Urges End of Endmen's Blackface To Prevent Negro Demonstrations

suggested that the endmen who traditionally sail on the Robert E. Lee be taken out of their blackface make-up and zoot suits and put into the garb and guise of Kentucky Colonels, thereby eliminating Showboat's "affront to the Negro race."

Norm's suggested change met with little enthusiasm.

spread, and each year larger and larger crowds have flocked to Lowell to attend the event.

People like the Lowell Shi boat. They like the type of entertainment it offers each year. They come from all parts of the state and from every state of the union to witness its sailing.

To meet the ensuing demand for seats, the Showboat Corporation has had to run the Robert E. Lee six nights instead of the original one planned in 1932. Seating facilities have had to be expanded from a few riverside bleachers to a huge bank of permanent grand- blackfaced white men at all, but stand seats.

Without the Showboat leading the way, Lowell's industrial expansion might not have progressed as rapidly as it has. Nor would the Boy Scouts, Lions Club, and other civic groups have reaped its many benefits.

Should success be tampered with? Should the Lowell Showboat be asked to change its tried and tested formula?

If every suggested change were put into effect, there would be no Showboat—no "World's Greatest Minstrel Show Under the Stars." Some people don't like the band in the bow of the boat; some do. Some like the calliope; some don't.

Some want more animal acts: others want more tap-dancers; and still others think hiring professional talent is a waste of time and money. Some even think amateur entertainers make the Showboat worse than a bad night in front of the TV set.

And, balanced against those who think the endmen's antics are the best part of the show, there are people who are offeaded by the color of the grease paint which the endmen wear.

To change, or not to change, then, is the issue facing the directer; and several nieces and nephtors of the Lowell Showboat-the ews. problem with which they have been faced since 1932, And down 1943 CLASS REUNION through all these thirty-some years SATURDAY, JULY 13TH they have consistently resisted any Lowell High School Class of 1943 attempt at changing the basic for- will hold their 20th reunion on mat of the show.

CAN YOU SAY THIS?

"My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness: I dare not trust the sweetest frame, But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

When darkness veils His lovely face, I rest on His unchanging grace; In every high and stormy gale, My anchor holds within the veil,

His oath, His covenant, His blood, Support me in the whelming flood: When all around my soul gives way, He then is all my hope and stay.

On Christ, the solid Rock I stand; All other ground is sinking sand." -Rev. Edward Mote

Can you, from the depth of your heart, say this? If you can, you are a Christian. If not, turn to Jesus Christ and become a Christian,
