Overpower Cedar 56-0 Lowell looks to final two games

The undefeated Red Arrows are looking forward to their final two games of the season, both to be played at home. Friday night Caledonia, ranked third in the Expressway League with 3 wins and 2 losses will be here.

On Friday, November 6, Spar-ta will be here for the final game which determines Lowell's final standing in the Tri-River Conference, Sparta and Rockford with 3-1 records are behind Lowell with a 4-0 conference season, Sparta lost to Rockford last Friday 26-0.

Cedar No Metch In the game with Cedar Springs Lowell over whelmed a weak team 56-0 they had little offensive punch and no defense against the Arrow passes. Lowell scored three touch downs in the first priod to lead 20-0. McIver went 50 yards on a pass from Elzinga for the first score; McMahon plunnged over for the point. McIver blocked a Cedar kick on their 40 yd line and Beimers picked up the ball and ran in for the TD; Elzinga passed to Byrne for the point. Vidian set up the third score on a 61 yard run to the Cedar 7; Elzinga passed to Malcom in the endzone for the score; a plunge for point

"Unless there is a change, deep down, in the American people, a genuine crusade against self-indulgence, immorality, public and private, then we are witnesses to the decline and fall of the American republic

Death on the highways, a pack a day, cheating from top to bottom in our society, get rich quick, break-up of the family, faltering in foreign policy, reckless debt these have destroyed nations before us. Why should we think we can take that path and change history?

Look around you, and everywhere you see lack of principle and steadfastness in the right and brave. The disgraceful cover on the recent issue of a publication with a nationwide circulation and its palliating story of sexual immorality adds adult consent to the looseness of our youth, already far down the road of delinquency, shiftlessness, and derogation of virginity in our girls, who will be the mothers of tomorrow.

There is no financial morality in our Government — "Charge it" is the accepted

Here is a scripture verse which we as an American people may well heed: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

God save our land, our nation! -Pastor H. Buikema

Constance Place weds Bruce Eaton

The First Methodist Church, Midland, was the scene Satur-day night, October 17, of the wedding of Miss Constance Lucilie Place to Bruce DeLano Eaton.

The bride is the daughter of Lester Place of Route 2. Loweel, and the late Mrs. Place. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Austin K. Eaton of Midland,

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Place wore a bridal gown of imported embroidered organza accented with a fitted bodice, rounded neckline and elbow-length sleev-es. The floor-length, bouffant skirt was enhanced with a rose topped by a bow and streamers at the back waistline. She carried a bridal veil of imported English illusion secured to a rose and bow adorned with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white stephanotis and gold cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Lawrence Aulf, the matron of honor, was attired in a gown of peau suede fashioned with a fitted bodice, basque neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The floor-length skirt had a back motif of reversible panels. The face veil of illusion in a shade of antique gold was secured to a double rosette with pearlized center. The matron honor carried a semi-cascade gold carnations and bronze mums accented with croton fol-

Robert Weaver was the best man. Richard C. Place and Bruce Place, brothers of the bride, served as the ushers. Charles Noneman sang "A Wedding Benediction," and the 'Song of Ruth."

After a honeymoon trip to Wisconsin, the newly-weds will reside at 2512 Damman Drive,
