Down Ionia 82-59 Lakewood vs. Lowell in tournament game here on Thursday evening

feated Ionia Tuesday night to open district tournament play here, 82-59. The game started slowly; after three minutes of play, the score was 3-4. Later in the first period, Ionia pulled ahead for the only time in the game and led 8-6. At the end of the first quarter the game was tied 13-13

In the second period Lowell's shooting improved slightly to give the Arrows a 38-27 lead at halftime. In the first half Kropf, McIver and Elzinga all made

The cast for the Junior Class play, "Pillow Talk", has been chosen after many thoughtful and difficult decisions by Mrs. John Bergin, director. Playing the part of Jan, a beautiful, young interior decorator, will be Kathy Tapley. Mel Byrne portrays Brad, the bachelor in the apartment next door, and Terry Ladner is cast as Jonathon, a client interested in more than her professional services. Pat Mullen will be Jan's maid, Alma; and Hope Foerester is Brad's maid, Bessie. Mrs. Walters, another client, is played by Candy Roth, with Noel Christoff as her son, Tony,

Myers plays the part of Periot, Jan's business partner. Brad's three girl friends-Yvette, Eileen, and Marie are portrayed by Jean Tower, Liz Reynolds, and Sheri Jones, respectively. From the telephone company are Sue Doyle as Miss Conrad; Suzi Thaler as the Supervisor; and Louise Grover as Miss Dickinson.

Will participate in safety check

State Police officers will be participating again this year in the motor vehicle safety check program conducted in many Michigan communities, according to Commissioner Joseph A

The national program is being offered for the tenth year in a row to communities in the 31 states which do not require such inspection. Michigan had 24 increase from 217 the year before, while there were 3,600 nationally

State Police safety and traffic bureau officers soon will begin contacting community officials to explain and encourage adop-tion of the program. Officers as available also will be assigned to the actual clinics, normalheld in May and June.

The program is sponsored by the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee and Look Magazine with the cooperation of he Association of State and Provincial Safety Coordinators. lichigan coordinator is Larry Burkhardt, of the Buick Division of General Motors, whose services for the period have been loaned to the Michigan State Safety Commission ansing.

Mr. Joseph Azzarello and Mr. P. M. Wendell Berman, as well as Mr. Bruce Walter, were present in the matter of sewer exten-sion on West Main Street, requested by Mr. Azzarello. City Manager Olson stated that in an effort to speed up requirements, if Council decides to make the extension, he has made an estimate of the cost. It was estimated at $5940 for 8" sewer, with 6" laterals for every 150 front feet. The manager recommended, however, that 12" sewer be installed and that the city participate in the total cost only to the extent of the difference between 8" and 12". Credit would be allowed, according to the recommendation, for laterals Lnot installed.

Mr. Berman first expressed the opinion that the City of Lowell should do everything possible to foster Showboat, stating he heard about Lowell first because of the Showboat. He then protested the recommendation
