The only local drivers who have yet to get their cars ready for this season are Nelson Stormsand, and Ed Marshall.

Paul Howell outdrove other top contenders in the strictly stock division.

Heat race winners in the stricties were Al Hagen, Marv Blain, Wenger and Matise. Larry Lawrence of Lowell finished 5th in the main event.

Marking his first start in the midjets, former super modified driver Jack Lindhout had a successful night by winning the 20-lap feature, and his heat race.

Doc Bair held down second place in the feature, and also won a heat race. The fast car dash for midjets was won by Bob Zommerhuis.

F.B.I. Report Points Out Need For Locking Car

A criminal is not easily deterred by inconvenience; nor is he likely to become discouraged by temporary setbacks. If the commission of a crime is his goal, he usually achieves it. If the crime is auto theft, it may be accomplished with little or no effort.

American automobile owners operate what amounts to a "red carpet" service for car thieves. Perhaps in no other violation does negligence by the victim contribute more to the criminal act than it does in larceny, including auto theft. Much of the time, the thief merely enters the unlocked car, starts the motor with the key found in the ignition, and drives away. It is not surprising, therefore, that the total number of auto thefts in 1967 was 9 per cent greater than the 1961 figure.

In 1962, an all-time high record of some 350,000 automobiles, valued at $290 million, were stolen. An alarming percentage of these cars were left with keys in the ignition. For example, two 13-year-old youths recently went on an interstate car-stealing spree, stealing 8 motor vehicles in 2 days. In each instance, the keys had been left in the ignition.

Last year, persons under 25 years of age made up about 86 per cent of all arrests for auto thefts. Significantly, approximately 54 per cent of all persons charged with auto theft were referred to juvenile courts. Who is to say where the major fault lies for these shameful figures involving American youth? What are the causes of such folly? One indisputable fact stands clear. Careless and lazy drivers who fail to properly secure their automobiles are inviting young people to break the law.

Joy rides and neighborhood jaunts by young people in stolen cars are not prankish capers of restless youth. They are crimes—costly, dangerous and senseless violations. To the law enforcement officer, they represent even more. From experience, he recognizes the problem as a prelude to more violent crimes and the launching of criminal careers.

The ease with which automobiles are stolen is astonishing. To hoodlums and professional gangs, who rely heavily on "hot" cars for their nefarious activities, appropriating a suitable vehicle is considered a very minor phase of otherwise elaborate and complicated criminal schemes. Most veteran bank robbers use stolen cars to aid their escape from crime scenes. Thrill thieves and juvenile gangs which steal cars for stripping and resale of parts are increasing. Car theft rings continue to flourish.

Certainly, law enforcement must reassess its efforts to combat auto thefts. The motoring public must come to know that through indifference it not only contributes to but also condones the problem.

Poisonings Hit Kent Children

"Inquisitive youngsters will eat and drink just about anything", warned City-County Health Director, Dr. W. B. Prothro, in recognizing the approach of National Poison Prevention Week, March 17-23.

"Of the 763 accidental poisonings in Grand Rapids and Kent County in 1962, 86 percent were among children aged 1, 2, 3", Dr. Prothro said.

"The toddler is the most poison-prone of any age group", the Health Director added. "He has the ability to get hold of things but lacks the judgement as to what he can or should not put in his mouth. It's surprising what horrible tasting stuff a youngster will swallow".

Medicine of one kind or another was the principal causative agent in 66 per cent of all cases with aspirin being the leading offender. Other common child poisoners include household articles such as cleaning agents, mothballs, toiletries, perfumes, fuel oils, and some houseplants such as the dieffenbachia.

OWNING YOUR MUNICIPAL POWER SYSTEM ... like owning your home!

If you're buying a home, every monthly payment adds to your ownership... gives you something more than a stack of rent receipts. It's about the same story with your consumer-owned electric utility. As your electric system grows in value, you get the benefits—because you are a citizen "stockholder". The money you pay for electricity stays at home, and every dollar of it works for you—through better electric service, reasonable rates, increased assets of your local electric utility, and contributions to your local government. And, just as in owning a home, local consumer ownership of your electric utility means local management and control. Municipal ownership keeps the benefits of a growing asset in the hands of home folks.
