Council puts out 'help wanted' sign; while search continues

The search for a suitable re- water & sewer department and placement member of the Lowell City Council is still underway; members of the council have contacted several citizens but have not found a citizen who would accept the appoint-

Under the city charter the council must select a new member within 30 days after accepting the resignation of an elected councilman. It appears that public spirited citizens who are qualified do not want to serve on the city's governing body.

Accept Bid on Pump The low bid of Geiger for a new pump to be installed on the well on Foreman St. was accepted, the cost was $1,454 with delivery in 30 days. The city has been renting a pump for the past 5 months at a cost of nearly that of a new one. The city also authorized the manager to purchase a used air compressor, cement breaker, a clay spade and other equipment at a cost of $1,400 from Contractors Machinery Co. of Grand Rapids. This equipment will be used by the street department,

JV's and Freshmen win over Comstock

The Lowell Junior Varsity beat Comstock's Junior Varsity Thursday night 27-7. It was a game played in the most enjoyable weather for football the Junior Varsity has had this Comstock kicked off to Lowell and after Lowell moved the ball down field within the 20 yard line, a fumble took place with Comstock taking over on their own 10 yard line. On the next set of offensive downs Lowell scored on an off tackle play by Hillis Kauffman good for 10 yards. The extra point was good on a run by Craig Thurtell. During the second quarter, Lowell scored twice. The first one was on a pass play covering 15 vards from quarterback wood. This was the first touchdown this year by the JV's through the air. The extra point was good on a quarterback sneak by Collins. Just before the half, again a pass play connected. This time it was Kauffman throwing to Collins (the old transcontinental play) good for 50 yards. The extra point was good on a pass from Collins to Haywood. The half ended 21 to 0 in favor of Lowell. During the 3rd quarter, again Collins hit Haywood on a pass good for 10 yards and a TD. This time the extra point was no good.

The remainder of the game Coach Smith had a chance to play everyone on the team. Pete Manigold and John Dawson almost got loss for a TD. Comstock Park scored their TD the last minute of play on a pass that was good for 50 yards. Again the defensive team did a remarkable job Also it was noticed that the JV's have potential aerial game too. Chuck Grudzinshas made some final catches along with Haywood. The Junior Varsity played Ce-

Beatrice Uyterschout is bride of Lewis Marvin

The Rev. Kenneth Culver performed the double ring cere-Beatrice Uyterschout and Lewis Marvin on October 9 in the Lowell Church of the Nazarene, before an altar decorated with yellow gladioluis, bronze mums and candelabra.

"Because," and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Ilene Wood of Lowell, accompanied by the organist Mrs. Evelyn Wittenbach.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Uyterschout of Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marvin are the parents of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white lace over satin, with the skirt terminating into a cathedrallength train. A crown of pearls held her shoulder-length veil, and she carried an arrangement of white carnations on a white

Mrs. Helen Velting, matron of honor, and alss Louise Marvin and Shirley Marvin, sisters of the groom, bridesmaids, wore floor-length gowns of gold bro-caded satin. Matching circular headpieces and bouquets of yellow and bronze mums completed their ensembles.

Miss Lorna Wood and Miss Kimberly Marvin were the flowers girls, Larry Marvin was the ringbearer.

Benjamin Brooks of Wyoming

served as best man, and the groomsmen were David Peirson Jennings, and James Wood of Mt. Morris. Ushers were Don Lehigh and Tom Rash, both of Immediately following the cer emony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Methdosit Church. Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt, master and mistress of ceremonies, provided the program.

Following a northern wedding trip, they will reside on Jefferson Street in Grand Rapids.
