Traffic cases pile up in justice Court; need jurors for trials nine jury trials requested on driving offenses. He said that he was awaiting a list of potential jurors, that has to be furnished by the Chief of Police. Five of the cases involve drunk driving charges brought by the Lowell police; two were added to the list this past week and one from the week before. One case has pending since March of 1962.

Verna Ruegseger dies in crash

Mrs. Verna M. Ruegseger, aged 58 of Route 1, Lowell, was pronounced dead on arrival at Blodgett Memorial hospital on Friday following a 2-car accident on East Fulton Road at Ada at 1:07 p. m.

Sheriff's deputies reported Mrs. Ruegseger lost control of her car while traveling west on Fulton Road, on the bridge crossing the Grand River. Her car reached the west end of the bridge before jumping the median strip and crashing into a car driven by Mrs. Hattie Wood, 26, of Grand Rapids, who was east bound on Fulton.

Mrs. Ruegseger suffered a crushed chest and multiple head injuries; she was traveling alone in the car.

Mrs. Wood and her 1-year-old son, Myron, were also taken to Blodgett Hospital for treatment of injuries. Mrs. Wood's two other children escaped injury.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruegseger were held at the Roth Funeral home on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Dean Blough of Alton Bible Church, was the officiating clergyman, and interment was made in

Born on March 24, 1905, she had lived most of her life in the Lowell vicinity. She was employed as a clerk at Frank's Dime Store, before becoming an encylcopedia saleswoman, Mrs. Ruegseger is survived by her husband, Frank; three daughters, Mrs. Lawrence Rich of Fenwick Miss Leola Ruegseger, a teacher in Tachikawa, Japan, and Mrs. Kenneth Thuston of Elkhart, Indiana; a brother, Alvin Lulham of Lowell; and five grandchildren.

Lowell City Justice of the Peace, Howard Rittenger, revealed on Monday that he has improper overtaking and passing offense; one speeding offense; and a case involving a ticket issued for crossing the centerline of the highway.

Justice Rittenger said that the drivers with minor law infractions, that have asked for a jury trial, have posted bond be-cause of their high point total. In the drunk driving cases, there is a manditory 30 day suspen-sion of license for being found guilty of this offense.

List Being Completed Police Chief Avery Block said Monday that he has compiled a jury list of the required 18 citizens and is getting it into the hands of Justice Rittenger. Trial dates will have to be set and the Lowell City Attorney present to prosecute the cases.

Police charge two men with drunk driving

Lowell police charged two more men over the weekend with drunk driving. Both pleaded not guilty in Justice Ritten-ger's court on Monday, and are being released on bond while awaiting trial.

Thomas M. Feuerstein, 20, Belding, was arrested at 2 a.m. on Sunday morning after being observed weaving around the highway. The arrest took place on M-91.

Early Monday morning police arrested Samuel H. Harris, 49 of Grand Rapids, 2 miles west of Lowell on M-21, after having followed him through the city and observing him weaving around the road.

This brings the total of drunk driving charges over the past two weeks to 5. The campaign against this cause, of more than half the fatal accidents, according to State Police and Secretary of State's reports, is part of the program instituted by Governor Romney, the first of

Your neighborhood Chrysler dealers

McQUEEN MOTOR CO. 222 West Main Street

You are protected with a warranty that's as big and solid as the Chryslers we sell. You can own a Chrysler for 5 years or drive it for 50,000 miles. You're protected all the way. That's over twice what you get on other cars. No worries about major repair jobs on the vital moving parts of your Chrysler. If anything does go wrong (and we don't think it will), the warranty pays for the labor. Pays for the parts. What's more-you get a bundle for your Chrysler if you trade before your warranty runs out. Because the warranty is still good for the next Chrysler ov.ner. Best protection your new car investment ever had. Stop in. (Our big car deals are as big as the warranty.)

"... And Was Raised For Our Justification"

In these two verses of scripture we have the heart of Good Friday and Easter. The Apostle Paul wrote these words to those who had become Christians by trusting in Jesus Christ for salvation.

When you become a Christian you will be able to make this personal: "Christ died for my sins and was raised for my justification."

Why not become a Christian today? Then you will be able to observe Good Friday -Pastor H. Buikema and Easter as you should.

Smith-Risher engagement told

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith of Saranac wish to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to Timothy Risher.

Miss Smith's fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Risher of Saranac.

The bride-elect will be a June graduate of Lowell High School. The prospective bride-groom is a member of the armed forces stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

An April wedding is being planned.

Note of Thanks

The Lowell V.F.W. Post 8303 wishes to thank all our members, our Auxiliary and friends who helped to make our Easter party a success.

The highlight of the evening was the surprise visit and entertaining of a local group who call themselves the "Moose Beatles" (P.S. They are all bedbugs.) This group, in its own inimitable manner, gave a fine performance and several encores were demanded by their audience. Our thanks fellows.

The following list of members and guests were the recipients of our annual Ham Party giveaway:-Ernest Smith. Don Souser. Mike Pratt, Verne Ouendag, George Rinard, Joe O'Brian, Gordon Hill, Tim Fickhoff, Hugh Onan, Darwin Hendrick, Stan Alexander, Tony Scalice.

In closing we wish everyone a pleasant and happy Easter. Sincerely, Jim Le Duc,

Chairman
