is It Old Fashioned To Believe?

Is it old fashioned to believe the miracles of the Bible? Well, if it is, then I'm old fashioned because I believe them.

ieve:
 The miracle of the virgin birth of Christ. Jesus changed water into wine. Jesus fed more than 5,000 with 5 loaves and 2 fishes. Jesus walked on the sea. Jesus gave sight to the blind. Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead. Jesus arose bodily from the grave. Jesus ascended bodily into heaven. 	-Luke -John -John -John -John 1 -John 1 -John 2 -John 2

Why is it necessary to believe these miracles? Well, you can't be a Christian if

These are the words which give the basic reason for Christ's miracles: "Many other signs (miracles) therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God: and that believing ye may have life in his name.

If you don't believe these miracles of Jesus, you can't believe that He is the Christ, the Son of God, and if you don't believe He is the Christ the Son of God, you are unsaved, lost! -Pastor Henry Buikema

Reception honors area newlyweds

About 55 friends, rieighbors, and relatives from South Lowell. Merriman, Bowne Center, Grand Rapids, Alto, and Ionia met at the Sweet School Wednesday night, May 27, to honor Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Yeiter, who were married recently.

Mrs. Yeiter was the former

Mrs. Everett Richardson of Lo-

This was a surprise for the couple. As they entered they were greeted with the familiar tune of "Here Comes the Bride," and were escorted to honor seats in the front of the room Community singing followed which portrayed the story of the happy event with Mrs. Keith Graham and Mrs. Walter Wieland leading.

Mrs. Graham then recited a poem especially for R. D. en-titled, "Nothing Suited Him." Mrs. George Wieland read three poems fitting the occasion. A purse was presented to the couple and then ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

Congratulations and best wishes for a long an happy married life were heaped upon the couple from everyone. All welcomed Mrs. Yeiter. The remainder of the evening was spent in visiting and renewing acquaintances

Regardless of how you cut the Michigan economic pie, agri-culture gets the second biggest slice. Surpassed only by the automobile industry as a source of income, agriculture represents a $791 million annual income for the states producers.

Gardening tips

(Note:—Each week under this heading the Lowell Show-boat Garden Club will, as a public service, supply Led-ger readers pertinent gardening tips.)

A compass or keyhole saw makes a useful addition to the gardener's tool chest. It gets into the smallest spaces and is ideal for thinning out badly overgrown shruhs.
